HISTOR Y and ANTIQUITIES

OF

The County TOWN

AND

HUNDRED of BUCKINGHAM.

CHAP I.

Of the County, Hundred, and Town of Bucks.

HE County of Buckingham, which receives its Denomination from the Town of Buckingham, is one of the least Shires in England; there being only Five that are reputed to be of lesser Extent.

It is, as our Authors inform us, 138 Miles in Circumference, and contains about 441,000 Acres, and 18,390 Houses.

It is, however, much more populous than many other Counties, having in it 216 Churches and Chapels, and 16 Market Towns; tho' some of them are of small Account.

The chief Rivers are the Thames, Ouze, Colne, and L'ousell.'

Its Length from North to South is about 40 computed, and 55 measured Miles; and Breadth from East to West in the utmost Stretch about 18 Miles; tho' 'tis in general so narrow that in Five computed Miles any Person may go out of it into some other of these Counties by which it is bounded, viz. Berks, Oxford, Northampton, Bedford, Hertford, Middlesex.

The Antient Inhabitants in the Times of the Romans were the Cattieuclani: And in the Saxon Age it was Part of the Kingdom of Mercia, and has been, ever fince the Foundation thereof, Part of the Diocese of Lincoln, and included in the Archdeaconry of Buckingham, excepting Six Parishes, (two of which which are Peculiars to the See of Canterbury, and Four have been subjected to the Diocese of London since 1541.)—The several Parishes of the County except Monks-Risborough and Halton, are comprized in the following Deanries viz. Buckingham, Burnham, Mursley, Newport, Waddesdon, Wendover, Wycombe.

In the Time of the Normans, in the Survey began to be made by William the Conqueror, Anno Regni 14, 1080. it was divided into Eighteen Hundreds; but these are now reduced and reckoned only Six, viz. Aylesbury, Ashenden, Buckingham, Cottslow, Newport, and the Chiltern Hundreds, as they are commonly called; tho' they are still known by their antient Appellations, viz. Burnham, Deshorough, and Stoke.

But as this Account is limited to the Hundred and Deanry of Buckingbam,

I shall confine myself to treat only of that in particular.

This Hundred (now so termed and accounted) was originally before the uniting or contracting of it, about the 9th of Edward II, 1316, under these three several separate Divisions, viz. Rovelai, Stodfield, and Lamua.

The former of these Places received its Name from certain Grounds called Rowley Hills, in Lenborough Lordship, in the Parish of Buckingham.

The Second, as I conclude, was from Stow, a Parish universally known.

And the Third from an Hill near Steeple Claydon Church; where are the Remains of some Intrenchments.

In the first of these Hundreds, viz. Rowley, were comprehended these Parishes, viz.

Barton,	Chetwood,	Preston,
Beachampton,	Edgcott,	Tingwick,
Caversfield,	Hillersden,	Ibornton.
•	And in Sted or Stef	ield
Akeley,	Lilling ston,	Shallston,
Bittlesden,	Moreton,	Turweston,
Foxcot,	Ratcliff,	Water-Stratford,
Lekbampstead,	Stow,	Westbury.
-	And in Lamua
Addington,	Padbury,	Thornborough,
Marshe.	Steeple Claydon	Twyford.

Bucking bam was surveyed distinct by itself: and Adstock was then included in Wotesdon or Waddesdon now Asbendon Hundred.

As I have given the Names of the Hamlets belonging to these Parishes and the old Manner of Spelling them in Doomsday Book, under each respective Parish, I have therefore here chosen to exhibit all the said Parishes as they are now called, and have ranged them in alphabetical Order, where the Churches are seated.

These Hundreds seem to have been established according to the Limits of their Jurisdiction, which, as Sir Henry Spelman observes, extended to an Hundred Sureties for the King's Peace.

Thefe

These Sureties, from their Number, were sometimes called Hundredarii, and were subject to a Superior called the Lord of the Hundred; who appears, not so much to have acted in his own Name, as to have been the Sheriff's Representative.

The Court which was held by this Lord of the Hundred, was, in the 18th Year of King Henry III, 1234, ordered to be kept once in Three Weeks, but by Statute, made in the 14th of King Edward III. 1340, the Jurisdiction of the Hundred Court was for the most Part united to the County Court, except in some sew Cases, where the Hundred was by some special Privilege annexed to the Crown, or granted in Fee to some particular Subject in the Nature of a Franchise.

The Fee Farm Rents of these Hundreds of Buckingham, and of the Hundreds of Cottslow, Newport, and Ashendon were, as I find Anno 1665, 17 Charles II. assigned by that King to his Consort Queen Catharine, in Jointure or Dower, — these of Buckingham alone had been leased to Sir Thomas Denton for three Lives, by Letters Patent, dated July 11, 1625, by King Charles I. on a Rent of 281. 3s. 9d. This Rent remains still in the Crown, tho' it is reduced to 231. 175. 1d.

In the 13th of King Edward I, Anno 1285, as Sir Henry Chauncy informs us, there were constituted two Constables in every Hundred to present all Defaults in Towns and Highways.

These were called Chief Constables, and were employed to convey the Warrants of the Magistrates to the Petty Constables of the Vills and Parishes. The Division of this Hundred of Buckingham, as I find in an Old Account, was thus limited, viz.

To the High Constable of the upper Division there belong these Parishes, viz.

Addington,
Adftock, Akeley, Beachampton, Edgecot,

Foscot, Lekbampstead, Lillingston,
Moreton,
Padbury,

Radcliff, Stow, Thornhorough, Thornton.

And to the Constables of the lower these, viz.

Barton, Bittlesden, Caversfield,
Chetwood,
Hillersden,

Marshe, Preston, Shalleston, Steeple Claydon, Tingwick, Turweston, Twyford, Water Stratford, Westbury,

The Town of Buckingham is a District of itself and distinct Liberty, and

After the Conquest of England by King William I, the Government of the Counties was for the most Part committed to Persons of great Eminence who were styled Earls thereof.

These

These Earls, in Latin called Comites, à Comitatu, were the chief Justices or Rulers under the King, and received the Third Part of the Profits of the County to themselves, as the learned Selden remarks; the other two Parts going to the King (except where the Earldoms were Palatinate, as Chester was.) These Earls, who were the King's Officers, exercised in old time great Power, in granting, releasing, imposing Liberties and Exactions, which the Crown now only hath a Right to do as inseparably annext unto it.

But this Power (whatever it was) together with their third Part of the Profits of the County, is entirely ceased, and by Time worn away. The Sheriff being now the King's immediate Officer in the several Counties; who in former Times was only a Deputy to the Earl, as the Name Vice-comes or Viscount imports: And he was subordinate to the Earl, as the Earl was to the King.

The Names of these Earls, or Comites, and also of their Deputies or Vice-comites, I shall here exhibit; first noting, that this County went always under one and the same Sheriff in Conjunction with Bedford, till the 17th of Elizabeth 1575, when they became severed, and each County had it's separate and distinct Sheriffs appointed it, as at this Day.

CHAP. II.

Of the EARLS, DUKES, and HIGH SHERIFFS of Bucks.

Earls of Buckingbam.

HE first Earl of this County that our Histories give us, is

1. Walter Giffard, Son of Osborn de Bolebec and Aveline his Wise, Sister to Gunnora Duchess of Normandy, Great Grand-mother to William I. whom he accompanied into England, and for his Valour in that memorable Battle against King Harold, by which he gained the Crown of England, Anno 1066, was advanced to the Earldom of Buckingbam. He married Agnes, one of the Daughters of Gerard Flaitel, Sister to William Bishop of Eureux, by whom he had Issue Walter his Son and Successor in this Earldom. He died Anno 1103, and was buried at the Entrance into the Abby Church of Longueville in Normandy; the Arms he bore were, Gules, three Lions passant, in Pale Argent. On his Death

2. WALTER his Son succeeded him. He was a faithful Adherer to King Henry I, in all Attempts that were made against him, and gave high Proofs of his Courage in the Battle at Brenneville against Lewis King of France, Anno 1119 wherein the French were defeated: And dying without Issue 1164, his. Lands were shared among his Relations. The Principal of which was Richard de Clare surnamed Stronghow, Earl of Hertford, who had assigned to him the greatest Part of his Lands in England; in Right of Isabel his Wise, Daughter and Heir of Richard Earl of Strigul; and according to Mr. Vincent, this

3. RI-

3. RICHARD DE CLARE took the Title upon him of Earl of Buckingbam.

He bore for his Arms Or 3 Chevrons Gules, a Label of 5 Points Azure.

4. THOMAS OF WOODSTOCK, Sixth Son of Edward III, was created Earl of Buckingham at the Solemnity of King Richard II Coronation. He married Alianore, one of the Daughters and Heirs to Humphry de Bohun, Earl of Hereford and Essex. He was murthered at Calais, on Saturday after the Feast of St. Bartholomew the Apostle, 21st Richard II, 1398, leaving Humphry his Son and Successor 16 Years old — He bore for his Arms, within a Bordure Argent France and England Quarterly.

5. HUMPHRY PLANTAGENET succeeded on his Father Thomas of Wood-flock's Death, in this Earldom. He died three Years after his Father without Issue. He bore the same Arms as his Father did.

6. Humphry Stafford Earl of Stafford, who married Anne Daughter to Ralph Neville the first Earl of Westmoreland, was, on 14th September 1445, 23 Henry VI, created Duke of Buckingham, to hold to himself and the Heirs of his Body, with a special Grant unto himself and his Heirs, with Precedence of all Dukes whatfoever, whether in England or France, excepting those of the Blood Royal. Being thus ennobled, great Animosities broke out between him and Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, to whom the King had given Precedence, notwithstanding this Grant; for appeasing of which there was a special Act made in Parliament, viz. That they should have Precedence by Turns, the one one Year, and the other the next, and in that Manner take Place alternately during their Lives, and the Survivor to have Place of the other's Heir; but afterwards such of the Heirs of each, who should first happen to have Livery of his Lands, to have Precedence of the other. But the Duke of Warwick dying about two Years after without Issue, this Humphry Duke of Buckingham obtained a Second Grant, dated 22 May, 25 Henry VI, 1447, unto himself and his Heirs, for Place and Rank above all Dukes whatsoever, whether in England or France, excepting only those of the Blood Royal. He was slain in the Battle of Northampton valiantly fighting there on King Henry's Part, 27 July, Anno 1460, 38th Henry VI. As to the Place of his Burial 'tis left doubtful; but Leland affirms it was the Monastery of Dela-pre near Northampton.

He bore for his Arms Quarterly, viz. In the first Quarter his Mother's Arms, which were, Within a Bordure France and England quartered; in the Second, Stafford, Or, a Chevron Gules; Third as Second, Fourth as First.

His Successor was his Grandson and Heir, viz.

7. Henry Stafford. He stood up vigorously for King Richard III. and being one of his Chief Confidents was sent to the Queen (who fearing the Destruction of her Sons by Richard Duke of Gloucester their Uncle, had taken Sanctuary with them at Westminster) in order, by fair Pretenses and Promises to gain them out of her Hands; and being his principal Agent in advancing the said King Richard to the Throne, he had, in Consideration of his great Services, a Bill signed by the King, for Livery of all those Lands whereunto he pretended a Right by Descent from Humphry de Bohun Earl of Hereford, amounting amounting to 1084 l. 1 s. 9 d. per Annum; but at length, confederating against King Richard to set Henry Earl of Richmond on the Throne and to unite the divided Houses of York and Lancaster by Marriage of that Earl with the eldest Daughter of King Edward IV, his Machinations were discovered, and for the sake of a Reward of 1000 l. he was betrayed by his Servant, Humphry Bannister, to whose House he had privately betaken himself to avoid Discovery, and beheaded at Salisbury on All-Saints Day 1483, 1st Richard III, without Arraignment or Judgment. He married Catherine Daughter of Richard Woodville Earl Rivers, and had Issue,

8. Edward Stafford his Son, who became restored to all the Honours and Possessions of his Father, by the Favour of King Henry VII. He founded Buckingham College in Cambridge, but was, through the base Practifes of Cardinal Wolsey, who envied his Grandeur, arraigned and found guilty of High Treason, and Beheaded on Tower Hill 17th May 1521, 13th Henry VIII. and buried at the Augustine Friars near Broad Street, London.

After his Death the Title continued vacant 'till

9. George Villers Viscount Villers (whose Grandmother was Colleta Daughter and Heiress of Richard Clerk of the Town of Buckingham Esq; as we are informed in the Baronettage of England, Vol. III. p. 237. was created Earl of Buckingham 5 January, Anno 1616, 14th Jac. I. and the next Year Marquess of Buckingham, 1 Jan. 1617, 15 Jac. I. and at length, by Letters Patent dated 18 May, 21 Jac. I. Duke of Buckingham. He married Catherine Daughter and sole Heiress of Francis Mannours Earl of Rutland. He was slain by John Felton, a Lieutenant in Sir James Ramsey's Regiment of Foot, 23 August 1628, at Portsmouth, and was succeeded by his then Eldest Son,

10. George Villers; this George Duke of Buckingham married Mary, fole Daughter and Heiress of Thomas Lord Fairfax of Cameron in Scotland, and dying without Issue, 16 April, 1687, this Title became extinct, and continued vacant, 15 Years; when

11. John Sheffield Earl of Mulgrave, was created Duke of Bucks and Normanby, 23 March 1702, who, the better to dignify his Title, purchased an Estate in Buckingham Parish. He died 24th February 1720-1, aged 75, and was buried in Westminster Abby, as the two last Dukes of the Name of Villers had been. He was succeeded in all his Titles, by

12. EDMUND SHEFFIELD his Son, by the Lady Catherine Darnly, Widow of James Earl of Anglesey whom he married Anno 1705, and he is the present

Duke, Anno 1735.

Having thus gone through the Account of the Earls and Dukes of Buckingham, I come to the Lists of Sheriffs or Deputies to the Earls or Comites of Buckingham.

CHAP. III.

Of the STATE of the TOWN during the Times of the Britons, Saxons, Normans, and who Lords of it to 1735.

THAT this Town gave Name to the County of the fame Denomination has been universally agreed by all antient Writers: Neither has it been ever otherwise alledged by any Person in the least conversant in English History; As a Reason sit only to captivate the Imagination of an Antiquary, that it should be divested, and altogether deprived of the Honours and Advantages which other County Towns of this Kingdom enjoy, or continue possessed of.

The Town itself, no doubt, took its Name from Buc, cervus, an Hart or Deer; and its Vicinity to the Forest and being included heretofore within the Limits or Bounds of the same, seem to confirm and establish this Derivation.

But as to its being a Roman Town, and called by them Neomagus, I cannot agree with the Publisher of the Book of Records, who places it as such in his alphabetical List of the Latin or Roman Names of Places.

But it was, notwithstanding, a Town of great Antiquity; For, we read that about the 44th Year after our Blessed Saviour's Nativity, Aulus Plautius, the Roman General under the Emperor Claudius, surprized the Britons on the Banks of the River Ouse, at or near Buckingham.

And on the first spreading of Christianity in the Saxon Times, it became remarkable for the Sepulture of St. Rumbald', Son of a King, born at King's Sutton, not far from hence in Northamptonshire, Nov. 1, 626, where he deceased within two Days, appointing his Body to rest there the first Year, the two next at Brackley, and at Buckingham for ever after 'd; where in the Church was a Shrine erected for him, to which great Resort was made by Pilgrims. He having been canonized and made a Saint through superstitious Zeal; and many Miracles being reported to have been wrought by him here, occasioned several Inns to be built for the Reception of Travellers, of which there is yet standing a large one opposite to the West End of the Church.

The next mention I meet with of this Town is in the Reign of King Alfred, on his Division of the Kingdom, Anno 886 into Shires, when he fixed on this Place as the most fitting to be the Capital of this his new erected County.

And here it was that his Son King Edward the Elder took up his Quarters in the Year 918, who, as we are tolde, having raised a great Army, marched to Euccingahamme before the Feast of St. Martin, and lay a Month there; and caused two Forts to be built and garrisoned on each Side the River Ouse, and thence advancing towards the Danes, struck such a Terror into them, that they were glad to make their Peace.

We also find that Anno 941, the Danes made an Excursion to Buckingham, and committed great Outrages.

And that Anno 1010 the Danes came again into these Parts, and after making great Destruction marched hither as to a Place of Strength.

However our Histories will not allow that this Town was very considerable in the Time of the Normans, forasmuch as in Doomsday-Book there is only given this following Survey of it⁸, which I shall here exhibit, as it stands in the Original, with a Translation thereof into English.

Bochingham with Borton was taxed for one Hide in the Time of King Edward, and now likewise; the arable is eight Plough-Lands. There are two in Demesne, and the Villans have three Plough-Lands and an Half, and yet there may be two more and an Half made. There are 27 Burgesses, and eleven Bordars, and two Servants; there is one Mill of 14 s. Rent, Meadow sufficient for the eight Plough-Lands; Pasture for the Cattle of the Town, for all Dues it paid in the Time of King Edward, ten Pounds by Tale, now it pays fixteen Pounds of White Money.

Bishop Remigius holds the Church of this Burgh, and four Plough-Lands which belong to it, there are four Ploughs, and three Villans, and threeBordars, and ten Cotagers, and one Mill of 10s. Rent, Meadow sufficient for two Ploughs, and Wood sufficient for Hedges; it is and was worth fix Pounds by the Year, in the Time of King Edward, it was worth seven Pounds. Bishop Uulvi held this Church of King Edward.

Here are all the twenty seven Burgesses of this Burgh, obnoxious to, and under the Protection of, Foreign Lords and Patrons; as Dr. Brady observes in his History of Burghs, p. 9.

Having thus exhibited the Survey of this Town as given in Doomsday Book, and Dr. Brady's Remark that all its Burgesses were under Foreign Lords and Patrons; I may here observe, that as this Survey only includes the Borough or Town of Buckingham itself, so it would not appear so inconsiderable as it is here represented, were its Members and Appurtenances taken into it. In the Return of Stafford, there are only fixteen Burgesses accounted for. feem to be Places of no great Note at the Time of the Conquest.

And though this was the State of Buckingham at the Time of compiling Deomiday Book; yet it foon after became the Property of its first Earl, viz. Walter Giffard, and on his Death, which happened Anno 1103, descended to his Son Walter Giffard, the second Earl of Buckingbam, who dying Anno 1164 without Issue, this Manor came in Marriage with his Sister Robele or Roefia. to Richard Clare, Earl of Clare, which Family also assumed the Title of Earl of Buckingham; and so it passed again (as we are told in Dugdale's Baronage, vol. i. p. 419.) in Frank-Marriage to William de Breose, Anno 1216, with a Daughter of Richard de Clare, with which Daughter the faid William obtained the Town of Buckingbam. And had Issue by her, William, Father to John de Breose, Lord of the Castle and Honour of Swansey in Glamorgansbire, and Bramber in Suffex; at which last Place, in the Castle there, he departed this Life, Anno 16 Hen. III. 1232, by a Fall from his Horse, his Foot sticking in the Stirrup. And that upon his Death (as the fame Author tells us) the King gave Command to the Sheriff of Buckingbamshire to seize the Lordship of Buckingbam, which was of the Dowry of Margaret his Wife : and to deliver the fame to John de Rievaulk, to be by him detained until fuch Time as the faid Margaret h did render unto him the two Sons of her late Husband John de Breose, of whom William the eldest dying about 1290, ro of Edward I. left Issue William his Son and Heir, who came to an Agreement with Margaret his Father's Relict, concerning her Dower. He was an unthrifty Person, as is said by Dugdale, and a great Waster of his Patri-

On whose Death Anno 1287, 10 Ric. II. these Demesses descended to Thomas and Edmund, his Sons and Successors in the Earldom of Stafford; and so came to his Grandson Humphry Earl of Stafford, created Duke of Buckingham 1444, who was, on the Death of his Father, Anno 1460, returned to be feized of these Manors of Buckingham and Boreton. And as the Inquisition sets forth, Henry his Grandson was found to be Heir: But in Regard of his Attainder by King Edward IV. this his Manor of Buckingham was granted to Richard Fowler, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster: For he died in Possession thereof and of Boreton, Anno 1477. However, upon the Accession of Henry VII. to the Crown, An. 1485, it again reverted to the Staffords, and was enjoyed by Edward the third Duke of Buckingham of that Name and Family, Founder of Buckingham-College in the University of Cambridge; who being beheaded Anno 13 Henry VIII. on May 17, 1522, the faid King, by Letters Patent dated March 18 following, granted the Manor and Borough of Buckingham with Boreton, to Henry Lord Marney, and his Issue-Male; in Default of which, Anno 1526, 17 Henry VIII. that King granted the said Manors to William Cary', Esq; who, as the Inquisition taken October 29, 1529, An. 20 Hen. VIII. fets forth, "died June 22, that Year seized of the Manors of Little Brick-" bill, Boreton and Esington, and of the Borough of Buckingbam, and Markets, "Court-Leets, Goods of Felons, etc. thereto belonging, which came to the " Crown by the Attainder of Edward Duke of Bucking bam; and that Henry Cary, " his Son and Heir was two Years old," which Henry growing in special Favour with King Edward VI. obtained a Confirmation of the same to himself and his Heirs for ever; and was, in Regard of his near Alliance to Queen Elizabeth, (being her Mother's Sifter's Son) created Baron of Hunsdon in the County of Hertford; and having, as I prefume, purchased Lands elsewhere, procured, Anno 1553, a License to sell his Estate here to Robert Brocas; who, as I find by the Inquisition taken after his Death, departed this Life August 6, 1557, seized of Horton Manor in Edlesborough, and Slapton, Ched. ington, Little Brickbill, Buckingham and Boreton Manors, and the Borough of Buckingbam; and that Bernard Brocas his Son and Heir was 21 Years old, who making Proof of his Age, had Livery of the faid Manors: Which Bernard *alienating his Possessions October 8, 1574, 16 Elizabeth, as I am informed, passed away this his Manor of Buckingham, together with the Tolls, etc. of the Markets and Fairs, to the Corporation of Buckingbam, by a Lease made for 999 Years and yet for to come, as the Words of the Lease (as I am told) express, reserving to himself and his Heirs only a Quitrent of 40 s. per Annum out of it, payable by the Corporation of Bucks; which said Rent being purchased by the antient Family of the Temples, Lords of the adjacent Parish of Stow-Langport, the same is now vested Anno 1735, in Sir Richard Temple, Baronet, created Lord Viscount Cobbam, Anno 1718, and is accordingly held of him on the said Payment by the Corporation, under Brocas's Grant, who died March 21, 1589, possessed only of Little Brickhill Manor, as the Inquisition sets forth.

CHAP. IV.

Of the SITUATION of the Town and its late Missortunes by Fire.

HE Situation and Ichnography of this Town, with the Disposition of its Church, Castle, Streets, and Lanes, being exhibited in Speed's Map of it, Anno 1610, and in Rutger Hermannide's Abridgment of Camden's Britannia, printed Anno 1661 at Amsterdam in Holland, I shall thither refer those that defire more exactly to know it; however, not to omit what our Authors tell us, I shall from them briefly add, That it is surrounded on all Sides, except the North, by the River Oufe, over which it hath three fair Stone Bridges; and is divided into two Parts by an Hill in the Midst ; on which was a strong Castle long since reduced to Ruins; and that in the North Part stands the Town-Hall, and in the South, the Church noted for the Shrine of St. Rumbald, and a Prebendal-House, endowed with Lands of 1000 l. per Annum: And that here was also a Chapel of St. John Baptist, now converted into a Free-School; and shall only farther remark, that though above a third Part of the Houses were burnt down by a late terrible Fire, yet those that were fince rebuilt having been erected on the Foundations of the old Houses, very little or no Alteration hath been made in the Scite of the Town, Sed manet ut fuerat in the Streets, etc.

The Account of this Fire, as it was given in the News Papers at the Time it happened, I shall here insert.

Loncon, March the 18th, 1724-5.

- "On Monday last, the 15th of this Instant March, about seven in the Evening, a dreadful Fire broke out near the Unicorn Inn in Buckingham;
- " which burnt with fuch Vehemency, that it foon confumed 138 Dwelling
- "Houses, besides Out-houses, Barns, Stables, Hay, Corn, etc. By which
- "Desolation above 200 Families are miserably undone; and it is computed
- "that the Loss cannot amount to less than 40,000 l. there being very few that had the least Opportunity of saving any of their Goods."
 - Vide Magna Britannia, Camden, etc. Printed Accounts of Buckingham.

And

And there being also a farther Account given of the said Fire in Notitia Parliamentaria, Vol. i. p. 98 and 99, I shall likewise beg Leave to reprint it here also, That Author having, in his Book published Anno 1730, taken Notice of the Decay of the Town fince Henry the Seventh's Reign (when in Regard of its being the most considerable in the Shire, it had assigned to it the Custody of the Weights and Measures of the County by Act of Parliament) tells us, " That after the Gaol had been removed to Aylesbury, in "the following Reign, viz. Henry VIII's. And though by Loss of the Wool "Trade, this Town had fallen greatly to Decay, yet by Virtue of a con-" siderable Saturday's Market (and eight Fairs, held on February 24th, April " 25th, June 29th, August 24th, September 21st, October 28th, Monday " Sevennight after Epiphany or Twelfth-day, and Thursday in Whitson Week) " it enjoyed a good Trade, and begun of late Years to improve in Build-"ings ('till a very great Calamity befel its Inhabitants by a dreadful Fire, " which happened March 15th, 1724, and confumed out of 387 Dwelling-" Houses, no less than 138, which were entirely burnt down, with several " Out Houses, etc. belonging to the remaining 249 Houses: And though " this Misfortune might, as at divers other Places, have contributed to-" wards raising a beautiful regular Town, worthy of denominating so rich " and populous a County as Buckinghamshire is; yet hath the same, through " Neglect of obtaining an Act of Parliament as at Northampton, Warwick, " etc. and for want of confulting proper Measures at first (which would have " raifed up those principally concerned, a Name better than of Sons and " Daughters) tended greatly towards impoverishing the Town, and funk its " Trade and Markets, which it is to be leared will decay more and more; " inalmuch as there is not, in all this Time, anthird Part of the Houses " rebuilt, and those that have been begun are not carried up in any Uni-" formity; there not being any Attempt towards fetting out the Streets, " the Omission of which must always be regretted by such who cannot but " have at Heart the Credit and Interest of this their Mother-Town in parsticular, or future Reputation of the County in general. And notwith-" standing it hath been reflected by some, as if this Loss was magnified and " over-computed, and that the Townsmen would have, in Exchange, for " bad or indifferent Houses handsome and convenient Dwellings; yet it will,. " I fear, turn out quite otherwise in the End; and that the Damage will " at length exceed the highest Calculation, must be apparent to all such "who are conversant in Trade; for it is not the Quality or Fineness of "Building, but Quantity of Offices, and Rooms for Conveniency, that furnish-" out Necessaries for Shopkeepers; and if these are not provided for in. "Time, there can be but little Reparation in erecting them, after the "Trade is irretrievably gone hence, and transplanted elsewhere."

I may also add, that this Missortune has surther tended to the Detriment of the Town, as it has occasioned Persons to pull down several large Housesto sell the Materials to build small Tenementa; and here insert the Names of the Streets and Lanes, referred to in the Map, which are as tollows, viz: Podd-lane, Nast-end, High street, West-street, Caste-street, Water lane, St. Rumbald's-lane, Church bridge, Prebend-end, Caste-bridge, Sheriffs-bridge; which which last Name seems to retain and denote the antient Transactions of the County Business being done here.

Having thus briefly gone through the Account of the Town of Bucking-bam, I proceed to treat of the Hamlets appendant to it, viz. Boreton, Lenborough, and Gawcot, of which in their Order.

Of the HAMLETS belonging to this Town, and their Possessors from William the Conqueror's Time to 1735 viz. Boreton, Lenborough, and Gawcot.

Otwithstanding Boreton was joined with Buckingham in the Account given of it in Doomsday-Book; vet I find the Manor was then Part of the Possessinos of Walter Giffard Earl of Buckingham, as appears by the following Survey in another Part of Doomsday-Book.

And in the Foundation Charter of the Priory of Newinton-Longueville, printed in the Monasticon, Vol. iii. p. 111. we find that Walter Giffard the second Earl of Buckingham, inter 1153 and 1163, endowed that Convent with the Tenths of his Demessies in Boreton as well as Buckingham.

And that Boreton was held by the same Lords as Bucking bam, appears in all Accounts of it. For after the Giffards, it belonged to Clare Earl of Gloucester, and so came to the Breoses, of which Family John Breose, on the Estate coming to him after the Death of Mary, Relict of William de Breose, Anno 1327, re-leased to the Monastery of Oseney, as appears by the Register of that Convent, in the Archives of the Dean and Chapter of Christ Church, Oxford, all his View of Frank Pledge in his Manor of Boreton.

Stafford Earl of Stafford. And his Descendants the Staffords Dukes of Buckingham, enjoyed it together with Buckingham, till the Attainder of Edward Stafford the last Duke of that Name and Family, Anno 1523; 13 Henry VIII. upon which the King granted it the fame Year to Henry Lord Marney and his Issue Male; on the Failure of which, Anno 1526, 16 Henry VIII. the King granted these Manors to William Cary, Esq; by his Letters Patent: Whose Son and Heir Henry Cary, Anno 1553, obtaining License to sell his Lands here, conveyed this Manor, together with the Town of Buckingham, to Robert Brocas, Esq., who dying seized thereof, August 6, 1557, he was (as has been shewn page 27, in Buckingbam) succeeded by his Son Bernard Brocas, Esq. who, in Queen Elizabeth's Time alienated Bucking bam, and, as I prefume, conveyed away his Interest to the then Possessor of the Capital Mansion House of this Village, viz. Ferdinando Poulton, the famous Writer and Publisher of the Book of Statutes, which he, as may be seen in A. Wood's Athena Oxonienses, drew up in good Part during his Residence here, where he had several Children born, as appears from Buckingbam Parish Register.

But the more antient Owners of this Capital Mansion, as appears to me, were the Fromes, (and of Lenborough also:) For, Anno 1405, in Henry IV's Reign, I find that John Frome (who was, in Richard H's Time, one of the Knights of the County of Buckingham) in his last Will and Testament bequeathed 100 s. to his Tenants at Boreson.

After the Fromes, as I prefume, the Bartons and Fewlers held it, and so it came to the Mores by Intermarriages; as Fewler had took to Wife Isabella,

Sifter and Heir of John Barton. And

Thomas More, or Moor, as in a Note I have seen, married a Daughter of Fowler's, whose Name, as I judge, was Alice, for the Names of Thomas Moor and Alice his Wife, remained in the Glass Windows of Buckingham Church, Anno 1582, (as I find in a Manuscript belonging to James West, Esq.) and that they had Issue Richard More, who occurs, possessed of Boreton, Anno 1487 and 1491, as does Thomas More, his Son and Heir 1495 and 1525, who leaving only two Daughters; this Estate came by Marriage of the eldest of them to Giles Poulton, who dying in the Year 1560, was succeeded by the aforefaid Ferdinando Poulton; on whose Death, which happened January 20, 1617, in the 82d Year of his Age, he was succeeded by Francis Poulton his Son, who occurs Owner of Boreton, Anno 1620. being a weak bigotted Papist, and travelling to Rome, he fell into the Hands of Richard Minshull, Esq; of Essex; who, as I have been informed, advancing him several Sums of Money, got into Possession of the Estate, and worked him and his Family out of it, and about the Year 1628 or 1630, as they tell me, having enclosed the Lordship, at great Expence, got a Conveyance of it to himself and his Heirs, paying some Pensions or Rents out of it; for I have feen a Receipt of a Rent Charge of 20 l. per Annum, paid by him Anno 1633, to Alexius Poulton; and have been informed, that he allowed Mr. Francis Poulton an Annuity of 60 l. per Annum for his Life. .

This Mr. Minshull, who was made a Knight, Anno 1626, on December 11, by King Charles I. at Theobald's and, as it is said, obtained a Patent to be created.

created a Peer, by the Title of Baron Minsball of Oundle in the County of Northampton, became afterwards a great Sufferer for his Loyalty, his House at Boreton being plundered, and in Part pulled down, by the Parliament Soldiers, on August 18, 1642, as may be seen in Mercurius Rusticus, printed Anno 1647, p 31, 32, 33, 34, where is a long Account of the Astair, and in the Frontispiece of the Book a Sketch of the House.

However he lived to the Restoration, and, as I find, compounded with the usurping Powers for 1378 !, and his Lady (who was Mary Daughter of Sir George Perkins, of Runny in the County of Nottingham) and Family resided here, Anno 1657, and he himself died here, and was buried in the Burial-Place belonging to his House, in the great North Cross Me in Bucking bam Church, known by the Name of Poulton's Isle, November 27, 1667; and succeeded by his Son and Heir of both Names, viz. Richard Minsbull, Esq. who dying in the Year 1684, was buried in the Chancel of the Savoy Church in Westminster, August 26 (as was also Anne his Wife, July 11; 1686, who was the Daughter of Francis Finch, of Rushook in the County of Worcester, Esq.) and succeeded by his eidest Son Richard Minsoull, Esq. who lived here for fome Years in great Splendor, keeping a Coach and fix Horses: But falling into Gaming and other Extravagrances, and keeping feveral Running Horses, he contracted such great Debts, that he was obliged, in the Year 1712, to quit his Habitation, and take up his Quarters in the King's Bench, or Fleet, where he died, January 7, 1729-30, and was buried Jan. 10, in St. Martin's Church Westminster; leaving Issue one only Daughter named Mary, Heir to what is left, who is now living unmarried, Anno 1725, as is also her Mother, viz. Catherine Daughter of Sir George Elount of Sodington in Worcestershire, Bart.

The Tithes of this Hamlet valued at 100 l. per Annum, being separated from those of Buckingham, having been purchased by Sir Thoma: Bennet, Lord Mayor of London, in King James I's Time, were, by the last Will and Testament of his Son Sir Simon Bennet, Bart. who died Anno 1631, given to charitable Uses, viz. 20 l. per Annum to cloathe ten poor Men at Buckingham; 20 l. more per Annum to cloathe ten poor Men at Stony Stratford; 12 l. to cloathe six in like Manner at Beachampton; and 12 l. to cloathe six at Calverton; and 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. to mend the Highways at Beachampton; and 5 l. to repair Beachampton Church, and the rest to other charitable Uses which are still applied; and the said poor Persons cloathed accordingly, as will be more sully mentioned in Beachampton.

The Extent of this Hamlet is about 1200 Acres; and the Number of Families is now only 12, though before the Enclosure, here were, as I am informed, as many good Farm Houses, besides Cottages and other Tenements. The chief Occupiers of the Farm-Houses were the Porters, Bates, and Wisemans.

There

² Lloyd, in his Memoirs, p. 688. fays, Sir Richard Minsbull was plundered at Boreton to the Value of 2000 s. in Goods, Eonds, and Chattels.

There is some Tradition that an House, still remaining in this Hamlet, where is a large arched Door-Case, was antiently a Chapel, and what strengthens the Tradition is, that here is a Wake or Feast still kept the Sunday after Holy-Rood-Day; viz. Sept. 14, and also that human Bones have been dug up in the House on sinking a Dairy.

Since the Minsbulls left their House here, it hath been so dilapidated, and is fallen into such Ruin, that it is become almost uninhabitable; and must,

if ever made a Seat again, be entirely rebuilt.

Having thus treated of Boreton, I now come to speak of

LENBOROUGH,

Which is thus described in Doomsday-Book.

Terra Walteri Giffard in Rovelai Hundred.

In Ledingeberg Tenet Radulfus de Walterio iii Hidas, pro uno Manerio. Terra est ii Carucatarum. Ibi est una et alia potest sieri. Ibi ii Bordarii et Pratum ii Carucatarum, valet xxx s. quando recepit lx s. Tempore Regis Edwardi xl s.

Hoc Manerium Tenuit Wilaf Homo Leuvini Comitis, et vendere potuit. Ralph holds of Walter Giffard three Hides in Ledingherg for one Manor. The Arable is two Carucates. There is one Carucate, and another can be made out; and there are two Cottagers, and Meadow for the two Carucates. It is worth 30 s. when he received 60 s. In King Edward's Time 40 s.

Tunni, Tenant of Alric Son of Eding, held this Manor, and could fell it.

The Bishop of Bajeux's Land in Rovelai Hundred.

Ernulf de Hesding holds of the Bishop of Bajeux, seven Hides in Ledingberge for one Manor. The Arable is five Carucates. There are two in Demeasne, and one Copyholder, with six Cottagers holding one Carucate: and two more can be made out. There are three Servants, and five Carucates of Meadow. Wood worth 4s, a Year. It is worth and was worth 6os. In King Edward's Time four Pounds.

Wilaf, Tenant to Earl Leuwin, held this Manor, and could fell it.

That the second Manor came soon after to the Possessor of the first, viz: Walter Giffard, I make no Doubt: For Odo, Bishop of Bajeux, Half Brother. to William the Conqueror, and created by him Earl of Kent, rebelling against William Rusus, by taking Part with his Brother Robert, Duke of Normands:

had his Lands taken away from him, Anno 1088; and being banished the Realm, died at Palermo in Italy, and was buried in the Church of our Lady there, Anno 1096.

And that this Manor (as before observed) passed, as Boreton and Buckingham had done, from the Giffards to the Clares, Breofes, etc. appears from our Records; which testify its continuing appendant to Bucking bam: For, Anno 21 Edward III. 1346, Hugh de Audley Earl of Gloucester died possessed of the Leets here, as did Ralph Earl of Stafford (who married Margaret Daughter of the faid Earl of Gloucester) 1372; and Hugh Earl of Stafford, 1387; and Thomas Earl of Stafford 1393, and so it descending to the Staffords Dukes of Buckingbam, became, after the Death of the last Duke of Buckingbam of the Name and Family of Stafford, vested in the Crown, viz. the Titular Manor: 'till the same was granted away from it by Letters Patent dated June 11. Anno 9 of King James I. 1611. in which, "that King granted to John Aldred " and William Whitmore, Eigrs. all those Rents of Assizes and Services be-" longing to the Honour of Gloucester, in the Towns of North Crawley, " Little Wolston, Doreton, Wavendon, Milton, Maids Morton, Lamport cum " Stow, Boreton, Lenborough, Bowbrickhill, Great Harwood, Singleborough, " Wotton, Edgecot, and Great-Kimbell, Parcel of the Honour of Gloucester. " and of the Possessions of Edward late Duke of Buckingbam of the Value of 46 51. 145. 1d to hold for ever in free Soccage of the Manor of East Green-" wich." From Aldred and Whitmere several, if not all, these Rents and Services were, not long after their obtaining them, purchased by the Family of Dormer of Doreton; by which Family, after about 100 Years Possession, many of them were fold to the chief Proprietors of these Parishes, as I have: feen; and these of Lenborough being purchased by John Rogers, Esq. Anna. 1704, of John Dormer of Rowsham, in the County of Oxford, Esq. was conveyed by him, Anno 1718, to Edward Gibbon, of Putney in the County of Surrey, Esq. together with the greatest Part of his Demesses of Lenborough; and his Son Edward Gibbon, Esq. is. Anno 1735, the present Lord of this Manor of Lenhorough.

However a Moiety of this Manor coming to a younger Branch of the Family of Breoses, they continued some Time possessed thereof: For Roger Breose, and Alice his Wise, levied a Fine of a third Part of the Manor of Lethinbourgh, Anno 1364, 39th of Edward III.

After the Breoses the Demesses of Lenborough came, as I presume, Temp. Richard II. to the Fromes; and so, as I have mentioned in Boreton, John Frome, who died Anno 1405, was seized of Lenborough also, as well as:

Boreton, Anno 6 Henry IV.

About 40 Years after which, Temp. Henry VI. the Demesses of this Place being acquired by the Family of Ingoldsby, they seated themselves here by Purchases made Anno 24 and 27 Henry VI. 1445 and 1448, from John Pennysfather and Alice his Wise, John and Thomas Throgmorton, Edmand Stratton, and Margaret his Wise, and others, who conveyed their Messuages and Lands here to Ralph and John Ingoldsby, as appears by the Fines.—
Of which antient Family of Ingoldsby I come now to speak.

That

That they derive their Original from the antient Possessor of Ingoldson and Skinnard Parishes in Lincolnsbire, appears from the Pedigree , which mentions Sir Roger Ingoldsby being Lord of those Parishes, viz. Ingoldsby and Skinnard, about 1230, and to have had Issue two Sons John and Roger, of which John the eldest dying without Issue, was succeeded by his Brother Roger, Father to another Roger, and Grandfather to Thomas, Father to this our Ralph and Jobn Ingoldsby, joint Purchasers of the Estate here; of whom I find that Ralph the eldest received a Commission from King Henry VI. Anno 1448, to provide Ships for the Defence of Aquitain in France, as in the Patents; and as to John, he was, Anno 1463, constituted a Baron of the Exchequer, which he voided either by Death or Cession, Anno 8 Edward IV. 1468.

Son to this Ralph, by Agnes his Wife, Daughter and Heiress of William Berdwell was Richard, who married —— Daughter of John Elmes, and had Issue Richard Ingoldsby, who took to Wife — Daughter of John Greenway of Dynton, Esq. and had by her a Son named Francis, who died 1579, and was buried (as appears by the Register) at Buckingham; his eldest Son and Successor was Richard, knighted at Hitchinbrooke, in the County of Huntingdon, October 22, 1617, by King James I. who about the same Year enclosed this Lordship, and made a Park. He died and was buried at Buckingbam, August 28, 1635, and succeeded by Richard Ingoldsby, his eldest Son and Heir, made a Knight, as feems to me, at the same Time, or soon after his Father had that Honour conferred upon him; he married Elizabeth Daughter of Sir Oliver Cromwell, Aunt to the Usurper Oliver Cromwell, and by her had a numerous Issue, viz. eight Sons and three Daughters; 1. Francis, born 1614; 2. Richard, born 1617; 3. Oliver, born 1619; 4. John, born 1621; 5. Henry, born 1622; 6. George, born 1623; 7. Thomas, born 1624; 8. William, born 1627. His Daughters were, 1. Elizabeth, born 1618; 2. Anne, born 1626, who was Wife to Sir Edward Chalener; 3. Mary, born 1629. He, viz. Sir Richard, the Father died, and was buried at Buckingham, December 20, 1656b; as was Elizabeth his Lady (who furvived him near ten Years) May 2, 1666. Of his Sons Richard the second was a gallant Officer in the Army; as were also Henry and George his fifth and fixth Sons, all which three were knighted, and Henry created a Baronet, on August 30, 1661, by the Title of Henry Ingoldsby of Letbenborough, Esq. And Richard his second Son having purchased an Estate at Waldridge in the Parish of Dynton near Aylesbury, Anno 1651, settled there; and was, on his Death, Anno 1685, succeeded by Richard his eldest Son and Heir, Father of Thomas Ingoldsby, Esq. (Grandson to Sir Richard) the present Posfessor, Anno 1735, who hath served the Honourable Office of High Sheriss

b Will of Sir Richard Ingoldsby, the second of that Name. dated July 14, 1656, proved January 14 following, to be buried in Buckingham Church with his Ancestors; gives all his Goods and Chattels whatfoever, real and personal, to Elizabeth his dearly beloved Wife; and makes her his fole Executrix: No mention of any of his Children, or other Persons, in the Will, which is very short.

of the County, and been elected Member of Parliament for Aylefbury, as his Grandfather was from 1660 to the Time of his Death. As to Francis Ingoldsby. the eldeft Son of Sir Richard, who succeeded him in his Estate; he was returned Member of Parliament for Bucking bam in the Years 1654, 1656, and 1658-0. in the Rump Parliaments; and living at Lenborough in too profuse a Manner; his Wife alfo, as it was reported, being extravagant and vain, they run out the Estate, and disparked the Park made by his Grandsather; and having deeply mortgaged it, they retired to London, about 1673, where he deceased Ostober 1, 1681, being then a Pensioner in the Charter-House; to which he was admitted 1679: And his Children, whose Names were Francis, Richard, Elizabeth, Anne, Lucy and Lettice, were reduced to Poverty: What became afterwards of them and their Mother, whose Name was Lettice, and she the Daughter of Crawley Norton of Offley, in the County of Hertford, Esq. I have not been informed; after mortgaging the Estate, for all he could borrow upon the Credit of it, he made over the Equity of Redemption to Mr. William Robinson his Steward, who, for some Time, lived at Lenborough, and dying there, as I have been informed, was buried February 19, 1696. at Wing in this County, where he had also an Estate, and left some Charities. viz. an Annual Benefaction to cloathe two poor Men with Blue Coats. Soon after his Death, his Kinfman of both his Names, viz. William Robinson, of the City of Westminster, conveyed all his Right, Title, and Interest to Mr. John Rogers, of the County Town of Buckingham; who about the Time of this Purchase, served the Honourable Office of High Sheriff of this County: and was afterwards an Alderman and High Bailiff of the Corporation of This Gentleman having, Anno 1704, as is aforementioned, purchased the Titular Manor of John Dormer, of Rowsham in the County of Oxford, Esq he afterwards, in the Year 1718, conveyed the faid Manor, together with the greatest Part of the Lordship, to Edward Gibbon, Esq. as aforesaid.

The Purchaser of another Moiety or Part was one Mr. Primate of the City of London; and also another Part of the same was conveyed to the samous Physician of this Age, Dr. Richard Mead of London, who is the prefent Possessor thereof, Anno 1735. But the Manor and Capital Mansion House belonging to Edward Gibbon, Esq. Son to the first Purchaser, Anno 1718, hath been in good Part pulled down and made a Tenant's Dwelling.

Here are in this Hamlet about 14 Houses, which stand dispersedly in the Grounds, the Contents of which are about 1600 Acres. It is rated in all Assessments and Levies (as Boreton and Gawcot are) with the Town of Buckingham. Here are belonging to this Hamlet some Grounds called Rowley-bills, which anciently denominated one of the three Hundreds of Buckingham.

Notwithstanding the Extent of this Hamlet, I do not find that there was ever any Chapel erected in it.

I find mention of a Donation of 60 Acres of Wood in Lenborough to Chetwode Priory, Anno 15 Richard II. 1392. These are still in the Occupation of the Owners or Lords of Chetwode Priory Manor, viz. Mr. Risley.

And

And in the Fines, Anno 1202, 3d of King John, I find a Donation of Lands in Lithingeherg by Philip Daumarti, and Lucy his Wife, to Redding Abby; which, Anno 1291, were returned to be of the Value of 2 l. 17 s.

In the Pleas at Westminster, de Term Pasch. 34 Henry III. 1250, I find there was a Dispute between the Rector of Edgecot and the Persona, i. e. the Prebendary de Buckingham, about the Tithes and Offerings in the Village of Ledingherge; but it was adjudged in favour of the Prebendary of Buckingham; et judicium was returned to be cum persona de Buckingbam.

There being a large Vault in Buckingbam Church, near the East Wall in the great Cross Isle, called by the Name of Poulton's Isle, belonging to the Capital House at Lenborough, the Ingoldsby's Family have been therein interred; but there are not the least Remains of any Inscription or Arms in the whole Church for any one Person of the Family. In this Vault is also deposited the aforesaid John Rogers, Esq. Alderman of Buckingbam, who died 1727, but without any Memorial.

GAWCOT,

That this was a Member of Buckingbam, in the Time of William the Conqueror, we find by the following Return of it in Doomsday-Book.

Terra Episcopi Lincolniensis in Rovelai Hundred.

Ipse Episcopus Tenet Chavescote quae jacet in Ecclesia de Bochingham. Ibi est i Hida, Terra est i Carucate et Dimidium: Et ibi sunt, cum ii Bordariis, et uno Servo. Pratum Dimidium Caruc. valet et valuit xxxs. Tempore Regis Edwardi xls.

Hanc Terram Tenuit Wulvi Episcopus.

The Bishop of Lincoln holds Chavescote, which belongs or lies in the Tenure of the Church of Bochingham. It contains one Hide; the Arable is one Carucate and an Half; and there are two Copyholders, with one Servant, of Meadow Half a Carucate. It is and was worth 30 s. In King Edward's Time 40 s.

Uluvi Bishop (of Dorchester) held this Land.

And on Buckingham's being made Prebendal to Lincoln (as it was by Bishop Remigius on the first Foundation of that See) King William II. as may be seen in the Monasticon, Vol. iii. p. 259. confirmed to the Church of Lincoln, Anno 1090, Ecclesiam de Buckingham, cum Terris et Decimis et una Carucata. Terrae in Gavecota.

And fo it remained under the Church of Lincoln till Edward VI.'s Time, when this Prebend, viz. Sutton cum Buckingham, with all its Members, being (except Massam, in the Church of York) the best endowed of any in the Kingdom valued in the King's Books (as in the Valor made Anno 1534) at 1231. in the whole, and at 1101. 35. 6d. clear Income; being surrendered by Richard Cox, the last Prebendary, on July 16, 1547, to King Edward VI. and becoming dissolved, and made a Lay Fee, was granted by that King to his Uncle Edward Seymour, Duke of Somerset; on whose Attainder, An. 1551. it reverting to the Crown, was, by Letters Patent, dated September 28, 1553, demised by Queen Mary to Sir John Mason, with all its Appurtenances, on Payment of a Rent of 11 l. 4 s. and after his Death which happened Anne 1566, Queen Elizabeth, by her Letters Patent, dated July 20, 1569, on a like Rent of 11 l. 4 s. demised it to Henry Seymour, called Lord Henry Seymour, for his Life; which Leafe, the faid Lord Henry Seymour furrendering to take a new one, Anno 27 Elizabeth, the Queen by Letters Patent, dated March 21, 1595, granted, as follows, to the said Lord Henry Seymour, Anthony Wingfield, Esq. and Robert Johnson, Gent. viz.

"The Prebends of Sutton and Buckingham, Horley and Hornton, founded in the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, and all Manors, Messuages, Tene-" ments, Meadows, Rents, Reversions, Courts, Profits, Herriots, Waifs, Estrays, Felons Goods, Rectories, Vicarages, Chapels, Advowsions, and " all other Franchises in Sutton, Buckingham, Hornton, and Horley, belonging " to the faid Prebends, for their Lives, reddendo for the whole 90 l. 2s. 5 d. and 61. 13 s. 4 d. for an Herriot on each of their dying in Possession, and to pay yearly to the Dean and Chapter of the Church of Lincoln and their "Succeffors, 5 l. 13 s. 4 d. and to the fenior Vicars Choral, 2 l. and to the i junior or minor Vicars 2 s. 4 d. and 20 l. for the Increase of the Stipends " of the Vicars of the Churches and Chapels belonging to the faid Prebends, "to maintain a Preacher, as it shall seem fitting to the Bishop of the Dio-" cefe, and to repair the Chancels of the Churches and Chapels." When this Lease was surrendered, and the Premises granted finally away by the Crown, I have not feen. But, I presume, it was shortly after, and that on Partition of the Prebendal Estate; this Part of it that lay in Gawcot and elsewhere in the Parish of Buckingbam, became the sole Property of Robert Johnson, for Anno 1599, he presented to the Vicarage of Bucking bam as absolute Patron thereof. And Anno 1601 appointed his Commissary and Official to the peculiar Jurisdiction belonging to this Prebend here; and held his Courts, as his Successors have done ever since, who nominate their respective Officers, it being exempt from Archidiaconal, and only visitable by Episcopal Jurisdiction.

However he held this Estate not long; for in the Court-Book of this Manor, which I have seen, the Leets of Prebend-End cum Gawcot Manor, were holden by Robert Brett, Anno 1612; and next Year the same Courts were kept in the Name of Sir Thomas Denton, the then Lord of this Prebendal Estate: And in his worthy Family it remains at this Day, the Hon. Alexander Denton, Esq. one of the Justices of the Court of Common-Pleas, being the present Lord hereof, and Patron of the Church of Buckingham.

In the Vill of Gawcot, which lies a long Mile South-West of the Town of Bucking bam, are about 100 Houses: Here is said to have been formerly a Chapel dedicated to St. Catherine, the Sunday after which Festival there is still a Wake or Feast observed, and the Place where it stood is yet known by the

the Name of Chapel-Close; and the Lane leading to it is called Chapel-Lane.

The Number of Acres in Gawcot Hamlet is about 500. It pays to all Assessments and Taxes with the Town of Buckingbam, as a Member thereof; and there is no Quit-rents, as I learn, paid by, or issuing out of Gawcot, to any other Lord except to Mr. Justice Denton.

CHAP. VI.

Of FAMOUS MEN born in the PARISH.

and Parish, I make no Question: As so many Families of Eminence and Note have had their Seats in it: To say little of them that were possessed of the Capital Mansions of Boreton and Lenborough (where in my Remembrance great Hospitality has been kept) and limit myself more particularly to such who, as Fuller in his Worthies remarks, took their Names and Nativities from this Town, A-LA-MODE OF THAT AGE; I meet with

William de Buckingham, a Baron of the Exchequer Anno 1199, in the first Year of King John; who, Anno 1202, was a Donor of Lands at Hogshaw, to the Knights Templars, as appears in the Fines: And about the same Time gave Lands to Bruern Aboy in Oxfordhire; laying an Obligation on that Convent to pay an Annual Pensian of 52 6d. to Bitlesden Abby; which. Donation see printed in Madox & Formulate, 3. 77. And also in his History of the Exchequer we meet with

John Boking bam, who Anno 1273, 1 Edward I. held a confiderable Office

there. And in the next Reign we find mention of

Thomas Buckingham, Abbot of Bitlesden Anno 1324, of which Convent Edward II. borrowed 100 l. as in Rymer's Foedera. And in the same Reign occurs another

Thomas de Bokyngham, who, as Bale and Pitts tell us, was a learned Writer; he was Anno 1325, made Fellow of Merton-College; Oxon; and afterwards. Doctor in Divinity, and Chancellor of Exeter Cathedral, and died about 1349,. 23 Edward III. In which King's Time also flourished

William de Buckingham, who occurs Canon of Salisbury, Anno 1951. And

Henry de Buckingbam, Abbot of Missenden, Anno 1340. And

William de Buckingham, who, as we learn from Speed, founded a Monastery at Winchelsea in Sussex: To which King Edward was also a Benefactor. What remains of this Convent is represented in a Draught of it among Nathanael Buck's Prints of Religious Houses, I find also one of both his Names gave half an Hide of Land lying at Strensham in Worcestershire, to the Abby of Teuxsbury. I likewise meet with one

Henry de Buckingham, who was a Carmelite Friar of Tarmouth Monastery in Norfolk; and a Writer, as in Bishop Tanner's Felio Notilia Monastica:

Where is mention made of

Gilber t:

Gilbert de Bukingham, who, Anno 1347, 21 Edward III, procured a License to endow St. Laurence's Hospital in Buckingham, with Lands of the yearly Value of ten Marks, on Account that the Master and Brethren were grown so poor, that they could not maintain themselves; of which Complaint had been made ten Years before, viz. 1337, as is set forth in the Patents in King Edward the third's Reign: Which Prince Anno 1363 advanced

John Buckingham, Keeper of the Privy Seal, Archdeacon of Northampton, Rector of O'ney, and Dean of Lichfield, to the Bishoprick of Lincoln; and at his Death appointed him one of his Executors.

He also promoted another of both his Names cotemporary with him to divers great Preferments, viz.

John Buckingham, one of his Chaplains, on whom he bestowed Prebends in the Cathedrals of York, St. David's, and London, and in the Colleges of St. Stephen's Westminster, Abergvilly, and Bridgenorth; and made Rector of the rich Rectory of Harrow in Middlesex; of which he died possessed, 1386, eleven Years before Bishop Buckingham's Death. But besides these, I might ennumerate divers others of this Name: Particularly as not being Persons of Distinction.

And of the three Sir Richard Ingoldsbys, born all of them at Lenborough, as appears by the Parish Register of Buckingham, I shall refer to the Lord Clarendon's History for an Account of the last of them, viz. Major General Sir Richard Ingoldsby, who died 1685; and to other Authors, for some Account of his Brother Sir Henry Ingoldsby, born also at Lenborough, and created a Baronet by that Title, Anno 1661, who also signalized himself in the Wars; and died Anno 1701, one of the oldest Officers in the Army. And

As to Sir John Fleet, who was Lord Mayor of London, Anno 1693, born at Boreton, and apprentifed thence by Charity; I should pass him by as he was so destitute of Gratitude, as not to contribute the least Charity to his native Parish, in any of its greatest Exigencies.

Other Neglects might be inftanced in, were it not invidious to descend to Particulars: The promoting the Traffick of the Town by establishing Manufactures; reviving the Dignity and Style of its Magistracy; and restoring and adding to its publick Edifices, would derive and confer Honour upon, and perpetuate the Memory of those who bear a more immediate Relation to, and receive daily Advantages from it.

And it would no less redound to the Glory of the Gentry of the Shire, to which it gives Name; if they also would unite in their Endeavours, to improve and adorn it in such a Manner, as to render it in all Respects sit to be esteemed The CAPITAL of A COUNTY.

CHAP. VII.

Of this Town sending Burgesses to Parliament, with a List of their Names.

A S to this Town's not being antiently represented in Parliament, the following Reason may be affigned, viz. That the Demesses and Fee Farm Rent of it being vested in its Lords, They, through their Interest and Power, got it dispensed with; as it was not immediately held of the Crown, to which the Charge of having Burgesses, being Part of the Service due to the Royal Prerogative in Virtue of Tenure, was appendant.

And though this was a very antient Borough, and the only one in the whole County, Anno 1066, at the Time of the Norman Invasion, it is plain, that it never received any Summons to return Members to Parliament, before the End of Henry VIII's Reign; and though in Edward III's Time I find two Precepts issued to it; those Precepts were to fend to the King's Councils in Matters relating to Trade, and not to his Parliaments: The first of these directed, Anno 11, Ballivis Villae de Bokynzbam, being very strictly enjoined, they were obliged to comply with: And as it required them to send three or four de probioribus et discretioribus Hominibus distae Villae, they accordingly returned these three Men, whose Names are entered on the Dorse of the Writ, viz. Hugh Kynebell, Roger le Draper, and Henry de Selveston. The second Precept, directed, Anno 27, Majori et Ballivis de Bokynzbam, not being so strictly commanded, they found Meansto be dispensed with in the Execution thereof.

Nor did they ever receive any more, or any other-further Summons, 'till the 36th of Henry VIII. when, and in Edward VI's Parliaments, several greatTowns, that had got themselves exempted from the Burthen and Expence of having Burgesses in Parliament, were again called upon to return them; and also several of the dissolved Abby Towns, and other great trading Towns which had never as yet fent, had Writts issued to them to send Representatives to the King's Parliaments, as hath been shewn in Vol. i. of Notitia Parliamentaria; where is printed the above-mentioned Writ, Anno 11 Edward III. and Reference given to the Return Anno 1 Edward VI. which was executed by the Bailiff and eleven Burgesses; as also Anno 6 Edward VI. and Anno 1 Mary, also executed by the Bailiss and eleven Burgesses in all these three Parliaments preceding Queen Mary's Incorporation in the first Year of her Reign, which, feemingly from what had been accustomed in the three preceding Parliaments, limited the Choice of the Members to the Corporation only, viz. To the Bailiff and twelve capital Burgeifes: which was also done in King Charles II's Charter, when the Title and Style of Bailiff and Burgesses was changed into that of A Mayor and twelve Aldermen.

The Names of hefe Representatives in Parliament that have been accordingly elected and returned for this Town, are as follows:

Of St. Laurence's Hospital in this Town, all that I find is, that

Anno 5 Edward II. John Dalderby, Bishop of Lincoln, granted on May 15, 1312, an Indulgence of 20 Days to the Lepers of St. Laurence's Hospital in Buckingham.

And that Anno 10 Edward III, 1337, as in the Patents, there was a Complaint made, that the Master and Brethren of St. Laurence's Hospital in Buckingham could not live on their Allowance. Wherefore,

As it appears by the Patents, 21 Edward III, 1347, that King granted License to Gilbert de Buckingham, as is aforementioned Page 40, that he might give Lands, Tenements, and Rents, in the Town of Buckingham, of the yearly Value of 10 Marks, to a certain Chaplain to celebrate Divine Service, for the good Estate of the King, and the said Gilbert, for ever; dated January 21.

I presume, the small Estate of this Hospital being in the Crown, Queen Elizabeth, in the 40th Year of her Reign, sounded with it the present Hospital called Christ's Hospital, of which an Account is given among the Charities belonging to this Town in Chapter XV.

CHAP. IX.

Of Lands and Tenements bere given to Monasteries.

ESIDES the Chantries, Fraternities, and Hospitals in this Town, these other Religious Houses had Lands and Tenements here, viz.

LUFFIELD.

I find, in the Register of the Priory of Luffield, that William de Solare, and Robert his Son, and Roger Son of Walter de Solare, granted to the Priory of Luffield, two Tenements of the Value of 2 s. 6 d. as did Robert de Moreton and Catherine his Wise, a Rent of 6 d. out of a Messuage there. Adam de May also gave them 12 d. out of a House here. And Peter de Molendino, i. e. Miller, gave them a Rent of 6 d. out of his House. And Reginald de Hales and Oliva his Wise, gave them a Rent of 4 d. These Donations were confirmed for the most Part in Edward I's Time; and one of them is witnessed by William Janitor de Buckingham, who probably was Porter of Buckingham Castle. These Rents in Buckingham, Anno 17 Edward I, 1289, were returned to amount to 7 s. 6 d.

BIT LESDEN.

BITLESDEN.

William de Breose, Lord of Buckingbam and Boreton, confirmed the Gift of Thomas de Dadford, of Lands in Boreton to Bittlesden Abby, about the 36th of Henry III, 1252, as I find in the Chartularies of Bitlesden.

OSENEY.

John de Breose Son to William, re-leased to Oseney Abby his View of Frank-pledge in his Manor of Boreton, Anno 1 Edward III. 1327.

READING.

In the Fines N° 40, Anno 3 Johannis 1203, Philip Daumarti and Lucy his Wife, granted Lands in Lithingebery, [i. e. Lenborough,] to Reading Abby in Berksbire; which I find were, Anno 1291, returned to be of the Value of 21. 17 s. per Annum, as mentioned p. 37.

CHETWOOD.

In the Eschaet Bundles, 15 Richard II. Anno 1392, we find that John Chetwood Chevalier, died seized of 60 Acres of Wood in Lethenburgh, which held of the Priory of Chetwood.

NEWINTON-LONGUEVILLE.

In the Monasticon, Vol. iii. p. 112. as afore observed, we find that Walter Giffard, the second Earl of Bucking bam, gave to the Convent of Newinton, the Tithes of his Demesnes in Bucking bar and Boreton, about 1160.

Collections out of the Parent Rolls.

Anno 4 Henry VIII, 1513, A Demise to William Tyler of 2 s. Rent in Buckingham belonging to Luffield Priory.

Teste March 18.

Pat. 5. James I, 1607, The King grants to Sir William Herricke, and Arthur Ingram, inter alia a Messuage in the East-street in the Town of Buckingham, in the Occupation of Rebert Mitchel; a Close adjoining containing one Rood in the Occupation of the said Robert; a Messuage, Cottage, and one Rood and Half of Land there in West-street, in the Occupation of William Carye; a Messuage (Garden, and two Roods in East-street) now divided into two Cottages, in the several Occupations of John Palmer, and Giles Mathewe; a Cottage in West-street, in the Occupation of Christopher Chapman; a Cottage in Castle-street, in the Occupation of Richard Grissish; a Cottage there in the Occupation of Thomas Rawnse; two Cottages in Rombald's-lane, in the Occupation of James Hunt; a Cottage in Prebend-end, in the Occupation of William Jents; all which Premisses did belong to the Fraternity of the Holy Trinity in the Town of Buckingham in the County of Bucks, babend' in Fee reddendo 35 s. 4 d. Teste, I June.

CHAP. X.

Of the Town in general, its Castle, and Capital House of Barton, Fowler, and Lambard.

HAT this was a rich and flourishing Town in King Edward the Third's Reign, seems unquestionable from that Prince's fixing one of his Staples or Marts for Wool here. And that after the Removal of these Staples to Calais in France, several of the English Towns fell to such Decay, that their Fee Farm Rents to the Crown were in one Century reduced, and abated to considerably less than Half their ancient Payments, may be seen in Madox's excellent History entitled Inna Lurgi, printed in Folio, 1726.

And

And that this Town in particular, after Henry VII's Reign (who Anno Regni 11, 1496, enacted and ordained, its having the keeping of the Weights and Measures of this Shire, among the rest of the County Towns) sell to surther Decay, appears from the Statute made Anno 1535, 27 Henry VIII, which includes and enumerates it among other decayed Cities and Towns, for whose Relief and Benefit an Act was then made and obtained. However, it seems not to have been at that Time divested of its Goal; for about the Year 1545, as we are told in the Peerage of England, in the Account of the Earl of Pomsret's Family, that his Ancestor Richard Fermour, of Easten Neston in Northamptonshire, Esq. had his Estate seized on and taken away from him upon his having incurred a Praemunire, by relieving one Nicholas Thane, an obnoxious Popish Priest, who had been committed a close Prisoner to the Goal in the Town of Buckingham.

And as there never was a regular Goal at Aylesbury, 'till the same was established there by Act of Parliament made about the Year 1730 (when the House which had been for so many Years hired and rented for that Purpose, being purchased and rebuilt by the County, was made a perpetual one) we may hence undoubtedly conclude, that the Castle in this Town was the antient Place of Commitment of Malefactors within this Shire; as hath been most elegantly argued and made appear by a very learned Member of this Corporation, whose Authority may be further strengthened and confirmed by Instances of many Castles now remaining in Towns denominating Counties, and likewise in other Shire Towns, by being the present Receptacles for Prisoners and Felons within their respective Shires; as at Cambridge, Chester, Durbam, Gloucester, Lancaster, Lincoln, Oxford; Worcefter, York, and also at Launceston, Exeter, Norwich, Newcastle upon'Tine, and Sbrewsbury, within which Castles or their Precincts those County Goals. are fituate; as no doubt they were within the Castles of Bedford, Hereford, Leicester, Northampton, etc. while they were kept up.

And though several of these Castles had been antiently the King's Castles, yet when the Crown had given them up, and appropriated them to the Uses of the County, and they became the Prisonae Regis, and were delivered or turned over to the Sheriss; no future Constables were appointed to have the Custody of them; but they were altogether vested in the Sheriss: And an Act was made Anno 13 Richard II. 1390, to sever them from the Cities and Towns wherein they stood and to join them to their Counties.

When this Castle was thus assigned and put into the Sherists Hands I have not been able to discover; nor can I meet with the Names of any of its Constables; except that I find one Elias de Camvill, so stilled about 1280, Tempore Edvardi I. Nor do any of our Histories inform us when it was built; or how, or when it was suffered to go to Ruin; nor is there any Notice of it in Doomsday-Book. Wherefore it may be presumed to have been erected by Walter Gifford, the first Earl of Buckingbam; and to have been built on the Fortress raised by King Edward the Elder, Anno 918, and made by the said

* See the Magazines, and other printed Accounts, Anno 1748.

Earl

Harl Walter the Capital of his Barony within this Town. It being observed, by the learned Mr. Madox, in his accurate Account of Land Honours and Baronies, and Tenures in Capite, that Castles in Towns were deemed the Head of Baronies; and that they were in their Nature Baronial and Superior, and the Towns themselves Burgensic and Inserior, as he instances in Wallingsord and Richmond Castles, both which are now for the most Part demolished and in private Hands, as well as this our Castle of Buckingham; which, as I conceive, became quite neglected on the Attainder of the last Duke of Buckingham of the Name of Stafford, Anno 1521, 13 Henry VIII, and that by Degrees it became reduced to a Farm-House.

For in the Letters Patent, Anno 16 Elizabeth, 1574, I find the following Grant of it on January 26, "wherein the Queen grants to Edward Grimston, it fenior, and Edward Grimston, junior, the Castle Farm in Buckingham, and two Mills called Castle Mills, and four Acres of Meadow called the Milne "Home, and the River called Buckingham River, and 20 Messuages and

"Cottages to the same adjoining; all which Premisses were lately Parcel of the Possessions of Edward late Duke of Buckingham, attainted."

From Grimsten these Demesses became conveyed to the Family of Lambard. For I find William Lambard returned, Anno 1632, to have died seized of the Castle House in Buckingham; and so it came by Marriage to the Family of Bagot, who alienated their Estates here, about the Year 1676.67 This Part of it is now, Anno 1735, the Property of the Family of Bridges, Purchase from John Rogers, Esq. who divided it from the other Part of the Estate of the Bagots, which he and his Esther house.

the hitate of the Bagets, which he and his Father bought Anno 1680.

The many of the Houses, to the Number of 14 at least, lying about the Jessey Hill, having been burnt down in the dreadful Fire, Anno 1725, have never been since rebuilt.

There was, about the Year 1670, a famous Bowling-Green made on the Costie-Hill by Mr. Henry Robinson; who also set up a Stage-Coach to go from this Town to London; and built a large Room for the Entertainment of the Gentlemen of the County called Trolly-Hall, which the Duke of Buckingham, George Villiers, when at his Seat at Whaddon, often honoured with his Presence.

And on the Site of this Castle, as I have heard, have been holden the Asszes for the County of Buckingham, in Booths erected for that Purpose; and the Poll for Knights of the Shire was here said to have been taken on Adjournment of the Election from Aylesbury, in the Year 1679, when Thomas Egerley Esq. Lord of the Manor of Water Stratford, was Sheriff.

All that now remains of the Castle, Anno 1735, is a dark Room or two on the North Corner of the Hill, next Castle-street, inhabited by poor People, which overlooks the Town, and is seen above the rest of the Houses; which Part, as I conceive, was left standing because it had been antiently used as a Chapel to the Prison, it being called the Chapel-End.

And if on this Spot, the Lord Cobbam had erected some of his grand Edifices, they would have contributed much more to the Ornament and Beauty

Beauty of his Seat, and the Country about it, than they do where several of them now stand; as well as have been a perpetual Memorial of his Lordship's Gratitude and Affection to this Town and County; and would also have terminated divers Views and Prospects from his other Buildings, with greater Advantage and Magnificence, than any other Plan or Design that he can execute in or about his Park or Gardens.

Having thus spoken of the Castle, I come now to exhibit some Account of the Capital House of Fowler and Lambard.

This having been the Seat of John Barton, senior, who was, Tempore Richard II, and Henry IV, one of the Knights of this Shire in Parliament; was, with fix Acres of Land lying contiguous to it, with his other Estates, charged with the Payment of an annual Stipend of 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. to a Priest who was to celebrate daily Mass at his Chantry founded within the Church of this Town. And under Performance of these Conditions, and some other Services, it was bequeathed in his last Will and Testament (bearing Date June 5, 1431) to his Brother John Barton, junior, and to his Sisters Margaret and Isabel, with Remainder to his other Kin, as is set forth in his said Will here given; which devise centering in the Family of Fowler, became in less than 20 Years after his the faid Testator's Death, the Demesses of William Fowler, who having feated himself in this Capital Messuage belonging to Barton, and deceasing July 6, 1452, 30 Henry VI, was succeeded by Richard Fowler his Son and Heir; who, Anno 1467, represented this County in Parliament; and being in great Favour with King Edward IV, was by him made Chancellor of the Dutchy of Lancaster, and having the Manor of this Town granted him about the Year 1465, on the Duke of Bucking bam's Attainder; he, by Barton's Example, bestowed much on this Church; and rebuilt the great South Crofs Isle, still called by his Name; and new made St. Rumbald's Shrine, and did other Works of Charity, as may be seen in his Will exhibited in the next Chapter; and dying November 3, 1477, was buried in this Church, and succeeded by Edward Fowler his Son and Heir; who being a Gentle- Radiania man of great Property (as feems to me) entertained and lodged at this his Capital House, Catherine, King Henry VIII's first Queen. For as we are told in Grafton's Chronicle, p. 1004, she being at Buckingham, an Account was sent her thither by the King's General, the Earl of Surrey, of his defeating the Scotch Army in Battle at Flodden Field, and flaying their King Fames IV, on September 9, 1514; Part of whose Armour he fent her to this Place, for which she returned Thanks to God, and went a Pilgrimage to Walfingbam in Norfolk. Which Edward Fowler departing this Life, May 27, 1541, 32 Henry VIII, was succeeded by Gabriel Fowler his Son and Heir, who dying May 1, 1576, 18 Elizabeth, was succeeded by Richard Fowler his Son and Heir, who having conveyed this Capital Messuage with six Acres of Land to Francis and Edward Dayrel, Gents. and they, after three Months Possession, selling their Right, Title, and Interest therein, on June 18, 1592 following, to Mr. John Lambard, or Lambert; a Law Suit was af--terwards commenced, and an Ejectment brought against Mr. Lambard by one Theophilus Adams, who claimed the Estate, as couched under a Grant G_2 made made by the Crown, of Lands given to superstitious Uses. Whereupon a long Trial ensued, which is printed at large in the south Part of the Lord Chief Justice Coke's Reports; wherein the whole Proceedings are set forth in 21 Folio's in the last Edition, Anno 1727. And a Verdict being obtained in Favour of Adams, Anno 1603, Mr. Lambard having Anno 1607 compromised the Matter in Dispute between them, and bought out Adams's Claim, died in the Possession of the Premisses, Anno 1611, and was succeeded by his Son and Heir William Lambard; who, settling in this Capital House, expended a good deal of Money in the Repairs thereof, as may be seen by the Initial Letters of his Name and Arms, yet remaining over the Chimney of the great Parlour, and this Date, viz. 1617; and also other Dates from 1617 to 1624, in divers Parts of the House. He also, Anno 1623, made a Conduit, and brought Water in Pipes into the Offices of the House On the Leaden Pipes of which was W&M L, Anno 1619; and also on the Conduit still remains w W wiz. William and Mary 1623 L WM Lambard, on a Stone cut as here represented. And as the Inquisition taken after his Death, August 2, 1632 Anno 8 Charles I, sets forth, "died August 9, 1626, seized of a "Messuage called The Castle-House, and Lands in Buck- ingham and Gawcot, and the Manor of Stockholt Barns,

44 and 370 Acres of Land lying in Stockholi, Akeley, and Lillingstone-Dayrel, holden of New College, and a Wood called Three Slades, and 170 Acres " in Maids-Morton. And that by Mary his Wife, Sifter of Francis Craw-" ley, one of the King's Justices (who re-married Sir Edward Richardson) " he had Issue a Son named John, who died an Infant; and a Daughter " named Mary, of the Age of thirteen Years, fix Months, and fix Days." Who being Heir to the abovefaid Estate, brought it in Marriage to her Husband Edward Bagot, Esq. eldest Son and Heir to Sir Harvey Bagot, of Blithfield in Staffordshire, Bart. which very antient Family, as appears by the Pedigree, being Progenitors to the Staffords Dukes of Buckingham, may be faid to bear an hereditary Relation to this Town, which it is to be hoped will ever be patronized by their latest Posterity; especially by the worthy Baronet Families of the Bagots, Chesters, and Newdigates; who we hope will never be wanting in shewing their utmost Regard to it, on Account of their faid paternal Descent, as well as maternal Ancestor, their illustrious Great-Grandmother; of whom see a Character in the Baronettage of England. Vol. ii. p. 55. where we are told, that Sir Edward Bagot, Bart. by Mary bis Wife, Daughter of William Lambard of the Town of Bucks, Esq. High Bailiff of that antient Corporation, had Issue twelve Sons and five Daughters, of whom Walter, the eldest, succeeded to the Title; and Lambard, the second furviving Son, who was of Maids-Morton, and died 1702, founded an Hospital for fix poor Men, at Abbats Bromley in Staffordhire; and set up a Monument in Blithfield Church for his most deserving Mother; who, dying Officier 22, 1686, aged 67, bequeathed 100 l. to purchase Lands to cloathe annually four poor Widows of this her native Town of Buckingham, which was applied pursuant to her Will, and they now enjoy the Benefit of this her Charity ;

Charity; notwithstanding she and her Husband, Sir Edward Bagot, had Anno 167, alienated this their Capital House and Lands here, and sold the same to Mr. Stephen Monteage, a Citizen of London and Joan his Wise, who for some Time resided here. But about three or sour Years after removed again to London; and in the Year 1680, sold this Capital Mansson to Mr. John Rogers, senior; John Rogers, junior, his Son, joining also in the Purchase; who, about the Year 1706, having settled this Capital House on his Son Matthias Rogers, the present Possessor, Anno 1735. He new fronted it Anno 1708, and hath so well fitted up the Apartments, and so neatly and elegantly surnished them, that the Judges, on leaving their Quarters, at Mr. Mason's, the Recorder's House, and lodging here on their Circuits, have acknowledged, that they are in no Shire Town whatsoever better or more conveniently lodged and accommodated.

As this Town has been ever remarkable for its Orthodoxy and strict Attachment to the Principles of the Constitution both in Church and State, so here King Charles I. found an Asylum, and took up his Quarters, while the neighbouring Towns of Aylestury, Newport-Pagnel, etc. were garrisoned against him. The Room where his Majesty lay in the Capital House here, is yet known by the Name of The King's Chamber b.

Queen Elizabeth is also reported to have lodged at this Town.

And when the County Business is transacted here, the whole County has confessed, that the Reception they meet with in the Article of Provision, as well as in civil and obliging Usage, is not exceeded in any other of the Towns; there being no Place in the County that abounds with more courteous Shopkeepers, and ingenious Artificers.

Neither will it, we hope, be forgotten by that munificent Body the University of Oxford, that their most generous Benefactor and Patron, the famous Physician Dr. John Radcliff, was, the only Time he sat in Parliament, elected Burgess for this Town, and continued one of their Representatives to the Time of his Death: So that if it should be thought proper to give any of his yet undisposed-of great Charities to any other Place besides Oxford, it is to be wished, that this Town may be thought of, as a sit Place to preserve a perpetual Memorial of his Benefactions; as the same can be nowhere bestowed, where they will be more thankfully received, more gratefully acknowledged, nor more faithfully applied to the Uses to which they shall be assigned and given.

"And he gives to Margaret his Sifter 100 s. and a Silver Cup with the Cover, to pray for his Soul.

" And to his Sister Isabel the same Legacy.

" And

And makes John Barton his Brother, Alexander Sprat, Citizen of London, and Robert Forest his Chaplain, his Executors, and John Wakering, Master of St. Bartholomew's Hospital, Supervisor; and gives them the Residue of his Goods unbequeathed, to distribute according to their Consciences and Discretion, and to take reasonably for their Labour. And enjoins and requests that his Will may be performed and put in speedy Execution, as they shall answer it before the Supreme Judge. In witness whereof he has set his Seal on the Day and Year afore-mentioned.

Reg. Godyn (Fol. 726.) John Breton, Canon of Lincoln (Prebendary of Bucks) wills, 28 May 1463, to be buried in Bucks Chancel, if he died within twenty Miles of Bucks; and gives to William and John, his Brother's Sons, to continue at the Schools 20 l. to be paid them by four Marks yearly. To Bucks Church Antiphonale Optimum (i. e. a Pfalter). To Whaddon Church a Vestment, and Legacies to King's Sutton, Horley, and Hornton Churches. The rest of his Goods to go for the Good of his Soul, and Bishop Alnwick's Soul. Dated at Lincoln, and proved 21 July 1465.

N. B. He died April 6, 1465, and was buried in Lincoln Cathedral, with a long Inscription on his Grave-Stone; which see printed in the Survey of that Cathedral, Page 247.

John Ruding, who was made Prebendary of Buckingham 1471, and died 1481, rebuilt Bucks Chancel, as appears by his Arms in divers Parts of the Chancel, and in the Panes of the Glass Windows. He also repaired or rebuilt St. John Baptist's Chapel in the Town, as appears by his Arms there. This is also called St. Thomas Acon, and St. Thomas Becket's Chapel; and is now the Free-School. He gave a Folio Latin Bible in Vellum, now in my Possession, to this Church; in which are his Arms painted, and this Inscription written in it:

Hunc Librum vedit Pagister Johannes Rudyng, Archid. Lincoln; Cathernand in principali disco infra Cancellum Ecclesis sue Prebendal de Buckingham, ad usum Capellanorum et aliorum in eodem Studere volentium quamdiu duraberit.

The Motto of his Arms, as drawn in the Book, was, All may God amende.

CHAP. XII.

DESCRIPTION of the Church, and the Monuments in it.

HE Church here, which is dedicated to St. Peter and St. Paul, is built in Form of a Cross, and consists of a Body and two Isles, at the upper End of which on each Side are two Chapels or Oratories: That on the South Side was built to the Honour of St. Rumbald, and that on the North Side was probably an Enlargement of the Church in the Time of John Ruding, Archdeacon of Lincoln, and Prebendary here, who built the Chancel. This, as I presume, was dedicated to St. Catherine.

In the Intersection between the Church and Chancel stands the Tower, which supported a very tall leaden Spire, 'till it fell down on February 7, 1698-9.

From the Tower extends on the South Side a very large cross Isle, called Fowler's Isle, from Richard Fowler, who built it in the Reign of Edward IV, about which Time the Chancel was built by Prebendary Ruding And from the North Side of the Tower projects another cross Isle, called Poulton's Isle, from a Family seated at Boreton, which had a Burial Place here. The whole Fabrick is leaded throughout, and is a large Structure, ornamented with Windows of good Stone Work; but not losty enough for the Width, especially those in the Chancel, whose Roof is too low also. It is in Length about 163 Feet from East to West, and in Breadth from North to South in the cross Isle 90 Feet; and may be reputed the largest Church in the County except Wycombe.

The Arms of the Fowlers still remain under some of the Beams.

But to return to the Steeple:

This, as is aforesaid, was adorned with a very lofty Spire, erecting itfelf from the Basis of the Tower, to the Top of the Weather-Cock,, above 100 Feet; which with the Tower made the whole Height 163 Feet; and was, according to the general Gothick Rule, agreeable to the Length of the Fabrick. This Spire, which was the Glory and Ornament of the Town and County (as that of Hanslap is at present) being,

b In Destorough Church, in the County of Northampton, is this Epitaph: Hic jacet Sepulius: Ferdinando Poulton de Boorton, in Parochia et Gomitatu Buckingham, natus in hâc willa, wir omni Virtutis et Doctrinarum genere quondam Illustrissimus, necuon sedulus Scriptor, et Propugnator Legum bujus Regni, obiit 20 Die Januarii, Anno 1617, Actatis 82.

es afore mentioned, blown down, the Loss and Damage was given in by the Survey of Workmen at above 1000 l. and the Tower being somewhat shattered thereby, the top Part was pulled down, and made up with small, irregular, mean Pinacles, Pediments, and Ballisters, most improperly placed round it, and so lest, carried up only a little higher than the old Tower, in no Order or Style of Architecture correspondent to any other Parts of the Fabrick; notwithstanding there were considerable Sums raised towards rebuilding it, as it was before in an handsome Manner; the two Members of Parliament for the Town giving each of them 100 l. and the two Knights of the Shire 20 Guineas a-piece, besides other Contributions; all which being very ill applied, as well as the Money raised by the Sale of the Lead and Timber of the old Spire: the compleating and restoring it in Regularity, remains as yet a Work for suture Benefactors to undertake and bring to Persection. So as it may again exalt itself, and beautify the Prospect of the Town and Country about it.

In this Tower hang five large modern Bells, the Tenor computed to weigh twenty five Hundred. In the Chancel on the North Side is a Vestry. And in the Chancel Windows yet remain some Insignia of the Arms of the Builder or Founder Ruding, who in glasing the Windows, Chequered the Panes with Escallops and Crescents, being his Arms.

The Stone-Work of the Chancel is elegant, the Windows curiously wrought with Niches for Statues; and the Out-side is adorned with Battlements and Pinacles at Top. Without Side the Church is carved some Description of the Paschal Lamb in a Charger: And in a Niche on one Side of the North Window in Poulton's Isle is the Essigies of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

What Paintings were in Glass are entirely demolished except some Remains in a Window in Poulton's Isle, where are some Effigies of the Apostles, and a Crucifix.

In the Church and Chancel were several Brass Plates, and Effigies on Gravestones, which are torn off with the Inscriptions: whereof sour were in the Chancel; in the Body of the Church sive, in St. Romwald's Chapel two, in Poulton's Isle one, in Powler's Isle sour: Many of which had (besides the Effigies, etc.) Inscriptions round the Verges.

Over the East Window and North Porch are these Arms, being Ruding's, viz. A Crescent between six Mullets.

This Ruding was Prebendary of Buckingham, and Archdeacon of Lincoln, as is aforementioned: and lieth buried in Bigglefwade Church in Bedfordshire. He was collated to this Prebend and the Archdeaconry of Lincoln, on Ling. 6, Anno 1471, and died Anno 1481.

On the Roof of the Chapel adjoining to the North Isle, and Poulton's Isle, are the Arms of New College in Oxford, viz. Two Chevrons inter three Roses, which seems as if that Society gave the Timber that made that Part of the Roof.

In Fowler's Isle at the Bottom of two Beams are these Arms of Fowler, viz. Ermine, in Chief an Owl. These Arms are likewise under two other Beams. On the opposite Side was this Coat, viz. Three Wolves Heads erased; in Chief an Owl.

And

And under another Beam this Coat, viz. AWolf passant with a double Taile, in Chief an Owl: And here was antiently this Inscription: Drate pro Animabus Rici Fowler, Armigeri quondam Cancellarii domini Regis Edwardi IV. ducatus sue Lancastrie; et domine Johanne Aporis ejus qui quidem Ricus et Johanna hanc insulam in hac Occlesia fieri secerunt.

In the Church-Yard were two Croffes; and there is yet remaining a Sexton's House adjoining to St. Rumbald's Chapel, built probably for the Residence of a Person who should give Attendance, and watch the Shrine.

This Church being originally only a Chapel of Ease to King's Sutton in Northamptonshire, where St. Romwald was born; the Minister of Sutton, was antiently obliged to find a Curate to officiate here; and there are still paid on that Account, as I am told, 20 Nobles to the Minister of Buckingbam, out of the Impropriation of King's Sutton.

On the Outside, near the North Porch, is, on a black Stone set in the Wall, this Inscription; "Near this Place lieth the Body of John Stephens, Son of William Stephens, now living, who hath been Bailiff of this Corporation four Times. The said John was baptized the 9th of January, 1633, and buried the 23d of April 1676."

In the CHANCEL are these MONUMENTS:

In the MIDDLE ISLE, this,

Under this Stone, lies interred the Body of Mary, Wife of William Woolbead, of Bourton in this Parish. She departed this Life January 23, 1719, in the 65th Year of her Age.

In the Vestry is remaining this Inscription on a Stone taken out of the Church, Here lieth the Body of Anne, Widow of Edward Deane, of Pinnock in Gloucestershire, Gent. and of Jane her Daughter, late Wife to Stephen Monteage of this Town, Gent. who were in their Generation singular Examples of Piety and Virtue. Anno 1670.

In a Manuscript in the Library of James West, Esq. I meet with these Arms in the Church Windows remaining 1582, in Queen Elizabeth's Reign, viz. Fowler, Ermine within a Canton Gules, an Owl Argent, Beaked and Falconed Or, (Impaling Fidelow, his first Wise's Arms, viz. Argent, a Chevron, inter three Wolves Heads erased Gules, within a Bordure Azure five Mural Towers Or.) Also another Coat of Fowler, Impaling Argent, on a Bend Gules, three Martlets Sable, being for Joan his second Wise, whose Name was Davers. Here were the same Arms on another Coat, viz. Davers impaling Burley, viz. Ermine, a Bend Or, charged with three Chevronells Gules, being Joan Fowler's Father's and Mother's Arms.

In the Windows were also the Arms of Clare, Earl of Gloucester; Zouch, Lord Zouch, and Giffard, Earl of Buckingham.

And in the Chancel the Effigies of a Person praying to St. Peter, with this on a Label: Postas Petre poli mihi Breton claudere noli.

And on another praying to St. Paul, this: Daule Deo Chare mihi Laurens propitiare.

These Orations were no doubt placed here by John Breton, Prebendary of this Church, Temp. Henry VI, and Edward IV, for himself and his Curate Laurens.

Here were also on another Shield these eight Coats:

1. Fowler; An Owl, as before.

2. Nebule Argent and Gules.

3. Three Foxes Heads within a Bordure, as before.

4. Barry of fix, Argent and Gules; in Chief a Lion passant Azure.

5. Gules three Leopards Heads jessant Fleur de Lys Or; a Canton Ermine.

6. A Lion rampant Or, within a Bordure Argent.

7. Broke.

And in the Church Windows these Arms of Moor, which were, as I suppose, in the North cross Isle, viz. Argent, on a Chevron inter three Martlets Gules, as many Fleurs de Lys Or. And this Inscription: Drate pro Animas bus Thome Moor, et Alicie Trois ejus. And the Arms of Gifford, Earl of Buckingham, viz. Gules three Lions passant Argent.

Also here were repeated these Arms in other Windows, viz. Argent, a Chevron inter three Wolves Heads erazed Or; being the Arms of Fidelow. And, Gules a Crescent inter six Escallops Argent, 3, 2, and 1. being the Arms of Ruding; which are also in the School-House, as well as in the Church Windows.

The Parish of Buckingham, which is of large Extent, is bounded West by Tingwick and Ratcliff; North by Moreton; North-East by Thornborough; East by Padhury; and South by Hillesden and Presson. It contains about 3800 Acres; whereof 1600 are reputed to be in Lenborough Endshipp; 500 in Gawcot; 1200 in Boreton; and 500 in the Borough Part of the Town.

And it is affeffed to the Land-Tax at 613 l. 0 s. 5 d. The Number of Families in the whole Parish are returned to be 540; and of Souls about 3000. The Houses in the Town of Buckingham were reckoned to be 393. And the Vicarage is, with the Endowments, Surplice Fees, etc. reputed to be of the Value of 100 l. per Annum.

LISTS of the Archdeacons, Presendaries, and Vicars of Buckingham, and the Foundation and Endowment of the Vicarage.

ARCHDEACONS of BUCKINGHAM.

ALURE DUS PARVUS was the first that enjoyed this Dignity; he was instituted by the Founder Bishop Remigius, Anno 1092, as may be seen in the Survey of Lincoln Cathedral; where are given the Names of his Successors in a more particular Manner.

Gillebert succeeded about 1100.

Roger de Clinton succeeded Gislebert, and was 1129 made Bishop of Lichfield. Richard de Urvill succeeded 1129, and held it 1140; as did

David, Brother to Bishop Alexander, 1145 and 1171. [N. B. He was, Anno 1171, Sheriff of Bucks and Bedford Counties.]

Robert de Burnham was Archdeacon 1188; as was

Stephen 1192 and 1195; and William Bleys about 1212. He was, 1218, made Bishop of Worcester.

Matthew Stratton succeeded about 1219. He occurs Archdeacon Anno 1223, and, in his Will dated 1268, appointed to be buried at Oseney Abby in Oxford.

Percivall de Lavannia succeeded, being admitted 14 cal. Maii, 1270. He died 1290, being Prebendary of Aylesbury.

Richard de St. Frideswide succeeded, July 5, 1290; and died 1298, being Prebendary of Marston, St. Laurence.

Boniface de Saluciis was admitted by Papal Provision, March 10, 1298.

He exchanged it for the Precentorship of Salisbury, with George de Saluciis, June 28, 1319.

Roger de Waltham had this Dignity given him by the King June 21, 1323; but I presume was not admitted, for as I find

Ambaldus, Albanensis Episcopus, a Roman Cardinal, was admitted Off. 4, 1333, on George de Saluciis's resigning to him.

John Belveys was installed by Proxy, in February 1350, on Ambaldus's Death. He died about 1358, and was buried in Lincoln Cathedral.

John Herring de Ashborne (called in some Accounts John Ashborn) succeeded, and died in September 1361.

William de Ginewell was collated on Asbborne's Death, 3 id. Ostober, 1361, and enjoyed it till 1380.

John Evot succeeded, November 30, 1380, on Ginewell's Resignation; who changed this Archdeaconry for Langport Rectory in the County of Northampton, with Evot, and he the said Evot likewise changed it for the Subdeanry of York, with

Ralph Selby, LL. D. July 1, 1392. He died 1420, and was buried in Westminster Abby, having long before resigned this Dignity to Thomas Tuttebury, Anno 1401. He died next Year, being also Dean of Wells. William Milton, LL. D. succeeded, being collated February 26, 1402. He died 1424, being Dean of Chichester, and was buried in that Cathedral.

Thomas Beckington succeeded, being admitted October 15, 1424, on William Milton's Death. He was, Anno 1443, made Bishop of Wells.

Richard Andrews succeeded, about 1444, and was 1466 made Dean of York, and refigned this to John Bouchier, whom I find installed by Proxy, April 2, 1474. He died 1495, and was buried in Canterbury Cathedral, where he was also Archdeacon, and succeeded by Robert Sherborne, admitted February 13, 1495. He was Anno 1505 preferred to the See of St. Davids.

Charles Booth, LL. D. succeeded June 16, 1505, and was, 1516, made Bishop of Hereford.

John Taylor, LL. D. succeeded, being installed December 24, 1516, and died 1534, being Rector of Sutton-Cofield, in the County of Warwick.

Richard Layton, LL. D. was collated Ostober 14, and installed 27 Ostober 1534. He died 1544, being Rector of Breinton in the County of Northampton, and Dean of York; and was succeeded by John Longland, A. B. collated June 17, and installed June 21, 1544. He was deprived, Anno 1554, for Marriage, as it seems to me; and Richard Porter, instituted May 23, 1554. He was ejected by Queen

Elizabeth; and John Longland restored 1559. He died and was buried at Tingwick, near Buckingham, where he was Rector, November 7, 1589; and succeeded by Erasmus Webb, B. D. installed November 12, 1589. He died March 24, 1613, and was buried at Windsor, where he was Canon; and succeeded by

Richard Newell, B. D. installed April 26, 1614. He died 1643, at Winchester; and was succeeded by

Giles Thorne, S. T. B. collated 1643, though not installed till July 19, 1660. He died June 25, 1671, and was buried at St. Mary's Church in Bidford, where he was Rector; and succeeded by John Hillersden, S. T. B. installed August 26, 1671. He died November 1, 1684, and was buried at Stoke-Goldington, near Newport-Pagnell, where he was Rector; and succeeded by John Gery, LL. D. removed hither from Stow Archdeaconry November 4, 1684. He died July 17, 1722, and was buried at Swebston in the County of Leicester; and succeeded by Nicholas Clagett, A. M. Rector of Breington in the County of Northampton, collited September 24, 1722. Since S. T. P. and Dean of Rochester, who is the present most worthy Archdeacon, Anno 1735.

The Value of this Archdeaconry, in the King's Book, according to Ellon, is 87 l. 14 s. 1 d. and the yearly Tenths 8 l. 15 s. 5 d. $\frac{1}{4}$; though according to my Account it is only 82 l. 14 s. 5 d. and the Tenths 8 l. 5 s. 5 d.

PRE-

HISTORY OF BUCKINGHAM.

PREBENDARIES of BUCKINGHAM.

The Rectorial Tithes of this Place (subordinate to Sutton in the County of Northampton) were very early appropriated to Lincoln Cathedral, viz. Anno 1090, and became one of the first Prebends of that Church, and also the best endowed.

The Prebendaries of Sutton cum Buckingham which our Records furnish us with, are these following:

Richard de Gravesend is the first I meet with. He came in about 1265, and was, from this Dignity and the Archdeaconry of Northampton, made Bishop of London 1280. After him

Jeffry de Edenham occurs possessed of it 1300; as does Neapolio Santti Adriani Cardinalis 1303. He died 1347, very aged; having, I suppose, some Time before resigned this to

William Killesby, for he occurs possessed of this Stall 1342; as does

Thomas de Brembre, 1349. And,

William Wickham, 1363. In 1367 he was made Bishop of Winchester.

John Branspath enjoyed it 1368; as did

Cardinalis de Albanum 1378. He was, I presume deprived; and John Bacon substituted in his Place 1381. He held it 1385. However I find Peter, Cardinalis Santti Georgii, introduced by the Pope 1388, notwithstanding the King's Edict against Foreigners taking Ecclesiastical Preferments; however he was next Year succeeded by Henry Beaufort, Anno 1389; but he was forced to part with it the same

Year to

Henry Cardinal of Naples, February 16, 1389.

Henry Rumford, alias Cirencester, was collated September 17, 1402. He died 1420, being also Archdeacon of Canterbury; and was succeeded by

Robert Gilbert, S. T. P. collated October 31, 1420. He was, 1436, made

Bishop of London; and succeeded by William Aiscough, instituted November 10, 1436. He was, 1438, made

Bishop of Salisbury, and succeeded by Nicholas Dixon, collated July 28, 1438. He died October 10, 1448, and was buried at Chesbunt in the County of Hertford; and succeeded by John Breton, collated November 2, 1448. He died April 6, 1465, and was buried at Lincoln Cathedral, and succeeded by John Chedworth, instituted April 4, 1465. He died 1471, being Rector of Stepney, where he appointed to be buried, viz. at Stepney.

John Ruding, LL. B. succeeded, being collated August 6, 1471. He died .1481, and was, as is said, buried at Bigleswade in the County of Bedsord, where he built the Chancel, and erected a Monument for himself. The Inscription on which see printed in the Survey of Lincoln Cathedral.

Richard Lavender, B. D. succeeded, being collated November 6, 1481. He finished, as I conceive, Buckingbam Chancel, begun by his Predecessor

Ruding, and was buried there.

William Smith, LL. D. succeeded, being collated February 18, and instituted February 23, 1507, on Lavender's Death. He died 1528, being also Archdeacon of Lincoln; and was succeeded by

Richard

Richard Pate, instituted June 22, 1528, on Dr. Smith's Death. He became afterwards Archdeacon of Lincoln, and Bishop of Worcester; but was attainted for opposing King Henry VIII's Measures, Anno 1542. And,

Richard Cox, S. T. P. inftituted by the King's Mandate June 11, 1542. He was afterwards Bishop of Ely, and surrendered up this Prebend, Anno 1547, (as has been shewn p. 38. in Gawcot) being then valued at 110 l. 3 s. 6 d. clear of all Deductions; and since his Time we hear of no more Prebendaries: For though, near 100 Years after Cox's Surrender, one

George Heath got a Title to it, Anno 1643, as did

Hugh Barcroft, S. T. P. Anno 1660, and was instituted June 17, 1661; as was also Thomas Stanbope, A. M. on Dr. Barcroft's Death, June 13, 1669; yet as they could make out no legal Right to it, so there has not been so much as any other nominal Prebendary since Stanbope's Death, which happened Anno 1674 or 1675.

VICARS of BUCKINGHAM.

Though here was a Church very early in the Saxon Age, yet it was dependent on King's Sutton in Northamptonshire, 14 Miles off; which was no Doubt one continued Parish, comprizing all the intermediate ones; which being however taken out of Sutton Parish, and made distinct Parishes (as Brackley, etc. were) yet the Rector or Presbyter of Sutton would not part with Buckingham: And so That with Horley and Hornton in Oxfordshire, being at the same Time also made Prebendal to Lincoln Cathedral, in the Reign of William II, Anno 1090, the Vicar (or rather the Prebendary of Sutton cum Buckingham, Horley and Hornton Vicarage) put in Curates or Chaplains, to supply the Chapels of Buckingham, Horley, and Hornton, till Bishop Alnwick's Time, when between the Years 1442 and 1446 there were two Vicars ordained, one at Buckingham to take Care of that Parish; and another to take Care of Horley and Hornton: This was done by the Assent of Nicholas Dixon, Prebendary of Sutton cum Buckingham, in whose Time the first regular Vicar of Buckingham was ordained; who I presume might be

Robert Rashe, alias Craven, instituted about 1445. He exchanged it for

Flixby Rectory in this Diocese, Anno 1457, with

Robert

Robert Sharp, and he became instituted on the Presentation of John Breton, Prebendary of Sutton cum Buckingham, June 22, 1457.

Thomas Shipnam, or Chipman, was instituted October 15, 1490, on the Prefentation of Richard Lavender, Prebendary of Sutton and Buckingham, on the Resignation of Robert Sharp.

William Dorcett, or Dorset, was instituted August 17, 1497, on the Presentation of Richard Lavender, Prebendary of Sutton and Buckingham, by the Relignation of William Chipman.

Richard Smith was instituted August 23, 1510, per Mortem Dorcett, on the Presentation of William Smith, Prebendary of Sutton and Buckingham.

Themas Cause, per Mortem Ricardi Smith, was instituted November 14, 1511, ad Presentationem Willielmi Smith, Prebendary of Sutton and Buckingham.

George Howorth, per Mortem Cause, was instituted May 24, 1524, ad Presentationem Willielmi Smith, Prebendary of Sutton and Buckingham. He was, Anno 1534, returned to be Vicar here, and that William Tyte, Thomas Hawkins, and William Walter, were Cantatores or Chantry Priests Officiatory infra Ecclesiam at the same Time, viz. 1534; he died 1538, and was succeeded by Robert Hall, instituted April 10, 1538, on Heyworth's Death, ad Presentationem Ricardi Pate, Prebendary of Sutton and Buckingham. He occurs Vicar Anno 1547; and I suppose held it till 1560 or 1561, when I find

William Davers, instituted January 12, 1561, on the Presentation of the Bishop of Lincoln, per Lapsum, to this Vicarage, then void by the Death of the last Incumbent, not named, no doubt Hall.

William Wilby succeeded 1581.

Alexander Sheppard, LL. B. after LL. D. Vicar of Whitchurch, was instituted to this Vicarage, February 2, 1599, on the Death of the last Vicar, not named, on the Presentation of Robert Johnson, Esq.

Thomas Whithy was instituted 1619, per Cessionem Sheppard. He died and was buried in the Chancel here, April 10, 1646. After him

William Stilton got into this Vicarage, and subscribes himself Vicar 1649, and 1652, and after the Restauration got a legal Title to it, July 31, 1662, on the Presentation of William Denton, M. D. Edward Ffust, Alexander Denton, and George Woodward, Esgrs.

William Warters, Vicar of Ambrosden, succeeded, being instituted 1663, on Stilton's Death. He got afterwards Forscot Rectory, and died possessed of this Vicarage, and Forscot; and was buried here May 8, 1672.

Oliver Pashler, A. M. succeeded, and was presented and instituted Aug. 2, 1672, on the King's Title, on Warters's Death. He was buried here February 25, 1724, and was succeeded by the present Vicar, 1735, viz.

Thomas Price, LL. B. instituted May 15, 1725, on Mr. Justice Denton's Presentation.

I meet with no Terrier of this Vicarage, but I am informed that there are belonging to it, besides the Site of the Vicarage House (and Gardens of an Acre of Ground, which extend down to the River) about 30 Acres of Pasture

Pasture Ground, and 21 Acres of Arable, in the Parish; and that Dr. William Clark, Dean of Winchester, who died 1679, endowed it with an Estate in Essex, settled upon Benefices in some sew particular Market Towns, which communibus annis yields to each of the Incumbents about 15 l. per Ann.

The Valuation of it in the King's Books is 22 l. and the clear yearly Value is given in at 43 l. 17 s. in Eston's Valor.

CHAP. XIV.

Of the Foundation of the Free-School, and the Names of the Masters.

F the Foundation of the School in this Town I could never learn any exact Account.

What I have been able to collect is, that Dame Isabel Denton (as she is called in the Return, made into the Exchequer, of Colleges and Chantrics at their Dissolution, Anno 1547) gave by her Will about the Year 1540, sour Marks yearly to a Priest to teach Children in this Town, in Augmentation of his Living for twenty Years; of which eight Years were then said to have been expired, Anno 2 Edward VI.

Which Prince, in order to found the said School, as I have been informed, gave a Stipend of 10 l. 8 s. 0 d. \(\frac{3}{4}\) per Annum, payable out of the Exchequer, on taking away the Lands of St. Thomas Acon's College in London, which lay near this Place: And so the Chantry Chapel of St. John the Bartist in this Borough (called also St. Thomas Becket's Chapel) having been obtained from the Proprietors thereof, became converted into a School, and hath continued one ever since: And the Master's House adjoining unto it having been burnt down about the Year 1685, was rebuilt Anno 1696, in a very handsome Manner, by Alexander Denton, Esq. Father to the Honourable Mr. Justice Denton.—The Names of the Schoolmasters, or of as many of them as I can recover, are as follows:

Henry Webster seems to have been appointed Schoolmaster by the aforesaid Isabel Denton. He occurs Anno 1553, and then supplied the Cure of Buckingbam Parish, where he was buried Anno 1569, in the Parish Church.

Alexander Sheppard taught School here Anno 1574. He was made Vicar of Whitchurch, Anno 1580; and of this Parish of Buckingham, Anno 1599.

Thomas Potter, A. M. seems to have come in about 1580. There was, in the Year 1599, an Inhibition iffued out against him by the Archbishop of Canterbury, John Whitgift, that he should not preach nor teach School in Villa de Bucks. So that, as I suppose, he was put out; and

James Smith was put in his Place; for he occurs Schoolmaster 1594 and 1609, as does

Register Whitgift, f 112.

L

Richard

Richard Earle, Anno 1617. He was discharged Anno 1625, by the Corporation of Buckingham, for Neglect of his School; he died 1635, Vicar of Stown.

Richard Horne was elected in Earle's Place on Lady-Day, 1625, and occurs 1633; he became afterwards Rector of Finnere.

Thomas Dutton, A. M. succeeded Horne, Anno 1633; his Successor was Edward Ummant, A. M. elected 18 May, 1638. He was, 1645, made Vicar of Padbury; but, as I judge, kept the School, and employed for his Ushers or Assistants here, Mr. Pain, Mr. Thompson, and Mr. Stephens, the last of whom, viz.

Thomas Stephens, became licensed Schoolmaster here March 19, 1660. He was an excellent Master, and bred up several good Scholars: particularly the great William Lowndes of Winslow, Esq. who spoke much to me in his Praise, and told me, that he quitted this for a greater School. His Successor was

William Warters, A. M. Vicar of this Parish, elected Oslober 1, 1664, who held it for a Year, and then refigned it; and was succeeded by

· Roger Griffith, A. B. Vicar of Padbury, elected October 1, and licensed

Fibruary 20, 1665. He died 1682, and was succeeded by Thomas Dalby, A. M. elected January 16, 1682. He was afterwards Vicar of Wendover, and died 1728, being then Rector of Church-Lawford in Warwickshire.

Thomas Yeomans succeeded to the Mastership 1685, and quitted it for that of Brackley School, 1690.

Mark Noble, Curate of Maids-Moreton supplied it 1690 and 1691.

Robert Styles became elected 1692, who having raised a very good School here, to the great Loss of the Town quitted it for Northampton School; and died Rector of Tyringham and Preston Benefices, both which were given him by his Scholars here, Mr. Backwell, and Mr. Justice Denton.

Thomas Ford, A. B. Son of an Alderman of this Town, became elected Schoolmaster October 21, 1696. He was afterwards Chaplain of Christ-Church Oxford, Minor Canon of Bristol, and Prebendary of Wells, and was beneficed in that Diocese; where he is yet living, Anno 1735.

Samuel Foster, A. M. Vicar of Little Harwood, succeeded May 17, 1709, and quitted it on being made Vicar of Swanborne, 1715.

Richard Cardwell, A. B. succeeded 1715, and quitted it on being made. Vicar of Raundes in Northamptonshire. His Successor was

William Halfted, A. M. elected July 29, 1723, who is the present Master, Anno 1735, and also Vicar of Thornborough and Padbury.

N. B. This School-Room, which as before observed, was originally a Chantry Chapel (and founded by Matthew Stratton, Archdeacon of Buckingham, who died 1268, in Henry III's Time) being fallen to Decay, was rebuilt in Edward IV's Time, by Archdeacon John Ruding, then Prebendary of Buckingham; and dedicated to St. John the Baptist, and Thomas of Acon alias Becket. Over the Altar (as in a Drawing in my Collections) on the Boards of the Cieling, was depicted an Holy Lamb bleeding, and on reach Side two Angels, or Monks, with Cups to catch the Blood; underneath the Lamb was St. John the Baptist's Head in a Charger, and Ruding's Motto, All may God amende. Which was remaining 'till 1688, when it was destroyed, as a Relict of Popery, by the School Boys. The rest of the Work was decorated with Crescents and Escallops, as were the Panes of the Windows, and the Back of the Master's Seat, being Ruding's Arms, as in Buckingbam Chancel Windows. The last Priest of this Chapel, while it was used pro divinis celebrandis in Edward VI's Time, was Thomas Hawkins. It was endowed with a small House joining to the Cross Keys Inn, and a Tenement and two Acres of Pasture, at the North-East End of the Town. The whole Revenues were given in at the Diffolution Anno 1547, at 3 l. 9 s. per Annum.

CHARTERS' of INCORPORATION, Anno 1553, the first of Queen Mary, and Anno 1684, the thirty-sixth of King Charles II, with the Lists of the Bailiffs and Mayors.

IN the 27th Year of King Edward III, as appears by our Records, the Town of Buckingham had A Mayor and Two Bailiffs.

In Henry VIII's Time Buckingham had a Bailiff and Burgesses, who made the Return of the Members of Parliament.

And also in Edward VI's Reign, the Bailiff and eleven Burgesses elected and returned them. And when

The Style of Bailiff and Burgesses was, by King Charles II, changed into that of Mayor and Aldermen, the Election and Return of the said Members of Parliament was made by the Mayor and Aldermen, in like Manner, as it was directed to be in Queen Mary's Charter; which is as follows:

Defender of the Faith, and of the Church of England and Ireland the Supreme Head; To all them to whom this present Writing shall come, greeting. Whereas Our beloved and faithful Subjects of Our Town of BUCKINGHAM, in the County of BUCKINGHAM, for the Government and better ordering the same Town, have humbly entreated Us, That We would be pleased to create and ordain the said Town and the Inhabitants thereof into a Body Corporate of one Bailiff and Burgesse: Know

ve that We graciously considering, and yielding to their Petition, and knowing that the faid Our Subjects, of whose Fidelity and Care towards Us We have have had true Certificate, as by the Relation of Our Nobles, Barons, and Subjects, as also of Our own fure Trust and Princely Knowledge; especially in the Time of the Rebellion of John late Duke of Northumberland, attainted and convicted of High Treason, he and his Confederates attempted against Us; that the said Our Subjects did most faithfully cleave unto Us, and manfully refifted and withflood the said Rebellion; And that Our said Subjects may be the better and fullier certified of Our Princely Affection and Favour We bear to them, for the same Cause of Our especial Grace and sure Knowledge, and out of Our own mere Motion, and by these Presents, for .. Ourselves, Our Heirs, and Successors, We will, ordain, appoint, decree, and grant, that the said Town and Parish of Buckingham, in Our said County of Buckingbam, for ever hereafter is, and shall be, a Free Borough corporate, in Deed, Fact, and Name, for ever, confifting of one Bailiff and twelve Burgesses, by the Name of the Bailiss and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, in the County of Buckingbam: And that the Bailiff and Burgesses of the said Borough and Parish shall, for Time to come, be one Society and one Body corporate and politick, in Deed, Truth, and Name, by the Name of One Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, in the County of Buckingbam aforesaid, and shall for all Times hereafter so continue: And that the Bailiff and Burgesses of the same Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, for the Time being hereafter for ever, are and shall be a Body Corporate, and a perpetual Commonalty in Truth and in Name, and shall have a continual Succession for ever. And the said Bailiff and Burgesses We create and erect, ordain, make, constitute, declare, and incorporate to be one Commonalty, and one Body Corporation Politick of themfelves, really and fully for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, by these Presents. And We will and command the faid Bailiff and Burgesses of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingham, for Time to come hereafter, ever to be called, efteemed, and named by the Name of Bailiff and Burgesses of the said Borough. and Parish of Buckingbam, in the County of Buckingbam aforesaid: And that they may by the same Name, be published, proclaimed, impleaded; may follow, defend, and be defended; answer to Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, and be answered in all Our Courts and Places whatsoever, as well in all and fingular Actions, Suits, Complaints, and Causes, Demands real and perfonal, or mixt, as in all and fingular other Causes, Businesses, and Matters whatsoever. And that the said Bailiff and Burgesses, and their Successors, may and shall have one Common Seal for all their Causes and Business to be done and handled; and that it shall be lawful for them and their Succeffors, the faid Seal to break, change, and to make a-new at their Pleafure. MCREOVER We will, and by these Presents, for Ourselves, our Heirs, and Successors, We appoint and ordain, that the said twelve Burgesses be and shall be named, the principal Burgesses of the aforesaid Borough and Parish of Buckingham. And that every one of the same Burgelles for the Time being, and every Person that shall be hereafter chosen and named to the Office of a Chief Burgess of the Borough and Parish aforesaid, shall have and hold to himself, and his Heirs, Lands and Tenements to the clear and yearly Value of thirteen Shillings and four Pence, or shall have and be worth in Goods and Chattels to the Value of twenty Pounds. Moreover We will. and by these Presents We grant and ordain, for Ourselves, Our Heirs, and Succeffors, that in the faid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, there is, and shall be one Officer, who shall be called and accounted the Steward of the fame Borough, and do and execute by himself, or by a sufficient Deputy or Deputies, all and every of those things that appertain to his Office. And that all and fingular the Premisses may obtain their due and larger Effect, Know ye, that We of Our special Grace, certain Knowledge, and mere Motion, have affigned, named, made, ordained, and by these Presents, for Ourselves, Our Heirs, and Successors, do affign, name, make, and ordain Our wellbeloved John Lambert, an honest Man and Inhabitant in the faid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, to be, and so he is, the first and new Bailiff of the Borough and Parish of Buckingbam aforesaid. And he shall be sworn Bailiff of the faid Borough and Parish by a corporal Oath, faithfully to perform the faid Office 'till the Feaft of St. Philip and Jacob next enfuing; and from the faid Feaft 'till some other chosen Person shall be in due Form sworn in like lawful and faithful Manner to perform the faid Office.

Moreover We have affigned, named, made, ordained, and by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, do assign, make, name, ordain, Our well-beloved faithful Subjects John Wicken, Edward Miller, Thomas More, Richard Whit, William Phillips, Robert Gyreld, John Gates, William Vesie, William Sympson, John Brysto, Thomas Wood, and Gilbert Smith, Inhabitants of the faid Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, to be the first twelve new Principal Burgesses of the said Borough and Parish; and to be by their Oath corporally taken the first Common-Council of the Borough and Parish aforesaid. Also We assign, make, name, ordain Edward Chamberlain the first and new Steward of the aforesaid Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, having taken his corporal Oath for the exercifing, doing, executing of Justice, and all other Things which do or may and ought to appertain to the Office of Steward, to be performed by him, or by a sufficient Deputy or Deputies. Further We will of Our own Knowledge and gracious Motion, We grant for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, by these Presents, to the said Bailiff and Burgesses of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, that they and their Successors have and hold a certain Court before the said Bailiff, three Burgelles, and the Steward of the Borough and Parish aforefaid, or his fufficient Deputy or Deputies for the Time being, in a Common Hall, or some other Place in the same Borough more convenient to hold the faid Court, from three Weeks to three Weeks for ever. And that the taid Bailiff, three Burgesses, and Steward, or his sufficient Deputy or Deputies, shall have full Power and Authority of hearing and ending in the said Court, all Complaints in the faid Court, commenced and fingular Pleas, Complaints, and Actions, of all and fingular Debts, Accompts, Bargains, Contracts, Transgressions by Force or Arms, made or otherwise, in Contempt of Us or our Heirs, all Assemblies made, detaining of Goods, Contempts, Deceits, and all other Things and Actions, real, personal, and mixt, whatfoever, within the faid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, within the Precincts, Bounds, and Liberties thereof, in any Manner arising, or rising, growing, or chancing, or that chances, so that the said Debts, Accompts, Bargains, Contracts, Transgressions, and other Actions, do not exceed the Sum and Value of five Pounds. And that the faid Bailiff, three Burgesses, Steward, or his sufficient Deputy or Deputies, sufficient for the Time being, shall have Power, Authority, and Liberty in and upon all such Complaints, Pleas, Quarrels, and Actions against the Persons Desendants, against whom fuch Complaints, Plea or Actions, are to be laid, levied, or named in the faid Court, to bring them to their Answer by Declaration, Attachment, and Distress, according to the Laws and Customs of Our Realms of England; and for Defect and Want of Cattle, and Lands of the faid Defendants within the Borough aforesaid, the Limits, Bounds, and Liberties thereof, where and by whom the same may be taken, attached, and detained by Attachment of their Bodies; and all and fingular the Premisses to hear separately, and by the like Process, Considerations, and Executions of Judgments, to finish and conclude as before Our Justices in Our Court holden in the said County are adjudged and concluded. And that the faid Bailiff, three Burgesses, and Steward aforesaid, or his sufficient Deputy or Deputies of the faid Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, for the Time being, shall hear and determine all and fingular the Premisser according to the Necessity of Justice, the Form of the Laws, Statutes, Ordinances, of this Realm of England, from Time to Time, within the said Borough and Parish. And the said Bailiff and Burgesses of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingham, and their Successors, may have and receive, and shall have and receive, for the Use and Benefit of them the faid Borough and Parish, all Fines, Amercements, Extents, and all other Inrollments, and Profits growing, coming, arifing, and issuing from and to the said Court, to the Use and Benefits of the said Borough and Parish to be employed. Moreover We will and grant by these Presents, for Ourselves, Our Heirs, and Successors, to the said Bailiff and Burgesses of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, and to their Successors, that they have and shall have full Power, Authority, and Liberty to affign, name, constitute, and ordain one fit Person to the Office of Under Bailiff of the said Borough and Parish, to serve in the foresaid Court, and to do, execute, and perform all Proclamations, Express Executions, and other Things belonging, concerning, and appertaining to the faid Office, within the aforesaid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, and the Limits, Bounds, and Precincts thereof. Furthermore of Our ample Grace and Favour, and for the better Maintenance and Support of the faid Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, We will and grant by these Presents, for Ourselves, Our Heirs, and Successors, to the aforesaid Bailiff and Burgesses of the aforesaid Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, that the said Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, in the County of Buckingbam, are, and shall be Persons able and capable in the Laws or Breif in Our Court of M Chancery

Chancery first had, obtained, followed, and returned, to enquire, receive, and take to them, and their Successors, or otherwise, Governments, Manors of Lands, Rents, Reversions, Services, Hereditaments, Liberties, Franchises, Rights, Jurisdictions, and all other Privileges whatsover, within the Borough of Buckingham, fituate, lying, and being, which are not immediately holden of Us in capite, or by Knights Service, nor by any other Person or Persons by Knights Service, so that the said Governments, Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Hereditaments, Liberties, Franchifes, Rights, Jurifdictions, and Privileges exceed not the yearly Value of twenty Marks. FURTHERMORE We will and grant by these Presents, for Ourselves, Our Heirs, and Successors, to the aforesaid Bailiff and Burgesses of the aforesaid Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, that the said Bailiff and Burgesses, and their Successors, may have, hold, and shall have and hold to them for ever, one Market every Tuesday in every Week, in the said Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, to be held and kept: And two Fairs to be there yearly kept and held, of which Fairs the first to begin at twelve o'Clock of St. Matthew's Day, and to continue 'till twelve o'Clock the next Day; and the other to begin at twelve o'Clock of the Feast-Day of St. Mark the Evangelist, and to continue 'till twelve o'Clock the next Day, together with the Beaft-Market to continue during the Time of those Fairs, together with the Stallage, Fines, Americaments, and all other Profits, Commodities, etc. whatfoever, having, belonging, growing, or arifing from fuch Fairs or Markets, together with all Commodities, Libertics, and Customs, to such Markets and Fairs belonging or appertaining, to the proper Use and Behoof of the faid Bailiff, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the faid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, for the Time being, of them with all their Commodities, Liberties, and Customs, belonging and appertaining to such Markets and Fairs, to be taken and used, unless the said Markets and Fairs be to the Hurt of the neighbour Markets, etc. And wherefore We will and command for Ourselves, Our Heirs, and Successors, that the faid Bailiff and Burgesses, and their Successors, for ever, have and enjoy the faid Markets and Fairs, unless that Market and Fairs be to the Hurt of neighbour Markets and Fairs. And Morrover, of Our further Grace We grant and will by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs, and Succeffors, do grant to the aforesaid Bailiff and Burgesses, and their Successors for ever, to limit, affign, and appoint one Prison or Goal in some convenient Place within the Borough aforesaid, at their Discretion, for the said Bailiff and Burgesses, or their Deputies, or their Steward, to take and keep in, from Time to Time, all fuch Persons as shall be found and taken worthy to be fent to Prison, and there to be safely kept until they thence be delivered according to the Form of Law. FURTHER ye shall know, that of Our special Grace, certain Knowledge, and mere Favour, We have granted for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, and by these Presents do grant to the aforesaid Bailiff and Burgesses, of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingham, and to their Successors, vive pledge, i. e. Session or Leets of all and singular their Inhabitants, either wholly dwelling or not wholly residing and inhabiting within the foresaid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, and within the Limits and Bounds belonging to the old Borough of Buckingham, and all Things which appertain to the faid Frank-Pledge, i. e. Leets, or may or ought to belong and appertain, to be kept and held in the aforesaid Common Hall or House within the said Borough of Buckingham, to wit, twice in the Year: One Time within a Month after the Feast of St. Michael, and the other Time within a Month after Easter: To be kept before the said Bailiff and Steward of the faid Borough and Parish aforesaid, only for the Time being, and yearly to be kept, to render unto Us, our Heirs, and Successors, yearly, for the Fee and Profits of the foresaid Courts, and for the Markets and Fairs aforefaid, twenty Shillings, at the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel, to be paid into the Exchequer of Us, Our Heirs, and Successors. And the faid Bailiff and Burgesses may and shall have all and singular Fines, Rents, Charges, Amercements, and all other Profits coming, growing, or arising by any Means from and concerning the Frank-Pledge, i.e. Leet or Section, to the proper Use and Behalf of the said Bailiff, Burgesses, and Commonalty aforesaid, of the aforesaid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, for the Time being, of them to be taken and employed. FURTHERMORÉ, We will, and by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, We do grant and declare, that the Bounds, Limits, Meeres, Circuits, and Precincts of the Borough and Parish aforesaid, extend and stretch forth themselves by and through the whole Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, and is butted out by a certain Bridge called Dudley Bridge, fituate at the West End of the same Parish, unto the Bridge called Thornborough Bridge, situate at the East End of the said Parish, and by a certain little River running and lying on the North Part of the faid Parish, called Chakemoe-Brook, unto the Bridge fituate and lying on the South Part of the faid Parish called Padbury Mill Bridge; and that all and fingular Messuages, Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Waste Fields, and Grounds whatsoever, within the said Bounds, Meers, and Limits, for the rest be, and shall be, and are reputed to be Parts and Parcels of the forefaid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, now by these Presents, as is said, erected and incorporated into a Body Politick. FURTHER, of Our mere ample Grace, We will, and for Ourselves, Our Heirs, and Successors, by these Presents, We grant to the aforesaid Bailiff and Burgesses, of the aforesaid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, and to their Successors, that the said Bailiff and Burgesses, and their Successors, may and shall have within the Borough and Parish of Buckingham aforesaid, and within the Meers, Bounds, Limits, and Liberties of the same Borough and iParish, an Affize, and Measure, or Weight of Bread, Wine, and Beer, and of other Victuals, and also a Measure and Weight for all Things, for the Amendment, Punishment, and Correction of them so often as it shall be needful and expedient. As also they may and shall have all and all Manner of Fines, Redemptions, and Amercements, and all other thence growing or arising. And that the said Bailiff and Burgesses, and their Successors, by their own Common Council, or by the greater Part of them, from thenceforth M 2 have have and shall have Authority, Power, and Liberty, to make, constitute, ordain, and enact, from Time to Time, Laws, Statutes, and Ordinances whatsoever, for the Government and well ordering of the Inhabitants, and for the victualling of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingbam; and for the better Government and ordering of the same: So that the said Statutes, Laws, and Ordinances, be not repugnant or contrary to the Laws and Statutes of this Our Kingdom, or to Our own Prerogative, Our Heirs, and Successors.

MOREOVER, and upon Our further Grace We will, and upon Our certain Knowledge and mere Motion, for Us, Our Heirs, and Succeffors, by these Presents, We grant to the said Bailiff and Burgesses, of the aforesaid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, and to their Successors, that the said Burgesses of the faid Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, for the Time being, or the greater Part of them, from Time to Time, shall every Year to come hereafter for ever upon the Feast-Day of the Holy Apostle Pbilip and Jacob, between the Hours of Nine and Twelve in the Forenoon, shall meet and affemble, and may affemble in the aforesaid Hall or House, or in some other convenient Place, within the faid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, and there they may nominate and affign two Men then being Principal Burgefles of the faid Borough, before other Inhabitants of the faid Borough, there being present, to the Intent that other Men, and other Inhabitants of the said Borough there being present, or the greater Part of them, may and do choose one of the two Burgesses so named and assigned, to be named or assigned to the Office of the Bailiff of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, and he so named and chosen to be and abide the Bailiff of the said Borough and Parish for the Year then following. Which said Person, so elected to the Office of Bailiff, after his corporal Oath in due Manner taken and performed. shall bear the Office of the Bailiff of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingham, for the Year next coming, to wit, from the Feast of the Holy Apostle Philip and Jacob, unto the Feast of the Holy Apostle Philip and Jacob then next following: And in that Featl-Day until one other Person be chosen to the said Office, and sworn in due Manner to the saithful Performance of the faid Office. And We will, and by these Presents, for Ourselves, Our Heirs, and Successors, We grant to the said Bailiff and Burgesses, that every Person hereafter to be chosen to the Office of Bailiff, of the aforefaid Borough and Parish of Buckingham, shall take his corporal Oath before his last Predecessor in the said Office, if his said Predecessor be alive and then present; and that if the said Predecessor be then dead or absent, then before the Steward, or his sufficient Deputy and other Burgesses, of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, being then and there present, of his faithful Execution of the said Office of Bailiff. And if, and so often as it shall happen, any Person then being Bailiff of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, do die or be removed from his Office during the Time he is Bailiff of the said Borough, that then and so often the Burgesses of the said Borough that are then living, and being at the same Time present, or the greater Part of them, shall and may meet and assemble in the said House and and Place upon a certain Day, appointed within eight Days next following the Death or Removal of the aforesaid Bailiff of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingham, and there they shall nominate and affign two Persons of the Number of the aforesaid Burgesses of the said Borough and Parish, in the Presence of other the Inhabitants of the said Borough and Parish then and there being prefent, to the Intent that other Men, and the Inhabitants of the faid Borough and Parish being there present, or greater Part of them, may and do choose one of these two Burgesses so named and assigned, to be named or affigned to the Office of the Bailiff of the said Borough and Parish of Bucking bam, and him to be and remain Bailiff of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, until the Feast of the Holy Apostle Philip and Facob then next following; and in the faid Feast-Day until a new Bailiff be elected, and rightly fworn to the faithful Discharge of the said Office: And that the faid Person so chosen, or any Person so to be chosen Bailiff of the faid Borough and Parish of Bucking bam, shall take his corporal Oath before the Steward, or his sufficient Deputy and other Principal Burgesses, of the faid Borough and Parish, for the faithful Execution of the said Office of Bailiff, in Manner and Form aforesaid. And Furthermore We will, and of our certain Knowledge and mere Motion, for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, We grant by these Presents, to the aforesaid Bailiff and Burgesses, and to their Successors, that then and so often as it shall happen any one of these Principal Burgesses, of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingham, for the Time being, shall die, or depart and dwell without the faid Borough and Parish, or shall for some Cause or Reason be removed from his Office of Burge/bip, that then and so often it may and shall be lawful to the Bailiff and Burgesses of the said Borough and Parish, or the greater Part of the Burgesses of the said Borough and Parish, for the Time being, from Time to Time, and when it shall seem pleasing and convenient unto them, within the Space of fourteen Days next following the Death or Removal of the faid Burgesses, to meet together at their Pleasure in the said House, and there to nominate and choose one or more other Persons then inhabiting the said Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, and such as yet are not Burgesses of the faid Borough and Parish, and the same so to be Burgess or Burgesses of the faid Borough and Parish aforesaid during their Life. And every such Person to nominated and elected, to be named and elected to the Office of Burgeship of the aforesaid Borough and Parish, shall take his Corporal Oath before the Bailiff of the faid Borough, well and faithfully to execute the Office of the Principal Burgess of the said Borough and Parish aforesaid. AND FURTHER-MORE We will, and by these Presents, for Ourselves, Our Heirs, and Succeffors, We grant to the foresaid Bailiff and Burgesses, of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingham, and to their Successors, that when and so often as it may chance the Steward of the faid Borough and Parish, for the Time being, to die, or for some reasonable Cause to be removed from his Office, that then and so often as it shall happen, it may and shall be lawful to the faid Bailiff and Burgesses of the said Borough, or the greater Part of the said Burges, for the Time being, from Time to Time, when and so often as it shall please them and it shall seem expedient, to meet together at their Pleafure in the faid Common Hall or House within the said Borough, within eight Days next following the Death or Removal of the faid Steward, and there to name and choose one other Person an honest Man to be accompted Steward of the faid Borough and Parish during his Life, or otherwise, as it shall feem fit and expedient to the Bailiff and Burgeffes of the said Bosough and Parish, or the greater Part of them, for the Time being; and that every Person so named and elected, or so to be named and elected to the Office of the faid Steward of the faid Borough and Parish, shall take his Corporal Oath before the Bailiff of the Borough and Parish, to exercise and perform Justice, and other Things which belong to the Office of a Steward, well and faithfully to be performed by him, or his fufficient Deputy. AND MORBOVER We will and command by these Our Presents, for Us, Our Heirs, and Succeffors, We grant and ordain, that there may and shall be in the said Borough two Burgesses of Our Parliament, Our Heirs, and Successors: And that the said Bailiff and Burgesses, of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingham, and their Successors, upon Cur Writ, or the Writ of Our Heirs, or Successors, directed to them for and concerning the Election of Burgesses of Parliament, have and shall have Power, Authority, and Liberty of choosing and nominating two discreet and honest Men which shall be Burgesses of Our Parliament, of Our Heirs, and Successors, for the said Borough. And the faid Burgesses fo chosen, at the Costs and Charges of the said Borough and Parish, and the Commonalty of the same, they shall send to Our Parliament, or Parliaments of Our Heirs, and Successors, wheresoever it shall then be holden, in the same Manner and Form as in other Boroughs of this Kingdom of England, and as in the antient Borough of Buckingbam, it hath been usual and accustomed; which said Burgesses so chosen and named, We will to be present, and to make their Stay at Our Parliament, or the Parliaments of Our Heirs and Successors, at the Cost and Charges of the faid Borough and Parish of Buckingbam, and of the Commonalty of the fame, during the Time that such Parliament shall be held, in like Manner and Form as other Burgesses of Parliament, for what every other Borough, or Boroughs whatfoever, within Our Kingdom of England, do or have accustomed to do, which faid Burgesses in such Our said Parliaments, of Our Heirs, and Successors, shall have their Voices as well affirmative as negative, and shall do and execute all and fingular such Things which other Burgesses or Burgess of Our Parliament, for what other Boroughs or Borough have do or execute by any Means or Manner whatfoever. And We will, and by these Presents do ordain and grant that the said John Lambert, Bailiff of the Borough and Parish of Buckingham aforesaid, and his Successors, Bailists of the Borough aforefaid, for the Time being, be and shall be Our Justice, the Justice of Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, to keep the Peace of Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, within the said Borough, and that they have full Power and Authority to keep the Peace of Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, and to do and execute all other Things which do appertain to a Justice of Our Peace, of Our Heirs, and Successors, to be done and executed in any of Our Counties

Counties of England, for the good keeping of the Peace of Us, Our Heirs, and Succeffors, for the quiet ordering and found Government of Our People, Our Heirs, and Successors, in all and singular their Articles within the Borough aforesaid, according to the Force, and Form, and Effect of the Statutes and Ordinances hereafter to be made, kept, and observed; as also all those they shall find doing or offending against the Form and Effect of the Statutes and Ordinances aforesaid, that they cause them to be punished according to the Laws of Our Land. And that they hear and determine all and fingular Things. according to the Law and Custom of Our Realm of England, so fully and largely, and in so ample Manner and Form as other Justices of Our Peace in Our County of Bucking bam, or elsewhere, within Our Realm of Englands heretofore have had or exercised, or shall have and exercise for Time to come without the Borough and Liberties aforesaid. Yet so notwithstanding that the said Justice of Peace within the said Borough and Parish aforesaid, for the Time being, do not exceed to the Determination of any Felony, without special Commandment of Us, Our Heirs, and Successors; saving unto Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, all and fingular Fines, Amercements, Redemptions, and other Profits arising and growing from the Office of Justice of the said Justice of Peace. And further of our ample Grace, We grant, and by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, We grant to the said Bailiff and Burgesses, and their Successors, that they, and their Successors, may have the Return of all Our Writs and Attachments, and the Executions of the same, so that no Sheriff, or other Bailiff, or Officer of Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, shall enter into that Liberty to the Execution of Our Writs, and Summons, and Attachments, or to exercise any other Office there, unless in the Want of the said Bailiff and Burgesses, and their Succeffors, and of other Officers in that Place. AND MOREOVER, of Our special Grace We have granted, and by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, do grant to the aforesaid Bailiff and Burgesses, that the said Bailiff for the Time to be chosen, and for one Year then coming, fo foon as he shall be chosen to be Bailiff, is and shall be Escheator and Coroner for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, and Clerk of Our Market of Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, within the Borough aforesaid; and that he doand execute all and fingular those Things which appertain and belong to the Offices of Escheator, Coroner, and Clerk of the Market, to be performed and executed within the Borough aforefaid: And that he shall take his Oath for the Offices of Escheator, and Coroner, and Clerk of the Market, to be well and truly performed and executed by him, the faid Bailiff, before the old Bailiff and Burgesses aforesaid, of the Borough of Buckingham, before he take unto him the faid Offices of Escheator, Coroner, and Clerk of the Market; and that no other Escheator, Coroner, or Clerk of Our Market, Our Heirs, and Successors, shall by no other Means or Manner enter he or they into the faid Borough and Precincts thereof, or shall he or they bring in themselves to do or execute any Thing which belong to the Officeof Escheator, Coroner, or Clerk of the Market, there to be done and executed. We will moreover, and by these Presents, do grant to the said Bailiff? Bailiff and Burgesses of the said Borough and Parish of Buckingham, that they may and shall have these Our Letters Patent under Our Great Seal of England, made and sealed in as due Manner, without Fine or Fee, great or little, to be given, paid, or rendered into Our Exchequer or elsewhere, to Our Use, by any Means, because of an express Mention of the true yearly Value, or of any other Value or Certainty of the Premisses, or any of them, or of any other Gists or Grants made by Us, or any of Our Progenitors, to the aforesaid Bailiss or Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Buckingham aforesaid, or to their Predecessors, made before these Times: And by these Presents it doth not appear, or by any Statutes, Act, Ordination, Provision, or Restitution therein to the contrary made or published, ordained or provided, or any other Thing, Cause, or Matter whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding. In witness whereof We have caused these Our Letters Patent to be made. Witness Ourselves at Westmisser, the twenty-seventh Day of January, in the first Year of Our Reign.

Though the Charter of King Charles II, is already printed in the second Edition of Notitia Parliamentaria, Vol I. yet, as it is deemed valid by several, and remains unsurrendered in the Borough-Chest among the Corporation Archives, and the Town acts by Virtue of it in some Particulars; it is judged proper to reprint it here also, and give it a Place after the former.

106 HISTORY OF BUCKINGHAM.

In cujus rei Testimonium has Literas nostras sieri secimus Patentes. Teste meipso apud Westm' 25 Die Julii, Anno Regni nostri 36.

PIGOTT.

Besides the thirteen Members specified by these Royal Charters, here are sour Companies, viz. the Mercers, Tanners, Butchers, and Merchant-Taylors, each of which have their respective Wardens or Masters; and such as are made Freemen of this Town, must, by antient Custom, be Members of one of these Companies.

In the Visitation Book, in the Heralds Office in London, is this Entry made by William Harvey, Clarencieux King at Arms: Under the Delineation of the Coat of Arms of the Town of Buckingham, being A SWAN: "These are the antient Arms appertaining and belonging to the Town and Borough of Buckingham, and Parish of the same: And at this my present Visitation was Thomas More, Bailist; Paul Dayrell, Esq. Steward, John Lambert, John Gates, John Appowell, Hugh Boughton, William Illing, and Richard Milling, Burgesses and late Bailists of the said Town and Borough; John Hokeley Town Clerk, and William White Under Bailist: Which Arms I have ratified and confirmed, and have also registered and recorded the same in this my Visitation, now made within the County of Buckingham, 1565."

The Arms belonging to this antient Corporation, as they are Blazoned in the Heralds Office, are Per Pale Gules and Sable, a Swan chained, gorged with a Ducal Coronet, his Wings expanded.

When this Coat was first assigned them, or made Use of, I have not been able to discover: If I may be allowed to conjecture, I should judge that they took it from the Staffords, their antient Lords, whose Badge or Cognizance was A Swan.

Drayton, in his most excellent Poem of the Battle of Agincourt, fought Anno 1415, alludes to their assuming it from that Family in these Verses:

"The mustred Men for Buckingham are gone, "Under the Swan, the Arms of that old Town."

The Seals that several Monasteries used, were no other than the Arms of their respective Founders; and some only impressed their Instruments with the Image of their Patron Saint, which Matthew Paris saith was required ob Majorem Reverentiam. And that some Colleges in our two Universities, and some Towns do now bear the Arms of their Founders and Lords appears by their Seals.

AVING thus gone through the History of the Town, I proceed to treat of the Parishes included in, and belonging to, the Hundred of Bucking ham; which I shall exhibit in Alphabetical Order, viz.

ADDINGTON,

So called, as I presume, from an antient Saxon Owner Adda or Edda, i. e. Adda's Town. It belonged, on the compiling Domesday-Book, to Odo Bishop of Bajeux in Normandy, Half-Brother to William the Conqueror, who created him Earl of Kent, and bestowed on him no less than thirty Manors in Buckinghamshire, nine of which were in this Hundred of Buckingham, viz. Barton, Chetwode, Foxcote, Leckhampsted, Preston, Shalston, Stow, Tingwick, and Westbury, besides this of Addington; which is thus described in the Conqueror's Survey:

In Lamua Hundred, Terra Episcopi Bajocensis.

Robertus de Romenel tenet de Epifcopo Bajocensi in Edintone vi Hidas. Terra est vi Carucatarum, in Dominio funt ii, et viii Villani cum ii Bordariis babentibus iii Carucatas, et iiii potest fieri. Ibi iiii Servi, Pratum vi Carutatarum. Valet et valuit lx Solidos: Tempore Regis Edwardi c Solidos. Hoc Manerium tenuit homo Goduuini Comiti, et vendere potuit.

Robert de Romenel holds of the Bishop of Bajeux in Edintone six Hides.
The Arable is six Carucates, two are in Demesse; there are eight Villains or Copyholders, with two Cottagers, holding three Carucates, and a fourth may be made. There are four Servants, and Meadow six Carucates. It was worth, and now is worth, 60 s. In Edward the Confessor's Time 100 s.
Earl Godwin's Tenant held this Manor, and could sell it.

As to this Odo, he taking Part with the Conqueror's eldest Son, Duke Robert, against William Rusus, had his Lands taken away from him, Anno 1088, I William II, and being banished the Realm, died at Palermo in Sicily, and was buried in the Church of Our Lady there, Anno 1096.

Soon after his being thus dispossessed, this his Manor of Addington, held under him by Robert de Romenel, became the said Robert's Property; and so remained 'till a Moiety thereof was by Fine levied Anno 1222, 6 Henry III, conveyed by David Romenel his Descendant to Ralf Fitz-Bernard': The other Moiety being then, as seems to me, in Possession of John Carbonel, who held it of John Fitz-Jeffry, a potent Baron in those Times, Lord also of Steeple-Cleydon, Whaddon, and divers other Manors in the Neighbourhood. But this Moiety seems also to have been acquired by the Fitz-Bernards about the Year 1260, 44 Henry III. For that Family occurs possessed of Addington in Edward I's and Edward II's Reign, and held it 'till about Anno 1320, 14 Edward II d, when the Molins obtained it; for Anno 1321, 15 Edward II, John de Molins had a Grant of Free Warren in his Manor of Addington. And Anno 1337, 11 Edward III, the said John de Molins being in especial Favour with that Prince, procured " a Grant of the Return of Writs, In-" fangthef, Outfangthef, Felons Goods, Wayfs, and Strays, and Liberty to " erect a Gallows on any Ground within his Lordships of Brebull, Stoke-" Pogeys, Ditton, Datchet, Fulmere, Ilmere, Afton [Bernard] Weston, Turvill, " Ludgarshall, and Addington, in this County of Buckingham; and had also "Privilege to try Malefactors within the Liberties of those Towns, and to " be quit of all Toll, Pontage, Pavage, and Murage, throughout the whole "Realm, with Free Warren in all the faid Towns." And next Year he got Liberty to hold a Court-Leet, and to have the Correction of the Affize of Bread and Beer, in all those Manors. And further to insure his Title in this Manor, I find two Years after, viz. Anno 1339, 13 Edward III, a Fine f passed thereof from John Fitz-Bernard to the said John Molins, Chivaler.

When he died appears not to me, but his Wife deceased Anno 1368, 41 Edward III 8. And on her Death, his Son and Heir William Molins had Livery of his Estates. He died Anno 1381, 4 Richard IIb, and was succeeded by Richard Molins his Son, who died Anno 1385, 8 Richard II, and left Iffue William Molins his Son, who being flain 8 May, 1429, 7 Henry VI . at the Siege of Orleans in France, his Demesnes descended to his Daughter Elianor then an Infant of three Years old. Whereupon the King committed the Custody of this Manor of Addington to Thomas Chaucer, which John Barton lately deceased held for Life of William Molins, her the said Elianor's Father; and bestowed her in Marriage, Anno 1441, 19 Henry VII. on Robert Hungerford, who making Proof thereof, and performing his Fealty, had Livery of the Lands of her vast Inheritance, and became in his Wife's. Right created Lord Molins. But he unfortunately fiding with the House of Lancaster, and being taken Prisoner, Anno 1463, 3 Edward IV, at Newcastle, was beneaded at Hexham, and buried in Salisbury Cathedral m, leaving Iffue three Sons, viz. Sir Thomas Hungerford, Walter and Leonard Hungerford. After his Death his Wife re-married Sir Oliver Manningham, and dying Anno 1490 or 1491, was buried in Stoke-Poges Church, where is her Epitaph, which has been printed in Dugdale's Baronage, and by other Authors.

Whether this Estate was taken into the King's Hands on the Lord Hungerford's Forseiture, I have not seen: But it is certain that the Lord Hastings, King Edward IV's great Favourite, obtained Possession of this Manor by Marriage of Mary, Daughter of the Lord Hungerford. And so, with the Titles of that Family, it descended to his Posterity: And on the Death of the faid Lady Mary Hungerford, who died Anno 1532, 23 Henry VIII, her Son George Hastings, Earl of Huntingdon, had Livery thereof; who, as this Manor of Addington lay at a Distance from his other great Estates, and as it feems to have been held under a certain Rent of 12 l. per Annum by the Family of the Curzons, which had three Years before by Fine and Recovery, Anno 1527, 18 Henry VIII, purchased of William Fetiplace the Property he held and claimed here from the Carbonels: He, the faid George Earl of Huntingdon, the same Year as his Mother died, by Bargain and Sale, dated February 7, 1532, 23 Henry VIII °, released and confirmed all his Right, Title, and Interest in this Manor, to Richard Curzon of Water Perry, in the County of Oxford, in Exchange for the Manors of Frefels in Bledlow Parish, and Lands in the Parishes of Bledlow, Ilmere, Sanderton, Horsington, and Princes Ristorough, which the said Richard Curzon gave up on the said Exchange to the faid Earl of Huntingdon: On whose Decease this Manor descended to his Son Henry Curzon, and he dying 28 November, 1549, 3 Edward VI, it came to his Son Sir Henry Curzon; who, as it feems to me, dying without Issue, was succeeded herein by his Uncle Vincent Curzon. For I find that Anno 1558, I Elizabeth P, he, as Patron of this Church, presented a Clerk thereto. His Son and Heir was Francis Curzon, Esq. who occurs Lord of this Manor Anno 1587, 32 Elizabeth, and Anno 1599, 44 Elizabeth; he was afterwards knighted, and died 31 October, 16109, 7 James I, and was buried at Water-Perry, having given this Estate up in his Life Time to his Son Sir John Curzon; for he, as I find, occurs possessed of it Anno 1605, 2 James I, and also Anno 1620, 17 James I.

Not long after which the Curzons fold their Interest and Title therein to John Bushy, who dying June 11, 1635, 15 Charles I, (about ten Years after his Purchase) was buried at Addington, and succeeded by his Son and Heir Robert Bushy of Grey's-Inn, who dying September 15, Anno 1652, was here buried, and succeeded by John Bushy his Son and Heir, afterwards knighted. He departed this Life June 7, 1700, and was succeeded by his eldest Son Thomas Bushy, LL. D. who being both Rector and Patron of the Parish, enclosed it about 1710. He died April 11, 1725, (and was buried here) leaving Issue two Daughters, viz. Anne and Jane, by his most excellent Wise Anne Daughter of John Limbry, of Hoddington in Upton-Grey Parish, in Hampshire, Esq. the present worthy Lady of this Manor, Anno 1735.

Having thus spoken of the Manor, I proceed to give some Account of the Advowson, which being severed from the Manor, was given to the Priory of St. John Jerusalem, as seems to me, by their great Benefactor Robert Fitz-Bernard, on his purchasing this Estate, Anno 1222, 6 Henry II: for the Prior of that House presented his Clerk to this Church that same Year, and the Patronage continued in the Possession of that Convent 'till the Subversion of Religious Houses, Anno 1541, 31 Henry VIII; three Years after which King Henry VIII, by Letters Patent dated July 26, 1544, granted it to Richard Andrews and Nicholas Temple in Perpetuity, of whom it was no Doubt purchased by the Family of Curzon, who had not long before bought the Manor, and so both Advowson and Manor have been appendant ever since, and the Lords of this Town have continued Patrons of the Church.

The Manor-House is by Tradition said to have been built by the Family of the Windsors, who seem to have been Lessee-Tenants to the Earls of Huntingdon, or the Hungerford-Family, before the Curzons possessed it. For in a Window of one of the Chambers I meet with these Arms or Quarterings in painted Glass, viz. 1. Windsor, Gules, a Saltire between ten Cross Croslets Or. 2. On a Cross five Lions Rampant. 3. Azure, A Cross Moline Or. 4. As the first. Impaling these four Quarterings, 1. — Argent on a Bend between two Cotises, Sable three Mullets. 2. — On a Cross Sable three Bezants. 3 as 2, 4 as 1. Impaling also four other Coats, viz. Argent, a Bend Sable cotised, charged with three Mullets. 2. A Cross Sable charged with five Bezants. 3 as 2, 4 as 1. In another Shield the Arms of France and England Quarterly.

On an antient Picture of a Woman is the Arms of Curzon with Quarterings, viz. —— On a Bend Sable three Popinjays, or Parrots, Impaling

Giffard, viz. Gules three Lions passant.

Also the Arms of Windsor with Quarterings, impaling Gistard as before; on the said Picture is this Date, 1566. I take it her Name was Gistard, and that she married two Husbands, viz Curzon and Windsor: And I find in the Pedigree of Curzon, that Anne Daughter of William Gistard of Cowley, who was a younger Brother of Sir Thomas Gistard of Twysord, married Richard Curzon Son of Walter Curzon, who had Issue Vincent Curzon, which Vincent Curzon married Elizabeth Daughter of Roger Corbett of Moreton-Corbett, in the County of Salop, and had Issue Sir Francis Curzon, Father to Sir John Curzon, who occurs Lord of Addington 1605, 3 James I, and also 1620, 22 James I, and sold it about 1625, to John Busty; and so I make no Doubt but that this was the Picture of the Mother of Vincent Curzon: And that after her first Husband Richard Curzon's Death she lived here, being jointured in this House with her second Husband, who was a younger Brother of the Windsor Family, as appears by the Crescent on the Arms of Windsor.

The Parish of Addington is bounded East by Winslow, South by the three Cleydons, viz. East, Middle, and Steeple Cleydon, West by Adstock, and North by Great Harwood, It contains about 1100 Acres. Here were Anno 1712 only seventeen Families, and about eighty Souls; and it paid to the Land-Tax 92 l. 15s. 9 d. The Rectory was Anno 1291, 20 Edward I, valued at 100 s. deducting a Portion of three Marks paid to the Preceptory of Hogshaw, which was subordinate to the chief House of that Order, viz. St. John's Jerusalem. But this Rectory was Anno 1534, 26 Henry VIII, rated at 9 l. 9 s. 7 d. in the King's Books, as it now stands charged for First-Fruits, and pays Tenths accordingly.

On the Enclosure of this Parish by Dr. Thomas Bushy, there were by Act of Parliament 120 Acres of Glebe settled on the Rector in lieu of all Tithes, which has greatly augmented the Living in its Value, at least 20 l. per Ann.

Before

Before this Time the Glebe lay very much dispersed. On November 3, 1639, Robert Whitehall, the then Rector, exhibited a Copy of an antient long Terrier made Anno 1517, of the Butments and Boundings of the Parsonage Lands, which is as follows, viz.

Lea Ground five Acres, Part of which butted on Mr. Windsor's Land; in Attwell Hole an Acre of Lea, and an Acre and Half of Arable; in Water-Furrow an Acre and Half of Lea Ground; in Stonyland an Acre of Arable; in Harcot an Acre of Arable; in Ridgway Half and Acre; in Edward's Way Half an Acre; in Midfurlong two Acres and two Yards; in Flixmore-Path an Acre and Yard Land of Arable; in Millfield Half an Acre; in Windmill-Furz Half an Acre; in Highway-Furlong an Acre and Half and two Yards; in Fox-Furlong four Acres; in Hallwell-Close Half an Acre; in Norfield an Acre and two Yards; in Littlemore Half an Acre and two Yards; in Leet-Furlong an Acre; in Leet-Furlong two Acres, and an Acre; in Dunway Half an Acre of Lea Ground, and two Yards of Arable; in Thistle Furlong one Acre; in Wipas an Half Acre; in Moreley Lea Ground one Acre, and Half an Acre of Meadow; in Longland Half an Acre of Lea Ground; in Black-Alley Half an Acre of Lea Ground; Half an Acre and two Yards; in Bedmead Half an Acre and four Poles of Lea Ground.

Lea Ground in all eleven Acres and an Half, five Yards and four Poles; and Meadow one Acre; Arable nineteen Acres and an Half, and twelve Yards. Total thirty-two Acres, feventeen Yards, and four Poles.

There is a Piece of Land in this Parish of about 20 s. per Annum given to the Repair of the Church, which might probably belong to some Lamp or Obit, and so be taken and applied to the Church.

Here is also 51. per Annum, being the Interest of 1001. (given by the Busby Family) applied to teach poor Children to read, and putting them out Apprentices; whereof 201. was given by Mrs. Trist, 201. by Dr. Thomas Busby, and 201. by which the present good Lady has made up 1001. out of her own Bounty, by adding 401. more to what was before given.

In the Prerogative or Will Office I find an old Will dated 6 August, 1489, 5 Henry VII, of Richard Ardern, in which he appoints to be buried in the Church of Our Lady in Addington, before the Image of St. Christopher.

In the Patents I find Mention of Half an Acre of Land lying on St. Agnes Hill, given to the Maintenance of Lights in this Church, called no Doubt St. Agnes's Lamp.

In the Extremity of this Parish, next Winslow, is a Place called Gallows Gap, where by Tradition it is said that a Gallows stood, erected, as I conclude, by the Molins Family in the Reign of Edward III, on their Acquisition of that Privilege.

The Church here, which is dedicated to the Honour of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, whose Festival is August 15, (the Sunday after which Day here was antiently observed a Wake or Feast) is a regular small Fabrick, consisting of a Body and two Side Isles which are leaded, and Chancel which is tiled. At the West End is a square embattled Tower, the upper Part of which is repaired with Brick, and rough-cast or plaistered over.

the Tower hang three modern Bells.

The Chancel has been handsomely ornamented and repaired throughout, at the Expence of Dr. Bulby, the Patron and Rector, about 1710; who cieled the Roof with a coved Cieling, and wainfcotted about the Communion Table; and paved it with Warwickshire Stone.

Here are no Arms remaining, or painted Glass in the Windows.

In the Church is a black Marble Gravestone, at the Entrance into the Chancel, with the Arms of Bulby (which are also on the Spouts of the House) viz. Three Arrows or Darts in Pale, in Chief three Mullets; and this Inscription on a white Marble set into the Stone, viz.

Near this Place lieth interred the Body of Robert Busby, Barrister and Bencher of the Honourable Society of Grey's-Inn, who departed this Life September 15, 1652. Aetatis suae 52.

At the lower End of the North Isle a Gravestone for one Bowes, Bailiff to the Family, who died about 1675: But it is hid by a Seat.

Here is also a Gravestone for Mrs. Mayne, one of the Tenant's Mothers, who died Anno 1724: But the Inscription being cut on a mouldring Stone is illegible.

Here are also at the upper End of the North Isle these Inscriptions in Lozenges, viz.

Judith Daughter of Sir John Bufby, Knt. died June 24, 1679. Aged two Years.

John, Son of Sir John Bushy, died July 12, 1669. Aged one Year. Robert, the Son of Sir John Busly, died January 12, 1669. Aged 5 Years. Dame Mary Busby, died November 16, 1714.

Above the last is affixt to the North Wall a white Marble Tablet, on which is the following Inscription:

In order to a glorious Resurrection, underneath resteth the Body of Dame Mary Busby, who departed this Life November 16, in the 71st Year of her Age, and in the Year of our Lord 1714. She was the eldest Daughter of John Dormer, of Lee Grange, in the County of Bucks, Esq. and second Wise to the late Sir John Busby, Knt. who was interred in the Chancel; by whom she had five Sons and nine Daughters. Her Daughter Mary Bufly, whom she constituted sole Executrix of her Last Will and Testament, out of a filial Regard to the Memory of her dear excellent pious Mother, hath erected this Stone, as you fee it, by the express Command of her said Mother.

Elizabeth, Daughter of Sir John Bufby, Knt. deceased November 29, 1699. Aged 24 Years.

Sir John Bushy, Knight, deceased January 7, 1700. Aged 65 Years. Arabella, Daughter of Sir John Busby, Knt. deceased May 9, 1702. Aged 21 Years.

Robers

Robert Bulby, Esq. Father to Sir John Bulby, Knt. deceased September 15. 1652. Aged 52 Years.

- On another Compartment of Free Stone painted, is the Busto of a Man's Head carved, with Trophies round it, and these Arms:
- Barry of Six Argent and Gules, being Manwaring. Or, three Darts; on a Chief Sable three Mullets Or, being Busby. Azure, Billette of Ten in Chief Or. a Demy Lion Rampant Sable, being Dormer; viz. the Arms of Sir John Bulby and his two Wives: In the Center this Inscription:
 - Near this Place resteth, in Hope to rise in Glory, the Body of the learned Sir John Busby, Knt. late Deputy Lieutenant, and Colonel of the Militia of this County, deceased January the 7th, 1700. Aged 65.

He had by his Lady (Judith, Daughter of Sir William Manwaring, Knt.

Governor of West-Chester) a Son and a Daughter.

By his fecond Lady, Mary, eldest Daughter of John Dormer, of Lee Grange. Esq. five Sons and nine Daughters. Whereof most are gone before him: May the rest prepare to follow him.

To whose pious Memory, Thomas Bushy, Doctor of Laws, his Son and Heir, confecrated this Monument, Anno Domini 1705.

On a white Marble Compartment, affixt to the Church Wall, opposite to the Pulpit, these Arms in a Lozenge, viz.

Eight Mullets Gules, in Fess Point a of the Second, being Trift.

In the adjacent Pew lie the Remains of

This Monument was erected to the grateful Memory of the Deceased.

This Monument was erected to the grateful Memory of the Deceased, By Thomas Bushy, Doctor of Laws, her Nephew, Heir, and sole Executor.

In a Pew at the upper End of the South Isle are these Inscriptions, on small white Marble Lozenges:

Mrs. Abigail Trift, Widow, deceased December 25, 1707. Aged 60 Years. Mrs. Mary, Daughter of Dr. Busby, and Anne his Wife, deceased July 7, 1709. Aged three Days.

The Rectory being given, as aforesaid, by the Fitz-Bernards, to the Priory of St. John of Jerusalem, continued in the Patronage of that Convent 'till the general Dissolution, 1542, 34 Henry VIII. And the following Rectors have been presented by them, viz.

Henry de Hoggishall, instituted Anno 1222, 7 Henry III, on the Presentation of the Prior of St. John of Jerusalem.

John de Basing died Rector (Anno 1259, 44 Henry III.) of this Church, and of that of Adstock.

John de Stratton succeeded on Basing's Death, 1259.

Richard de Hetherington was admitted Anno 1263, 48 Henry III, on Account of Stratton's taking another Benefice. He died 1305, and was succeeded by Roger de Munden, alias Jarponvill, instituted 12 cal. November, 1305, 34 Edward I.

John de Sutton was instituted 12 cal. July 1349, 24 Edward III, on the Death of Roger the last Rector. I take him to be the same with

John de Cudenton, who, Anno 1350, exchanged it for Staverton, with Hugh de Stretley, 8 id. July, 1350, 25 Edward III.

John de Bokingham was instituted 18 cal. Ottober 1361, 36 Edward III, on the Death of Hugh Stretley. One of both his Names was Anno 1363, 38 Edward III, made Bishop of Lincoln; who, as I take it, was this Person.

John West succeeded, and resigned it Anno 1366, 41 Edward III, and was fucceeded by

John Bannebury, instituted 8 id. November, 1366, 41 Edward III. John Eston exchanged it for Luffwich Anno 1383, 7 Richard II, with Robert Normanton, March 29, 1383, 7 Richard II. He became Vicar of Wendover.

John

John Adams is the next. He exchanged it for Adfrock 1290 14 Richard II, with John Keynes, Ottober 7, 1390, 14 Richard II. He died in about five Weeks, and was fucceeded by John Grendon, admitted November 13 following on Keynes's Death. He exchanged it for Ellismere in the County of Salep, with

Roger Hampton, January 26, 1391, 15 Richard II. He died Anno 1393, 17 Richard II, and was succeeded by Thomas Draper de Mollington, instituted February 8, 1393, 17 Richard II.

He exchanged it for Rollesbam, with

Edmund de Aylesbury, October 20, 1396, 20 Richard II, who exchanged it for Lodington, with John Marsham, November 7, 1397, 21 Richard II. His Successor was John Auncell. He exchanged it for a Prebend of Stafford Collegiate-Church, with

William March, July 26, 1400, 2 Henry IV. He exchanged it for Berswick Vicarage in the County of Stafford, with

John Romey, December 12, 1404, 6 Henry IV. He soon quitted it; for, 29 I find, one

Philip Pope was possessed of it the same Year. He quitted it to John Auncell, who took it a second Time, 6 March, 1404. But there feems to be some Mistake in these Entries; for

John Romey is mentioned to have exchanged it Anno 1405, 7 Hemy IV, with Richard Brewes, for Wishaw in the County of Warwick, August 12, 1405, 7 Henry IV. He exchanged it for Gunby in the County of Lincoln, with

John Wright, August 15, 1406, 8 Henry IV. I take him to be the same with

John Multon, who exchanged it for Tremele in Norwich Diocese, with John Daniel, August 1, 1417, 6 Henry V. He exchanged it for Tellsford in the County of Somerset, with

Robert Gery, December 7, 1421, 10 Henry V. He resigned it Anno 1432, 11 Henry VI, and was succeeded by John Tayler, instituted July 26, 1432.

William Warner is the next that occurs. He was instituted July 26, 1475, 16 Edward IV, though not faid how vacant.

John Jordan was instituted May 12, 1479, 20 Edward IV, on Warner's Resignation.

John Smith succeeded April 8, 1480, 21 Edward IV, on Jordan's Resignation; and exchanged it for Compton in Sarum Diocese, with

Thomas Pigot, August 12, 1482, 23 Edward IV. He resigned it Anno 1491, 7 Henry VII, and was fucceeded by Thomas Baron, instituted March 17, 1491, 7 Henry VII.

John Brodhede succeeded; but I have not his Institution. He resigned Anno 1508, 24 Henry VII, and was succeeded by William Hall, instituted April 2, 1508, 24 Henry VII. He was the last, presented by the Lords Priors of St. John of Jerusalem. He died Anno 1546, 38

38 Henry VIII, as appears by his Will, in which he appointed to be buried here, and bequeathed feveral Things to this Church; and made Mr. Curzon, of Water-Perry in the County of Oxon, his Executor. In a Wall of the Chancel were lately found feveral Missal Books, which I suppose he had given, and that they were concealed or placed here by Mr. Curzon his Executor.

Richard Bradborne succeeded Anno 1547, 2 Edward VI, on the Death of Hall. He was buried here June 25, 1558, and succeeded by Thomas Andrews, inftituted August 9, 1559, 1 Elizabeth, on Bradborne's Death, on the Presentation of Vincent Curzon, Gent. He was buried here, Ostober 14, 1587, and succeeded by William Stannioughte, A. M. instituted November 8, 1587. He occurs

Rector here Anno 1607. His Successor was

Robert Whitehall, A. M. of Christ Church, Oxford. He died and was buried here 1 Oxfober 1658, and succeeded by William Rochford the same Year, but not formally admitted 'till September 5, 1660, when he was regularly presented by the Patron John Bushy, Esq. He died and was buried here 6 October 1683, and was succeeded by

Edward Sherrier, A. B. instituted February 25, 1683, on the Presentation of Sir John Bushy, to whom having given a Bond to resign to his Son, he was obliged to quit it, and accept of North-Marston Curacy, which he left for the Rectory of Shawell in the County of Leicester, and died in Possession of Anno 1728, or 1729. On his quitting this Rectory

Thomas Busby, LL. D. became instituted on his Father Sir John Busby's Presentation, 19 March 1693. He died April 11, 1725, and was busied here, having, as before-mentioned, greatly decorated the Chancel, as he had also handsomely repaired the Parsonage-House, notwithstanding his Residence in the Manor-House. His Successor was William Butterfeild, Rector of Middle Cleydon, instituted September 4, 1725, on the Presentation of Mrs. Anne Bushy, Widow. He died in December 1727, and was buried at Middle Cleydon, and succeeded by Francis Pyle, A. M. instituted 21 March 1727, on the Presentation of the same worthy Patroness Mrs. Anne Bushy, and he is the present Rector, Anno 1734.

The REGISTER begins Anno 1558. Out of it I extracted the following Entries.

ADSTOCK,

ADSTOCK,

ERIVES its Name, as feems to me, from the Saxon Owner Edda, and so may be termed Edda's Wood, from Scocce, Truncus, or the Stock of a Tree.

This Manor, as we learn from Dugdale's Baronage, Vol. i. p. 15. was, before the Norman Invasion, Part of the Possessions of Godwin Earl of Kent, whose second Wife was Gytha Sister to Swane King of Denmark, who occurs possession of Edestocke Manor at the Death of her Son King Harold; after which she sled into France, leaving her Estates to William the Conqueror, who bestowed this Manor of Adstock on William Peverel his Bastard Son, whom he created Earl of Nottingham; who having other Lordships lying in Waddesdon (now Ashenden) Hundred, occasioned this to be surveyed in that Division in Domessay-Book, which is as follows:

Terra Willielmi Peverel in Votesden Hundred.

Ambrosius tenet de Williemo Edeflocke pro x Hidis, se desendebat. Terra est v Villani cum iii Bordariis babentibus iii Carucatas, et iiii potest sieri. Pratum vii Carucatarum. In totis valentiis valet et valuit c s. Tempore Regis Edwardi viii l.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Gytha uxor Radulphi Comitis, et vendere potuit.

Ambrose holds of William Peverel Adestocke. It was taxed at ten Hides. The Arable is seven Carucates. There are three in Demesne, and five Copyholders, and three Cottagers, holding three Carucates, and can make a fourth. There is Meadow for the seven Carucates. In the whole it is worth, and was worth, 100 s. In the Time of King Edward it was worth 8 l.

Gytha the Wife of Earl Ralph held this Manor, and could fell it.

To this William succeeded his Son of both Names: But he being concerned in the foul Act of poisoning Ranulf or Randolph Earl of Chester, sted away, for fear of Henry II, who seized his Lands, and bestowed this Manor on William Avenel; who, as we find in the Monasticon, Vol. ii. p. 312. gave the Church of Adstock to the Abby of Leicester, which was confirmed by the said King Henry about 1166, 12 Henry II. As to this Family of the Avenels, they had great Possessions in Derbyshire, and were seated at Haddon; which Manor came to the Vernons by Marriage of the Heiress of Avenel, as did their Estates in general, by the Daughters of William Avenel, between the Vernons and Bassess of Sapcote in the County of Leicester; which Families, as seems to me, shared this Parish between them, it being divided into two Manors; the first and principal of which being, as I find in the Reign of Henry III, possessed by the Vernons, continued in that Family; till the same, with the Advowson of the Church, passed in Marriage, in Queen Elizabeth's Reign, with Dorothy Daughter and Heir of Sir George Vernon of Haddon, in the County of Derby (commonly called King of the Peak) to Sir John Manners, together with her other vast Inheritances (on which Account the Family of Manners afterwards assumed the Title of Barons of Haddon) which Sir John, having a Daughter named Grace by the aforesaid Dorothy Vernon, she brought it in Marriage to her Husband Sir Francis Fortescue of Salden; who having, as I learn, about the Year 1621, leased out his Demesses in this Parish for ninety nine Years to six of the principal Inhabitants of this Town; about two Years after sold the Inheritance thereof to them in Fee, reserving to himself the Titular Manor, which his Son Sir John Fortescue not long after conveyed to Thomas Egerton Rector of Adstock; whose Grandson, as I am informed, sold his Interest therein Anno 1675 to Sir Ralph Verney, Knight and Baronet. And his Grandson, the Right Hon. Ralph Verney, Lord Viscount Fermanagh, is, Anno 1735, the present worthy Possessor

As to the other Manor, I find it mentioned in the Fines, Anno 1239, to be by the Gift of their Grandmother Elizabeth Avenel, in the Hands of Robert and William Basset. From which Family it descended to the Hansteds, and was after the Death of John Hansted, who died Anno 1317, in the Possession of the Newenbams. For, Anno 1393, I meet with a Fine passed of the Manor called Hansted Manor in Adstock, from John Newenbam or Newennam, to John Cope and Elizabeth his Wife and their Heirs; which said Family of Cope, as I judge, were Heirs of the Hansteds.

The Quit-rents of both these Manors, which are held of the Honour of Peverell, being very small, the holding of Courts is rarely observed.

The Advowson of the Church here being given, tempore Henry II, by William de Avenel, as aforementioned, to the Abby of Leicester, that Convent presented thereto, as appears by the Registers of Lincoln, from 1221, tempore Henry III, to about 1443, tempore Henry VI, when by some Exchange with the Abby of Leicester, being recovered back by the Family of Vernon, it continued appendant to their Manor, till it came, with their other Demesses here, by Marriage to the Families of Manners and Fortescue. From which last Family, viz. Sir John Fortescue, it was, about the Year 1635, sold to Robert Sharrock Rector of Drayton Parslow, who quitted that Parsonage and became Rector here, Anno 1640: And his Grandson Robert Sharrock, deceasing in January 1707, by his Last Will and Testament bequeathed his Right and I tile herein in Fee to the Bishop of Lincoln and his Successors, recommending to them to appoint a residing Rector; and so the Patronage hath been vested in the said See ever since the Decease of the last Incumbent, Anno 1720; and the Rectory is now enjoyed by his immediate Successor, who hath been a constant Resident, and hath expended considerably on the Parsonage House and Gardens, and greatly ornamented the Church and Chancel.

The Register of this Parish is one of the oldest in the whole Archdeaconry. It begins 1538, 29 Henry VIII. By the Care and Exactness of the two Mr. Egerions, Incumbents from 1568 to 1640, there are Entries noted of the Places where the Archidiaconal Visitations of the Deanries of Buckingham and Newport were held in their Times, viz. between 1568 and 1639; and they appear to have most commonly been kept at Stony-Stratford and Little-Brickbill, and oftentimes at Buckingham, and only about once or twice at Newport-Pagnell before 1636. Archdeacon John Longland, who was made Rector of Tingwick Anno 1559, 1 Elizabeth, and died such Anno 1589, 31 Elizabeth, though Rector of Great Linford also, seems to have held them for the most Part at Buckingham. Archdeacon Robert Newell, made Rector of North Crawley Anno 1630, 5 Charles I, and Giles Thorpe and Robert Hillersdon, his immediate Successors, Rectors of St. Mary Church in Bedford. and Stoke Goldington, seem, for their Convenience, to have chosen Newport. But it is to be wished Buckingham may again recover them, and have its Share restored to it; as it is not fit that it should lose any of its antient Prerogatives.

In the REGISTER I noted these other Entries:

MARRIAGES.

Richard Charnock, Esq. and the Lady Ethelreda Chaloner, August 25, 1601. Richard Sergeant, Esq. and Mrs. Anne Ingoldsby, 1614. Simeon Steward, Esq. and Dame Dorothy Pigot, Relict of Sir Christopher Pigot, August 18, 1616. Mr. John Egerton and Miss Nightingale Longueville, February 1704.

BAPTISMS.

Thomas Son of Richard Longston, 1588. Henry Son of Robert Longueville, Gent. and Anne his Wife, 1657.

BURIAL.

Thomas Egerton, Esq. June 22, 1596.

This

This Parish is bounded by Great Horwood East; Padbury West; Thorn-borough North; and Addington South: Here are about 40 Houses, and 130 Inhabitants. It was Anno 1712, assessed to the Land-Tax 80 l. 9 s. 8 d. It contains about 1100 Acres.

John Villiers, Esq. gave to the Church a Silver Chalice and Cover.

The Church here, which is dedicated to St. Cecilia, Patroness of Musick, Virgin, and Martyr, (whose Festival is kept November 22) consists of a Body which is leaded, and Chancel which is tyled. At the West End is a square embattled Tower, in which hang three Bells; the first and third are modern, but on the second is this Inscription, Sanca Anna, Dea pro nobis.

The Church is in Length 40 Feet, in Breadth 20, in Height 25, and the Tower 60 Feet. The Chancel is in Length 27 Feet, and in Breadth 16. Here are no Monuments or Inscriptions whatsoever, except this, on a white

Marble affixed to the Chancel South Wall:

This Monument is inscribed to the Memory of Thomas Egerton, the third Rector of Adstock of that Name and Family. He had Issue five Sons and two Daughters by his dear Wife Elizabeth, the Daughter of Edward Butterfeild Rector of Middle-Cleydon. His second Wife was Sarah the Daughter of Thomas Fyge, of London, Esq.

Thomas Egerton Rector 1581.—Thomas Egerton Rector 1623.—Thomas Egerton Rector 1672. Let a Man so account of us, as of the Ministers of Christ, and Stewards of the Mysteries of God. 1 Cor. iv. i. 1720.

But in the Roof of the Church is his Date, 1599; it being then, as it feems, new roofed: On the same Account is also in the Chancel Roof this Date, viz. 1597.

Here were then put up these Arms in the Chancel Windows, viz.

France and England quarterly.

Azure, a Bend engrailed Argent, cotised Sable.

A Chevron sable between three Pheons of the same.

Being the Arms of Queen Elizabeth, Fortescue the Patron, and the Egertons of Leek in the County of Stafford; of which Family was Thomas Egerton the then Rector, who no Doubt put them up.

At the Bottom of one of the Windows was this in old Glass: Drate pro Animabus Moberti

And in the uppermost South Window in the Church this Coat of Arms, Quarterly, 1. a Lion Rampant Or, 2. Checque Or and Azure, 3 as 2, 4 as 1. Query, If not the Arms of Hansted?

Here are Lands worth 2 l. per Annum given to the Repair of the Church; and 1 l. per Annum was appointed to be paid out of three small Tenements to New-College in Oxford, given heretofore, as it is said, towards Maintenance of a Scholar.

In the Time of the Plague, Buckingham and Winflow being much infested with that Distemper, there is a Tradition that a Market was kept here for some Time.

In old Wills before the Reformation, I find Bequests to St. Cecilia's and St. Nicholas's Altars, St. Sigebert's Image, and to Our Lady, the Holy Rood, and the Sepulchre Lights in this Church.

Terrier

Terrier of this Rectory exhibited by Thomas Egerton, Rector, dated October

23, 1607, 5 James I.

An House of five Bays, built of Timber tiled; a Dove-house, two Barns of four Bays, a Stable and Cow-house of four Bays; another Stable, a Calfhouse, a Kitchen and Bake-house, a little distant from the Dwelling-house, of four Bays: All the Out-houses that the distant from the Dwelling-house, of four Bays:

The Home-stall and Garden of an Acre and a Rood.

A Pafture Close of two Acres adjoining to the Home-stall.

A Meadow of fixteen Acres and two Roods; of Arable, in the West Field, or Newell Field, 29 Acres; in the Middle or Pilch Field 24 Acres; and in the third or Beacon Field 30 Acres. The whole of the Arable 80 Acres. And the Sum Total of all the Glebe 102 Acres and three Roods.

The NAMES of the RECTORS from the Registers of Lincoln, are as follow:

Richard de Vernun, instituted 1221, 5 Henry III, to the Vicarage of Adstock, on the Presentation of the Abby or Convent of Leicester.

Roger de Edeshowre or Edensore, instituted 1227, 11 Henry III, to the Church of Adstock, on the Presentation of Leicester Abby.

N. B. It was not uncommon in those Times for the Monasteries to present to their Churches as to Vicarages, but the Bishops often set them aside and we find no other Presentations, except as to a Rectory.

John Basing died Rector, and was succeeded by Thomas de Luda or Louth, instituted Anno 1258.

Nigel de Wavere is the next I find: On his Resignation 1329, 3 Edward III, Hugh de Carlton was instituted, 9 cal. March, 1329, 3 Edward III, on the Presentation of the Abby of Leicester. His Successor was

John Wickham. On whose Resignation

William de Northburgh was instituted 5 cal. December, 1359, 33 Edward III. He exchanged it for Turweston, with

John Style, 8 October, 1375, 49 Edward III, and he became presented by

Leicester Abby. The next was John Raynes, who exchanged it for Addington, Anno 1390, 13 R. II. with John Adam, who became presented by Leicester Abby.

Stephen de Merton is the next in my Account. He held it Anno 1399, 22 Ric. II, and dying Anno 1412, 11 Henry IV, was succeeded by Thomas Thowe, instituted 22 November, 1412, 11 Henry IV. He was made Precentor of Lichfield, and is the last presented by Leicester Abby, in the Registers of Lincoln. The next that occurs is

Hugh Brown. who exchanged it Anno 1445, 23 Henry VI, with

Thomas Green, 11 June 1445, 23 Henry VI, for Ingatestone in Essex. The said Green became presented to this Church by Sir Richard Vernon, Knight, who, by Exchange, no doubt, had procured this Advowson from Leicester Abby.

William Tybard succeeded Green, and resigned it Anno 1451, 29 Hen. VI, to John Adam, who became instituted September 21, 1451, 29 Henry VI, on Tybard's Resignation, on the Presentation of Thomas Vernon, Esq.

John Roche succeeded about 20 October 1456, 34 Henry VI, as did

William

William Brayles, about 1469, 9 Edward IV; though I have not met with their Institutions. He died Rector here 1475, 15 Edward IV, and was succeeded by John Stotfold, instituted November 15, 1475, 15 Edward IV, on the Death of William Brayles, on the Presentation of Henry Vernon, Esq. He died Anno 1486, 1 Henry VII; and was succeeded by

Roger Bayly 28 April, 1486, 1 Henry VII, on the Presentation of Henry

Vernon, Esq. on the Death of John Stotford. His Successor was

Henry Babington, A. M. instituted June 23, 1491, 6 Henry VII, on the Resignation of Roger Bayly, at the Presentation of Henry Vernon, Esq. He resigned Anno 1504, 19 Henry VII, and was succeeded by

John Stapul, instituted 16 April, 1504, 19 Henry VII, on the Resignation of Henry Babington, on the Prefentation of Sir Henry Vernon, Knight.

Thomas Westcote succeeded, being instituted Anno 1522, 13 Henry VIII, on the King's Presentation, very probably on account of Vernon the Patron's Minority, on the Death of John Stapul.

Nicholas Knight was instituted June 8, 1522, 13 Henry VIII, on the Death of Thomas Westcote, on the King's Presentation. He occurs Rector Anno 1535, 26 Henry VIII.

Roger Smith was presented by the King on account of Vernon's Minority, and instituted January 16, 1535, 26 Henry VIII, on the Death of the last Rector, not named, who, as it is plain, was Nicholas Knight.

Thomas Vernon was instituted 3 August, 29 Henry VIII, 1538, on the Death of Roger Smith, on the Presentation of George Vernon, Esq.

Francis Babington, S. T. P. succeeded 27 November, 1557, on the Prefentation of George Vernon, Esq. He was Master of Baliol, and Rector of Lincoln Colleges in Oxford, but deprived Anno 1565 of his Preferments, on account of being a concealed Papist, having got several other Benefices, as the Rectory of Milton-Keynes in this County. He quitted this and was succeeded by John Manne, LL. D. instituted 1559, 1 Eliz. on Babington's Resignation. He died Anno 1569, 11 Eliz. being also Dean of Gloucester, as seems to me, and was fucceeded by

Thomas Egerton, Anno 1569, 11 Eliz. instituted on the Presentation of Thomas Alsop, Gent. on the Death of Manne. It was returned Anno 1605, 3 James I, that he was then Rector, viz. Thomas Egerton, and Sir Francis Fortescue Patron, in an Account given in to the Bishop of Lincoln; and that there were then ninety Communicants or Adults. His Successor was a second

Thomas Egerton, A. M. who was prefented by Richard Ingoldsby, and others (by the Grant, no doubt, of the Fortescues the then Patrons) Anno 1622, 24.

James I. He died Anno 1640, 15 Charles I. and was succeeded by Robert Sharrock, inducted March 1, 1640, on the Presentation of Edmund Bateman, to whom, no doubt, he made over his own Turn to present himself. He died, and was buried here, September 10, and succeeded by Thomas Egerton, A. B. instituted December 20, 1671, 23 Charles II, on the Presentation of Thomas Egerton, Gent. who had bought this Turn of the Sharrocks.

Sharrocks. He died Anno 1720, and was buried in the Chancel here, with an Inscription to his Memory. His Successor was Alexander Burrel, A. M. of Trinity College, Cambridge, Chaplain to Dr. Wake, Bishop of Lincoln, Vicar of Buckden, in the County of Huntingdon, who became collated to this Rectory, and Puttenham in the County of Hertford, 27 October, 1720, by the Bishop of Lincoln, on account of the Donation of the Advowson to that Bishoprick from the Family of Sharrock; and he is the present Rector, Anno 1735.

AKELEY or OAKELEY,

A S its Name from Ac or Ake, Quercus, et Ley Campus, i. e. The Field or Place of Oaks. It is surveyed in Domesday Book as follows:

Terra Walteri Giffard in Stofield Hundred.

Robertus tenet de Walterio Achelei pro iii Hidis se desendebat. Terra est iiii Carucatarum. In Dominio sunt iiii Boves et ii Carucatae possunt sieri. Ibi ii Villani cum iiii Bordariis, babentibus ii Carucatas et dimidium. Ibi ii Servi. Pratum i Carucatae. Silva ostinginta porcorum et vi. In totis valentiis valet et valuit xl Solidos. Tempore Regis Edwardi lx Solidos.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Alricus filius Godini, et vendere potuit.

Robert holds Akelei of Walter Giffard. It was rated at three Hides. The Arable is four Carucates. There are four Oxen in the Demefne, and two Carucates may be made. There are two Copyholders and four Cottagers, having two Ploughs and an Half. There are two Servants. Meadow sufficient for one Plough, and Mast for 86 Hogs. In the whole Value it is worth, and was always worth 40 s. In the Time of King Edward 60 s.

Alric Son of Goding held this Manor and could fell it.

This Walter Giffard being a near Relation to William the Conqueror, was by him made Earl of Buckingham, and founding a Priory of Cluniac Monks at his Manor of Newinton-Longueville, (which he made a Cell to Longueville Abby in Normandy) his Son and Successor Walter Giffard, as may be seen in the Monasticon, Vol. iii. p. 111. gave to it Akileiam totam cum pertinentiis in hosco, et in plano, et decimationes omnes de Dominio, et Ecclesiam ejusdem Villae; and the Tythes or Tenths of his Demesses at Buckingham, Borton, Lamport, Lillingston, and Bechampton; and so this remained Part of the Possessions of Newinton Priory aforesaid, till the Dissolution Anno 1415, 3 Henry V; after which this Manor and Advowson was given by Henry-VI, Anno Regni 19, 1441, to the Warden and Scholars of New College in Oxford and their Successors in Perpetuity: And so it has remained ever since. And they, viz.

the faid Warden and Scholars, are, A. D. 1735, the present Patrons of the Church and Lords of this Parish.

Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, the Temporalties of the Priory of Newinton in Acle were valued at 4 l. 2 s. 4 d². And Anno 1534, 25 Hcn. VIII, their Demessness here were returned to be of the clear Value of 8 l. 14 s. 9 d.

But besides this Manor of Akeley I meet with another Manor in this Parish called Stockbolt, though it is appendant on Akeley, which has had these Possessors, viz.

Anno 1344, 19 Edw. III b, Stephen de Trafford levied a Fine of Stockholt Manor, to the Use of Thomas Uffleet, Parson of Greens-Norton. And Anno 21 of the same Reign, Anno 1346, the said Uffleet, then styled Dean of St. Martin's Le Grand, London, conveyed it to John Gifford, Canon of York, and John Holt; which said John Holt, Anno 1351, 26 Edw. III, passed it to Thomas Brember, and Adam le Loriner and Agnes his Wise.

Anno 1412, 13 Hen. IV, as in the Escheats, Thomas Lynford held this Manor. But in the next Reigns, viz. Hen. V. and Hen. VI, the Bartons, Lords of Thornton, were possessed of Stockholt Manor and Lands there.

Anno 1472, 12 Edw. IV, a Fine passed of it from Richard Quatremayns and others to Richard Fowler, who died seised thereof, Anno 1477, 17 Edw. IV.

Anno 1541, 32 Hen. VIII, George Baldrye is returned to die seised hereof on Feb. 14^d, leaving Issue Elizabeth his Daughter and Heir, then an Infant of one Year and three Quarters old.

Anno 1620, 18 James I, William Lamberd died possessed of Stockholt Manor; whose Son John Lamberd died seised thereof Anno 1632, 7 Charles I, in his Minority; so it descended to his Sister and Heir, Mary Wise to Sir Edward Bagot of Blithseild, in the County of Stassord, Bart. who was (as the Account of that antient Family sets forth) Daughter and Heir of William Lamberd, Esq. High-Bailist of the antient Corporation of Buckingham; which Family of Bagot, as appears to me, about the Year 1667, conveyed it to Simon Benet of Bechampton and Calverton, Esq. who leaving Issue only Daughters, it came by Marriage of them to John Benet, Esq. and the Earl of Salisbury, and is now vested, Anno 1735, since the Decease of that worthy Lady his Daughter, Mrs. Grace Benet, Relict of the said John Benet, in his Grandson the Earl of Salisbury, Nephew to the said Mrs. Benet.

The Parish of Akeley with Stockholt contains about 1100 Acres, and is, Anno 1712, assessed to the Land-Tax 67 l. 1-15. 8 d. Here are 41 Families and about 240 Souls. It is bounded West by Maids Morton, North by Stow, South by Leckhampsted and Foxcote, East by Lilling ston Dayrell and Lilling-ston-Lovell, which last Parish is in Oxfordsbire.

The Church here, dedicated to St. James the Apostle, whose Festival is here observed the Sunday after July 25, is a mean small Building, consisting only of a Nave which is leaded, and Chancel which is tyled. At the West End is a wooden Turrit, lately rough cast, in which hang two small modern Bells. Over the Porch is this Date, 1656, being the Year when the said Porch was rebuilt.

Here are no painted Glass or Monuments whatsoever, except these four on ordinary Grave-stones in the Chancel:

1. 1618. Heare lyeth William Smithe, Son of Doctor Smithe.

2 Here lyeth the Body of Paul Pavely, of Stepney in the County of Middlesex, Esq. who departed this Life the 15 of Dec. 1690.

And also of Anne his Wife, who deceased the 26 Day of May, Anno Domini 1693.

These two lye without the Communion-Rails.

3. Here lyeth interred the Bodis of Mr. Thomas and Mrs. Elizabeth Smyth, late of Buckingham, his Sifter. She dyed the 19 Day of November, in the 27. Year of her Age.

4. Richardus Fienes junior, obiit April 16, sepultus April 18, 1710. Gulielmus silius Richardi Fienes, natus duodecimo die Martii, denatus undecimo die Julii ejusdem Anni.

Chamberlain filius Richardi Fienes Clerici, natus decimo tertio die Aprilis 1718, denatus decimo octavo Julii ejusdem Anni.

These two are within the Communion-Rails.

Doctor Thomas Philpot, Rector of this Church, and of Turweston, as they informed me, was buried here, but there is not the least Memorial for him.

The Register of this Parish begins but Anno 1682. The old one being burnt by one Morgan, Curate to Mr. Longworth the Rector, who being disordered in his Senses, also burnt his own Sermon-Notes, and Papers, as I am told.

Anno 1639, 14 Charles I, Nov. 1. this Terrier of the Parsonage was delivered in and figned by Thomas Philpot the then Rector:

The House consists of two Bays of Building, with an Homestall of two Acres. In Lye Field five Acres and an Half of Arabie; in Church-bill Field five Acres of Arable. In Stockwell Field ten Acres of Arable one of Ley Ground and two of Meadow. In all 23 Acres and an Half besides the Home.

As to Charities in this Parish I only find that Sir William Smith left the Interest of One Hundred Pounds to be disposed of by the Warden and Fellows of New-College, Oxford, annually to the Poor of this Parish, not receiving Alms.

The NAMES of the RECTORS are as follow:

William de Lincoln was instituted Anno 1234, 19 Hen. III.

John de St. Omer was instituted Anno 1270, 55 Hen. III, on the Collation of the Bishop, no doubt, on a supposed Lapse. But I presume it was then possessed by one

John de Acle, who quitted it this Year, 1270, having gotten also Great

Harwood Rectory.

Thomas Hofel alias Persons, was instituted 5 Id. Nov. 1357, 31 Edw. III, on the King's Presentation, on the Resignation of William Bovetonn.

John de Flete was presented by the King (by Reason of the Temporalties of the Convent of Longueville being at that Time in the King's Hands.) He exchanged it, for a Mediety of Isham in Northamptonshire, with

Robert Pye, 2 Non. June 1367, 41 Edw. III, and so Pye became presented by the Proctor of the Convent of Longueville. He exchanged it for Westbury Vicarage, with Consent of the Patrons of Westbury, viz. the Convent of Elnestow, with

Thomas Makefare, 10 Feb. 1370, 44 Edw. III. His Successor was

William Edington. He exchanged it for Creflow Rectory with

William filius Roberti Ivonis de Houghton, 1 Dec. 1398, 21 Ric. II. He held it not long, nor did his Successor,

Thomas Alte Mille, who exchanged it, Anno 1406, 7 Hen. IV, with John Northlode, 25 Ost. for Fringford, in the County of Oxford, and he became presented by the King, as did

William Hangerton on the Death of Northlode the next Year, viz. 18 June, 1407, 8 Hen. IV. He refigned it Anno 1409, 10 Hen. IV, having exchanged it for Sutton-Bingham in the County of Somerset, with John Plonket, Aug. 4, 1410, 11 Hen. IV. He exchanged it for Dengeworth Vicarage with

Roger Clotham, 18 Oct. 1432, 10 Hen. VI, and he became admitted by the King's Title. When he voided it I have not seen, nor the Institution of Thomas Teyngmary, on whose Death, which happened Anno 1470, 10 Ed. IV.

John Wilkins became instituted 10 May, 1470, 10 Edw. IV, on the Prefentation of the Warden and Fellows of New-College, Oxford. By whose Title all the succeeding Rectors have been instituted, and these were

John Hopton, instituted 15 June, 1474, 14 Edw. IV, on the Resignation of John Wilkins.

William Bradfeild, LL. B. succeeded Anno 1483, 1 Edw. V. He exchanged

it for Newington-Bloffomville near Olney, with

Thomas Tomys, who became prefented 31 March 1499, 14 Hen. VII, on Bradfeild's Refignation. He died Anno 1510, 2 Hen. VIII, and was succeeded by

Nicholas Johnson, instituted 3 April, 1510, 2 Hen. VIII. He died Anno 1523, 15 Hen. VIII, and was succeeded by

Jobn

John Hart, instituted 7 April, 1523. He held it 35 Hen. VIII, and I suppose Anno 1549, 4 Edw. VI; about which Time I presume he died, and was succeeded by William Abbat, who occurs Rector here Anno 1561, 4 Eliz. He died Anno 1575, 18 Eliz. and was succeeded by

John Holes, admitted 1 Sept. 1575, 18 Eliz. on the Death of Abbat.

John Prichard, A. B. was admitted 24 July 1584, 26 Eliz. as I find in the Registers at Lambeth. He occurs Rector here Anno 1607, 6 James I. His Successor, as in my Account, was

Robert Polden, B. D. instituted Jan. 31, 1622, 20 James I. He soon

voided it, for

Samuel Friers, B. D. took it Anno 1623, 21 James I. He quitted it for Great Harwood, and was succeeded by Thomas Philpot, A. M. afterwards S. T. P. Anno 1624, 22 James I. of whom see an Account in A. Wood, etc. He died Rector of this Church and Turweston; and was buried here in the Chancel, without any Memorial, Anno 1671, 23 Charles II, and succeeded by John Longworth, LL. B. instituted 30 Sept, 1671. He resigned it to his

Kinfman

Peter Longworth, LL. B. instituted 26 Mar. 1678, 30 Charles II. He died and was buried here, 5 Feb. 1702, 1 Anne, and was succeeded by Richard Fienes, A. M. instituted 8 April, 1703, 2 Anne. He died at Winchester, being Fellow of the College there, Anno 1722, 8 George I, and was succeeded by

Francis Pyle, A. M. instituted May 24, 1722, 8 Georgé I, on the Death of Fienes. He quitted it for Hornchurch in Essex, being also Rector of Addington, and was succeeded by

Richard Percyvall, LL. B. instituted 25 April, 1726, 12 George I; on whose quitting it for Radcliff,

Augustine Goodwin, LL. B. became instituted 27 Sept. 1727, 1 George II, who is the present Rector, Anno 1735.

BARTON-HARTSTONE.

HE Word Barton has divers Significations, it importing a Fold, or Farm-Yard, or Homestall, and the Appellation of Hartstone (which is to distinguish it from other Bartons) may denote either its Owner or chief Possessor. Or imply its standing in Forests or Woods, viz. being a Town of Harts or Deer.

In Domesday-Book it is surveyed as follows:

Terra

Terra Episcopi Bajocensis in Rovelai Hundred.

Ernulfus de Hesding tenet de Episcopo Bertone pro x Hidis se desendebat. Terra est v Carucatarum. In Dominio ii Carucatae. Ibi sunt iiii Bordarii babentes i Carucatam et ii Carucatae possunt sieri. Ibi iiii Servi. Pratum iii Carucatarum de pastura xxx s. Silva c porcorum. In totis valentiis valet iiii libras. Quando recepit xl Solidos. Tempore Regis Edwardi lx Solidos.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Wilaf Teignus Comitis, et vendere potuit.

Ernulf de Hesding holds of the Bishop of Bajeux, Bertone. It was rated at ten Hides. The Plough Land, or Arable is five Carucates. There are four Copyholders; they have one Carucate, and can make two Carucates. There are four Servants, and Meadow for three Carucates, and Pasture of 30 s. Value, and Mast for 100 Hogs. In the whole Value it is worth, 4 l. when he received 40 s. In the Time of King Edward 60 s.

Wilaf, a Knight, who owed military Service to Earl Leuwine, held this Manor and could fell it.

After this Bishop Odo falling into Disgrace with William Rusus, Anno 1088, in the second Year of that King's Reign, and having his Lands taken away from him, I presume these of Barton were given to the Doylys, Founders of Oseney Abby; for I find, Anno 1149, 15 Stephen, an Hide and an Half of Lind at Barton Odonis (which seems to be this Barton) mentioned to be given to Oseney Monastery.

Anno 9 Hen. III, 1247, I find a Fine passed of Lands and Messuages in Barton, from Sibill de Kaversfeild to Henry de Barton.

But the chief Demesnes, together with the Church of this Town, were granted, Anno 1244, 28 Hen. III, on founding of Chetwode Priory by Ralph de Norwich, to that Convent b. And so both these Religious Houses, viz. Oseney and Chetwode, became almost the sole Proprietors of this small Parish, and each of them had their respective Manors herein. I shall begin with the first of these, as of the earlier Foundation, viz. Oseney Abby.

Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, I find in the Lincoln Taxation, that Convent had at Barton, in Lands, Rents, and in a Dove-house 62 s. and in Tythes 7 s. and in another Taxation the said Abby is returned to have in Temporalties in Parva Barton 3l. 9s. od.

And though, Anno 1542, 33 Hen. VIII^c, on converting the Abby of Ofeney into a Cathedral, and founding the new Bishoprick of Oxford, the Rectory and Advowson of Barton was given to the Dean and Chapter of Oxford; yet it remained not long in their Hands, but was reassumed by the Crown, and so became (as I judge) purchased by William Risley of Hen. VIII, together with Chetwode. For on his Death, which happened July 11, 1552, 6 Edw. VI, his Son and Heir William Risley, had Livery of the Manor, Rectory, and Advowson of Barton, together with Chetwode, late Parcel of the Possessions of Nutley Abby, in whose Family it now remains, as I shall shew anon, after having first discussed of the Manor belonging to Oseney, which by Letters Patent, dated Sept. 29, 1544, 35 Hen. VIII, being (on a forced Exchange for the Manors of Mixbury and Fullwell) granted to John Wellesborne by King Hen. VIII, he, or his Heir, continued seized thereof till 1570, 12 Eliz. when he conveyed to Edmund Paxton such Part of the Premisses as the said Paxton and his Family had heretofore held as Lessee Tenants of the Abby of Oseney, and were then his Lessee Tenants; which coming by Marriage of a Daughter of Paxton to the Family of Butterfeild, passed from Butterfeild also in Marriage, about the Year 1716, to George Southam, the present Proprietor, Anno 1735.

And the Family of Porter, which occurs so early as 1498, in Hemy VII.'s Reign, the principal Lessee Tenants of the Abbies of Oseney and Nutley, having also, as I am informed, purchased from Wellesborne the Fee-Simple of their Estate, their Posterity likewise continued seised thereof till the Year 1630, when Richard Porter (who had, Anno 1624, enclosed the Parish) sold his Right and Title to Thomas Lise, in whose Heirs it hath been vested ever since, the present Lord hererof, Anno 1735, being Thomas

Farmer Life, of Impley, in the County of Oxford, Esq.

As to the other Manor, heretofore the Property of the Priory of Chetwede, and fince 1460 of the Abby of Nutley, it having been granted, together with the Rectory, Vicarage, and Advowson of the Church, to William Risley, Anno 1542, 33 Hen. VIII. he died seised thereof Anno 1552, 6 Edw. VI, and was succeeded by his Son William Risley; who, as the Inquisition taken on his Death, which happened Jan. 29, 1602, 1 James I, sets forth, died seised of the Manor, Rectory, and Advowson of Barton-Harisborne, and left Issue Paul Risley his Son and Heir, aged forty Years and more; who dying Anno 1646, 21 Charles I. and the elder Branch of his Family becoming extinct in his Son Thomas Risley, who died Anno 1671, 23 Charles II, it came to his Nephew Henry Risley, Esq. Father of Paul Risley, Esq. the present Possessor, Anno 1735.

The Parish of Barton, which is said to contain 730 Acres, near Half of which belong to Mr. Risley, is bounded South by Stratton-Audley, North by Newton-Purcell, and Finmere in the County of Oxford, East by Tingwick, and West by Chetwode. The Rectory was Anno 1534, 25 Hen. VIII, in the Rental of Nutley Abby (which Convent had here in Temporalties the same Year 2 l. 2 s. 8 l.) valued at 5 l. 6 s. 6 d. though Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, it was rated at only two Marks.

The Number of Families in the Parish was, Anno 1712, returned to be twenty, and it was then assessed to the Land-tax 92 l. 15 s. 9 d. It was then returned that there were no Lands in this Parish given to Charities.

In the Year 1276, 4 Edw. I, there was a Dispute about three Farthings Tythe, payable from John Carattareus, or Carter, to the Prior of Chetwode, which the Prior receded from, and released for the Sake of Peace.

LEx Informatione Geo. Southam, Generofi de Barton.

The

The Church here is a small Fabrick, consisting only of a tyled Body and Chancel. At the West End is a little Turrit lathed and plaistered over, and tyled at Top, in which hang two small Bells.

Here are no Arms or Monuments whatsoever, or any thing memorable, except some small Remains of painted Glass, on which are the Portraitures of the Blessed Virgin, with these Words over her, AVE MARIA; and the Essigns of St. Peter, and a Crucifix. It is dedicated to St. James, and the Feast is kept here the Sunday after July 25.

The Parish Register begins Anno 1567, 9 Eliz. but has little memorable in it; and no Entries of the Names of the Ministers. What I took down is as follows:

Henry, Son of Edward Porter, baptized Anno 1569. Edmund, Son of William Paxton, baptized Anno 1584. Richard, Son of John Porter, baptized Anno 1589.

John Porter buried Anno 1601.

Isabel, Wife of Richard Porter, Gent. buried Anno 1626.

Edward, Son of George Southam and Eleanor his Wife (who was the Heiress of Butterfeild) baptized Anno 1719.

The faid George Southam has very decently ornamented the Church, which is kept very neat.

The Exhibit of the Terrier, in the Archdeacon of Buckingham's Office, of this Place and Cheiwode, which are held together, is as follows:

Barton and Chetwode, 23 November, 1639. Phillip Stokes, Minister.

The Church Wardens certify, that Thomas Rifley, Gent. was Impropriator of Barton, and that it was worth 601. per Annum, and that Mr. Philip Stokes hath 201. per Annum for serving the Cure of both. And that there is no House.

The Church Wardens of Chetwode certify the same, and that the Impropriation of Chetwode was worth 43 l. 5 s. 8 d. per Annum; and so both Parishes, together with both the Rectories of them, were worth 103 l. 5 s. 8 d. per Annum.

This Church, lying so near the Conventual Church of Chetwode, was made a Vicarage Anno 1276, 4 Edw. I, and both Vicarage and Rectory consolidated; and the Cure of both served by a Monk of Chetwode before that Religious House was united to Nutley Abby, Anno 1460, 1 Edw. IV, and since it has been supplied in the same Manner as Chetwode by the same Minister to both.

The Registers of Lincoln furnish us with no Names of Rectors of Barton, and only these Vicars:

Frater, or Friar William de Brickesworth, Canon of Chetwode, was prefented to the Vicarage of Barton near Chetwode, 8 March, 1290, 18 Edw. I, by the Prior and Convent of Chetwode.

Frater Roland de Langham, Canon of Chetwode, was admitted 7 cal. March, 1301, 29 Edw. I, on the Refignation of Friar William, to the parochial Cure of the Church of Barton, by the Prior and Convent of Chetwode, they holding the Church of Barton to their own Use.

Robert de Barton was instituted 3 Non. Maii, 1328, 2 Edw. III, on the Death of Langham.

Philip de Winchingdon admitted 15 Cal. Off. 7 Edw. III, on the Death of Barton.

Adam de Chetwode, instituted 3 Id. Oct. 1349, on the Death of Philip de Winchingdon, Canon of Chetwode, the last Vicar.

Frater John de Norton, instituted Anno 1351, 25 Edw. III, on the Resignation of Adam de Chetwode.

Frater Richard Evenlode, instituted 5 Aug. 1352, 26 Edw. III, on the Refignation of Norton. The next I meet with is Friar John Sampson, instituted 15 May 1392, 15 Ric. II.

Nicholas Schrovesbury, Canon of Chetwode, instituted 26 April, 1398, 21 Ric. II, to the vacant Vicarage of Barton.

After him I meet with no more Names of Ministers, except the Admission of Nicholas de Awdeswell, Aug. 11, 1411, 12 Hen. IV, by Thomas Arundel, Archbishop of Canterbury, until I find

Michael Bone subscribes himself Curate of Barton, Anno 1525; as does John Crewer, Anno 1542, 33 Hen. VIII. After which the same Persons who have had Chetwode seem to have held Barton, as they do now at this Day. These were James Eaton, Anno 1561, 2 Eliz.

Edward le Mortin, who occurs Anno 1583, 25 Eliz. as does Henry Beverley, Anno 1598, 40 Eliz. and 1608, 6 James I. as does Philip Stokes, Anno 1617, 15 James I, and 1639, 14 Charles I.

Thomas Bury held it Anno 1640, and also Anno 1660, and left it Anno 1662 for Twyford.

James Platt styles himself Minister Anno 1663; as does

Thomas Horne, who took out a Licence for it, 19 Oct. 1664. He also ferved here Anno 1650, 2 Charles II, being that Year returned to officiate in these Churches.

Arthur Stanton, LL. B. was licenced 17 Oct. 1676, and occurs Curate Anno 1682, and 1689.

Thomas Osborne succeeded Anno 1690, and left it for Tingwick Curacy.

Thomas Crowle succeeded Anno 1693; as did

Littleton Burton about 1697.

Thomas Cooper, Anno 1701.

John Welles, Anno 1707.

John Stanton succeeded Welles Anno 1725. His Successor was

Roger Price about Anno 1730, to whom succeeded

George Burton the present Curate, Anno 1734.

BECHAMPTON,

NALLED in Doomsday Book Becentone, which may be interpreted, the A Brook in the Town: Bec signifying Torrens, which agrees well with the Situation of the Place, the Houses in the Town being divided by a Brook running between them. Or the Name may come from Bechan, parvus, and so will signify the little Town. For it can have no Pretence to be denominated from Beeches. In the Norman Survey it is thus described:

Terra Walteri Giffard in Rovelai Hundred.

In Becentone tenet Hugo de Walterio v Hidas pro uno Manerio. In Dominio sunt ii et v Villani cum ix Bordariis babentibus iii Carucatas. Ibi i Servus et i Molinum de x Solidis. Pratum duarum Carucatarum. Intotis Valentiis valet iv l. Quando recepit xxx s. Tempore Regis Edwardi iv 1. es x Solidos.

This Walter Giffard, made Earl of Buckingham by the Conqueror, as shewn in Akely, founding a Priory at Newnton Longueville, his Son and Succeffor gave thereto the Tenths of his Demesnes at Bechampton. To whom this Manor passed after his Death, Anno 1164, 10 Hen. II, on Division of his Lands, I have not feen, nor who succeeded Leuwine de Newebam in the other Manor; but about the Year 1180, 26 Hen. II, these two Manors seem to have been in the Hands of the Fitz Richards and Fitz Neels, of which the last, who was Lord of Salden, gave his Mediety of the Advowson of Bechampton Church to the Monks of Luffield, as may be seen in the, Monasticon, Vol. i. p. 525. which Donation not being fully compleated, was, as I find, confirmed Anno 1327, 3 Edw. III, by Richard Fitz Neel, with the Consent of Agnes his Wife. But the chief Lords or Proprietors here were the Family of the Bechamptons, who were Patrons of the other Mediety of this Church in King John's Time, which, as I presume, they acquired from the Fitz Richards, for Anno 1228, 11 Hen. III, Richard Fitz Richard paffed a Fine of Lands here to William de Bechampton and his Heirs; and two Years afterwards, viz. Anno 1220, 14 Hen. III, this Richard Fitz Richard granted an Hide of Land to the Prior and Monks of Snellshall, which Richard Son of Roger de Bechampton also confirmed to the said Convent in the Time of Matthew Archdeacon of Bucks.

In the Pleas of the Crown, Anno 1230, 14 Hen. III, I find that Alexander de Tatebo or Tottenboe, and Cicily his Wife, gave half a Hide of Land in Bechampton to the Priory of Snellshall, and Anno 1287, 17 Edw. I, a Fine was levied between John le Lou and Amy his Wife Demandants, and John Son of William de Bechampton Deforciant b, of 2 Parts of the Manor of Bechampton, the Property of Amy, and the said John, Son of William de Bechampton, agreed that the third Part of this Manor, which Margery Wife of William de Bechampton held in Dower, should go in Remainder to the said John and Amy Lou, which Amy was, I presume, Daughter and Heiress of the Bechamptons: But in the Name of Lou this Estate did not long continue, for Anno 1314, 7 Edw. II, Philip de Hardreshull and Amy his Wife levied a Fine of it; Hardreshull being, as I suppose, second Husband to the said Amy; and, Anno 1331, 5 Edw. III. this Philip Hardreshull presented a Clerk to his Mediety here, which was called the Lord's Mediety.

From Hardreshull this Manor, with the Advowson of the Mediety, passed in Edw. IIId's Time to the Wolfs, which Family were Lords and Patrons here in Richard II. and Henry IV. Reigns.

Anno 1406, 7 Hen. IV. Philip Wolf and Elizabeth his Wife passed a Fine of this Manor, and of a Medicty of the Advowson, to Sir Richard Arches, who reconveyed it with Remainder in Tail to John Wolf, Son of Philip Wolf, and Joan his Wife, and to the Heirs of John Wolf. From this Family of Wolf the Manor and Advowson seems to have come, Temp. Hen. VI. in Marriage to the Edys and Fosters, for, Anno 1470, 10 Edw. IV. William Foster and Joan his Wife, and John Pigot, who had married the Daughter of a Ex chartulario de Snellshall.

Edy, being Joint Patrons, agreed with the Prior and Convent of Luffield to unite and confolidate the two Medieties, and fix them in one Clerk or Rector, and present alternately with Luffield; which Agreement was effected, and so continued for above 100 Years in the separate alternate Patronage of each Party concordant.

How long the Festers continued possessed of their Demesnes here I have not seen. But as the Pigotts married into their Family in Hen. VII's Reign, I presume their Estate here came by Marriage to that Family, which dwelt some Generations at the Manor House, known by the Name of Bechampton Hall, where in the Windows of the great House I find their Arms put up, with their Matches with Dayrell and Edy respectively quartered.

In a Will I have seen of Robert Pigott, Son to John Pigott, made Anno 1557, 4 Mariæ, he appointed his Body to be buried in the Church here. To him succeeded Thomas Pigott his Son and Heir, who died seized of this At Phase Manor and alternate Advowson, Anno 1595, 39 Eliz. and was succeeded by his second Son George Pigot; Valentine his eldest Son, Counsellor at Law, dying in his Father's Life Time without Issue Male; and Matthew his third Son being Rector of this Church. This George Pigott died Anno 1602, 44 Eliz. and willed to be buried here. His Successor was Thomas Pigott, his. only Son, as feems to me, who occurs possessed hereof Anno 1605, 3 Jac. I, about 4 Years after which, he fold this Manor and his alternate Turn in the Advowson to Sir Thomas Bennet, Knight, Citizen and Lord Mayor of London, who, a bout the same time, viz. Anno 1610, 8 Fac. I, purchased the other Turn of Sir Arthur Throckmorton (who had it vested in him by Gift of the Crown to his Father by a Grant of the antient Right and Title of the Convent of Luffield,) and so having acquired the entire Patronage, died posfessed hereof Anno 1626, 1 Car. I. He also besides the Manor purchased other Lands here of Sir William Andrews, and other Proprietors, of which I find there were many on the Enclosing this Lordship Anno 1578, 20 Eliz. To this Sir Thomas Benet, who died Anno 1626 as aforesaid, succeeded Simon Benet his Second Son, created a Baronet July 17, 1627, 2 Car. I. who being settled at the Hall in his Father's Life Time kept great Hospitality there, and by his last Will and Testament, dated 15 August 1631, 6 Car. I, bequeathed his Tythes of Boreton in the Parish of Buckingbam to divers Charitable Uses f, among which he gave 5 l. per Ann. to the Repairs of this Church, and 12 l. 10 s. per Annum to Clothe with Jerkins, Breeches, and Stockings fix poor, impotent, and aged Men, who had been dwelling 3 Years in this Town, and ordered that the faid Cloaths should be provided against the Feast of St. Simon and Jude, and that the odd Ten Shillings of the said 12 l. 10 s. should go to the Overseers for their Care and Pains. He gave also the like fum of 12 l. 10 s. to Calverton. And 20 l. 10 s. per Annum for the like Uses for Clothing ten Persons in the same Manner, on the West Side of Stony Stratford, who had been dwelling there for feven Years last past; the care of Clothing these Persons, he committed to the Church Wardens and Constable. He likewise devised 20 Nobles per Annum, towards the Repair of the High-ways in Bechampton, and gave 20 l. per Annum to the Town of Buckingham to Cloth 10 Persons in the same Manner as at Story Stratford. the bestowing of which he committed to the High Bailiss and Capital Burgeffes of that antient Corporation. He gave also a Lodge and some Coppices in Whittlebury Forest, to Dame Eliz. his Wife for her Life, and impowered Sir George Creoke, one of the Justices of the King's Bench, and Sir Arthur Ingram Knights, to apply two Years Profits thereof to the Master and Fellows of University College in Oxford, towards compleating their new Buildings: and gave and appointed to the faid Mafter and Fellows, for founding four new Pellowships and four new Scholarships, as follows, viz. to every new Fellow 20 l. per Annum, and to every new Scholar 10 l. per Annum. He also gave to the Marriage of 20 poor Maids in Bechampton and Calverton 1001. And dying here the same Year he was buried in the Chancel of this Church, without the least Memorial of him or his Benefactions, to the no finall Dishonour of his Heirs, and others who have received so much, and daily partake of his Munificence, especially University College, to whom he was the greatest single Benefactor they ever had. However, as that Society have agreed to erect a Monument, it is to be hoped that they will not longer defer putting up one over his Grave. On his Death, without Issue, this Estate and Manor came to his Nephew and Heir, Simon Benet, Son to his younger Brother Richard Benet, who removed from hence to Calverton, where he had fitted up an House about the Year 1660, 12 Car. II; and dying there Anno 1682, 34 Car. II, was buried here, having bequeathed the Interest of 50 l. to the Poor of this Parish. But leaving Issue only Daughters, this Manor, after the Death of Grace his Wife, (who was robbed and barbaroully murthered on Sept. 19, 1694 by one Barnes, a Butcher of Stony Stratford, who for this Crime was afterwards executed,) descended to her Sons in Law, viz. John Benet of Abingdon in the County of Cambridge, Esq. by Marriage of that good Lady Mrs. Grace Benet her eldest surviving Daughter, and to James Cecil Earl of Salifbury, by Marriage of her younger Daughter Frances. And the faid Mrs. Grace Benet, and her Nephew, the Earl of Salifbury, her Sifter's Son, are, Anno 1722, the present Possesses of this Manor, and Patrons of the Church. An elder Sifter to these Ladies was Eliz. born at the Hall here Anno 1659, who marrying Edward Ofborne Lord Viscount Latimer, he became through his Residence here elected in two Parliaments, Annis 30 & 31 Car. II. one of the Burgesses for the County Town of Bucks.

I find there were here Lands, which continuing in the Crown became Part of the Dower of the Queens of England, particularly one Pasture Ground which is yet known or called by the Name of Queens Close.

The famous Duke of Bedford Regent of France in King Henry VIth's Reign, Anno 1416, in the 4th Year of the Reign of his Brother King Hen. V, having obtained a Grant in General Tail of the Manors of Salden and Mursley, and a Market and Fair at Mursley, laid claim to this Manor of Bechampton, as I suppose from the Lords of Salden, the Fitz Neels Heirs.

Ex Testamento.

As to the Advowson of the Church, it being, as aforesaid, divided into two Patronages; one Part thereof became appendant to the Manor, as hath been already shewn; and the other belonged to the Priory of Lussield, which having been likewise before related, I shall only briesly here observe touching these Medieties, (which yet are kept up at Waddesden and Chesham in this County) that when a Parish was originally in two or three Lords, they agreed together in building of a Church, yet they did not so mendowing it; but each bestowing the Tythes of his own Lands, as he saw proper, nominated and provided his particular Clerk, or Rector, to administer to his Tenants: So this Advowson of Bechampton, being thus separated between the Lords of the Town and the Convent of Lussield, each Patron in their Turns, as Vacancies happened, presented their several respective Incumbents, and so two Rectors officiated here, till Anno 1470, 10 Edw. IV, on the uniting the Medieties as aforementioned.

But besides these great Charities of Sir Simon Benet, Baronet, one William Elmer a principal Inhabitant here, enjoying the Estate in this Parish which antiently belonged to Snell/hall Priory, of near 100 Acres of Land, bequeathed the same to charitable Uses, and vested it in six Trustees or Feosfees, whereof " two were to be Inhabitants of Bechampton, one of Whaddon, one of Nash, " one of Calverton, and one of Maidsmorton Parishes; who by the Donor's "Will were to cloth fixteen poor People, viz. 8 Men, and 8 Women, with " an Allowance of 40 s. per Annum to each poor Man, and 20 s. to each poor "Woman; which were to be nominated by his Feoffees, out of the above-" mentioned Parishes; the Men to be aged and honest People, worn out by " their Labour; the Women to be Widows, being aged and quiet People; "whereof three of the Men and three of the Women were to dwell in Bec-" bampton Parish; two Men and two Women in Whaddon; one Man and "one Woman in Nash; one Man and one Woman in Catoerien; one Man-" and one Woman in Maidsmorton Parish: and willed that every third Year, these sixteen Folks should have a Gown of Black Cloth, value 15 s. each, " with a W. E. markt on the Left Shoulder in Red Cloth, and the half Year "they have their Gowns, not to have their Money; and that when any of if them die, to chuse others out of the same Town, as they shall die; so that "they should always be fixteen in Number, and then when any of the Feoffees •• die, the Survivors shall chuse an honest Man out of the same Town, where " he died; viz. Bechampton, Whaddon, Nash, Calverton, and Maidsmorton." " The Estate he bequeathed to his Charities, being the House where he dwelt, " called the Grange, and these Closes viz. The Home Close, Whites Close, " New Close, Safford Close, Round Hill Close, Little Mead, Thiskey Field, Corn " Close, Bridge Mead, all in Bechampton, with his Lands in Whaddon, Nash, " and Calverton Fields. He also devised 16s. a Year to the Repair of a Bridge in Bechampton, called Broken Bridge: and likewise out of these Estates em-• powered and appointed his Feoffees or Truftees, to found and endow a Free " School, in Bechampton; which, when built and finished, out of the Profits " of his Estate, he directed that they should nominate, appoint, and elect an bonest, able, and sufficient Person, being a good Scholar, and a single Man, to be h Ex Testamento.

"School-master, and there continually to dwell and abide, and to teach and instruct all such Youth and Children, as shall resort unto him; in the Enginstruct all such Youth and Children, as shall resort unto him; in the Enginstruct all such Youth and Children, as shall resort unto him; in the Enginstruct all such Youth and to cast Accounts; and in Case the said Schoolmaster shall die, depart, or marry, that the said Feosses shall chuse another School-master, qualified as aforesaid; and if he should prove a vicious Man, cut down Timber, without the Trustees Consent, misuse his Scholars, or do any thing unfitting; they shall have Power to put him out, and chuse another." This Will bears Date Jan. 3, 1648, and was proved May 3, 1653, by his Feosses; who having, as directed, sinished the School House out of the Profits of the Estate Anno 1667, they appointed the Reverend Mr. John Mansell, LL. B. of Magdalen-ball, Oxford, to be first Master, who became licensed 23 March 1669, 21 Car. II. He resigning the Mastership Anno 1675, was succeeded by

John Owen, A. B. of All Souls-College, Oxford, licensed October 14, 1675, 27 Charles II. to whom succeeded Anno 1678, 8 Jan.

Abraham Freestone, A. B. of Sidney-College, Cambridge; he quitted it, being beneficed in Lincolnshire, and was succeeded by

Benjamin Pritchard, A. M. Fellow of Brazen-nose College, Oxon. elected 3 December, 1703, and licensed 3 May, 1706, he resigned it to his Brother Herbert Pritchard, A. M. Fellow also of Brazen-nose College, who was licensed 24 April, 1712. On whose quitting it

William Cooke, also of Brazen-nose College, became elected Anno 1717, and is the present Master Anno 1735.

Mr. Mansell the first Master lived till January 31, 1729, when he died, and was buried at Cosgrave in the County of Northampton, where he was Rector, being aged about 86 Years.

The Parish of Bechampton contains about 1200 Acres, and is bounded South by Wbaddon, East by Calverton, West by Thornton, and North by the two Wickens and Passenbam in Northamtonshire. It is assessed to the Land Tax 1781. 185. per Annum. Here are 34 Houses or Families and 150 Souls.

The Rectory is thus returned in the Valor, made Anno 1291, 18 Edw. L. Ecclesia de Bechampton, Ibid. ii Restores.

Here are in the Church two Copes of different Colours. One of which is used for the Communion Table, and the other for a Cloth for the Pulpit.

The Lands of this Parish belonging to Lussield, were returned to be of the Value of about 11. 12.5. o.d. a little before the Dissolution; the Donors of them, as they occur in the Register of Lussield, were Robert Fitz Neel, who gave half a Yard Land, as did Henry, Son of Robert Silveston, another hair Yard Land; Sir William de Beachampton, Knt. granted to the Priory of Lussield a Messuage and half a Yard Land.

There is an Extract of an ancient Terrier of the Lands, etc. belonging to Bechampton Free School, kept in the Feoffees Chest, entitled, A true Terrier of the Houses and Closes, Lands, and Meadows, belonging to the Grainge, in the Parish of Bechampton, being now the Lands of John Fortescue, Esq. formerly belonging to the Prior of Snellsho, and now in the Tenure of William Elmer, taken 2 Sept. 1581, 23 Eliz.

The whole Survey of the Number of Acres is 86, belonging to the Graingt.

There is another Terrier made June 11, 21 Eliz. A. D. 1578.

144 HISTORY OF BECHAMPTON.

N. B. The Parish was enclosed A. D. 1579 or 1580.

In this Survey is mention made of the butting and bounding of the particular Lands of William Elmer (the Ancestor, no doubt, to the Founder of the Free School) and the Land of the Prior of Luffield is mentioned to be on one Side, and the Land of Joan, or Johanne, Queen of England, on the other.

I suppose this Johanne was King Hen. IVth's Queen.

The Church, which is dedicated to the Honour of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which Festival is celebrated Aug. 15. (the Sunday after which Day is a Feast kept in this Parish) is an uniform and regular Building. It consists of a Body and two lles, which are leaded, and a Chancel which is tiled. At the West End is a small Tower, the upper Part of which is Wood, covered with a stat Roof of Lead, in which hang three very tuneable Bells; on the sirst this, Santa Pargareta Dra pro Pobis. On the second Pos Prece Sandorum Desendas Christe tuerum. On the third, W. E. Robert Attun made me, 1633, I suppose at the Expence of the charitable William Elmer.

This Wood Work of the Tower was, as I have been told, put up about 1680, 32 Car. II. on the Decay of the Stone Work, for which the Church Wardens who did it, incurred the Displeasure of the general Part of the Parish.

In a MS. in the Harleian Library, I met with these Arms, which were remaining in the Church, Anno 1631.

1. Gules, a Fess Fusille Argent, within a Bordure, Besante.

2. Or a Cross engrailed Gules in dexter Ganton a Martlet.

These were in the Bellfry Window, but are now quite gone.

The last or second Coat is of the Arms of Hardresbull, who lived in Edward the Third's Time; in which Reign this Church was, I make no doubt, built.

In the Chancel East Window:

Argent a Fess Gules between three Hazel Nuts, leaved and frutted proper. This is, I presume, the Coat of Hasley if not Haselriggs. Sable three Pick-axes argent, being Pigot's Coat.

At the Bottom of the Window this broken Inscription:

.... Ahome Coie et Agnetis upor' ejus ac et Benefadorum egr. quor. Ajabus ppitietur Deus.

Near this Inscription these Arms, Bendy, Lozenge, Argent and Sable.

In the upper Window of the North Ile were the Portraits of the Apostles in painted Glass with their Names at their Feet, as Sanstus Symon &c. And the Words of the Creed round each Apostle as follows, viz.

Qui Conceptus est de Spiritu Sancta, Natus ex Maria Virgine, &c.

In the East Window of the South Ile are the broken Portraits of two Men in Armour.

Here were also the Portraits of St. Dennis and several other Saints, but defaced.

In the Nave or Body of the Church the Portrait of a Man in Brass in a Gown; over him this on a Brass Tablet:

"Behold I happie am indeed of Fleshly Man releast

Who having chang'd the mener State do now enjoy the best;

"For seinge the fix'd Order set of things by God's Decree,

"Hath finisht Mortal Life, to live with God eternally.

At his Feet on a Brass Tablet this:

"Here lieth the Body of William Bawdyn of Bechampton, Blacksmyth, who dyed the 8 Day of October in the Year of our Lord 1600."

Near it on a like Stone, on a small Plate of Brass:

" William Elmer was buried the 19th of March 1652."

In the South Isle on a Grave-stone, the Portraiture of a Woman in Brass, at her Feet on a Brass Plate this:

- "Here lieth the Body of Ales Baldwyn Daughter of William Mathew of

On a little Stone near it was this,

" Mary Willis was born the 19th, and laid here the 21 of August, Anno Domini 1686."

She was the Eldest Daughter of Thomas Willis of Fenny-stratford, Esq. who then lived at the Hall.

Against the North Wall is fix'd a Brass Plate adorned with ordinary Carvings of Freestone, about it is this Legend. On each side round it at the Top,

" Away thou must unto thy Dust,

" Hold fast thy Chain, it is thy Gain."

On the two other Sides,

" Here you may see as in a Glass,

" How swift your Time away doth pass."

On the Tablet this Inscription,

Below this is a Projection of black veined Marble.

Here were Penons put up for his Lady, who was murthered Anno 1694, as aforesaid, aforesaid, for whom was made a most magnificent Funeral, but not the least Memorial has been ever erected for her.

Here hung up, in my Remembrance, an Helmet &c. over Sir Simon Benet's Grave, who was buried close to the Chancel Wall just above this Tomb.

In the Church Yard is an handsome raised Tomb with this Inscription on it, on a White Marble Table,

- "In Memory of Joseph Rogers, of Winslow, Currier, who died Jan. 9, "1722, in the 48 Year of his Age. He hath raised himself a Monu-
 - "ment more durable than this Marble, by giving 600 l. to be laid out in Land, the Rents and Profits of which he hath ordered to be ap-

 - " Learning the Children of poor People of the Parish of Winslow. He gave likewise for the Use of the Communion Service of the Parish
 - "Church of Winflow, one Silver Salver of 5 l. Value."

On the other Side and at the Ends are Texts of Scripture, viz. Proverbs xix. y 17. and Chapter iv. y 7 and 13. Pf. cxii. 9.

But I come lastly to the Series of the Rectors of this Church; and shall begin with those presented by the Lords of the Town. The first of these that occur in the Registers of Lincoln is

Manasses Clericus, who was presented Anno 1218, 2 Hen. III, by Sir

William de Bechampton, Knight; the next I find is

Richard, who occurs in a Deed Anno 1313, and 1331, on whose Refignation

William de Morton became presented, 1331, 5 Edw. III, on the Presentation of Philip de Hardreshull. He died Anno 1349, 23 Edw. III, and was succeeded by William Pratt, instituted 2 Non. Julii 1349, 23 Edw. III, on the Presentation of William Wolf of Bechampton. He resigned the next Year, and was

fucceeded by

William Bradwell, instituted 4 Non. Nov. 1350, 24 Edw. III, on the Prefentation of John Vere Earl of Oxford, as Guardian, I suppose, to the Patron in his Minority. The next in my Account is

Robert Prestone, on whose Resignation, Anno 1383, 6 Ric. II,

Robert Davy succeeded Anno 1383, 6 Ric. II, on Philip Wolf of Bechampton's Presentation.

William Chapel is the next. He died Anno 1397, 20 Ric. II, and was fucceeded by John Crowch, instituted Jan. 23, 1397, 20 Ric. II, on Philip Wolf's Prefentation.

Richard Bolton succeeded June 8, 1403, 4 Hen. IV, on Philip Wolf's Prefentation.

William Smith succeeded, and exchanged it, Anno 1408, 9 Hen. IV, for Thirne in Norfolk, with

John Newton, Sept. 8, 1408, 9 Hen. IV. He was succeeded by

William

William Thomas, instituted Sep. 3, 1412, on the Presentation of John Wolf of Bechampton. The next I find is

Laurence Penny, on whose Resignation, Anno 1454, 32 Hen. VI,

William Offord was instituted, August 3, 1454, 32 Hen. VI, on the Presentation of John Edy, Dom. Manerii de Bechampton: On his voiding it, viz. Offord's, Anno 1470, Henry Edy, a Relation of the Patron's, obtaining the other Mediety from the Priory of Luffield, became instituted to both Medieties, and held them confolidated as one Rectory, as have all the succeeding Incumbents.

Bechampton Rectores ex Patronatu Prioris et Conventus de Luffeld.

John occurs Rector of Bechampton Anno 1228, 12 Hen. III, as does after him

Henry Kineman. He died Rector An. 1276, 4 Ed. I, and was succeeded by Ralph de Buckingbam, instituted 4 Nov. Anno 1276, 4 Edw. I. He resigned Anno 1278, and was succeeded by Richard de Honaton, instituted o Cal. Aug. Anno 1278, 6 Edw. I.

James de Bucks succeeded April 15, Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I.

John Eydon died Rector Anno 1334, 8 Edw. III, and was succeeded by John de Dodington 5 Id. Oct. Anno 1324. He exchanged it for Water Stratford, with Michael de Buckby, 3 Id. April. Anno 1340, 14 Edw. III.

Richard Hardynge was presented 23 Junii, Anno 1398, 21 Ric. II.

John Gerny exchanged it for Wormsell in Kent, with

Thomas Clerk, Feb. 28, Anno 1403, 4 Hen. IV.

Richard Ward succeeded Dec. 18, Anno 1411, 12 Hen. IV, and resigned it Anno 1420.

William Holbek succeeded Oct. 21, Anno 1420, and resigned it Anno 1422, 1 Hen. VI. The next that occurs is

John Barker, who succeeded June 17, Anno 1422, 1 Hen. VI. The next after him that I find was

William Lindesey. He was instituted April 12, Anno 1456, 34 Hen. VI, on the Presentation of Luffield Priory, as was

Henry Dye or Edye, May 5, 1470, 10 Edw. IV, who, as I prefume, rebuilt the Chancel. The next Day after his Institution, there was, on May 6, an Union of the two Medieties by Deeds executed at Oxford, between the Convent of Luffield on the one Part and William Foster Esq. and Joan his Wife and John Pigot of the other Part, wherein it was agreed to an Alternate Presentation: And so on this Henry Dye, or Edye's Resignation, the fucceeding Rectors were instituted accordingly; the first of which was

William Hartshawe, instituted Feb. 21, Anne 1490, 5 Hen. VII, on the Refignation of Edy on the Presentation of John, Son to William Foster, and John Pigot. In his Will, which I have seen, dated Anno 1525, 16 Hen. VIII, he appointed to be buried in the Church here, and bequeathed to it a Vestment with a Cross on it.

Robert Harris succeeded June 11, Anno 1526, being presented by William Tylor Tylor on the Convent of Luffield's Title and Right. He died Anno 1551, 5 Edw. VI, and was succeeded by

John Bierly alias Lockheyt, instituted June 11, Anno 1551, on the Presentation of Robert Pigot, Esq. He resigned Anno 1553, and was succeeded by Robert Corbet presented June 23, Anno 1553, by William Lord Grey and others, by the Grant of this Turn from Robert Pigot Esq. and Sir Nicholas Throckmorton the alternate Patrons; which Sir Nicholas had obtained Luffield dissolved Priory and its Endowments of the King.

Thomas Allen was instituted July 2, Anno 1557, 4 & 5 Philip and Mary, on the Death of the last Incumbent, on the Presentation of Robert Pigot Esq.

Richard Lovel was collated by the Bishop on a Lapse, and instituted March 9, 1558, 4 and 5 Philip and Mary.

Matthew Pigot was instituted Anno 1568, 10 Elizabeth, on Lovel's Death, on the Prefentation of Thomas Pigot, Elq. He died 1598, and was buried in the Chancel, and succeeded by

Benjamin Mores or Morrice instituted July 28, Anno 1598, 40 Eliz. on the Death of Matthew Pigot on the Presentation of George Pigot Esq. His Succeffor was

Thomas Birchmore, A. M. presented by the King Feb. 21, Anno 1624. 9 Car. I, per pravitatem Simonia, as in the Registers of Lincoln. He held it An. 1641, 16 Car. I. but was, as I am informed, ejected for his Loyalty, and William Pilkington intruded, who occurs Rector Anno 1656, 8 Car. II. after him

Ezecbiel Couchman got in about Anno 1659 on Car. I, and taking out the King's Title 16 May, Anno 1661, 13 Cor/ 11/ deed possessed hereof, and was fucceeded by

Reginald Eyre, A.M. instituted June 6, An. $670, 22 Car. II, on the Presentation of Simon Benet Eig. On his Death Anno 1687, 3 Jac. II, the Lady Baltinglass, by virtue of Luffield Priory Title, set up a Claim, and prefented one

Ralph Markland; but her Grandfather Sir Arthur Throckmorton having fold his Turn to the Benet Family,

John Jones, A. M. became instituted March 16, 1687, on the Presentation of Mrs. Grace Benet, Widow. He died Anno 1714, I George I, and was buried in the Church-yard here, and fucceeded by

The Lordship of Bitlesden, tho' seized on as the King's Property, and held by the Conqueror Himself, was soon after parted from, and possessed by Robert de Mepertesball, Temp. Hen. I, who is said by Camden and other Authors to have forfeited it for stealing one of the King's Hounds; on which it was granted to Robert de Bellomont, Earl of Leicester, who gave it to his Steward Ernald de Bosco, who founded here, Anno 1147, (12 Stephen) an Abby of the Cistercian Order, to the Honour of St. Mary and St. Nicholas, which the Earl confirmed, it being made subject to Gerondon Abby in Leicestershire: but after some time, the aforesaid Robert de Mepertsball, being, about to commence a Suit of Law for the Estate, the Monks here, in Consideration of ten Marks, obtained from the said Robert also a Charter of Confirmation; and so continued in quiet Possession 'till the General Dissolution. Five Years before which, viz. Anno 1534, 26 Hen. VIII, it was rated as sollows in the Survey thereof then thus given in, viz.

The Form of the Surrender being printed in Bishop Burnet's History of the Reformation, Vol. i. in the Appendix, p. 150. I might thither refer. But as it is not exactly taken, I shall here give it at length, at the End of this Account.

In the History of Abbies, Vol. II. p. 13. is some Account of this Abbey, and the Names of the Religious at the Surrender, with their Annual Pensions, which were as follow, viz.

To Robert Weston alias Bartlet, Richard Brackley, alias Mayo, John Northampton alias Dawkins, Robert Northampton alias Tayler, John Shalleston alias Colles, John Aukland alias Robinson, John Bradley alias Keeling, Richard Shepesshed alias Palfrey, or Palfreyman 51. 6s. 8 d. each. Here was also a Pension of 20 Marks paid to Richard Benet, a quondam Abbat during Life, as is certified by Dr. John London, one of the Visitors, who calls him a very honest Man, and says that divers of the Monks were very Aged Men.

In 1553, 1 March, I find that the two Abbats, viz. Green and Benet, and feveral of the other Monks were dead, and so their Pensions became vacated, all of them except Thomas Todd, Robert Tayler, Richard Palfreyman, Richard Mayo, John Robinson, John Coles, and John Keeling.

On the Surrender this Church was very soon after demolished, and the Bells sold, or given away by Sir Robert Peckbam to Denham Parish (at the End of this County) near Uxbridge in Middlesex. These were five very large ones, as I have heard, and continued at Denham 'till 1683, 35 Car. II, when they were run into 8, as they now remain. However, the Ruins of the Church and Abbey House were left in good part standing when I visited it, Anno 1712, and there were then to be seen the Walls of the East Side of the Cloyster, and a Part of the Tower, together with a small Chapel, and the Chapter House, which was an handsome arch'd Room, of about 40 foot square, supported by 4 Pillars. In the Chapel lay the broken Essigies which was on the Tomb of one of the Lord Zouch's, it was of Alabaster, and in Armour.

But besides the Lord Zouch, there were, as I have seen, several Persons of Note buried here, particularly the Founder's Family, the Bosco's, and divers others, as of the Family of the Billings and the Lovetts, as appears by the Inscriptions which I have met with, which were affixt to their Grave Stones, on Brass Plates as follows, Drate pro Animabus Thomæ Billing quondam Capitalis Justiciarit Domini Regis ad Placita coram ipso Rege tenend. et Catharine Aroris ejus. Qui quidem Thomas obiit 5 die Pensis Maii, A.D. 1481, et dica Catharina ebiit 8° die Menas Martii, A. D. 1477. Quorum Animabus propitietur Deus.

Under this Inscription were the Portraits of five Sons and four Daughters.

On another,

Pie jacet Thomas Billing Arm. Filius et Heres Thomæ Billings Judiciarii Domini Regis, qui obiit 23 die Pensis Martii, A. D. 1508. Cujus Anime propitietur Deus.

These two Grave-stones were, as I am informed, removed into Wappen-bam Church. But I suppose their Bodies were lest here.

Die jacet Thomas Lovet Armiger, qui obiit 16 die Menlis Februarii, 1491 [6 Hen. vii.] Cujus Anime propitietur Deus. Amen.

His, viz. Judge Billing's first Wife Catherine was also buried here, as I find in his Will, which directs his Body to be buried near her's in this Abbey Church. In his faid Will he styles himself of Astwell, and gives 6 s. 8 d. to the Chapel of Fawcott, and 3 Potts of Silver to Susan his Wife, late Wife of John Fawks, one of the Justices of the Common Pleas; and 100 l. in Gold to his Sons Thomas and Nicholas, and 100 l. in Gold to his Daughters Isabel and Margaret each of them, and some Lands.

Here was also a most elegant Alabaster Effigies of our Saviour crowned, sitting to judge the World; but it was destroyed by the late unhappy Possessor, Mr. John Sayer, about the Year 1704. I have preserved a Drawing of it, and of the Ruins of the Chapter House, and of the said Lord Zouche's broken Effigies.

The present Proprietor, Henry Sayer Esq; has so totally demolished every thing, that not the least Remains appear, or even the Site of any Building whatsoever, where the Abbey stood; or any of its Offices. But it was below the present Chapel erected by him to the South-West Part of it.

In digging about it there were, as he informed me, several Stone Coffins found, one of which was most scandalously perverted to profane Uses, and several Thousand of Human Bones removed, and thrown away, as he gloried in, to level Ground, together with the Rubbish, with great Indecency.

On the Destruction of the Abbey the Parishioners resorted to a small Chapel adjoining to a Dwelling House; this was a little tyled Fabrick, and had a Bell in a Turrit. I presume it was sometimes made use of in the Time of the Abbey by the Parishioners, especially on common Days. — It was, as appears by old Deeds, dedicated to St. Margaret, on whose Festival here was a Fair granted to the Convent Anno 1315, 8 Edw. II, and also a Monday Market.

Here were in it no manner of Paintings or Ornaments whatsoever, and it was not above forty or fifty foot long, and sixteen or seventeen broad, as it appeared to me: but this is quite demolished, and an unconsecrated Chapel fitted up in the lest Wing, or Office, of the Proprietor's Dwelling House, and an Arch almost even with the Ground, turned over the Graves of the Persons interred in the old Chapel; where were, Anno 1712, these U Inscriptions;

Thich never diese which live before,

And thall for evermore.

Then Susan's Sowll a Seat hath wonne

If our Beleve be Just

And there thall dwell with Angells still,

Then all things are in Dust.

In the Register of Wills, I find that Oct. 8, 1557, 4 Mar. Edward Coles, Priest, appointed to be buried in St. Margaret's Church in Bitlesden, and bequeathed his Cross Bow and Arrows to his Master Sir Robert Peckbam, and 12s. to Sir Leonard Hurst, Priest, to pray for his Soul, and his old Mass Book to the Church of Westbury. I suppose he officiated here, and was Chaplain to the Peckbam Family.

I also meet with the Will of Sir Robert Peckham, who styles himself of Bitlesden, and appoints his Body to be buried in St. Gregory's Church at Rome, and gives his Books at Bislesden to his Brother George Peckbam, and made Thomas Goldwell, Bishop of St. Asaph, his Executor. He died Sept. 12. 1560, as appears by a Memorial put up for him in Denham Church. mentioning his Decease and Burial at Rome, and was succeeded by his Brother George, made a Knight also; who by Deed, dated Jan. 13, 1570, mortgaged this Manor to Richard Paramour, Citizen and Merchant Taylor of London, for 800 l. who reconveyed it back again to Sir George Peckbam, Dec. 24. 1572. However, about Eight Years after this, I find it in the Hands of the Crown, by Virtue of an Extent taken against the Peckhams about 1578 by Queen Elizabeth, who bestowed it on Arthur Lord Grey of Wilton, who occurs posses'd of it Anno 1582, 24 Eliz. and departing this Life Oct. 14, 1593, at Whaddon Hall, (in which Parish Church of Whaddon he lies buried in the Chancel) it descended to his Son Thomas Lord Grey, who being convicted of high Treason, Anno 1603, 1 Jac. I, it escheated again to the Crown, and was by King James I. granted, Anno 1616 to Sir George Villiers, afterwards Earl, Marquis, and Duke of Buckingham, Stabbed by Felton at Portsmouth August 23, 1628, 3 Car. I, whose Son George Duke of Buckingham fold it, Nov. 18, 1681, to Henry Sayer, a Dry Salter of London, who died foon after, and left it to his Son John Sayer, then a Minor, who was murthered by Richard Noble an Attorney at Law Jan. 29, 1712, who cohabited with Sayer's Wife, for which barbarous Murther he the said Noble was executed at Kingston, March 28, 1713. See in Bishop Fleetwood's Works, printed in Folio 1737, p. 653a Sermon preached on this Occasion. — And so it descended to Henry Sayer the present Proprietor, 1735, who hath, as aforesaid, so totally demolished all the Footsteps of the Abby, that not the least Appearance remains of the Site of any antient Building.

The Parish of Bitlesdon, which is bounded North by Silveston and Syresham, Co. Northampton, South by Wesbury and Turweston, East by Stow and Shalston, and West by Whitsield, which last Parish is in Co. Northampton, contains 1700 Acres, as I am informed, 200 of which, owned by the Lords of Whitsield, belong, with that Manor, to Worcester College in Oxford, and 200, being antiently given to Lussield Priory, are, with that Estate, Part of the Demesses of the Lord Cobham. The rest belong to Mr. Sayer.

Here are only seventeen Houses in the whole Parish, three or four of which are at a Village called Eversaw, where was antiently a Chapel dedicated to St. Nicholas, which stood, as Tradition says, in an Orchard near the principal House in Eversaw (now in the Possession of one Roberts.) Here was also in this Parish another small decayed Hamlet, called Gorril.

This Parish is affessed to the Land Tax 127 l. 15s. 6 d. per Annum.

In a Survey I have seen of the Duke of Buckingbam's Estate on the Sequestration of it, his Demesses here were, Anno 1650, returned to be 379 l. 15s. 10d. The Tythes here being entirely appropriated to the Abbey both Rectorial and Vicarial, the Cure was served by the Monks, and so there was no Institution taken out to the Benefice.

There are no Names of the Curates to be recovered in Succession, even for a long while after the Reformation; those I have met with in the Bishops Registers are only these few, viz.

Thomas Taylor 1639, 14 Car. I, who made this Return to the Bishop of this Curacy, viz. "That a Stipend of 201. per Annum was paid by the Lord of the Manor to the Minister, and 40 s. per Annum more arose from other Demessnes, and that here belonged to the said Minister one Bay of an House and an upper Chamber thatch'd, with a Yard or Backside 12 Yards square." After this Thomas Taylor, I find these other Persons occur Ministers or Curates here, viz.

John Lockwood, Anno 1662, 14 Car. II.

John Maddocks, Anno 1669.

Aaron Wood, Anno 1679. He was afterwards Rector of Greens Norton in Northamptonshire.

James Maddocks, Anno 1689. He held it Anno 1705, and was succeeded by Thomas Lucas, Anno 1706 or 1707, on whose Death at London, of the Small-pox, Anno 1709,

William Price, Rector of Whitfield, accepted it, Anno 1709, and he is the present Minister, 1735.

In the Reigns of King Edward VI, Qu. Mary, Qu. Eliz. and K. James I, it seems, without Doubt, to have been supplied by the Chaplains of the Peckhams and Greys Family, or served by the Neighbouring-Ministers, the Income being so small, and no convenient Habitation.

On Dec. 5, Anno 1720, it was augmented with 200 l. by Mr. William Friend, Rector of Turvey, Co. Bedford, and by the Means and Recommendation

Clation of Mr. Justice Denson with 200 l. more of Q. Anne's Bounty. The Value was then given in at only 61. 8 s. But how that arose is not mentioned.

Here is no ancient Parish Register, as I can learn, and what has been begun of this Sort, is, I suppose, within these last forty or fifty Years. But I could never meet even with that.

In the Earl of Oxford's Library, is a Register of this Abbey in Parchment:

It contains 363 Folio's, and begins thus,

De Fundatione Abbatiæ. Tempore Regis Veteris Henrici, fuit Dominus de

Bitlesden Robertus de Mapersball, &c.

This Register, which I have perused, contains chiefly Grants; and there scarcely occurs in it the Name of any one Abbat. Neither do the Registers of Lincoln surish us with any in Succession; however, from old Deeds, and from the Fines and other Evidences, &c. I have drawn out the following Series of the ABBATS OF BITLESDEN.

Richard occurs Abbat of Bitlesden Anno 1151, 17 Stephen, about four Years after the Foundation; as does Alexander, between 1157, and 1166.

Richard died Abbat here, Anno 1192, 3 Ric. I, as the Annales Waverly tell us, in which Mention is made of the deposing of Abbat

William, Anno 1198, 9 Ric. I, who was, no doubt, his Successor; to whom fucceeded

Adam Cellerer, of Bruern Abby, in Co. Oxon, Anno 1198, 9 Ric. I.

Maurice occurs Abbat Anno 1219, 3 Hen. III, and 1222, 7 Hen. III, as does

Henry, Anno 1226, 10 Hen. III.

Stephen de Canterbury died Abbat, Anno 1228, 12 Hen. III, after him Thomas presided here Anno 1230, 14 Hen. III, and 1232, 16 Hen. III.

Giffard Abbat of this Place quitted it Anno 1236, 20 Hen. III, on being made Abbat of Waverly, and was succeeded by Walter, who occurs Anno 1238, 22 Hen. III, and 1240, 24 Hen. III.

His Successor was

Henry Mallore, who received the Benediction from the Bishop of Lincoln, on Palm Sunday, Anno 1241, 25 Hen. III. He held it not long, for

Philip occurs Abbat Anno 1245, 29 Hen. III, and 1250, 34 Hen. III, as does

William, Anno 1254, 38 Hen. III, and 1257, 41 Hen. III, and

Roger, Anno 1259, 43 Hen. III, and 1262, 46 Hen. III. After him I meet with

William, Anno 1264, 48 Hen. III, whose Surname seems to have been Bybam: for Anno 1280, 8 Edw. I, and 1285, 13 Edw. I, William Bybam subscribes himself Abbat, as does

John Thornberge, Anno 1290, 18 Edw. I, and 1298, 26 Edw. I, after him

Walter

Walter occurs Abbat Anno 1300, 28 Edw. I, as does

John de Sarum, Anno 1301, 29 Edw. I, and 1323, 16 Edw. II. His Successor was

Thomas de Buckingham, elected about Anno 1324, 17 Edw. II, to whom succeeded

Roger de Gotham, who occurs Abbat Anno 1326, 1 Edw. III, and 1329, 3 Edw. III, and 1331, 5 Edw. III. His Successor was

Thomas, who I find succeeded at the End of 1332, 6 Edw. III.

Griffin presided Anno 1341, 15 Edw. III. After him

William de Louteburghe occurs Anno 1346, 20 Ed. III, and 1357, 31 Ed. III, as does

Peter, Anno 1376, 50 Edw. III, and 1393, 16 Ric. II.

John was Abbat 1397, 20 Ric. II. and Anno 1400, 1 Hen. IV. as was

Stephen, Anno 1428. 6 Hen. VI, and also

John, Anno 1469, 9 Edw. IV, and 1479, 19 Edw. IV, and

William, Anno 1480, 20 Edw. IV.

Richard Benet became Abbat about 1495, 10 Hen. VII. He resigned it before 1518, 9 Hen. VIII, to Richard Green, the last Abbat, who presided from Anno 1518, 9 Hen.

VIII, to the Surrender, as aforesaid, Anno 1539, 30 Hen. VIII.

Anno 1536, 27 Hen. VIII. three Years before the Diffolution; I find Hen. VIII, granted to this Abbat, a Licence that his Abbey should continue, and not be diffolved among the lesser Houses.

Anno 1315, 8 Edw. II, in Rymer's Foedera, we find that King Edw. II.

borrowed 100 l. of the Abbey of Bitlesden.

The Arms of the Abby, as sent me, from Mr. Graves, of Mickleton, Co.

Gloucester, were,

Two Barrs, in Base a Chevron. But according to Bishop Tanner, they were Argent, two Barrs and a Canton, Gules, being the Arms of the Bois's or Bosco's, the Founders Coat.

From the Fines Co. Buckingham &c. I extracted these Entries.

A Fine between Thomas, Abbat of Bitlesden and Walter de Moreton passed of Lands in Moreton Co. Bucks, Anno 16 Hen. III, A. D. 1232.

A Fine between Philip Abbat of Bitlesden, and Robert de Loughton and Christian his Wife, of Lands in Thornburgh, Anno 1248, 32 Hen. III.

A Fine between William Abbat of Bitlesden and John Legh, of Lands in Dodford, Anno 1255, 39 Hen. III.

A Fine between William Abbat of Bitlesden, and Hugh le Carpenter, and Annora his Wise, of Lands in Eversaw, which the Abbat granted to Hugh.

In the Fines Co. Northampton, Anno 1228, 12 Hen. III, it appears that 11 Yard Land in Helmsdon were granted to this Abbey, and,

In the Fines, Co. Oxon, Anno 1249, 33 Hen. III, are Grants of a Meffuage, and Lands in Cotesford; and also, Anno 1274, 52 Hen. III, of Lands in Whitfield, in Northamptonshire.

Pat. Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, I meet with a Grant of 20 Acres of Assart in Siressam in Whitlebury Forest.

ex Concessione Willielmi Domini Zouch de Harringworth.

Very foon after the Diffolution of this Monastery, King Henry the VIIIth gave it to Thomas Wriothesley, on May 16, 1540, who conveyed it to Robert Peckbam, Gent, for 200 Marks, it having been before sold him by one Edmund Clarke, to whom Richard Green, the last Abbat, on the Dissolution, had made it over on a long Leafe. From the Peckbam Family, as aforefaid, it escheated to the Crown, and was by Letters Pat. A. 1615, 13 Jac. I, p. 1. demised to the Lady Jane Sibill Grey, Relict of Sir Arthur Grey, Lord Grey of Wilton, by the King, who granted to her the Manor of Bitlesden, and a Mansion House there of sixteen Bays, and a Brew House of three Bays, and a Stable of three Bays, and a Barn of fix Bays, a Cow House, two Dove Houses, a Garden, an Orchard of four Acres, and three Fish-pools of two Acres, with Meadows, Closes, Messuages, &c. and Woods called Abbots Wood, being about eight hundred Acres in all: And the next Year, 1616, (the Lady Grey being dead) by Letters Patent, dated 14 June, the King recites the Demise, made April 4, to the Lady Jane Sibill Grey, and grants this Manor of Bitlesden, with other Estates of the Greys, in Fee to Sir George Villiers, his Heirs and Assigns for ever, to be held by the 20th Part of a Knight's Fee.

Out of the Chartulary of Bitlesden, among Dodsworth's MSS. in the Bodleian Library at Oxon, Vol. 100. p 54. &c. I meet with these Donations to this Abby.

Ernald de Bosco the second gave to the Abby of Bitlesden, with his Body to be buried there, half a Yard Land in Little Houghton.

Ernald de Bosco the third confirmed his Father's Grant.

Ernald de Bosco the fourth, confirmed the same, which was witnessed by his Brother William de Bosco.

Maud de Houghton, granted to Bitlesden, for the Health of her Soul and of Robert Grimbald, her Father and her Mother's Souls, and Grandsather's Soul, her Rents in Hollacare, and One Yard Land in Houghton.

Anno 1259, 43 Hen. III, Robert Grimbaude, Lord of Houghton, quit claimed Lands in Houghton, and a Mill to Roger Abbat of Bitlesden.

An. 1278, 6 Edw. I, William Grimbaude, Lord of Little Houghton, granted to William Abbat of Bitlesden a Mill at Houghton.

Hugh de Dunster, with the Assent of Alice his Wise, gave ii Carucates of Land in Thornbergh.

Robert de Hastings confirmed the Gist of his Brother John of iv Yard Lands in Thornbergh to Bitlesden Abby, about the Year 1245, 19 Hen. III.

Bafilia Prioress of Harwold, agreed with the Abbat of Bitlesden about a Tenement in Thornbergh, Anno 1252, 36 Hen. III.

The

The Wife of Alan [de Fraxino,] confirmed a Yard Land to Bitlesden in Thornbergh.

William de Breuse, confirmed the Gift of Thomas de Dodford, of Lands in Boreton.

Anno 1206, 7 of King John, Thomas de St. Walery confirmed all his Lands in Dodford to Bitlesden, for his own Soul, Edela his Wife, Averis his Mother, Annora his Daughter, and Reginald and Barnard, his Brothers Souls.

Heury de Pinkeney grants to Bitlesden, a Pasture called Smethemede in Wappenham.

Anno 1389, 12 Ric. II, by the Gift of William Lord Zouch the Church of Ebrington, Co. Gloucester, was appropriated, and a Vicar ordained.

Hugh de Chastillon, gave Lands at Westbury to Bitlesden, lying near his Woods.

Anno 1266, 50 Hen. III, William being then Abbat of Bitlesden, the Convent were obligated to find a Chaplain to celebrate in the Chapel of St. Giles at Litcote, in Stewkley Parish, and to pay 40 s. yearly to the small Priory or Cell of St. Margaret at Ivingbo.

William de Bechamp gave to Bitlesden, Ten Acres in Eversaw, and afterwards granted them lxx Acres more.

Simon de Bechamp confirmed the said Gift.

Simon de Montfort, Earl of Leicester, confirmed Lands to Bitlesden in Helmedon.

Anno I Ric. I, 1189, William de Chenduit confirmed to Bitlesden his Lordship of Charvelton.

But the principal Benefactor was the aforesaid William Lord Zouch of Haringworth, Anno 1389, who, as his Deed expresses it, out of the Affection he bore to the Body of his Kinsman William de Bosco, resting in the Church of the Blessed Mary at Bitlesden, gave thereto Lands in Ebrington, Co. Gloucester, with the Advowson of the Church there, and Ordination of the Vicaridge.

Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, in the Taxation of the Temporalties of the Religious in the Archdeaconry of Buckingham, I find,

That the Abbat of Bitlesden, held in Eversaw, 121. 5s. 6d. and in Gorrel and Dodsord 7l. 13s. 8d. and the Produce of the Flocks, &c. or Tythes of Wools 62s. or 3l. 2s.

He also held in Thornberge, the Rent of 6 l. 4 s. 4 d.

And in Water Stratford, Barton, Moreton, and Boreton, 10 s. 8 d.

He also held in Turweston, 9 s. 2 d. and in the Produce of the Flocks or Tythes of Wool, 1 l. 3 s. 4 d.

In the Taxation made about the Year 1330, 4 Edw. III, in the Archives of the See of Lincoln, at Buckden, I meet with the following Account of William de Buckingham gave Lands to Bruern Abbey, Co. Oxon, obliging that Convent to pay 5s. 6d. to Bitlesden Abbey, which I find fordan, Abbat of Bruern, paid, as it is mentioned in Madox's Formulare, p. 277. Of the Chapel of Eversaw, dedicated to St. Nicholas, there is not the least Footsteps now to be traced out.

The Value of it, Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, was only a Mark. It was originally given to the Prior and Monks of Luffield by Hugh de Eversaw, and confirmed to them, by Robert Archdeacon of Buckingham, about A. D. 1180, 26 Hen. II. It was, as seems to me, kept up when it was demised to William Tyler, Anno 1513, 4 Hen. VIII, with all the rest of the Demesses of Luffield. But being given in Fee, Anno 1551, 5 Edw. VI, to Nicholas Throckmorton, it was, as I suppose, soon after demolished.

The Rents of Luffield in Eversaw were, Anno 1477, 17 Edw. IV, 11. 12 s. 2 d. per Annum, viz. all the Convent's Receipts there, as given in the Leiger Book.

In the Augmentation Office I find this Letter, wrote by Dr. John London, one of the Visitors for the Dissolution of Monasteries, to Mr. Rich, Chancellor to the High Court of Augmentations, in behalf of this Convent, Anno 1539, 30 Hen. VIII, upon their Surrender:

"My humble Duty observed unto your gudde Mastershippe. It may lyke the same to be advertised, that having Commission of the Kynges Majestyes, to take the Surrender of the Abbot and Convent of Bitlester in the County of Bockingbam; I had, in the same Commission, Auctorite geven unto me, to assigne a convenient Pension unto the Abbot and Monkes there, to whom, in Consideracon they hadde agreede with the Kinges Highness to have ther Howse contynew, notwithstanding it was under the Value of [200 l.] and have payd alredye certen Monye for the same Cause; I dydde assigne unto the said Abbot xl. Pension, yerely during his Lyse, to be paid at Two usual Termys in the Year, viz. ad Festa Annunciationis Beata Maria, et Sansti Michaelis, Archangeli, and 5 l. 6 s. 8 d. to evry oon of the Monks being Priests, and to the Cellerer, 6 l. yerely to be paid at the said Termys, during ther Liffs, unless the Kings Majesty do provyde for every of them such Speritual Lyvyngs.

"Lyvyngs as shall be as gudde, as the said Pencyons. — And I have subscribed every oon of ther Names, besechyng your Mastershippe to be gudde Master unto them, for the Assurance of ther Pencyons, forasmuch as every one of them, willingly, and lovingly, without any Difficulty, was agreeable to the Kings Request in the Surrenderinge of ther House, and diverse of them be very Aged Men, and pytic it were to cause them to travel farre in sekyng of ther Pencyons. Moreover, ther ys another quondam Abbot, called Father Benet, a very honest Man, he hath also ther by Convent Sele a Pencyon of xx Marks durante Vita sua Yerlye.

CAVERSFIELD.

HIS Parish was so denominated, as Bishop Kennet tells us, in his Parochial Antiquities, p. 9 and 10, from the Emperor Carausus being slain here in open Battle by Alestus, about the Year 290, and was called from that Action Carus, or Caraussield; tho' it may rather be derived from Caser, an Inclosure; and notwithstanding it belongs to Buckinghamsbire, it is, as I learn, surrounded by Oxfordsbire, and disjoyned from any Part of that County by near a Mile's Distance from it.

Ιn

In the Time of the Norman Survey, it belonged to Earl Warren, and is thus entered in Doomsday Book.

Terra Willhelmi de Warene, in Rovelai Hundred.

Brientius tenet de Willhelmo Caurefelle, pro v Hidis se desendebat. Terra est viii Carucaturum. In Dominio sunt iii, et xii Villani cum ix Bordariis, babentibus v Carucatas. Ibi est vivarium Piscium. In totis Valentiis valet & valuit semper 100 s.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Edwardus Homo Tofti, & vendere potuit. Brientius holds Caurefelle of William. It was taxed or rated at v Hides. The Arable is viii Plough Lands; there are iii in Demende and Twelve Copyholders, and ix Cottagers. They have v Ploughs; there is a Fish-pool. It is worth and was always valued in the whole at 100 s.

Edward, Tenant of Tofti, held this Manor, and could fell it.

This Brientius is, as I conceive, the same with Brian Fitz Count, Lord of Wallingford, who so stoutly defended Wallingford Castle against King Stephen, and adhered to Maud the Empress, Mother to King Hen. II, in the Beginning of whose Reign, viz. Hen. II, having entered into a Religious Order, the King seized his Estates, and gave this of Caverssield to Robert Gargate, who, Anno 1164, 10 Hen. II, granted the Church here to the Abbey of Missenden, which he assigned to that Monastery after the Death of Guy the then Rector. This I find was confirmed by Röbert Bishop of Lincoln, saving the Right of Possession to Guy as long as he lived.

Hugh Gargate confirmed his Father Robert Gurgate's Donation, b and Sibill de Caversfield of Whiteminster swore, she would not move any Controversy against the Canons of Missenden, nor should any one else in her Name, about the Church of Caversfield, or for Half an Hide of Land given to Missenden, unless for Rents and Services due and appertaining to her Heirs and to Foreign Lords.

In the Year 1219, 3 Hen. III, Isabel Daughter of the said Hugh Gorgate became a great Benefactress to the neighbouring Convent of Burcester, as we learn from Bp. Kennet, as did also Sibill de Caverssield, Mother of the said Isabell, by endowing it with Lands at Caverssield. She also gave One Yard Land lying in the Fields of Stratton; insomuch that between these two Religious Houses the Demesnes of this Parish seem to have been shared; for Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, in the Taxation of Spiritualties and Temporalties 4, the Abbot of Missenden had in Caverssield, besides the Rectory, which was then valued at six Marks, or 4 l. and the Vicaridge, valued at two Marks; in other Lands 11 s. 11 d. as had the Prior of Farleigh in Wiltsbire 14 s. and the Prior of Burcester in Oxfordsbire's Temporalties here were valued at no less than 5 l. 18 s. 4 d.

Ex Regist. Missenden. b Ibid. e Parochial Antiquities. d'Valor. Benesic. in Archivis apud Lincoln.

And in another Taxation I saw in the Bp. of Lincoln's Office at Buckden, made about 1330, 4 Edw. III, the Spiritualties of Missenden Abbey at Caversfield were 61. 13s. 4d. and the Temporalties of the Prior of Burcester 61. 0s. 4d.

Anno 1302, I find the Abbey of Missenden had a Grant of Free-Warren in

r

Anno 1386, 9 Ric. II, I meet with a fine of the Manor of Caversfield passed from John Birmingham Chivaler, and Elizabeth his Wife, to John Tame of Brackly, of whom, no doubt, Langston bought it.

The chief Tenant to these Religious Houses was the Family of Langston, which lived here in King Hen. VIth's Time; and by an Inquisition taken in 1488, 3 Hen. VII. John Langston is returned to dye, seized of a Moiety of Caversseld Manor, which he held of the Prior of Burcester, and that he himself enjoyed the other Moiety.

Anno 1526, 17 Hen. VIII, I find it returned in an Inquisition that Richard Langstone died seized of the Manor of Caversfield, which he held of the Prior of Burcester, for which he paid a Rent of four Marks.

After the Dissolution of Monasteries Anno 1541, 32 Hen. VIII, this Manor was some Time in the Crown; and demised, as I suppose, to the Family of the Langstons, whose Issue Male failing in the direct Line by the Death of John Langstone, Anno 1558, Thomas Moyle, who married Amy his Sister, became his Heir; however Joan, who was Widow to John Langston, having Anno 1561, 3 Eliz. married one Robert Hitchcock, he obtained a Conveyance of the Manor from Queen Eliz. Anno 1563, 5 Eliz. but the Heirs of Langfron, viz. the Moyles, disputing it, Hitchcock sold his Claim to one Bedell and Ewer; but Moyle recovering it back to his Family, and all Disputes being ended, Anno 1614, 12 Jac. I, they enjoyed quiet Possession 'till the Death of Thomas Moyle, Anno 1649, when it came, as appears to me, to the Davenports; and so this Manor by Deed of Bargain and Sale, dated Jan. 20, 1653, 5 Car. II, in Confideration of 6000 l. became conveyed by James Davenport of Sutton, Co Chefter, Esq; to Maximilian Bard, Girdler, and James Strange, Merchant Taylor, of London; and the said Maximilian Bard dying Anno 1690, 2 William and Mary, Aged 85, was succeeded by Nathanael his Son and Heir; and he by Thomas Bard, who held it Anno 1702; and about two Years after, viz. Anno 4 of Queen Anne, together with his two Sons Thomas and George Bard, by Deed, dated Feb. 3, 1704, conveyed their Right in Fee to William Vaux, Attorney at Law, who is the present Lord of this Manor, and Patron of the Church, Anno 1735.

The Advowson of the Vicaridge with the Rectorial Tythes belonging to Missendern Abbey, were by Letters Patent of King Hen. VIII. granted to Richard Ingram and Anthony Foster, and their Heirs, 1544, 35 Hen. VIII, from whom they were, no doubt, purchased in Queen Eliz.'s Reign by the then Possessor of the Manor, viz. Hitchcock and Ewer, for 'tis plain they presented to the Church, which has ever since Queen Eliz.'s Time remained appendant to the Manor, as it does at this Day.

Pat. 30 Edw. I. Fines Co. Buckingham. B Ex Inquisit. h Ibid. i Ex Evidentiis. I do

I do not meet with any Lands in this Parish given to Charities.

This small Parish is bounded South by Burcester, West by Bucknall and Stoke-Lyne, North by Straton Audley and Fringsford, and East by Launton, all in Oxfordshire; by which it is surrounded. It was assessed to the Land Tax Anno 1712, 731. 53. 1d. Here are only nine Houses in the Village of Caversfield, and about Fourteen in Straton-Audley; one Part of which Village lies in this County; but the other Part, with the Church, is in Oxfordshire. It was antiently only a Chapel of Ease to Burcester.

The Register of Caverssield begins but Anno 1640, 15 Car. I, and has nothing remarkable in it, and is impersect in several Years, between Anno 1664 and 1697. It is kept very ill, and there are several Entries made by one Michael Harrison, a Dissenting Teacher, who belonged to the Presbyte-tian Family of the Bards. This Harrison printed a Discourse or Sermon of two in which he styles himself Minister of Caverssield, Bucks, Anno 1692. He had some Children born here.

I find only one Entry, viz. of the Birth of William Son of Nathanael Bard Esq; 1692. After the Sale of Caversfield, the Bards rented the Manor House of Foxcote juxta Buckingham, and lived there Anno 1706. A younger Son of this Family was Mr. George Bard, who was a very fociable Gentleman, of good Parts, and differed in Religion from the rest of the Family.

The Names of the Vicars, who have all of them before the Reformation been presented by the Title of the Convent of Missenden, that occur in the Registers of Lincoln, are as follow:

William de Upton was presented Anno 1225, 9 Hen. III, to the Vicaridge of the Church of Caversfield, ordained by the Lord Bishop, by the Authority of the Counsel, being presented by the Abbat and Convent of Missenden, the Patrons.

Reginald de Weston was made Vicar Anno 1258, 42 Hen. III.

Adam de Staunton was instituted Anno 1269, 53 Hen, III, on the Death of Reginald.

John Franceys was instituted on Adam's Death, Anno 1276, 4 Edw. I. John de Ascote was instituted on the Death of Franceys, 8 May 1292, 21

John de Ascote was instituted on the Death of Franceys, 8 May 1293, 21 Edw. I.

John Dugon was instituted on the Death of John the last Vicar, 1 June, 1335, 9 Edw. III, Roger last Vicar died Anno 1349, 23 Edw. III.

Simon Salatiel of Wilshamstead, succeeded 3 Id. Dec. 1349.

Thomas Gyles was instituted 2 Id. Oct. 1361, on the Death of Simon.

William Salmon was instituted 8 Nov. 1403, 2 Hen. IV, not said how vacant.

Edward Lake was instituted 28 July 1407, 6 Hen. IV.

John Hagason of Scordeburgh was instituted 1 July, 1423, 1 Hen. VI, as

Fobin

John Esteby instituted 1424, 2 Hen. VI. and John James instituted 9 Mar. 1435, 13 Hen. VI.

David Tryl refigned Anno 1440, 18 Hen. VI, and was succeeded by David Morthwy or Mowthwy instituted 28 Dec. 1440, 11 Hen. VI.

Matthew ap David Vachan was instituted 9 April 1454, 32 Hen. VI, on the Resignation of Mouthwy.

John Fyvian was instituted 17 June, 1480, 20 Edw. IV. He quitted it for Preston Bisset.

Robert Lanot was instituted 10 July, 1481, 21 Edw. IV.

John Cottisford was instituted 15 Mar. 1493, 8 Hen. VII, on the Resignation of Lanot.

Thomas Key refigned Anno 1504, 19 Hen. VII, and was succeeded by William Hunt, LL. B. instituted 20 Feb. Anno 1504.

Thomas Coward was instituted 12 June 1508, on the Death of the last Vicar. Hugh Woodys was instituted 8 Oct. 1528, 19 Hen. VIII, on the Death of Coward. He is the last presented by the Convent of Missenden. He died Anno 1558, 5 Mary, as appears by his Will, in which he appointed to be buried in the Chancel here. The next I meet with is

Griffith Younge. He was deprived Anno 1570, 12 Eliz. and Edward Younge was instituted in his Place on the Presentation of Robert Hitchcocke, Esq.

Stephen Lister was instituted 6 Dec. 1577, on the Presentation of William Allcocke Gent. on the Resignation of Edward Younge.

Richard Benslyn was instituted 25 April, 1582, on the Resignation of Stephen Lister, on the Presentation of William Alcock.

Ralph Lees, on the Presentation of Ralph Heydon, Gent. was instituted

9 Aug. 1586, on the Resignation of the last Vicar not named.

William Bateman, A.M. was instituted 11 Feb. 1602, 44 Eliz. on the Prefentation of Edward Ewer of Caverssield and William Ewer of Lincolns Inn. He occurs Vicar Anno 1618. The next I find is Richard Grimes A. M. He was instituted 22 Nov. 1639, and occurs Vicar Anno 1651.

Philip Holland was instituted on the Death of the last Vicar (not named) on the King's Presentation by Lapse 27 Jan. 1661.

James Durant, A. M. was instituted on the Death of the last Vicar (not named) on the Presentation of Maximilian Bard Esq; June 16, 1679.

After him I suppose there were no Institutions in Mr. Bard's Time, if Durant lived till the next Institution, which, as I find, is of William Hodson, A. B. instituted 7 Sep. 1704, on the Presentation of William Vaux, Gent.

John Wells, A. B. was instituted on Mr. William Vaux's Presentation, on the Cession of Hodson, March 25, 1715, 1 Geo. I.

George Salter was instituted 15 Oct. 1725, 11 George I, by the Cession of Wells, on the Presentation of William Vaux, Gent. and he is the present Vicar, Anno 1732.

Terrier

Terrier 3 Nov. 1639, Richard Grimes, Vicar.

An House of three Bays; a Close adjoining of a Rood; a Rood of Meadow in Stratton Field; the Tythes of three Yard and an half of Land in Stratton Field, great and small.

The Vicaridge was in Queen Anne's Time returned to be only of the clear yearly Value of 18 l. 6 s. 6 d. 'Twas rated Anno 1534, 25 Hen. VIII, at 6 l. in the Valor Beneficiorum.

Pat [Anno 1610.] 8 Jac. I, Part 49. Grant of the Fee Farm Rent of Caversfield Manor of 2 l. 13 s. 4 d. and Lands and Tenements which the Prior of Burcester had leased to John Langston of Caversfield, Gent. Anno 3 Hen. VII, 1488, granted to Andrew Aucher, and Sir Thomas Hardres.

The Church of Caversfield, which is dedicated to St. Lawrence, consists of a Body, South Ile, and Chancel, all which are tyled; at the West End is a low Tower, with a rising sloped Roof, in which hang two little Bells. The Length of the Church and Chancel is about 49 Foot, the Breadth of the Church 21 Feet, and of the Chancel about 15 Feet. 'Tis a mean Fabrick, and has nothing memorable in the whole Church, where there seems to have been a North Isle answerable to the South one; here is only this one Inscription on a Grave-stone in the Church:

"In Memory of Mathew Hearne, who dyed the 3d Day of June 1701, aged 76 Years.

But in the Chancel (which is cieled at Top like a Room) are feveral Inferiptions; and in the South Window is this Coat of Arms of the Langston's, in painted Glass, which was also in one of the Church Windows, viz.

Or, a Chevron between two Roses Gules in Cheif; and in Base a Dolphin bauriant, Azure. On the Chevron a Mullet Argent, for Distinction.

Over the Chancel Door are these Arms painted: Gules, a Mule passant, within a Bordure, Argent, being the Moyle's Arms; impaling these Quarterings: 1. Gules, 2. Barrs Argent, charged with three Martlets Azure, in Chief as many Plates, and in Fess a Greyhound currant, Or. 2. Azure a Saltire Sable, between four Estoiles, Gules. 3. Or, a Chevron between two Roses Gules in Chief; and in Base a Dolphin bauriant, Azure: 4th as 1. Crest, two Wyverns Heads interlaced.

Underneath, on a small Brass Plate,

"Thomas Moyle died the 10th of June 1649, in the Year of his Age 65."

At the upper End of the Chancel, above the Communion Steps, is a raised Altar Tomb of grey Marble; round the Verge was an Inscription, but 'tis torn off; at each End are the Arms of Langston as afore described, impaling Denton, viz. A Mullet between two Barrs, in Chief three Estoils.

This was for John Langston, who died Anno 1487, 2 Hen. VII, and married (as appears to me) Joan Daughter of John Denton.

Over

Over this Tomb are affixed against the Wall, two Atchievements with these Arms, viz. Bard, on a Chevron between 10 Martlets, Argent, 5 Ogrosses. The Crest, A Lion's Paw erazed, holding the Leg of an Horse erazed.

On the other Atchievement. The same Arms in Lozenge impaling Goff, viz. the Wife of Bard, with her own Armes, Azure and Sable, within a Bordure counterchanged.

On a black Marble this on the Pavement,

"Here lyeth the Body of Maximilian Bard, Esquire, who deceased the 16 Day of February, in the Year of our Lord 1690, in the 85th Year of his Age."

By it lyes an antient grey Marble Grave-stone with the Arms of Denton, viz. Two Barrs, in Fess point a Mullet; in Cheif 3 Estoils, impaling Or, a Cross Moline. Above the Arms was an Inscription in Brass, which is torn off. Over the Inscription remain two Hands engraven, holding an Heart, and on the Heart the Word Treon, engraven. From whence proceed three Labels thus inscribed:

Hei Mihi Deus quia peccavi nimis in Aita mea. Auto faciam Piler, ubi lurgam nili ad te Deus meus. Bilerere mei cum veneris in novillimo Die.

This was, as feems to me, in Memory of Thomas Denton, who in his Will, dated 27 Dec. 1533, appointed his Body to be buried in Caversfield Church. He was a younger Son, as appears by the Mullet, and the Variation of the Arms, viz. the changing the Estoils into Cinque-foils, seems to have been done by the other Branch of the Family.

Below the Communion Table are four Grave-stones, on the two upper Corners these Arms, viz. A Talbot passant.

Underneath them on a Plate of Brass,

Here lyeth the Body of Rauff Heydon, the Son of William Heydon, Equire; the said Rauff deceased the third Day of July 1592.

On another Stone, which was inlaid with a Plate of Brass, torn off, are the Moyle's Arms, being a Mule passant. Underneath, this Inscription set into the Stone in a Lozenge Fashion,

" Here lyeth Thomas Moyle of Caversfield, in the County of Bucks, Esq.

- " fecond Son to Thomas Moyle, of Bucknall, in the County of Oxford,

 Esq. and Mercy his Wise, who married Mary North, Daughter of
- " Sir Henry North of Millner, in the County of Suffolk. He departed
- "this Life the 10 Day of June, A.D. 1649.".
- Some Men defire rich Monuments to frame,Only a Stone I have in Memory of my Name.
- "There is little Happiness in Monuments of Stone,

" My Happiness in Heaven's in Christ alone.

On another antient Grave-stone, the Portraiture of a Man in Brass, in a Priest's Habit, at his Mouth a Scroll thus inscribed, Subbeniat mihi Laurentii Passo Sanci.

Over this St. Lawrence with his Gridiron.

At

At two Corners of the Stone the Arms of Langston as before, viz. A Chevron between two Roses, in Base a Dolphin bauriant. Round the Verge this Inscription, torn off in part, Dbiit Die Sti. Blasii An. Dni. Millmo. CCCCXXXV. Cujus aie propities tur Deus, Amen.

And on another Plate of Brass these Verses,

Sis tellis Christe quod non jacet hic Lapis ille Coppus ut ornetuz, sed Spiritus ut memoretur. Quisquis eris qui transeris, Ka perlege, plora, Sum quod eris, fueram quod es, pro me precor ora.

On another Grave-stone of Marble the Estigies of a Man and Woman in Brass. The Man in Armour, under them this:

> D Pater ercelle milerere precoz milerere Johannis Langston et Conjugis Amicie Atque sue Sobolis qui Te in Tezris coluere Volque precor Motis jungere Coelicolis.

Under the Man 12 Sons, and under the Woman 10 Daughters, and round the Verge this Inscription, Drate pro animabus Johannis Langston Armigeri et Amcie Consortis sue, qui quidem Johannes obiit nono die Septembris Anno Domini Pillmo ČCCČCVI. Duorum Animabus propitietur Deus. Amen.

At the Corner of the Stone the Arms of Langston as before, viz. a Chevron between two Roses, in Base a Dolphin bauriant, impaling, on a Bend three Martlets.

Siuce the Inclosure of the Parish by the Family of Bard, the Rents have been much more than doubled.

Of this Bishop of Bajeux, being outed of his vast Possessions Anno 1088, 1 William II, having already treated, I need only observe here, that his Feodary Tenant Robert de Thain, obtained this Manor, and became Ancestor to a Family hence denominated, which resided here in Henry IId's Time; for in an Account I have seen of the Family a, mention is made of Robert Chetwode being Lord of Chetwood, Temp. Hen. II, who had Isfue Sir

Ralph Chetwode, who attended King Richard the first unto the Holy Wars. In the Fines Anno 1222, 7 Hen. III, John de Chetwode passed a Moiety or half Part of this Manor to Robert his Son, probably on his Marriage: And in the same Reign, Anno 1244, Sir Ralph de Norwich founding a Priory here b, Robert de Chetwode, as we are told in the Account of the Family, released for himself and his Heirs to the Prior and Canons of Chetwode, and their Successors, all Rents, Duties, and Services for all the Lands they held in Chetwood, on their Payment of a Mark in Silver. And Sibill his Wife furviving him, in her Widowhood, granted two Yard Land, with the Appurtenances, to an Hermitage founded in Chetwode. This Robert left Issue two Sons, viz. Sir John Chetwood, and William, of whom John the elder Son had Issue 4 Sir Robert, who married Lucy Lady of Hocclyve, in the County of Bedford, and had Issue Sir John Chetwode, who represented the County of Bucking ham in Parliament, Anno 26 and 30 Edw. I. This John had Issue by Joan his first Wife (for by Amicia Daughter of — de Cugenho his second Wife, he had no Children) Sir John Chetwode, who died about 14 Edw. II, and left Issue two Sons, viz. Sir John de Chetwode, and Rovert, which Robert had Issue a Son named John, who marrying Elizabeth Daughter and Heir of Stephen de Oakeley, of Oakeley, in the County of Stafford f, became Progenitor to the Family of Chetwode, of that County, now living there; as to Sir John the elder Brother, he died about Anno 23 Edw. III, and was fucceeded by Sir Nicholas Chetwode, Lord of Chetwode and Hoccive, who died Anno 35 Edw. III, and by Elizabeth his Wife, Daughter of Sir John Lyons of Warkworth, in the County of Northampton, (who remarried Ric. Wodevill about 44 Edw. III) had Issue Sir John Chetwode, who was one of the Knights of this County in the Parliaments holden Anno 10 and 18 Ric. II 8. This Sir John Chetwode and Mary his first Wife granted Anno 12 Richard IIh, to the Priory of Chetwode, an Acre of Land, and the Advowson i of the Church of Chetwood 60 Acres of Wood in Lethingburgh, alias Lenborough, juxta Bucks, and two Messuages, and two Yard Land in Barton, juxta Chetwood.

By Mary his first Wite, he had Issue & John his eldest Son, who died unmarried Anno 1420, and was buried at Warkworth, and by his fecond Wife, viz. Annabel Daughter of Sir Thomas Green of Greens Norton, had Issue Sir Thomas Chetwoode 1, Lord of Chetwood and Warkworth, created a Knight Banneret, Anno 1458, who deceasing without Issue; and likewise his Daughters Joan and Alice, this Manor of Chetwode came to the Issue of his Sister Elizabeth Wife to Sir Themas Woodull of Odull or Woodbull, in the County of Bedford, who died Anno 1475, and was buried at Warkworth, leaving Issue Fulk and William Odull or Woodbull, who with William Newnbam, Anno 1480, affented to the Award made by the Bishop of Lincoln m, to make the Parish Church of St. Martin's at Chetwode, a Chapel to the Priory Church, and to make the Priory Church parochial, and to take down the Chancel of the Parish Church, and close it up. However, in this Award, special Provision was made for the annual Observation of the Festival of St. Martin, in the Winter, viz. November 11, which the Convent of Nutley bound themselves and their Successors to keep for evermore, in the old Parish Church, with the utmost Solemnity, as it was the Dedication Day of the faid Parish Church.

But in less than an hundred Years after this Time, Richard Chetwode, a younger Son of the Family of Okeley, marrying Agnes Daughter of Anthony Woodhull or Odull, (called in the Family Account Baron of Woodhull or Odull) this Manor was brought back again, and reverted from the Heirs Female, to the Heirs Male of the Name and Family of Chetwode; and Ric. Chetwode Esquire, of the Inner Temple, who resided here Anno 1582, (and was Anno 1603, in King James the first's Reign, made a Knight, and set up a Claim to the Barony of Odull) was Father to Richard Chetwode, who by Anne his Wife, Daughter of Sir Valentine Knightley of Fawefley, had Issue Valentine his Son born 1618, who was Father to Dr. Knightley Chetwode born here ar Chetwede, Anno 1650, who died 1720, Dean of Gloucester; whose elder Brother (as feems to me) viz. Arthur Chetwode fold this Manor to John Chetwode of Okeley, in the Parish of Muccleston, in the County of Stafford, Esquire, of the elder Branch of the Family; for in a Deed (as I have feen) dated May 6, 1654, I find a Conveyance of the capital Messuage and Manor of Cheswede, with Lands in Burton, Hillesden, Tingwick, Lenborough, Cowley, Gawcot and Preston, from Arthur Chetwode, Esquire, to John Chetwode of Okeley, Esquire, which he the faid John Chetwode dying possessed of about 1670, was succeeded by Philip his Son, who died 1678, and was succeeded by John Chetwode his Son, created a Baronet by Letters Patent, dated April 6, 1700, who dying April 23, 1733, was succeeded by Sir Philip Touchet Chetwoode his Son and Heir, the present Lord of this Manor of Chetwood; which, as appears to me, has been in the Possession and Inheritance of the Chetwoods longer than any Estate or Manor in this County of Buckingham has continued the Property of any other Family now there existing; tho' as their principal Residence has been at Okeley, for so many Generations, their capital House here has been neglected; however, by Virtue of the Tenure of this Lordship, they claim by prescriptive Right, Suit and Service over these neighbouring Towns and Hamlets, viz. Chetwood, Barton, Tingwick, Preston cum Cowley, Hillesden, Gawcot, Lenborough, and Bucks Prebend End; and summon the Constables of all these Vills to appear and be sworn at their Court Leet, held at Chetwood in Easter Week, which Townships are said to have been formerly included within the Limits of an old Forest, called Rockwood.

Having done with the Account of the Lords of the temporal Manor, I proceed to treat of the Priory founded here, which is also deemed a Manor.

Sir Ralph de Norwich having, Anno 1244, 28 Hen. III., as aforementioned, founded here a Priory of the Order of St. Augustine, to the Honour of St. Mary and St. Nicholas, and it falling into Decay, and the Revenues not being able to support the Convent, it was, propter paupertatem et destitutionem Canonicorum, Anno 1460, annext to the Abby of Notley; and the conventual Church here being, Anno 1480, as aforefaid, made parochial, there was continued only a Canon or two, to do the Duties of the Church here, and at Barton, till the general Dissolution, Anno 1540: Soon after which King Hen. VIII, by Letters Patent, dated " I June Anno 1541, in the 32d Year of his Reign, for 1831. " granted to William Rifley, and Alice his Wife, the Manor and Rectory of Bar-" ton Hartyshorne, Parcel of the Possessions of Notley late Monastery; and the " Manor and Rectory of Chetwode, and also the Church of Chetwode, for-" merly called the Priory, with the Advowson of Barton and Chetwede " Churches thereto appertaining, with 32 Acres in Godington, in the County " of Oxon, and Lands in Presson and Wotton Uuderwood, and a Wood called " Boysley Wood, in the Parish of Bucks, all Parcel of the Possessions of Notley " late Monastery; to have and to hold to the said William and Alice Risley, "their Heirs and Assigns for ever, by the 20th Part of a Knight's Fee."

Which Family of Risley descended from an antient Family, which lived, Anno 1268, 52 Hen. III, and married the Heiress of Houghton, or Howton, of Pissford or Pitchford, in the County of Northampton; having thus acquired this small Monastery, seated themselves here, and the said William Risley dying Anno 1553, was succeeded by William his eldest Son and Heir, elected Member of Parliament for the Town of Bucks, Anno 1559, 1 Eliz. who dying Jan. 29, 1602, was buried here, and succeeded by Paul Risley his eldest Son and Heir, (his other Sons were Thomas who died unmarried, and George Fellow of New College Oxon; and his Daughters were Frances, Wise to Ferdinando Wenman, Esquire, and Elizabeth, to Sir Toby Chauncy) which Paul Risley, who died and was buried here Anno 1626, taking to Wise Dorothy, Daughter of Sir John Temple of Stow, had Issue William his eldest Son, who died unmarried; Thomas his second Son, high Sheriss of this County Anno 1666, who died and was buried here Anno 1671. And by Margaret his Wife, Daughter of Sir John Danvers of Culworth left Issue John Risley P his Son and Heir, who died and was buried here Anno 1682; he married Christian Daughter of Sir Peter Temple of Stow aforesaid, by whom leaving one Daughter, named Margaret, who died young, this Estate came to his great Nephew Paul Risley, Son to Henry Risley, and Grandson to Paul Risley his fourth Uncle, who is, Anno 1735, the present Lord hereof.

The Arms of Rifley are, Argent, a Fess Azure, between three Crescents Gules.

Crest, a Greybound passant, Ermine collar'd.

In the great Parlour of Mr. Rifley's House, are carved upon the Wainscot in a Shield, these Arms, quartered by the Family.

1. Rifley as before blazoned.

2. Morlant, Ermine, in chief, Argent, a Greybound passant, Sable.

3. Bekering, Cheque Argent and Gules, a Bend, Sable, charged with three Estoils.

4. Havering, Argent, a Lion rampant, Gules.

5. Newhall, Azure, two Roundlets Sable, in chief, Or.

6. Delaborne, Argent, three Roundlets Sable.

- 7. Howton, Argent, a Bend cottized, Gules, charged with three Estoyls of the Field.
- 8. Osborn, A Cross engrailed, Or, in the first and fourth Quarter an Ermine Spot.
- 9. Doreherst, Argent, seven cross Croslets Sable, and three Crescents, Or
- 10. Newman, Argent, three spread Eagles, Gules in Chief, a Label.

11. Haleskerke, three Torteauxes.

12. Blundell, Sable Billittee of eight, Or, in dexter Canton, a Lion rampant.

The Lands this Priory was endowed with, and who were the Donors thereof, I shall briefly enumerate.

Ralph de Norwich, the Founder, gave thereto 10 Yard Land in Chetwood, Barton, and Godington, as appears by the Fines Anno 29 Hen. III, 1245.

Anno 36 Hen. III, 1252, that King granted the Hermitage of St. Werburghs in Brill, to this Convent, and also gave the Monks here 21 Acres of Assart or grubbed up Wood Ground, and five Loads of Wood yearly from his Forest of Bernwood.

Anno 18 Edw. I, 1290, this Convent had a Grant of a Fair for three Days here, viz. On the Vigil or Eve, on the Day, and Morrow or Day after, the Nativity of the bleffed Virgin Mary, viz. September the 7th, 8th, and 9th.

Sir John Chetwode gave them the Advowson of Chetwode, as already mentioned; and Thomas Somerton, Parson of Steple Aston, in the County of Oxon, gave them 2 Messuages and 3 Yard Land in Middle Aston.

Thomas Buffin gave them Lands called Nethercotes in Steple Afton.

But an Account of these Benefactions being printed in Dugdale's Monasticon. Tom. ii. p. 339 &c. where see the License for the Foundation, and also in Kennet's Parochial Antiquities, pa. 246, and 255, I need only thereto refer. But I shall here take Notice that Anno 13 Edw. I 1285, as I find by the Letters Patent, this Convent except the Church was burnt down by whicked Persons; and that Anno 1391, when John Bokingham, Bishop of Lincoln, gave Leave to annex St. Martin's Church at Chetwode to this Priory, the whole Revenues were given in at only 15 Marks.

The Appropriation of St. Martin's Church bears Date July 1, Anno 1391, when a Bond was given by the Prior to perform the Cure. The Rectory was then estimated at 12 Marks. Who were the Rectors here before this Appropriation, I have met with very little Account; for the only ones that I can find in the Lincoln Registers, and other Authorities, are

Ralph de Shalfton, who occurs Rector Anno 1218, 2 Hen. III, in the Register of Luffeild Priory. After him

Gilbert de Hoda was presented to St. Martin's Church at Chetwode by Sir Robert de Chetwode, Anno 1231, 15 Hen. III; who also the same Year presented Jeremias Capellanus. After him

Ralph de Chesterion occurs Rector, Anno 1244, 28 Hen. III. On whose Death, which happened Anno 1278, 6 Edw. I,

William Maunsell became instituted 6 Cal. April, Anno 1278, 6. Edw. I, on the Presentation of Sir Robert de Chetwode. After these I meet with no other

Personstyled Rector, except

Nicholas, who is so called Anno, 1335, about the 12th of Edw. III. In the 23 of whose Reign I find a Patent was obtained for granting this Church to the Prior of Chetwode though it was not compleatly settled 'till about 1391, 15 Ric. II. And so I come to give a List of the Priors of Chetwode.

CHETWODE PRIORS.

9 Thomas de Hanworth, Canon of Thurgarton, Co. Nottingham, was appointed the first Prior by the Founder, Anno 1245, 29 Hen. III.

John, Sub-Prior of Burcester, succeeded on Hanworth's Resignation, 2 Id. Nov. Anno 1261, 45 Hen. III. The King (who is called Patron) giving his Assent.

William de Dadington was elected 2 Id. Nov. Anno 1270, 54 Hen. III, on John's Resignation. I take him to be the same with William Bricklesworth, on whose Resignation, Anno 1304, 32 Edw. I,

Roger de Langham became elected, 6. Id. Dec. Anno 1304, 32. Edw. I. He refigned Anno 1317, 10. Edw. II, and was succeeded by John de Warmington, elected Mar. 31, Anno 1317, 10 Edw. II, with the King's Licence. His Successor was

Robert de Brakesey elected July, 15, Anno 1327, 2 Edw. III, on whose Death, Anno 1337, 11 Edw. III, William de Halton succeeded 7 Cal. Sep. Anno 1337. He died 15 May, Anno 1348, 22 Edw. III.

9 Ex Regist. Lincoln, &c.

Henry

Henry de Wickbam succeeded, and was admitted 5 Id. June, Anno 1349. He died Anno 1361, and was succeeded by John de Westbury, elected 2 Nov. Anno 1361, 35 Edw. III, being collated by the Bishop. His Successor was

Richard Langton, confirmed Prior 13 Feb. Anno 1386, 9 Rich. II, on the Death of John Westbury (Viri recolendae memoriae, as Westbury is styled in the Register) on Licence obtained from the King for his Election.

Thomas Rede succeeded 3 Oct. Anno 1405, 6 Hen. IV. The next I find is

Richard Boreton, on whose Death, Anno 1445, 23 Hen. VI,

John Humberston, Canon of Haghmon Abbey Co. Salop, was collated by the Bishop, per Lapsum, 16 June, Anno 1445. He died Anno 1458, 36 Hen. VI. After which this Priory, as aforesaid, became annext to Nutley Abbey, and so no more Priors ever succeeded, but only a Canon or two of Notley, as aforementioned, were left here to officiate and serve the Cures of Chetwode and Barton: both which said Cures being supplied by the same Person, and the Names of the Ministers having been given in Barton, I need not repeat them here.

This Parish is bounded South by Stratton-Ardley and Godington Co. Oxon. North by Tingwick, West by Barton, and East by Preston. It contains about 1000 Acres, and was, Anno 1712, assessed to the Land Tax 1351. 16s. 10 d. Here are only 16 Families.

The old Parish Church of St. Martin having been made a Chapel to the Priory Church, had its Chancel taken down Anno 1480, 20 Edw. IV; and being entirely demolished after the beginning of Queen Elizabeth's Time, and a Monument of Sir John Chetwode and his Lady destroyed, the Parishioners have been ever since in the sole Possession of the said Priory Church, which consists of a Body or single Ile, with two small cross Iles or Vestries, the North one of which belongs to the Family of the Chetwodes, being assigned to them (as I presume) by the Convent of Nutley, or probably separated to their Use on annexing the Hermitage or Chapel of St. Stephen and St. Laurence to this Convent, about the Time that the Parish Church was agreed to be appropriated, when the Hermitage or Chantry Priest might be removed or appointed to celebrate Mass for the Founders Souls in this Part of the present Church. Of these Priests, thus instituted, I have met with the following Presentations of them from the Registers of Lincoln.

Robert Walthon was presented by Sir Ralph Chetwode, ad Heremitagium et Capellam Sansti Stephani et Laurentii de Chetwode, Anno 1246, 30 Hen. III.

William de Bickleswade, was presented by John Chetwode, ad distum Heremitagium, vacantem per mortem Roberti, Anno 1270, 54 Hen III.

Richard de Hartwell succeeded Anno 1271, 55 Hen III, on William's Refignation.

·Z

William,

178 HISTORY OF CHETWOOD.

William, last Capellanus, died and was succeeded by Simon, about the Year 1300; on whose Death, Anno 1314,

Roger de Parva Harwedon was instituted, Anno 1314, 7 Edw. II, on the Presentation of Sir John Chetwode.

William de Shirbone was instituted Anno 1349, 23 Edw. III, on Roger's Death, on the Presentation of Sir John de Chetwode.

John Hawes, de Chetwode, was instituted 8 Id. Nov. Anno 1352, 26

Edw. III, and refigned Anno 1359.

William de Chardonis succeeded 9 Cal. Julii, Anno 1359, on Nicholas Chetwode's Presentation.

John Cowpere succeeded 3 Id. Aug. Anno 1359, the Month sollowing, and is the last that was presented; for, as I suppose, it was soon after annext to this small Priory, and the Service, as before hinted, removed into this Ile or Vestry, and the said Ile given to the Chetwode Family, forasmuch as it now belongs wholly to them. The old Parish Church of St. Martin stood near to their Manor House, about a Quarter of a Mile East from the Priory Church.

But I return to the farther Description of the present Parish Church, (which is contiguous to the Priory House, now the Seat of the Risleys) and is in Length 58 Foot, and in Breadth about 25. At the West End is a small Tower with a ridged tyled Roof, built about the Year 1583, in Queen Elizabeth's Time, when it was contracted and shortened about 40 Foot, and the West Part pulled down, (as appears by a Plan in my Possession) and a Wall run a-cross, and the small present Tower erected, in which are two Bells, the biggest whereof has this Inscription on it in old Characters, the tibic Christe babat 3. Chestwode quem peramabat. This Bell is by Tradition said to have been brought from St. Martin's, the old Parish Church. The South cross Ile is said to be taken into the Patron, Mr. Risley's House, about the Year 1582, when, on some Dispute with the Parishioners, a Chancery Suit was threatened, on Account of Mr. Risley's pretending the Priory Church was his sole Property, and that it was in his Power to debar the Parishioners the Use of it.

On the North Side in the Chuch-yard was, as in the Plan, an Antique Cross, and a Well. Where the West End is now, was a Partition of Timber, and the Church formerly extended equal with the farther Range of Mr. Risey's Stable. The whole Fabrick is leaded, and the upper End, viz. the Chancel or Choir Part, is very decent, being adorned with an elegant East Window, in which are some Portraits of Saints and Bishops in painted Glass, but not to be made out, except that one is of St. Nicholas, and another of the Virgin Mary. In the said Window is also the Arms of England, viz. Three Lyons passant, as born at the Time of the Foundation of this Priory. (this Church having never been since rebuilt,) at Bottom is the Effigies of St. Peter.

Before the Communion Rails are three or four old Grave-stones, laid, no doubt, over some of the Priors; but hewn smooth on new paving and ornamenting the Church. The upper Parts of these are Lids, as I am informed, formed, to Stone Coffins, within which Coffins the Persons interred, were on opening them, found to be wrapped in Leather. On the North Side the Communion Rails, is an old Grave-stone which had a Brass Effigy on it, of a Woman seemingly, which was laid there, as I guess, since it was made parochial, Anno 1480. A new Floor of Stone has been laid over a damp one of Brick, by the present Patron Mr. Risley. The Inscriptions remaining here, Anno 1734, are only these of the Family of Risley.

On the North Side the Chancel Wall, a black Marble, enchased with free Stone Mantlings, which bears this Inscription,

" Mary the Daughter of Paul Rifley of Chetwode, in the County of Bucks, Eq. and Dorothy his Wife, resteth here among her Ancestors. She "was stedfast in the Faith of Christ crucified, which was enlivened with all Christian Virtues. She died at Langley, in the Parish of

" Sutton Cofield, in August 1668, in the 65th Year of her Age."

On three black Warwickshire Stones, on the Pavement in the Chancel, these Inscriptions:

On the first these Arms, Risley; A Fesse between 3 Crescents; impaling

Temple, viz. Argent on two Barrs sable 6 Martlets. Underneath this:
"Here lyeth the Body of John Risley Esq. late of this Parish, who mar" ried Christian Daughter of Sir Peter Temple of Stow, in the County of Bucks, Knight and Baronet. He had Issue by her only one Daugh"ter, Margaret, who dyed in her Infancy. He departed this Life

"the 27th of March, Anno 1682, in the 46th Year of his Age.

" Paulus Risley, Generosus, Impensis suis Monumentum posuit."

On the 2d the same Arms in a Lozenge, viz. Rifley, and this Inscription:

"Here lyeth in Expectation of a joyful Resurrection, the Body of "Christian Risley, Widow, late Wise of John Risley Esq. She died in "the Parish of St. Giles in the Town of Northampton, the 11th Day of March 1705, in the 70 Year of her Age."

On another Stone these Arms, A Bend engrailed, charged with three Fleurs de Lis, impaling Rifley, as before, viz. A Fess inter three Crescents. Underneath this;

"Here lyeth, expecting a joyful Resurrection, the Body of Susan, one of the Daughters of Thomas Risley, of Chitwode Esq. late the Wise of Ralph Holt, of Stoke Lyne, in the County of Oxford Esq. who deserged this mortal Life the 19th of March 1660. Leaving behind her one only Daughter.

" R. H. Charissimus Maritus Impensis suis posuit.

On a Lozenge, this Inscription:

"Here lyeth in Expectation of a joyful Resurrection, the Body of Eli"zabeth Risley, Widow, late Wise of Henry Risley, Esq. She died in "the Parish of St. Martin, Ludgate, London, the 31st Day of March "Anno 1717, in the 77th Year of her Age, leaving behind her one "Son and two Daughters.

On another,

Mary Rifley lies here in firm Hope of a joyful Refurrection.

On another, Brewer impaling Rifley, viz. Two Bends Vavi, in Chief Vairi; and this Inscription,

- "Here lyeth, in Expectation of a joyful Resurrection, the Body of "Frances, one of the Daughters of Henry Risley of Chetwoode Esq. and
 - " Elizabeth his Wife, and late Wife of Thomas Brewer, Stationer.
 - "She departed this mortal Life the 8th of February in the Year 1727, aged 42 Years, leaving Issue one only Son.

On another,

In Memory of Mrs. Dorotby Rifley Waller, the beloved Sister of the Reverend Columna John Machell. She dyed July 15, 1720, aged

" 27 Years. Gulielmus Docwra defuncta amicissimus posuit.

EDGECOTE,

S so denominated from its Situation, viz. from Edge, Acies; and Cote, Habitatio; i. e. a Dwelling on the Side of a Hill. In Doomsday-Book it is thus surveyed:

Terra Walteri Giffard in Rovelai Hundred.

Radulfus tenet de Walterio Achecote; pro v bidis se desendebat. Terra est viii Carucatarum. In Dominio sunt ii; et x Villani, cum ix Bordariis babentibus vi Carucatas. Ibi ii

Hoc Manerium tenuere iv Teigni. Horum unus Alwini babet ii Hidas et dimidium pro uno Manerio, et alter Edwinis i Hidam et i Virgatam pro uno Manerio; et Alanus dimidium Hidæ; et Thori, Huscarle Regis Edwardi, iii Virgatas. Omnes vero vendere potuerunt.

Ralph holds Achecote of Walter Giffard. It was taxed at v Hides. The Arable is viii Carucates. There are ii in Demesne; and x Copyholders and ix Cottagers having vi Carucates. There are ii Servants; Meadow for ii Carucates; Mast for c Hogs. It is worth in the whole, and always was valued at c s.

Four Thanes or Knights held this Manor. One was Alwin's Thane; who held ii Hides and a Half for one Manor; and another Edwin's, who held one Hide and one Yard Land for a Manor; and Almar half a Hide; and Thori, a Domestick Servant of King Edward's, held iii Yard Lands. But all these could fell their Parts.

This Walter Giffard, who was, as mentioned in Akeley, a near Relation to the Conqueror, and by him made Earl of Buckingham, dying Anno 1103, 3 Hen. I, was succeeded by Walter his Son, who bestowed inter alia on the Priory of Newnton Longueville, (of his Father's Foundation) the Tenths of his Demesses at Edgcote. He died Anno 1164, 10 Hen. II, (without Issue,) in which Reign the Englesields (as seems to me,) were in Possession of Landshere, which they held of the Honour of Giffard; and were, as I judge, seedary Tenants to this Earl Walter the second, who having, Anno 1162, 8 Hen. II, sounded Nutley alias Crendon Abbey, Alan de Englesield became a Benefactor thereto, as his Ancestors had been to the Abbey of Reading, in the Founder, Henry the first's Reign, they being then seated at Englefield Co. Berks, and, as I presume, Lords of that Place, as they were also of Edgcote, Temp. Hen III. For in the Fines Anno 1243, 27 Hen III, I meet with William de Englefield possessed possessed possessed and that he held a Knight's Fee Anno 1224 deonere) who had Issue Sir John Englefield, Father to Sir Roger, who was returned one of the Knights of the County of Berks, Anno 1313, 6 Edw. II, and dying in the Time of Edw. III, left Issue Sir Philip Englesield, who had Issue John de Englesield, who dying about the Year 1368, 42 Edw. III, left this Manor in Dower to Isabell his Wife, who afterwards marrying with Thomas Priour, he in her Right possesed it, as did her third Husband John Wodevyle in the Reign of Richard II. But on her Death about the Year 1418, 6 Hen V, it reverted to the Heirs of Englefield, and Anno 1420, 8 Hen. V, was possessed by Sir Philip Englefield w, whose Grandson Sir Thomas Englefield held it in the Time of Edw. IV. Hen. VII, and Hen VIII, and dying Anno 1514, 5 Hen VIII, was buried with his Ancestors at Englefield, Co. Berks , having been Speaker of the House of Commons Anno 1509, 1 Hen. VIII, being then returned one of the Knights for the County of Berks. His Successor was Thomas Englefield, who was High Sheriff of Oxfordshire and Berkshire, Anno 1520, 11 Hen. VIII, and became afterwards knighted, and one of his Majesty's Justices of the Common Pleas, and died seized thereof 28 Sep. 1540, 30 Hen. VIII, as the Inquisition sets forth, which mentions that this his Manor of Edgecote was held of the King as of the Dukedom of Buckingham, paying yearly a Pair of gilt Spurs, or 6 d. 2; and that his Son and Heir Francis was 15 Years old, which Francis, afterwards knighted, being a zealous Roman Catholick, and of the Privy Council to Queen Mary, and reputed an Enemy to Queen Elizabeth on Account of Religion, when she ascended the Throne, falling under her Displeasure, and being attainted, had this his Manor of Edgecote seized on by the Queen, who by Letters Patent, dated Sep. 25, 1588, Anno Regni 30, granted it to Thomas Compton, Robert Wright, and Gelly Merrick in Fee for ever, to be held in Socage, of the Manor of East Greenwich. In the Patent it is called the Estate of Sir Francis Englefield, attainted. But in this Grant there being no Mention of the Advowson of the Church, I find there was made out a fecond Grant, in which was included the Advowson, and also all the Lands of the said Sir Francis Englefield, particularly those he had purchased of the Pigots. This is dated Off. 29, Anno 1601, 43 Elizabeth, and recited to be in Consideration of 712 l. 9s. 2 d. paid by Robert Wright and Henry May, and so was confirmed to them, and their Heirs and Assigns, for ever, in which it is recited to have been the Estate, &c. of the Englefields, Habendum for ever, with the Advowson, to hold of the Manor of East Greenwich in Socage by Fealty only; which said Robert Wright and

Henry May, very soon after conveyed all their Right, Title, and Interest to Sir William Dormer and Sir John Dormer, who occur possessed thereof Anno 1607, 9 Jac. I. And in this Family of the Dormers, this Manor and Advowson remained from 1607, 9 Jac. I, aforesaid, 'till about Anno 1716, when it was sold by John Dormer of Rowsham Esq. to Sir Samuel Garth, Doctor in Physick, and so came by Marriage of the Daughter of the said Sir Samuel Garth, (who died January 19, 1719) to the Family of Boyle; and his Grandson Henry Boyle Esq; his said Daughter's Son, is, Anno 1735, the present Lord of the Manor, and Patron of this Church, to which, viz. the Manor, the Advowson has ever continued appendant, except from Anno 1588, 30 Elizabeth, to 1601, 43 Elizabeth.

A Pension of 6s. 8d. as antiently appertaining to the Priory of Newton Longueville, is paid out of this Church to New College in Oxford.

This Parish is bounded East by Quainton, North by Iwiford, West by Mersh Gibbon, and South by Grendon Underwood.

The Church of Edgecote, which is dedicated to St. Michael, confifts of a Body, which is leaded, and Chancel, which is tyled; at the West End is a low embattelled Tower, in which hang 3 Bells. The Rectory is valued at 11.1.125.8d. for First-fruits in the Taxation made Anno 1534, 25 Hen. VIII, Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I. it was rated at five Marks, deducting the Pension of half a Mark paid to the Prior of Newnton Longueville, now belonging to New College as aforesaid. The clear Value of the Living was given in at 67 l. 55.4d. in Queen Ann's Time, being almost the same Sum as the Parish stood rated Anno1712, to the Land Tax, that being only 67 l. 115.9d.

Here are 20 Families and 80 Souls as returned Anno 1712, in an Account to the Bishop of Lincoln, and that there was then Nothing left to any Charities in this Parish. When I visited this Church Anno 1729, there was no Inscription whatsoever, except this one on an ordinary Grave-stone in the Chancel,

"Thomas Watson departed this Life the 12th of February, Anno De"mini 1691.

The Register is antient: It beginning Anno 1539, 30 Hen. VIII, on the first Institution of Registers: but there is Nothing memorable in it, except the Entry of the Burial of John Field, Henry Sleymaker, and Robert Rogers, Rectors of the Parish, given in the Series of them.

The Terrier exhibited Anno 1680, 32 Car II. by Robert Rogers, Rector, fets forth,

The Parsonage House consisting of 4 Bays with an Orchard and Stable, and an Hay Barn and Yard for Cattle.

In the upper Field, 25 Ridges of Arable, and 5 Leas and 7 Yards of Grass.

In the middle Field 43 Ridges and 5 Leas and 4 Yards of Grass. In the lower Field, 36 Ridges 13 Leas and 7 Yards of Grass. And the Sooles belonging to it for a Yard Land and a Half. Six Cows Commons, and 60 Sheeps Commons in the Field.

The

The Names of the Rectors are as follow, from the Registers of Lincoln.

Robert de Botiler dyed Anno 1290, 18 Edw. I.

Andrew de Englefield succeeded Nov. 17, Anno 1290, 18 Edw. I.

John Walchin of Brightwell, was instituted on the Death of Andrew de Englefield, on the Presentation of Roger de Englefield, 2 Aug. Anno 1296, 24 Edw. I.

William de Englefield last Rector resigned 1325, and was succeeded by John Bylt or Buyle of Twyford, instituted on the Presentation of Philip de Englesield, 10 Cal. Oct. 1325, 18 Edw. II. He was also Rector of Dunton in Essex. He exchanged this Rectory for North Fambridge in the County of Essex, with Richard Murimuth, Calend. Febr. Anno 1331, 5 Edw. III.

Hugh de Castell was instituted 15 Cal. April. Anno 1333, 7 Edw. III, on the Resignation of Murimuth on the Presentation of Sir Philip de Englefeild Knight.

Robert de Herewyche was presented 3 Non. April. Anno 1338, 12 Edw. III, on the Resignation of Hugh de Castell by Philip de Engleseild.

Hngh de Brenton exchanged it for St. Nicholas Rectory in Hereford City, Anno 1351, 25 Edw. III, with John de Gloucester, and he was instituted Cal. Aug. Anno 1351, 25 Edw. III. He resigned it, and was succeeded by Thomas Zoughe or Zouche presented by John Englefeild, 2 Nov. April.

Anno 1362, Edw. III, on the Resignation of John the last Rector.

Thomas Tayllcure, who no doubt succeeded Zouch, resigned Anno 1371, 45

Edw. III, and was succeeded by Thomas Chorlogh instituted Oct. 17, Anno 1371, 45 Edw. III, on the Prefentation of Thomas Priour Lord of Achecote. He exchanged it for Mayne-Martel or Broadmain in Com. Dorset with

John Coleman, and he became instituted Dec. 4, Anno 1383, 6 Ric. II, on the Presentation of Isabell Wife of Sir Thomas Priour Knight.

William Godeleston was presented on Colman's Resignation, who had exchanged it for Hardwick-Ardeley Rectory Co. Oxford, Mar. 4 following, the same Year, 1383, 6 Ric. II.

William Bellingden succeeded Dec. 10, Anno 1386, 9 Ric. II, being presented by John Wodemyle and Isabell Priour his Wife

Hugh Sturdy succeeded, being presented by Isabell Priour, and instituted Anno 1413, I Hen. V, on the Resignation of William Bellingden.

Stephen Smith succeeded Feb. 8, Anno 1424, 2 Hen. VI, on the Presentation of Philip Englefeild Esq. on the Death of Sturdy.

William Boucher was instituted 28 June, Anno 1470, 10 Edw. IV, on the Death of Stephen Smith, on the Presentation of Thomas Englefeild. I presume his Name was also Silkston, for I find

William Ayle presented May 3, Anno 1483, 22 [Edw. IV, on the Death of William Silkston, on the Presentation of Thomas Englesield. He died Anno 1485, 2 Ric. III, and was succeeded by Robert

Robert Snowe instituted Oct. 25, Anno 1485. 2 Ric. III, on the Death of William Ayle, on the Presentation of Thomas Englefield.

Robert Harbord LL.B. succeeded, and was instituted Mar. 8, 1504, 19 Hen. VII, on the Resignation of Snow, on the Presentation of Thomas Englesseld. He held it not long, for his Successor,

Michael Todde, died Rector here Anno 1507, 22 Hen. VII, and was succeeded by

William Atkinson, instituted June 27, Anno 1507, on the Presentation of Thomas Englefield, Esquire. He resigned Anno 1511, 2 Hen. VIII, and was succeeded by John Man, instituted May 27, 1511, on the Presentation of Thomas

Englefield, Esquire. He resigned Anno 1527, and was succeeded by Edmund Linney, instituted June 8, Anno 1527, on the Presentation of Thomas Englefield, Esq. He died Anno 1559, 1 Eliz. and was succeeded by William Lewes, instituted March 3, 1559, on Linney's Death, on the Prefentation of Sir Francis Englefield, Knight.

John Felde succeeded, being instituted May 30, Anno 1564, 6 Eliz. on the Presentation of Sir Francis Englesield, Kt. He died, and was buried here March 29, 1609, without any Memorial, and was succeeded by Henry Sleymaker, instituted August 21, 1609, 7 Jac. I, on the Presentatation of Sir William and Sir John Dormer, Kts. He was buried here Aug.

29, Anno 1624, 22 Jac. I. After him one

Richard Altwood became Rector, Anno 1625, as it feems to me; whose

Successor, as I presume, was

Hugh Hart; for I meet with him styled Minister here, Anno 1650, when this Rectory was returned to be of the Yearly Value of 60.1. After him

Thomas Rogers occurs Rector, Anno 1660, as does

Robert Rogers, Anno 1663. But when he or his Predecessors (inter 1624 et 1663,) were instituted, or who presented them, I have not discovered. As to Robert Rogers, he died, and was buried here June 13, 1685, and succeeded by Thomas Mason, A. M. instituted June 24, 1685, on the Presentation of John Smith of Brill, no doubt by Purchase of this Turn from the Family of Dormer. He died 1729 at Ludgarshall, where he resided, and was succeeded by

Joseph Slade, A. M. instituted Feb. 14, 1729, on the Presentation of Henry Boyle, Esq. and he is, Anno 1735, the present Rector.

FOXCOTE,

A a

OXCOTE,

ERIVES its Name from Fox and Cote, i.e. the Habitation or Place of Foxes. In Doomsday Book it is thus surveyed:

Terra Episcopi Bajocensis, in Stodsield Hundred.

Turstinus tenet de Episcopo Foxcote, Villanus cum ii Bordariis, babentibus ii Carucatas; ibi i Servus, et Pratum iv Carucatarum. Silva xc Porcorum. Valet et semper valuit iii Libras.

Hoe Manerium tenuit Leif, Teignus Regis Edwardi, et vendere potuit.

Thurstin holds of the Bishop of Baipro vi Hidas se defendebat. Terra est iv | jeux, Foxcote; it was rated at fix Hides. Carucatarum. In Dominio sunt ii, et unus The Arable is four Carucates; two are in Demesne. There is one Copyholder and twoCottagers having twoPloughs; there is one Servant, and Meadow sufficient to the two Ploughs, and Mast for ninety Hogs. It is worth, and always was worth iii l.

Leif, King Edward's Thane or Knight, held this Manor, and could fell it.

This Bishop of Baieux, (as has already been shewn) being Anno 1088 disposses'd of his large Revenues, many of these were obtained by his Feodary Tenants; one of the chief of which was this Thurstin, surnamed de Girun, who also held Dunton Lordship of the Bishop; and the Dunton remained in the Girun Family Tempore Hen. III, yet this of Foxcote became alienated Temp. Ric. I; for I find it was passed away by Hamunde de Girunde, to Walter de la Haia, Anno 1198; which Walter presented his Clerk to this Church, Anno 1220, as did Stephen de la Haia 1253, and 1277; to whom, I presume, succeeded John de la Haia, who was High Sheriff of this County, and that of Bedford, Anno 1318 d, and the next Year was returned one of the Knights of Buckinghamshire, to serve in Parliament; but I suppose died soon after, and lest this Manor in Dower to Agnes his Wife, (who seems to have been remarried to Robert Kinne; for Anno 1333, Robert Kinne and Agnes his Wife, presented to this Church ;) after whose Death, which happened Anno 1320, I presume Thomas de la Hay held it, who was, Anno 1336, elected one of the Knights of this Shire s; but on Failure of Issue Male of this Family, it seems to have come by Marriage of the Heiress of de la Hay to Alan Ayote, Lord of Shalston. For Anno 1382 he presented a Clerk to this Church, and Anno 1384 became one of the Knights of this County; but this Alan, who occurs possessed hereof Anno 1400, leaving Issue an only Daughter, named Margery, she brought this Manor, together with that of Shallton.

Shalfton', to her Husband William Purefoy of Shirford, in the County of Warwick, Ancestor to the present Family of that Name, now living at Shalfton, who occurs possessed of both Manors, Anno 1418, and also Anno 1457 Patron of both Churches; and continued seized thereof till the Year 1464, when he suffered a Fine and Recovery hereof k; I presume on the Marriage of his eldest Son Philip Puresoy, for Dowry of his Wise, which Philip dying Anno 1466, willed to be buried in the Church of St. James at Badsley Clinton, in the County of Warwick'; and was there interred accordingly, with this Epitaph on his Grave-stone:

Die jacet Philippus Purefoy, Armiger, Filius et Beres Willielmi Purefoy, De Shirford, in Com. Warwick Armigeri; qui obiit 16 Die Pentis Septembris, A. D. 1466, enjus Anime propitietur Deus.

On the Stone, which has been long since defaced, was his Effigies in Armour, in Brass.

He left three Sons, viz. John, Nicholas and William, all which dying young, Nicholas Son to John their Uncle, became Heir to the Estate at Shalfton; tho' Anno 1477, Richard Fowler is faid to die seized of this Manor, but I suppose he had it in Mortgage, or as Guardian to Purefoy's Children, whose Mother Isabel (Daughter of John Brome of Badsley Clinton aforesaid) remarrying Anno 1472, with John Denton of Blacktborn, in Co. Oxon, he became possessed of and died Anno 1497 or 1498, seized of this Manor and Advowson m, having obtained it from the Purefoys, as appears by his last Will and Testament, in which he bequeathed " it to Isabel his Wife, (by " whom he had a numerous Issue) living sole or unmarried, and ordered "that she should find Thomas Denton, his younger Son (afterwards the "Lord of Hillesden) during his Nonage out of this Manor, and that the "Residue should go to pray for his Soul, and his Brother-in-law Philip 66 Purefoy's, and his Father and Mother's Souls," and made the faid Isabel his Executrix, who furvived him above Forty Years, and died possessed hereof, about the Year 1540; when it descending to his eldest Son John Denton, he was Anno 1544, on a forced Exchange, obliged to give it up to Hen. VIII , and in Lieu thereof to accept of Ambrosden Manor and Advowson, Parcel of Burcester Priory, and Nuns Place in Burcester, Parcel of Margate Nunnery Possessions. And so it coming to the Crown, it was, Anno 1557 by Letters Patent of Philip and Mary, dated April 27, for 398 l. 18 s. 8 d°. conveyed in Fee, to Thomas Smith, and his Heirs in Perpetuity, in which Grant it is recited, to have been annex'd to the Honour of Grafton, and to have been late Part of the Possessions of John Denton, Esq. Which Thomas Smith, as I find by the Inquisition taken on his Death, dled seized hereof, Sept. 1, 1557, the same Year as he obtained this Estate. leaving Edward Smith his Son and Heir, a Minor of Nine Years old, who dying Anno 1573, it seems to have come in Marriage with his Sister or next Kinswoman to Marmaduke Cleaver, for he occurs possessed hereof Anno 1574, the Year after Edward Smith's Death; and died feized thereof, Anno 3 Jac. I, 1605, as I find by the Inquisition, leaving Matthew Cleaver his Son and Heir, who held it from 1605 to 1611 or 1612, when it descended. to John Cleaver. But the Cleavers Issue Male failing in this Branch, it came in Marriage to the Philips, with the Widow of Cleaver, viz. Jane Daughter of George Tyrell of Thornton, Esq. who was first married to Matthew Cleaver, and afterwards to John Philips, who being fettled here in Cleaver's Life Time, and being in full Possession of the Estate, inclosed the same, Anno 1624, and having Issue by a former Wise an only Daughter named Frances, born here Anno 1608 P, it came in Marriage with her to Randal Heint, who died and was buried here Anno 1657.—But having mortgaged his Estate very deeply to Edward Grenville, a younger Son of the Family of Wotton, he the faid Randal Hunt was forced to give it up, several Years before his Death 9, and make, Anno 1639, a Conveyance thereof to the faid Edward Grenvill, who Anno 1635, having married Ethelreda or Auditey, Daughter of John Duncombe of East Claydon, Esq. settled here; and Anno 1656 (as appears by the Date) re-edified, for the most Part, the. Manor House, and dying Anno 1661, was here buried, leaving Issue two Sons, viz. Edward, who died at Oxford, December 13, foon after his Father, 1661 s, and George, who dying also unmarried in June 1693, this Estate by Intail descended to the Issue of his elder Brother, and is now, Anno 1735, the Property of Richard Grenvill of Wotton, Esquire, Member of Parliament for the County Town of Buckingbam, who is the present Lord of the Manor and Patron of the Church.

The Advowson has always continued appendant to the Manor.

This Parish is bounded South by Moreton, West by Stow, North by Akeley, and East by Leckampsted and Thornborough, and contains about 600 or 700 Acres.

The Church here consists of a Body, and Chancel, which are tyled; at the West End is a small Wooden Turrit rough cast, supported by the Walls and Roof of the Church. In the Turrit (which is covered with Lead) hang two small Bells.—The Feast follows November 6, St. Leonard's Day, and the Church is dedicated to that Saint.

Here are no Monuments or Inscriptions whatsoever, except these two on ordinary Stones in the Chancel. The first of which has on a Plate of Brass, this Inscription fixt on the Stone:

- "Hic jacet Edwardus Grenville, Filius natu tertius Richardi Grenville,
 "Armigeri, de Wotton Underwood, in hoc Comitatu Bucks, qui natus

This was by the present Rector laid over his Father and Mother.

The Rectory was rated Anno 1534, 26 Hen. VIII, at 9 l. 9 s. 4 d. 1/2 in the King's Books, and the real Value was returned Anno 1712, to be 72 l. when this Parish paid to the Land Tax 67 l. 11 s. 9 d. Here were then 10 Families and 60 Souls, and no Charities left to Church or Poor.

The NAMES of the RECTORS from the Registers of Lincoln, are as follow:

Robert the Chaplain was presented Anno 1220, by Sir Walter de la Hay, Kt. to the Church of Foxcote.

Eustace de Rochford, was presented Anno 1253, by Stephen de Hay.

Thomas Fitz Gilbert, was instituted Anno 1277, on the Death of Eustace, being presented by Stephen de la Hay; the next that occurs is

William de Malesovers. He exchanged it, Anno 1320, with Nicholas de Lyons, 2 Non. March 1323, for Begebrook; and he the said Lyons became presented by Robert Kinne, and Agnes his Wife.

Thomas de St. Lys was presented by Agnes de la Haye, on the Resignation of Nicholas Lyons, and instituted 3 Id. Seps. 1332. After him

Adam de la Mare occurs Rector, Anno 1340. The next I find is, John Smith. He exchanged it for St. Michael's Northgate, Oxford, Anno

John Smith. He exchanged it for St. Michael's Northgate, Oxford, Anno 1382, with

John

John Drax, Jan. 26, 1382, and he, viz. Drax, became presented toit by Alan Ayette, Lord of Foxcote. He held it not long, for

William Ailthorp, became presented March 23, 1384, on the Resignation of John Drax, alias Cowper, on the Presentation of Alan Ayette.

John Barton of Thornborough, succeeded, and became instituted Jan. 9, 1300, on the Death of William de Ailthorp, on the Presentation of Alan Ayette, Lord of Foxcote.

Robert de Pitchecote fucceeded on Barton's Resignation, on the Presentation of Alan Ayette, Lord of Foxcote, and was admitted 5 Feb. 1393.

John Gawcote succeeded, and was instituted August 28, 1400, on the Presentation of Alan Ayette, Lord of Foxcote. The next I find is

Walter Hopton. He held it Anno 1437; and the next I meet with, is

John Wattes, on whose Resignation

William Reese, became instituted Feb. 21, 1457, on the Presentation of William Purefoy, Esquire; his Successor was

Robert Ormesby, collated by the Bishop July 1, 1461, not said how vacant, but no doubt the Bishop presented per Lapsum.

Robert Tymson succeeded, being instituted August 1, 1479, on the Death of Ormesby, on the Presentation of John Denton, Esq. who had, Anno 1472, married the Widow of Philip Purefoy, Esq.

Henry Boleyn succeeded July 11, 1503, on the Presentation of Isabel Denton, Widow, on the Death of Robert Tymson.

James Walton, or Welton, succeeded, being instituted March 8, 1510, on the Death of Henry Boleyn, on the Presentation of Isabel Denton.

In Welton's Will, which is dated Anno 1558, he appointed to be buried here in the Chancel, before St, Leonard's Image: Anno 1526, I find it returned to the Bishop, (I suppose by Welton,) that Isabell Denton was Patroness by Reason of her Dower.

Ralph Colys succeeded, being instituted Jan. 11, 1558, on the Presentation of Thomas More, who had this Turn given him by Thomas Langlion, and Thomas Denton, who had it given them by John Denton of Blackthorn, (I suppose Thomas Denton's eldest Brother after his Wife's Life.) He became presented to Leckampstead, Anno 1562, and also to Thornton, and so quitted this, and was fucceeded by John More, instituted May 14, 1567, on the Queen's Presentation.

David Powell succeeded, being presented Nov. 19, 1574, by Marmaduke Cleaver. He occurs Rector Anno 1597.

Richard Evans, A. M. was presented January 20, 1601, by Matthew Cleaver.

Robert Gray succeeded, Anno 1608, but I have not his Presentation.

James Stilton, succeeded on Robert Gray's Resignation, being instituted July 22, 1612, on John Cleaver's Presentation. He was buried here, as appears by the Parish Register July, 31, 1656, and succeeded by Thomas Cheslin, who occurs Rector Anno 1657; he was buried here

Sept. 5, 1660.

Francis

Francis Hodson succeeded, and was instituted Dec. 24, 1660, on the Presentation of Edward Grenville, Esq.

William Waters was instituted March 30, 1665, being also Vicar of Bucking bam, where he died and was buried 8 May, 1672, and succeeded by Samuel Pepys, A. M. instituted Nov. 4, 1672, on the Presentation of George Grenville, Esq. He died and was buried at Clifton, near Olney, where he was Rector, April 17, 1703, and succeeded by

Richard Major, A. B. instituted May 4, 1703, on the Presentation of

John Major, Gent. and he is the present Rector, Anno 1736,

The Parish Register begins about 1587, and has only these memorable. Entries, which I noted out of it.

Marmaduke, Son of Matthew Cleaver, baptized 1589.

Marmaduke Cleaver buried Anno 1595. The same Person, no doubt.

Frances, Daughter of John Philips, Esq. baptized Anno 1608.

Randal Hunt, Gent. buried, Aug. 12, 1657.

Thomas, Son of Sir Peter Tyrrill, Bart. baptized April 8, 1669.

N. B. He succeeded his Father Sir Peter Tyrrill, in the Baronetship, but died in May 1714, in Ircland, without Issue Male; and so the Title became extinct.

This was Anno 1162, as in Bishop Kennet's Parochial Antiquities, who tells us, that Anno 1195, 6 Ric. I, Aubrey de Vere and Isabell, Daughter of Walter de Bolebec, his Wise, confirmed this Donation of Walter Gissard's b, viz of the Church of Hillesden, with all its Appurtenances, with Pasturage for their drawing Cattle, and 200 Acres of Pasture. And that Constance, Daughter of Hugh de Bolebec, Wise of Elias de Beauchamp, did with her Husband's Consent, give to Nutley Abby, that Crost in Hillesden which Therold held, making a solemn Oblation of it, on the Altar of the Church of Hillesden; and that Hugh de Hodenche, Anno 1195, 6 Ric. I, consirmed the Church of Hillesden to the Canons of Notley, with one Virgate of Land in Hillesden; which his Father Hugh de Hodenche gave to the Mother Church of Hillesden for a Chapel to be built upon his Land at Hillesden, which was erected accordingly on a Piece of Land, still known by the Name of Chapel Field, where stood antiently a Chapel dedicated to St. Margaret, which lay a Mile distant from the Mother Church.

On

On this Earl Walter's dying, Anno 1164, 10 Hen. II, without Issue, his Feodary Tenant Hugh de Bolebec came into Possession of this Manor, and no doubt obtained the small Part that belonged to Robert Earl of Moreton and Cornwall, (King William the first's half Brother) whose Son became outed of all his Father's Possessions by King Ilenry the first, about the Year 1105.

Which Hugh de Bolebec's Son and Successor Walter Bolebec, leaving Issue only a Daughter and Heir named Sibill or Isabel, his great Estates came in Marriage with her, to Robert de Vere, the third Earl of Oxford, and fo passed into the Family of the Courtenays, Earls of Devon, by the Marriage of another Heiress, named Isabel de Vere; for I find it was returned 2 Edw. I, Anno 1274, on the Death of John Courtenay, quod Maneria de Hilleschen & Wavenden data suerunt Isabellæ, quæ suit uxor prædicti Johannis de Courtenay, defuncti, in liberum Maritagium, to the said John de Courtenay, who espoused her Temp. Hen. III; after which Marriage this Manor continued in the Courtenay Family, till the Attainder of Thomas Courtenay, Earl of Devon, Anno 1461, 1 Edw. IV, when that King, Anno 1465, gave to Sir Walter Devereux, Kt. Hillesden Manor with six Messuages, 100 Acres of Land, 10 of Meadow, 20 of Pasture, 20 of Wood, and 40 s. Rent there, which came to the Crown by the Forfeiture of Thomas Courtenay. But he faid Sir Walter Devereux, being flain in the Battle of Bosworth, Anno 1485, 3 Ric. III, and the Courtenays being restored in Blood, repossessed this Manor, till their fecond Attainder, viz. of Edward Courteney, Marquis of Exeter, by King Hen. VIII, Anno 1539, by which it coming to the Crown, King Edward the VIth, by Letters Patent, dated August 2, 1547, in the first Year of his Reign, granted it, in Consideration of the Sum of 631. 6s. 8 d. to Thomas Denton, Esq. and Margaret his Wife, of which Family (as the Compiler of this History lies under the highest Obligations imaginable to the prefent most worthy Possessor of this Manor, Anno 1735, viz. the Honourable Mr. Justice Denton) he begs Leave to digress, and speak more particularly at large concerning their Descent; forasmuch as they were not originally of this County, but antiently feated at a Place called by their Name (as Sir Edmund Denton informed me) in Cumberland, where they flourished many Generations in great Splendour, serving that County in the highest Offices and Honours, viz. in being Sheriffs thereof, and representing it in Parliament.

For Anno 10 Edw. III, and again Anno 24 of the same Reign, Richard de Denton, as appears in Fuller's Worthies, was High Sheriff of it: and Anno 46, and Anno 49 ejusdem Regis, John de Denton executed that honourable Office, which in those Days was esteemed of the highest Trust and Importance. The same Richard was also chosen Knight of the Shire in divers Parliaments, viz. 6, 7, 9, 11, 18, 24, 29, and 42, of Edward III'; and John de Denton represented the said County of Cumberland in Parliament, 46 and 50 Edward III, and again Anno 5 of Richard II, as did also a former John Denton, near 100 Years before, viz. Anno 35 Edward I.

Among

MSS. Dodfworth, Dugdale's Baronage, &c. Cart. & Pat. 5 Edw. IV, dated March 3. Notitia Parliamentaria, Vol. II.

Among the Gentry of Cumberland returned by the King's Commissioners, Anno 12 Hen.VI, 1433, we find in Fuller's Worthies, no less than three of this Family so termed, viz. John and Adam de Denton, and William Denton, Mayor of Carlifle.

About the latter End of King Henry the VIIth, and the Beginning of Henry the VIIIth's Reign, I find James Denton, LL.D. one of that King's Privy Counsellors, so much in Favour, that he had Prebends given him in the Cathedrals of York, Lincoln, and Salisbury; and also a Canonry of Windsor, where he expended great Sums in building and adorning that College. He was also Dean of Lichfield, and Lord President of Wales, and sent Legate into Ireland, and dying at Ludlow 1532, was buried in that beautiful Church, to which he was also a great Benefactor, as he was to all Places to which he bore any Relation.

But to return to Thomas Denton, the first of this Family who, as aforesaid, feated himself here at Hillesden. He was eminently skilled in the Law, being a Bencher of the Middle Temple; and represented this County of Buckingbam. in Parliament the first Year of King Philip and Queen Mary, Anno 1554; he was also made Treasurer of the Temple: He died October 30, 1558, the Month before Queen Mary died, and was buried at Hillesden, on the North Side the Chancel at the upper End, under an handsome Tomb, having his own Effigies and his Wife's lying on it, who furviving him about three Years was buried by him. Alexander his only Son (as appears to me) fucceeded him in this Estate, who married two Wives, viz. first Anne, Daughter of Richard Willison of Sugwas, near the City of Hereford, Esquire, who dying in Child-bed, October 29, in the 18th Year of her Age , and the 23d of his, Anno 1566, was buried in Hereford Cathedral, under a very elegant white Marble raised Monument, with his and his Wise's Effigies lying upon it with their Hands lifted up, which hath been lately repaired and beautified at great Cost, by his present lineal Descendant, the Honourable Mr. Justice Denton.—His fecond Wife (he having no Issue surviving by the first) was Mary Daughter and Coheir of Sir Roger Martin, Lord Mayor of London, who dying Anno 1574, was buried in this Church, under an handsome Monument, as was also her Husband the said Alexander Denton, Anno 1576, and succeeded by Thomas Denton, their eldest Son and Heir, who represented the Town of Bucking bam in King James the Ist's three first Parliaments, (in the second of which, he brought in a Bill into the House of Commons, on June the 3, 1614, to fix the Summer Assizes at the Town of Buckingbam.) He also represented the County of Buckingham in his last Parliament, and again served for it, Anno prime, and for Buckingham Town, Anno 3 of King Charles the Ist. He was, Anno 1599, High Sheriff of this County, and made a Knight by the King at Salden, in July 1603, and having married Susan third Daughter of John Temple of Stow, Esquire, resided there from the Year 1594, to 1611, as I prefume, by the Baptisms of Seven of his Children in Stow Parish Register, above 20 Years after which he died at Hillesden, and was buried there Sept. 23, 1633, having had Issue, besides his eldest Son and

Heir

Heir Sir Alexander Denton, four other Sons, and five Daughters, of which Paul and Thomas died without Issue, as did also John, who was bred to the Law, as was his fifth Son William to the Study of Physick, in which Faculty he took his Degree Anno 1634, being then of Magdalen Hall in Oxford; and afterwards settling in London, practifed there with good Success, tho' he was much harrassed in the Time of the Rebellion, and forced to compound with the usurping Powers; but he had the good Fortune to outlive those Troubles and see better Times — I have met with several of his Letters wrote elegantly in Latin, to my Grandsather, the samous Dr. Thomas Willis, who had him in great Esteem, as had all the Faculty.—He departed this Life at his House in Covent Garden, Westminster, aged above 90, 1692, being born at Stow, Anno 1601, and was buried at Hillessen, leaving Issue an only Daughter, viz. Anne, Wife to George Nicholas, Efq.

Of Sir Thomas Denton's Daughters, Margaret the eldest was married to the brave Sir Edmund Verney, Knight Marshal, Standard Bearer to King Charles the First; Susan, to Colonel Jeremiah Abercrombe; Bridget, to Sir Edward Fust, Baronet; a second named also Margaret, was first Wife to John Poulteney, Esq. secondly, to Colonel William Eure, Brother to the Lord Eure, and thirdly to Captain William Sherrard; Elizabeth, to Thomas Isham, Esq. and Anne died unmarried. As to his eldeft Son Sir Alexander Denton, he likewise represented the Town of Bucking bam in King Charles the Ist's two first Parliaments, and also in his two last; and adhering to that King in his Troubles, was a very great Sufferer for his Loyalty, his House being plundered, and burnt by the Rebels and himself imprisoned, in which State he died Heart-broken, as we are told in Lloyd's Memoirs, p. 700, who also tells is, that his eldest Son George, (it should be John Denton) lost his Life in August 1644, in Battle at Abingdon in Berkshire; having received no less than 30 Wounds: Five Months after which, his Father, viz. Sir Alexander Denton, died and was buried at Hillesden, Jan. 5, 1644-5. He married Mary, Daughter of Edmund Hampden of Hertwell, Esq. on Sept. 3, 1617, by whom he had five Sons, and eight Daughters, John, Edmund, Alexander, Thomas and George, of which all but Edmund died without Issue: Of his Daughters, Elizabeth, was Wife to Francis Drake, Esq. Susan, to Robert Townsend, Doctor in Divinity; Margaret, to Sir William Smith, Baronet; Mary, to John Townsend, Alderman of Oxford, and Anne, to George Woodward, Esq. Dorotby, Sophia, and Arabella, died unmarried. Edmund his fecond Son, who succeeded him in the Estate, died and was buried at Hillesden, Nov. 13, 1657, leaving Issue by Elizabeth his Wife, Daughter of Richard Rogers of Estwood, in Gloucestershire, Esq. three Sons; viz. Alexander, Edmund, and Nicholas, which two last died without Issue, Edmund dying very aged, was buried, Feb. 25, 1728, at Hillesden, having survived his eldest Brother, Alexander Denton, 30 Years, who had Issue by his Wife, Hester, Daughter and Heir to Nicholas Herman of Middleton Stony, in the County of Oxford, (whom he married at Middleton, on Nov. 10, 1673,) three Sons, and two Daughters, viz. Edmund, Alexander, and John. The Daughters were Elizabeth, Wife to George Chamberlain of Wardington, in the County of Oxford, Esq. who hath Isfue George B b 2 Cham-

Chamberlain, Esq; one of the present Members of Parliament for the Town of Buckingham, and Cary, Wife to Godfrey Boat, a Judge in Ireland; she, viz. Hester, the Mother died 1691, and was buried at Middleton Stony; and he, viz. Alexander Denton, the Father, died Off. 17, 1698, and was buried at Hillesden, OEt. 25, having represented the Town of Buckingbam in Parliament from 1690 to 1698, the Time of his Death, and was succeeded by his eldest Son and Heir, Edmund Denton, Esq. advanced to the Style and Dignity of a Baronet, by Letters Patent, dated May 12, 1699. He also ferved in Parliament for the Town of Buckingbam, from the Year 1698, on his Father's Death, to the Year 1708, when he was elected one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Buckingham.—He married Mary Daughter of Anthony Rowe, Esq. Clerk of the Green Cloth; and dying Anno 1714, without Issue, was succeeded by his only surviving Brother Alexander Denton, Esq. Recorder of Buckingham (John his youngest Brother deceasing unmartied 1701) who hath served in Parliament for the said Town of Bucking bamfrom 1708, to 1722, when he vacated his Seat there, by being on June 25 that Year made one of the King's Justices of the Court of Common Pleas. He was also made Chancellor to the Prince of Wales, Anno 1729. On March 3, 1716, he married Catharine, Daughter and Heir of John Bond of Sundridge, in the County of Kent, Eq; who departing this Life to his unspeakable Grief, was buried at Hillesden, July 5, 1733. Having no Issue by her, he is faid to have adopted his Nephew George Chamberlain, Esq; (Member of Parliament for the Town of Buckingbam in the last Parliament, and also in the present convened Anno 1734) to be his Heir in Case of Failure of his own Issue.

This Parish is of large Extent, and contains about 2,100 Acres. It is bounded East by Steeple Claydon and Padbury, South by Twyford, North by Bucks and Presson, and West by Chetwode.

The Number of Families is 38, and of Souls 200. It was Anno 1712, affessed to the Land Tax 215l. 14s. 10d. The Appropriation or Rectory, Anno 1534, 25 Hen. VIII, was, as appears in a Rental of Notley Abbey, in the First Fruits Office, given in at 20l. 0s. 8d. though Anno 1291, 19 Edward I, as in the Taxation of Benefices then made, it was valued at only xi Marks. It is served by a stipendiary Curate, nominated by the Appropriators since the Dissolution of Nutley Abbey, viz. the Dean and Canons of Christ Church, Oxford, to which College King Henry VIII granted it by Letters Patent, Anno Regni 38, 1546, which said College, or their Lessee Tenants, the Denton Family, as above mentioned, appoint a Curate.

The Manor House of the Denton Family is situate East of the Church, adjoining to the Church-yard; it was in the great Rebellion of 1641 garrisoned for King Charles the First. In an History of those Times, I meet with the following Account concerning it, which I shall here give out of Vicar's Vicar's Parliamentary Chronicle, entitled, God's Ark over topping the World's Waves, printed in Quarto 1646, where, in Part iii. Page 131. sub Anno 1643, in the Month of December, we meet with this Account.

"Much about this Time came Information to London, that Sir Alexander "Denton's House, called by the Name of Hillersden House, was taken by " fome of the Parliament Forces, it being about 15 or 16 Miles from Ox-" ford, and 7 or 8 Miles from Aylesbury. It was taken by a Party that went " from Newport Pagnell, and fome about Banbury, they being in all not " above 100; yet there were in the House 140, many whereof were then taken " Prisoners, and about 100 Arms; but Sir Alexander himself escaped." Ibid. p. 133. " The taking of Hillersden House, which a Week before the Garrifon of Alesbury attempted, but could not take; after which Time, and " before we endeavoured it, the Enemy had sent in two or three Loads of 44 Ammunition, where were taken above 200 Prisoners, about 12 Barrels " of Powder, and proportionable Match, all their Arms, and about 50 " Horse, which Service was much to the Ease and Comfort of the poor "Inhabitants of the almost wasted County of Buckingbam, which was oppres-" fed by them; and by the Countenance of which House, great Sums of "Money and Contributions were raised both for themselves and Oxford, " and a Regiment of Foot, and a compleating Colonel Smith's Regiment of "Horse, was speedily intended, where also were taken Sir Alexander Den-" ton, and the said Colonel Smith, besides two Field Officers, and divers " Captains.

The Names of the Ministers or Curates of this Parish, that I have met with, are only these following: for as it was so early appropriated to the Abbey of Notley, there are no Institutions to it as a Rectory or Vicaridge in the Registers of Lincoln, but it was served by a Monk or Canon of Notley, sent hither to officiate by their Convent.

John Orchard, Canonicus Nutley, appeared as Curatus de Hillesden, at the Archdeacon of Buckingham's Visitation, Anno 1526, 17 Hen. VIII.

Thomas Bridges, is the next I find. He is stiled Curasus here, Anno 1555, as is.

Walter Moor, Anno 1561, and

Thomas Courte, Anno 1580, and 1598.

Thomas Evans, was admitted Curate here, Anno 1604; to whom Edmund Taylor succeeded 1612. He appointed to be buried here, in his Will, made Anno 1617. His Successor was

Robert Marsh, Anno 1617, to whom succeeded

John Aris, who held it from 1622 to 1627, when he resigned it on being made Vicar of Steeple Claydon.

William Okeley succeeded 1628, and died Curate 1645. He was taken Prisoner here, when the Manor House was surrendered, 1644, to the Rebels. After him I find

Christopher

Ckristopher Canner, styled Minister here 1660 and 1663; and after him, I meet with Samuel Dix, admitted Curate May 30, 1666. He was afterwards Vicar of Winflow, on his religning of this Curacy.

Richard Banks, A. M. succeeded May 3, 1670, he quitted it on being made Rector of Preston.

John Ford, A. M. succeeded, being admitted 18 April, Anno 1675. He died 6 June 1684, and was buried at Preston, and succeeded by

Hugh Priket, Anno 1684, to whom succeeded

Humphry Drake, A. M. 1685, and on his Resignation, he being made Rector of Agmondesham, Stephen Townsend, A. M. became licensed 23 June, Anno 1692, on whose

Death in July 1724,

Robert Pearse, A. M. accepted it Anno 1724, and is the present Minister Anno 1735, and Rector of Scotter, Co. Lincoln.

The Tythes of this Church were, both Rectorial and Vicarial, engrossed by the rapacious Monks of Nutley, who got it appropriated before the Year 1200, I John, and tho' Anno 1344, a Complaint was made to the Bishop, that this and their other Churches were destitute of Vicars, I don't find any thing done to remedy it. When this Appropriation was given to Christ Church, by Hen. VIII, that College only paid a small Stipend of about 41. to a Curate, as the Impropriators of Nutley had done. Anno 1680 the Church-wardens of this Parish certified at the Visitation, that there is no House or Glebe or Endowment, saving 40s. which Alexander Denton, Esq. who provides a Minister, pays to the Church Wardens." So their original Allowance was only 40s. per Annum, which the College augmented, as I understand, to 201. per Annum, which the Lessee Tenant, on being permitted to nominate the Minister, raises to 301. per Annum. and has moreover very generously given the Minister Entertainment at his House.

The Church here, which is dedicated to All Saints, the Sunday after which Festival there is a Wake or Feast kept in the Parish, is a very elegant Structure, and well deserves a Draught; 'tis in Length 80 Foot, and in Breadth 40 Foot, and has been all new built, except the Tower, not long before the Reformation.

It being ruinous, a Complaint was exhibited at the Visitation against the Abbat and Convent of Nutley, Anno 1493, 8 Hen. VII, "that Hillesden Chancel, and other Parts of the Church were very ruinous, and that the Church Yard lay open, and the whole was in great Dilapidation, and that "the Abbat of Nutley, ought to amend it."

Which had so good effect as occasioned it to be new built in the handsome Manner it now is. It consists of a Body, two Side Iles, Chancel and North Chancel; adjoining to which is a Vestry with a Room over it, ascended to by an angular pinnacled Stair Case, and at the West End is an embattled

Tower,

Ex Visitationibus Archid. Bucks, in Officio apud Aylesbury.

Tower, in which are fix small tuneable Bells, cast out of three, by Alexander Denton, Esq. about the Year 1686. The whole Fabrick is leaded throughout, the Windows are lofty and spacious, and were curiously adorned with painted Glass, which is so broken that little can be made out of the Designation, except in the East Window of the South Ile; where are some Representations of our Saviour's Miracles. The Inside and Outside is of excellent Ashler or Masonry Work of Free Stone, and the Roof carved and embellished, and the Cornice of the Chancel set round with Cherubs. The Outside is encompassed with Battlements intermixt with small Pinnacles, some of which on the North Side being risled and thrown down by the great Wind Anno 1702, and not being rebuilt, as they stood before, is some Desight to that Side of the Church.

In the Chancel are painted the Arms of the Dentons, viz. Argent two Bars Gules: In Chief three Cinquefoils; in Fess Point, a Mullet for distinction, impaling Mordant, Argent a Chevron between three Estoyls vavy Sable; being the Arms of the first Purchaser Thomas Denton, who lies interred within the Communion Rails under an handsome Monument, with his Estigies and his Wise's lying thereon in full Proportion in Alabaster; but the Inscription is defaced in Part, what remains is as follows:

Esquize deceased the

Thirtieth Day of October

. . . . Anno Dom. PCCCCL. . . [1558] on whole Souls God have Mercy.

Here were their Arms on the South Side, which yet remain at the West End or Head of the Tomb.

An

An handsome neat Pulpit and Desk, and fine Velvet Furniture and Communion Plate, were given to this Church, by the Hon. Mr. Justice Denson.

Before the Reformation here were Donations of Lamp and Obit Lands in this Parish, to the Amount of 20 s. per Annum. As to the Original of these Gifts, it was customary, as Sir Henry Spelman tells us, upon any Delivery from any notable Danger or Sickness to present a Saint with a Lamp to burn before it. The Obits were for Mass, on the Anniversary of the deceased Person, but who gave these Benefactions here I am to seek. Though the Denton Family have so long resided here, I meet with no Lands given to Charitable Uses in this Parish.

The Register begins Anno 1594, 36 Elizabeth. Out of it I collected these Extracts.

Marriages none of any Note.

LEKHAMPSTED,

ERIVES its Name (as I conceive) from the Situation, viz. from Lee, or Lace, Lacus, and Ham, Habitatio, and Stede, Locus, i. e. The Lakey or Watery Passage on the Banks of the River.

This was, before the Conquest, Part of the Demesnes of Leofwine, Brother to King Harold, as we learn in Dugdale's Baronage, Vol. i. p. 15.

In the Survey of Doomsday Book, it appears to be of the greatest Extent of any Parish in this Division: it then contained no less than three Manors, which are thus described:

Terra Episcopi Bajocensis, in Stodsield Hundred.

held this Manor, but he could not fell it.

On the Bishop of Baieux's Forseiture of his Lands, Anno 1088, it seems to me, that this first Manor was acquired by Goisfridus de Manneville, Possessor of the third Manor, who was made Earl of Essex, Anno 1139, and dying Anno 1144, was succeeded by Geffry his second Son, who dying without Issue, Anno 1167, (as did also his Brother William) this Estate came to their Aunt Beatrice, Wise to William de Say, under whom it was held by the Chastellon Family: for I find it returned in Henry IId's Time, that Hugh de Chasteleyn', stood seized of the Manor of Great Lekhampsted, and that he, viz. Chasteleyn, held it de Feedo Say, et ipse (viz. Say) tenuit de Rege.

This Family of the Says were also Heirs to the Maminots Lands, as may be seen in Dugdale's Baronage, Vol. i, p. 619. So that it seems, that the first and third Manor, being in Unity of Possession, and vested in the same Owners, came very early into the Chastillons Hands, as I make no doubt, but that the second Manor, possessed by Walter Giffard, Earl of Buckingham, after his Son's Decease, Anno 1164, (viz. Walter de Gifford the second Earl of Buckingham,) became acquired by the Chastillons, and so the whole Lordship was possessed by them in Richard the Ist's Reign; at which Time they became Benefactors to Lussield Priory of Messuages and Lands in Lekhampsted, as appears by a Charter of Hugh de Chastillon, in the Register of Lussield, Fol. 97 & 98.

And in the Fines Anno 1206, in the 7th Year of King John, Petronilla, Daughter of Ralph Pirot, Wife of Richard Chastillon, claimed here a Dowry from her Husband's Father, Hugh Chastillon.

They were also in this Reign Patrons of the Church here, and are in antient Deeds entitled, Domini de Lekhampsted, which they continued to be in the succeeding Reigns, viz. of Hen. III., Edw. II, Edw. III, and in King Richard the IId's Time, when they conveyed their Demesses to the Gernons. For I find William Gernon, in an antient Deed, Anno 1398, 21 of Richard II, stiled Dominus de Lekhampsted, and also Anno 1467, Temp.

Edw. IV, I meet with another William Gernon Lord here.

From an Heiress of the Gernons, this Manor, as I conceive, came by Marriage to the Tilneys, Citizens of London; for it appears that Reginald Tilney, Alderman of London, died May 3, Anno 1503, feized of a Moiety' of Lekhampsted Lordship. And by an Inquisition taken at Aylesbury, June 4, 12 Hen. VIII, 1521d, it is set forth, that John Tilney (his Son, no doubt) died May 15, Anno 1519, two Years before, seized of the Manor and Advowson of Great Lekhampsted, leaving Issue Joan his Daughter and Heir, then an Infant of one Year old, which Joan having married to her first Husband Richard Greenway of Dynton, near Aylesbury, he became, in her Right, Lord of Great Lekhampsted, and Patron of the Church, and dying Anno 1551, was buried at Dynton, leaving Issue by her a Son named Anthony; but on her becoming foon after her Husband's Death, Wife to Michael Harcourt, Esq, he, viz. Harcourt, in her Right, occupied the Manor, and residing here, was Anno 1585, 27 Eliz. elected one of the Members of Parliament for the County Town of Buckingham, and departing this Life, Anno 1597. was buried here, as was his Relict the said Joan, Heiress of the Tilney Family, three Years after him, viz. Anno 1600, being then 82 Years old, when this Estate descended to her Son and Heir by her first Husband, viz.

206- HISTORY OF LEKHAMPSTED.

Antibony Greeneway, Efg. afterwards Whighted, who Anno $565 married Winifrid, Daughter of the faid Michael Harcourt, (as I prefume) by a former Wife, and had Issue by her the said Winistrid, a Son, named Mathony, who succeeded on his Father Sir Anthony Greenway's Death, Anno-1619. This Anthony refided here Anno 1626, (as I find in some Deeds) and in that Year, in Conjunction with his Father-in-law's Son Michael Harcouri, preferred to this Church I and afterwards about the Year 1621, conveyed this Manor and Action for to Edmund Pre. School, Scrivener of London, and Edmund Pre. Junior, his Son, Which last was made a Baroner, Anno 1641, and died feized hereof, April 28, 17673, and was buried at Bradenbam, in this County, as was his Lady, who deceasing Anno 1701, in the 89th Year of her Age, was succeeded in this Manor by her Daughter, the Hon. Mrs. Catherine West, on whose Death it descended to the Hon. Martha Lady Wentworth; Neice to the faid Mrs. Well, Grand-daughter to Sir Edmund Pre, and she is, Anno 1735; the present Lady of this Manor of Great Lekbampsted; and Patroness of the Church.

When the second Manor, viz, Lekhampsted Parva, called also Lymes End, was dissevered from that of Great Lekhampsted, and how it hath passed, I come now to account; the first mention I meet with it under the Title of a Manor, is Tempore Hen. IV, when Anno 1413, a Fine was levied from Hugh Mortimer, and other Demandants, and Henry Frankleyn and Elizabeth his Wise, Deforciants, of the Manor of Lekhampsted Parva, to Jahn Mackworth, and Anno 7 Hen. VI, 1428, I find Lekhampsted Parva Manor conveyed by William Russel, and Margaret his Wise, to John Moreton, Clerk.

And Anno 8 Hen. VII, 1492 , a Fine was passed of Lekhampsted Parva Manor to William Field, and others Demandants, from Mary Middleton, Deforciant. And lastly Anno 1556, 3 and 4 of Philip and Mary, a Fine passed of, it between George Tyrrill, Demandant, Lord of the adjacent Parish of Thornton , and Thomas Pigot Deforciant; which George Lyrrell departing this Life May 10, 1570, it was found by Inquisition taken soon after, that (inter alia) he died seized of Lymes End, alias Little Lekhampsted Manor', 46 seven Messuages, one Dove House, forty Acres of Arable, 100 Acres of Meadow, and 100 Acres of Pasture, and Right of Fishery in Lymes End 46 alias Little Lekhampsted aforesaid, which he held of the King by the Service of a Bezant. He is also returned to have been seized of five Messu-45 ages, two Cottages, three Gardens and Orchards, 200 Acres of Land, 46 So of Meadow, 100 of Pasture, and Right of Fishery in Great Lekhamp-6 fed, and 55 Acres of Land in Nutborp in Lekhampsted, and 200 Acres of Wood in Westbury." To this George Tyrrell succeeded Edward his Son, afterwards Knighted, (Father to Sir Edward Tyrrell, made a Baronet, Anno 1627,) who built a lofty House of good Free Stone at this Manor here. Anno 1603, as appears by the Date, which was called by the Name of the Toy, at about 30001. Expence, which is still remaining, though gone to Decay, and converted into a Earth House, and belongs now with this Manor, Anno 2735, to Sir Charlet Tyrrell, this lineal Descendant, the seventh Baronet of this Family, as will be more properly mentioned in Thornton!

I find in old Evidences, Tempore Edw. III, Anno 1370, one Stephen Pollard seized of Lands here.

This Family is now possessed to the principal Estate in this Parish, having purchased good Part for the Tyright Estate, here; and the prefent worthy Owner thereof is John I Polland, Esq. a Native of Dorselbire, who hath served the Hon. Office of High Sheriff of this County of Buckingbam.

I find also that the Damorys, Lords of Thornborough, had Lands in Lekhampsted; and that a Part of this Parish, called Hayharne Fields Manor, belonged Tempera Rica II, Han, NI, and Edw. IV, to the Greenes, and that Thomas Greene died scized thereof, Anne 1453; these Damesnes Temp. Regina Maria belonged to the Family of Wentworth, Lords of Lillingston Lovell, Co. Oxon; and are, Anno 1735, the Property of John Wentworth Creswell, Esq. as Heir to his Great Uncle Sir Peter Wentworth, Knt. of the Bath, who deceasing Dec. 1, 1675, was succeeded in this Estate by his Brother Paul Wentworth, Esq. on whose Decease, Feb. 16, 1682, it earnes to John Creswell, Esq. the Father of the said John Wentworth Creswell, Esq. who died Anno 1696, and was buriediat Newbottle in the County of Northamptan.

I meet with very few Lands in this Parish given to religious Houses, except of half a Yard Land, and one Acre and an half, and one Messuage, by Hugh de Castileyn to Lussield Priory, as aforementioned, for which 5 s. was paid to that Convent, as appears by their Rental in Edw. 1Vth's Time: though here were also some Lamp Lands; and in the Monasticon, Vol. i. p. 521. mention is made of an Hermitage in Bosco de Flechampsed.

The Manor House, which was a large Building, stood West of the Church, and adjoined to the Church-yard, and was the Seat of the Chastillons Gernons, Tilneys, Harcourts, Greenways, and Pyes, which last Family took their Denomination of Baronets from hence. But it has been good Part of it pulled down by the present Lady thereof, viz. the Lady Wentworth, and made a Tenant's House; it was moated about antiently.

This Parish is of large Extent, being computed three Miles in Length, and a Mile and half in Breadth. It is divided into three Divisions, viz. Church End, Nast or North End, and Lymes End, in which are about 68 Houses. The Number of Acres is about 2800, it is bounded North East by Wicken, in Northamptonshire, and Thornton in Buckinghamshire; West by Lillingston Lovel in Oxfordshire, and Akeley and Lillingston Dayrell; South by Maidsmorton, Foxcote, and Thornborough. Here are (as I learn) nothing given in Charities to Church or Poor, in this great Parish.

208 HISTORY OF LEK/HAMPSTED.

It was, Anno 1712, affessed to the Land Tax 2621. 10s. It consists mostly of Pasture Ground, and was inclosed March 1, 1624, by a Decree in Chancery, then made between the following Persons:

First Part, Sir Edward Tyrrill, Knt. Lord of Lymes End, and Nast End, and Dame Elizabeth his Wife, Sir Timothy Tyrrill, and Thomas Tyrrill, Esq.

his Brothers.

Second Part, Anthony Greenway, Esq. Lord of the Manor of Lekhampsted, and Dame Ampbillis his Wife, the Reverend John Spicer, A. M. Rector, John Philips. Esq. and Jane his Wife, Lord of the Manor of Forscot, (which Parish was enclosed at the same Time) and Mr. James Stilson, Rector of Forscot.

Third Part, John Pollard of Wickhammon, in the County of Northampton, Yeoman, and Katherine his Wife.

Fourth Part, John Abbat of Lekhamfted, Yeoman, and Ann his Wife.

Fifth Part, John Chewe of Lekhampsted, Yeoman, and Ann his Wife.

Sixth Part, Thomas Budd of Lekhampsted, Yeoman, and Alice his Wife.

Seventh Part, William Palmer of Thornton, Yeoman.

Eighth Part, Robert Bayly of Lekhampsted, Yeoman.

The Rectory was, Anno 1291, estimated at 24 Marks, and Anno 1534, rated for first Fruits at 151. 135. 4d. according to which it now pays; its reckoned the best endowed Benefice of any in the Deanry of Bucking bam, being reputed to be worth 2401. per Annum.

The Advowson hath ever been appendant to the Manor of Great Lekbamp-fied, and so still continues. It was presented to by the Chastillons, from 1219 to 1375, and by the Gernons from 1398 to 1472, and by the Tilneys from 1505, and so came to the Harcourts and Greenways, on Marriage of the Heiress of Tilney, till the Sale thereof, about 1630, to the Pyes,

I cannot find, notwithstanding the Largeness of the Parish, that here was ever any Chapel of Eafe.

The Church, which is dedicated to the Honour of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, consists of a Body, and North Ile, which are leaded, and Chancel, which is tyled; at the West End is a broad embattled Tower, in which hang three pretty large Bells, the two biggest were cast 1662 and 1664.

Here was anciently a Clock, as I am informed, but it was fold to the neighbouring Parish of Wicken in Northamptonshire.

The Church is in poor Repair, especially the North Ile.

Here are no Arms or painted Glass in the Church, or any thing memorable, except an antient Stone Effigy under the Pulpit, of one of the Family of the Chastillons buried here, I suppose, before the Year 1300. The Font is also antient, and has some Effigies on it, as our Saviour on the Cross, and the two Maries, and St. Catherine.

HISTORY OF LEKHAMPSTED. 20

In the Chancel is fixt to the North Wall a very extraordinary Stone, and this miferably inscribed on it:

" Heare lieth Sir Anthoni Grenowaye, Knight. Jana. 26, 1619."

And within the Communion Rails is a Gravestone with this Inscription, on a Brass Plate:

Die jacet Reginaldus Tylney, Filius Radulphi Tylney, Gentylman, Civis et Albermanus Londini, unus Peres iftius Panerii, qui obiit textio Die Maii, A.B. PCCCCIIII.

Underneath the Portraitures of three Children, Elizabeth, John, Johan, and at the Corners two defaced Coats of Arms, with these Names on them, Tylney and Gernon inscribed; Tylney's Arms were, Argent, a Chevron between three Griffins Heads erazed Gules: But they are worn out pretty much.

Near the Communion Table, this on a Grave-stone;

" Here lies interred the Remains of the Rev. Mr. Edward Carlton, "Master of Arts, Rector of this Church, who died beloved and lamen"ted, August 10, 1718, Etatis 51.

LILLINGSTON DAYRELL.

A CCORDING to Dugdale's Derivation of Lillingston in Warwicksbire, it comes from Lytton, small or little, and Stone, Saxum; or as in Philpot's Villare Cantianum, or Kent surveyed, printed Anno 1659, in Folio, p. 398, from the purling Stream running by it. In Doomsday Book it is thus described:

Terra Walteri Giffard, in Stofield Hundred.

Hugo tenet de Walterio Lelinchestone. Pro v Hidis se desendebat. Terra est v Carucatarum. În Dominio est una et dimidium potest sieri. Ibi vi Villani, cum v Bordariis, babentibus ii Carucatas, et tertia potest sieri. Pratum v Carucatarum. Silva mille et cc Porcorum. Valet lx Solidos, qua do recepit xl Solidos.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Syric, Homo Eddeve Regina, et vendere potuit.

Hugh holds of Walter Giffard Lelinehestone. It was rated at five Hides. The Arable is five Carucates; in Demesne, there is one, and another half may be made. There are five Borderers, holding two Carucates, and a third may be made. There is Mast for a Thousand and two hundred Hogs. It is worth fixty Shillings, when he received forty Shillings.

Syric, Servantto Eddeve, the Queen, held this Manor, and could fell it.

This Walter Giffard, Earl of Buckingham, having, as beforementioned, founded a Priory at Newnton Longueville, his Son and Successor Walter Giffard gave to it the Tenths of his Demesnes in this Manor, as he did of his other Lordships, about the Year 1153, 18 Stephen², and dying Anna 1164, Monasticon, Vol. iii. p. 111.

10 Hen.

no Hen. II, his Feodary Tenant Walter Bolebee Son to Hugh Bolebee, (who possessed this Lordship under him on the compiling Doomsday Book) was returned to hold 20 Knight Fees of him in this County, Anno 1165, 11 Hen. II, and so having the Possession of this Manor, it came in Marriage, with the said Walter Bolebee's Daughter Isabell to Robert Vere, the third Earl of Oxford, of that Name, and so descended to the Earls of Oxford; under whom it was possessed by the antient Family of the Dayrells, written Darell, Deirel, de'Hayrell, Dayrell, &c. who are, in the Roll of Battle Abbey, entered among those who came in with the Conqueror.

Which Family resided here before the Year 1200, 2 John, for in an Account I have seen of the Family, Richard, Son of Elias Dayrell, was seized of a Messuage and half a Knight's Fee here, in King Richard Ist's Time, or the Beginning of King John's Reign: and in an old Evidence of Tenures called Testa de Nevill, I find that Anno 1234, 19 Hen. III, Henry Dayrell is returned to pay a Mark Scutage for one Knight's Fee in Lillingsone, which he held of the Honour of Giffard.

However in this King's Reign, as we find in the Register of Lustield Priory, here were other Proprietors also d, under whom the Dayrells held; for in the said Register it is said, that William Son of Reginald de Moreton gave to the Monks of Lustield one Mark, which he enjoined the yearly Payment of to them, from Hen. Dayrell, and his Heirs. And we also meet with there, another Payment of 12 d. annually, from Richard Dayrell and his Heirs, which Ric. Dayrell, Anno 1253, 38 Hen. III, as the same Account mentions, gave his Wood at Lillingston to Lustield, with his Body to be buried in that conventual Church': and moreover Robert Dayrell, and Ralf his Son, gave to Lustield, Locum in Nemore suo de Lillingston, in which was built a Chapel to the Honour of St. Thomas the Martyr, Archbishop of Canterbury.

And also Hugh de St. Martin gave to Luffield, the Chapel of St. John the Baptist, in his Court of Lillingston.

In the said Register Henry Dayrell is mentioned to hold the Tenement and Lands in Lillingston 8, which William Son of Reginald de Moreton gave to the Monks of Lussield, containing 59 Selions or Ridges, and in the Field next Shuttlemill eleven more Selions of Land.

But notwithstanding these Tenures of the Dayrells, I find one John de Foxley disputed with them for their Landshere, I presume on a Mortgage to Foxley, for Anno 1300, 29 Edw. Ih, John de Foxley and Constance his Wise, and six others, impleaded Henry Dayrell, for the Manor of Lillingston, and Henry Dayrell was cast, for so says the Roll, that Henricus Dayrell in Misericordia est.

In the Fines in the County of Buckingham, I find Anno 1296, 25 Edw. I, that John de Foxley and Constance his Wise, were Demandants of this Manor and Advowson, of which Henry Dayrell was Deforciant. But ten Years after it appears that Henry Dayrell, having agreed with Foxley, and his Wise, recovered it; for Anno 1306, 2 Edw. II, a Fine was suffered between John de Foxley, and Constance his Wife of the Manor and Advowson of Lillingston, wherein they, viz. Foxley's, were Deforciants, and John Dayrell and Joan his Wife, Demandants.

After which we hear no more of Foxley, or any other Claimants; and so this Manor seems from this Time, for these 400 Years, to have acquired its other Name from this Family, by which it is at present distinguished. So I come now to speak in particular of this Family, and its Descendants, by Matches from Hen, IIId's Time: And the first I shall begin with, is the abovenamed Henry Dayrell, who by Joan, Daughter and Coheir of John Sandford, left Issue Sir Ralph Dayrell, who dying about the Year 1282, 12 Edw. I, was succeeded by Henry his Son and Heir, who had the Dispute with Foxley as aforesaid, to whom succeeded the aforesaid John Dayrell, Father to Sir Roger Dayrell, by Joan his Wife, which Sir Roger Dayrell was one of the Representatives in Parliament, or Knights of this County, Anno 1288, 12 Richard II, and also in the 14th and 17th Year of that King, and Anno 1399, 1 Hen. IV; and by Joan his Wife, Daughter and Heir of Thomas Agmundesham, left Issue four Sons, viz. John, Thomas, Nicholas, and Roger, of which John the eldest (who died about 1415, 4 Hen. V, not long after his Father) by Eleanor his Wife, Daughter and Coheir of Thomas Langport, of Langport, in Stow Parish, (who survived him many Years, she being living Anno 1472, 13 Edw. IV,) had Issue Paul Dayrell, his eldest Son and Heir, who by his last Will and Testament, proved Anno 1491, 7 Hen. VII, appointed to be buried in the Chancel of Lillingston, and gave ten Marks to poor People at his Burial to pray for his Soul, and made his Son Thomas his Executor i.

This Paul Dayrell married Margaret, Sister to John Priset, Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, Temp. Hen. VI, by whom he had Issue the said Thomas his Son and Successor, who served the Honourable Office of High-Sheriff of this County, and that of Bedford, Anno 11 and 20 Hen. VII, 1495, and 1504; and by his Will, dated 4 Sept. Anno 1523, 15 Hen. VIII, directed his Body to be buried in St. Nicholas Church, before the High Altar in Lilling ston, and in it makes mention of the Limitation of his Estate in Jointure to Dorothy his Wise, and Margaret his Son Paul's Wise; and orders his Feosses to receive the Rents of his Manor of Lillingston, for the Benefit of his and his Son Paul's Children.

Which Thomas Dayrell, by Dorothy his Wife, Daughter of Henry Danvers, of Culworth, in the County of Northampton, had Issue three Sons, viz. Paul, Henry, and Richard, of which the eldest, Paul, succeeded in this Manor, and dying Anno 1556, 4 and 5 Phil. and Mary, lest Issue by Margaret his Wife, Daughter of John Cheyne (of the very antient Family of the Cheyne's, of Chesham-Bois) two Sons and two Daughters, of which Paul, the eldest, succeeded him, and Francis, the second, being seated at Langport, in Stow Parish, became Ancestor to the present Family now living there.

This Francis died and was buried at Stow, 22 Oct. 1604, and succeeded by Edmund his Son, who died and was buried at Stow aforesaid, 1 June 1633, and succeeded by Abel his Son, Father to Edmund, whose Son Edmund, mund Dayrell is now the Possessor of the Estate at Langport, in Stow Parish aforesaid, Anno 1735.

The Daughters of the aforesaid Paul Dayrell, were Dorothy, first Wife to Walter Young, Merchant in London, afterwards to John Quarles, and lastly to ----- Haddon; and Anne married to John Leighton, of Watlesbury, in Sbropshire.

But I return now to speak of the elder Brother Paul Dayrell. He served the Office of High Sheriff of this County, Anno 1579, 22 Eliz. and by Frances his Wife, Daughter of William Sanders, of Wellford, in the County of Northampton, had Issue Sir Thomas Dayrell, his eldelt Son, (who sate in the Parliaments, Anno 28 Eliz. and 1 Jacobi, and Francis, his fecond Son, Progenitor to the Family of Caftle Campes, in the County of Cambridge, Father to Sir Thomas Dayrell, of Castle Campes aforesaid, and also Possessor of a considerable Estate in this Parish, whose Son and Heir Sir Marmaduke Dayrell, dying 1726, was succeeded in his Estate here by Francis Dayrell, the prefent Possessor, Anno 1735.

Having thus gone through the Descendants in the younger, I return to the elder Branch, viz. Sir Thomas Dayrell: He married Mary, Daughter and Coheir of Robert Horne, Bishop of Winchester, and dying Anno 1617, left Iffue three Sons and three Daughters, viz. Thomas his eldest Son, who died unmarried Anno 1628, being at the Time of his Death, High-Sheriff of this County; Peter, his fecond Son, Henry, his third Son, and Mary, Wife of Sir Henry St. George, Garter Principal King of Arms; and Rebecca, Wife to Henry Owen, a Pursuivant. Which Peter Dayrell married Elizabeth, Daughter of Anthony Pratt, and dying, Anno 1677, aged 53, was buried here with his Ancestors, leaving Issue five Sons and three Daughters; viz. Thomas, his eldeft Son, who dying unmarried, was succeeded by Peter, the second Son; but he dying without Isue, Anno 1670, this Estate came to Anthony the third Son, Rector of this Parish, whose Issue male failing, it came on Thomas his only Son's Death, Anno 1685, to his Brother Paul Dayrell, the 4th Son; but he dying 1690, without Issue, was succeeded by his youngest Brother Richard Dayrell, Citizen of London, who by Frances his Wife, Daughrer of George Tucker, of Crawford, in Kent, left Issue three Sons and one Daughter, viz. Peter, the eldest, who succeeded his Father Anno 1704, but dying unmarried June 17,1725, was succeeded by Thomas his next Brother and Heir, Rector of this Parish, who died seized hereof, 22 Feb. 1729. and by Mary his Wife, Daughter of the Rev. Mr. Stephen Townsend, Rector of Preston, left Issue one only Child, viz. Mr. Richard Dayrell, a Minor, who is now, Anno 1735, the present Lord of this Manor. The third Son of Mr. Richard Dayrell is Paul, living Anno 1735, unmarried, and the Daughter is Frances, Wife to William Dayrell, Citizen of London, a younger Son of the antient Family of Dayrell, of Cornwall, who is also still surviving, Anne

By an Inquisition, taken Sept. 22, Anno 1559, I Eliz. it is set forth, that Paul Dayrell died 25 May, Anno 1556, 3 and 4 Pbil. and Mary, seized of Lillingston Dayrell Manor, one Messuage, five Cottages, and one Thousand Acres of Land, which he held of Vere, Earl of Oxford, one Messuage and and Eighty Acres of Land in Twyford, which he held of Richard Wannan, Esquire.

One Messuage, twenty Acres, and a Dovehouse, which he held in Lekhampsted, of Michael Harcourt, Esq. and one Messuage, and eighty five Acres in Forcote; but of whom the last were held, they were ignorant.

This Manor, as I am informed, pays no Acknowledgment to any Lord, and the Advowson of the Rectory has been appendent to it, and in the Pastronage of the Dayrells, for 500 Years, who have resided here 18 Generations.

This Parish contains about 1500 Acres, 'ris bounded South by Akeley, West by Syresham, and Silveston, in Northamptonshire; North by Lillingston Magna alias Lovel, in Oxfordshire; and East by Lekhampsted. The Number of Families are 20, and of Souls about 105. It was assessed to the Land Tax 1601. 145. 1 d. Anno 1712.

The Rectory was valued at 100s. Anno 1291, 20 Edw. 1, deducting two Marks and an half, paid out of it to the Priory of Newston-Longueville. It is charged for First-fruits, Anno 1534, 26 Hen. VIII, at 71. 9s. 7d. and was returned to be worth 80l. per Annum.

Mrs. Frances Wilkes, Daughter of Peter Dayrell, Esq. Sister to the late Mr. Richard Dayrell, dying Anno 1674, left the Interest of 201. to which her Husband Mr. Matthew Wilkes of Leighton-Bozard added 201. more to it, to cloath annually two poor Women of this Parish.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dayrell, Wife to Peter Dayrell, the second, elder Brother to the late Mr. Richard Dayrell, gave 50 k the Interest to go at the End of every five Years, to put out Apprentice a poor Man's Child, born in Wedlock, in this Parish.

Having done with the Charitles given to the Parish, I come now to exhibit the Terrier of the Rectory, which was given in Anno 1639, Samuel Wastall being then Rector, at which Time the Church-wardens certified, "That they know of no Glebe Lands, only the Parsonage House itself, and round about it a Garden and Yard of 36 Poles, or thereabouts, in "Compass."

N. B. This being too crampt a Place for the Minister, it was changed for a very good House in the Town, in the late Rector Mr. Thomas Dayrell's Time, and the old Rectory House was given up to the Family; this is still standing in the middle of the Close, by the Capital House of the Dayrells, which is a large Roomy House, and has been handsomely sitted up, within these sew Years; But besides this Manor House; Sir Marmaduke Dayrell, who died Anno 1729, has also for the most Part rebuilt for his Family, a good Seat of Brick, which stands half a Mile or better from the Church, and the Manor House; as has Mr. Thomas Atterbury, Alderman of Buckingham, also built a neat House in this Parish, where he has purchased Lands of rool, per Annum.

Annum. But this Estate having been purchased by the present Francis Dayrell of Cambridgeshire, Esq. it is made a Farm or Dairy House.

The Church, which is dedicated to St. Nicholas, confifts of a Body, South Ile and Chancel, which are tiled; at the West End is a Tower coped and covered with Lead, slat at Top, in which hang three modern Bells.

.' Here was, as appears by the walling up of the Arches between the Pillars, a North Ile agreeable to the South Ile, which was taken down to repair the Church, at which Time the Lead was taken off the South Ile, and the upper. Windows stopt up, and the Roof raised over them, and tiled, to the great Deformity of the Church, which was regular before.

Here are no painted Glass or Inscriptions in the Church: but in the Chancel áre several, which I come now to describe.

In the Middle of the Area of the Chancel is a raised Tomb, thereon the Effigies of a Man and Woman in full Proportion. The whole composed of Free-stone on the Sides these Arms:

1. A Lion rampant crowned, impaling three Birds Heads, on a Bend; in Chief a Mullet. 2. A Lion rampant, also impaling Party per Chevron, three Elephants Heads. 3d and 4th the same quartered together.

On the South Side, the Effigies of feveral Children, and this Inscription:

Hic Dorothea jacet, numerosa prole beata, Conjugibus Conjux associata tribus.
Otia vitavit, Luxum, Vitamque remissam, Pauperibus magnas undique sparsit opes: Officiosa Deo vixit, Mundoque probata, Juncta Deo Mens est unde provecta suit. Filius Haddonis Matri Funebria scripsi, Carmina quæ studiis, adfuit una meis.

On the opposite North Side, these Verses in English:

Here Dorothy doth lie, with many Children blest,
Who sure to Husbands three, a faithful Wise did rest.
That Idleness and careless Life did shun, and lov'd no Waste,
Whose liberal Purse the Poor yet every where did taste.
God's Servant here she liv'd, of whom the World said well,
Her Soul and whence it came, with God is gone to dwell.
This Epitaph I Haddon wrote upon my Mother's Grave, Whose only Help did give by Learning all I have.

July 22, Anno 1571.

N. B. She was Daughter of Paul Dayrell, the second of that Name, who died Anno 1556, 3 and 4 Phil. and Mary, and married three Husbands as aforesaid, viz. Walter Yonge, John Quarles, and ——— Haddon, by whom she had the samous Doctor Walter Haddon, of whom, see an Account in A. Wood's Athene, Tanner's Bibliotheca de Scriptoribus, &c. he, viz. Walter Haddon was Fellow of King's College, Cambridge, a great Reformer in Queen Elizabeth's Time, and Author of several poetical Epitaphs, as may be seen in Stow's Survey of London. He died Anno 1571-2, half an Year after his Mother, and was buried in Christ Church, London.

On the North Side the Chancel Wall is a Stone under an Arch, but no Inscription on it.

On the South Side, is a plain raised Altar Tomb, on the Top the Effigies of a Man and Woman in Brass, with this Inscription in antient Characters:

Die jacet Paulus Dayrell, Armiger, et Margareta Aror eins, qui quidemt Paulus obiit Aiceamo pono Die Maii 1491. Cujus Anime propitietur Deus, Amen.

Over it a small Compartment affixt to the Wall, with these Arms,

Three Bars charged with fix Cinquefoils, viz. three, two, and one, underneath the Arms, this Inscription:

- "Here lyeth the Body of Paul Dayrell, of this Parish of Lillingston "Dayrell, in the County of Bucks, Esq. who was the 26th Heir of the Family. He departed this Life the 21st Day of May 1690.",

- "His forrowful Relict, Mary Dayrell, in Remembrance of him, her dear Husband, hath caused this Monument to be erected at her own Charge."

Over the aforementioned Arch, in the North Wall, is on another Marble Compartment, this Inscription:

Mrs. Elizabeth Dayrell, the last Wise of Peter Dayrell, of Lillingston Dayrell, Esq. and Daughter of John Wigsted, of Cambridge, Esq. did give 501. in Money, 1679, the Interest thereof, for putting out a poor Man's Child, at the End of every five Years, born in Wedlock in this Parish, to be put out by the Church-warden and Overseers.

On a Grave-stone the Essigles of a Man in Brass, with this Inscription, on a small Brass Plate;

Hebe jacet Dominus Richardus Blakestee, quondam Rector iffins Occlesse, qui obiit serto Die Aprilis PCCCLXXXXI. Cujus Anime propinctur Deus. Amen.

Mr. Thomas Dayrell, Rector of this Parish, Feb. 24, 1729.

LUFFIELD,

N the Extremity of this Parish, (partly in this County, but mostly in Northamptonshire,) Robert Bossue, Earl of Leicester, about the Year 1124, 24 Hen. I, founded a Priory of Benedictine Monks, at a Place called Lussield, (i. e. Ager amabilis, or Lovelysield, from its Situation) and dedicated it to the Honour of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Which having been treated of in my second Volume of Abbies, and also in Stevens's additional Supplement to the Monasticon, Vol. I. p. 498, &c.

And forafmuch as the Church of this Convent was in Silveston Parish in Northamptonshire, and so the Mandate for Induction of the Priors, being always directed to the Archdeacon of Northampton, in which Jurisdiction, the Registers of the Bishop of Lincoln placing it, excludes it this County of Buckingham; yet, as it has some Relation thereto, I shall at the End of the Account of this Parish, observe, that notwithstanding it was endowed with Lands in almost all the neighbouring Parishes, yet the Income or Revenues of it were fo funk, that there was by Letters Patent, even in Edward the IIId's Time, about the Year 1330, a License to endow it farther, for its better Support, and enable it to receive an additional Income of 10 l. per Annum, to pray for the King's good Estate while living, and for his Soul, when dead, and for the Soul of Sir John Grey, (who, I presume was the Donor of this Augmentation;) and also Anno 1457, 35 Hen. VI, it was fallen to such a low Estate, that there was an Attempt made to unite it to Magdalen College in Oxford 2; but this not being put in Execution, there was, Anno 1494, 9 Hen. VII, a Bull obtained from Pope Alexander the IVth, (which see printed in Collier's Ecclesiastical History, Rymer's Foedera, and Stevens's Monasticon) to annex it to Windsor College, on Account of its Poverty, it not being able to maintain a Prior and two Monks; but the King changing his Mind, gave it, Anno 1500, to Westminster Abbey, and so it was confirmed to that Convent by Pope Julius II, Anno 1504, and became Part of the Possessions thereof, till the general Dissolution of Monasteries; after which it was, Anno 1551, granted by Edward VI, to Sir Nicholas Throgmerton, whose Son and Successor Sir Arthur Throgmerton, dying Anno 1626, and leaving only Daughters, it came in Marriage by Anne his second Daughter, to Sir Peter Temple, and so descending to the Family of the Temples, continues now the Property of the Right Hon. Sir Richard Temple, Baronet, Lord Viscount Cobbam, Anno 1735.

The Estates this religious House was possessed of being recited in the Demise of it, Anno 1513, 4 Henry VIII, to William Tylaur, or Tyler, for 22 Years, I shall here specify its, Endowments, particularly those in this County of Buckingbam. There were belides 126 Acres of Pasture, and 70 and an half Acres of Wood in Luffield, (partly in this, but more so, as already hinted, in Northamptonshire,) a Tost and 15s. Rent in Lullingston, or Lillingfron Dayrell; and in Bechampton, a Messuage, Tost, and half a Yard of Arable Land, an Acre and half of Pasture, and ros. Rent, and a Mediety of the Advowson of the Church there; In Thornborough, nine Messuages, half a Yard Land of Arable, twelve Acres of Pasture, three Roods of Meadow 1 /. 1 s. 1 d. Rent, and the Advowfon of the Church of Thornburgh; two Shillings Rent in Bucks; fixteen Pence Rent in Chalkmore; fix Acres and 6s. 8 d. Rent in Langport; the Advowson of St. Nicholas Chapel, in Eversaw; a Cottage ten Acres and a half, and a Rood of Paflure in Eversaw: One Messuage and a Tost, six Yard Land, three Acres of Pasture, and 6s. 10d. Rent in Shalfton; a Cottage, eight Acres of Land an Acre of Pasture, and 6 d. Rent in Westbury; 12 d. Rent in Stony Stratford; the Advowson of the Church of Water Stratford, which Premisses were all in this County, and granted together with all Advowsons and Appurtenances, &c. which Thomas Rowland last Prior was seized of in Right of his House, and all other Appurtenances thereto belonging, particularly all that appertained thereunto in Dedford, in the County of Northampton, with the Advowson of that Church, and Rents of 21. 8s. 4d. and in Silveston Rents of 61, 105, 11d. and whatever else this Convent was possessed of there, and in all other Places.

The Premisses thus demised as appears by a Rental about ten Years before the Dissolution, and Union of it to Westminster, did not exceed 22 l. per Annum, which being, as before observed, so small an Income, makes it apparent, that this Convent could not have subsisted itself, had there been no general Dissolution of Monasteries; and indeed it was the Case of so many other religious Houses, that without Henry VIIIth's Suppression of them, near two Parts in three must have been sunk, as they could not have continued to maintain their Founder's Institutions, or even have scarcely supported their Fabricks. For having been tied up to their dissinal antient Payments and Compositions made between their Tenants and them, and fixing their Rents according to the Value Money then bore, which began to yield little in respect of what the Value of Things encreased to, in Process of Time, their Rents were become so inconsiderable, as to be of little Benesit to them; though this House had these several Benesactions bestowed on it, viz. the Church of Dodford, in the County of Northampton, which was given by Ralph de Caignes or Keynes, with considerable Lands there, the Church of Thornborough, by Hamon, Son of Mainfelin, a Mediety or alternate Presentation to the Church of Bechampton, by Ralph Fitz Nigell; the Church of Water Stratford, by William Son of William de Stratford; the Chapel of St. John Baptist, in Lillingston, by Hugh de St. Martin; the Chapel of St. Nicholas in Eversaw, by Robert, Archdeacon of Buckingham; the Char el of Salden, with two Parts of the Tenths of his Demesnes there, by Robert Fitz Nigell, with many other Donations, which being exhibited in the Monasticon, Vol. i. p. 520. I shall thither refer, and also for a List of the Priors, &c. to the aforementioned fecond Volume of Abbies, p. 24, 25, 26, 27, 28. and in Stevens's Supplement to the Monasticon aforecited, to which List I can only add the Date of the Election of William Horwood, the 16th Prior, which was 7 Cal. Julii, Anno 1349, 23 Edw. III, on the Death of his Predecessor William de Skelton, and that Prior William Rogers, was succeeded, July 29, Anno 1487, or Anno 1488, 3 Hen. VII, by Thomas Rowland, the last Prior, who surrendered it A. D. 1494.

When I visited this Place, I was informed it was extraparochial, and belonged to Westminster Abbey, and that on the Division of the Bounds of the Counties, the greatest Part was included in Silveston Parish, Co. Northampton, and the rest in Lillingston Dayrell. Here was then nothing remaining whatsoever of the Priory Edifices, except a Piece of the Wall of the Tower. I measured from this Tower ruins, the supposed Dimensions of the Church, which appeared to be about 80 Foot in Length, and 30 in Breadth; they informed me, that by Tradition there were five Bells in the Tower, and that they were carried to Paulers Perry, on the first Bell of which Church I met with this Inscription, Sanda Paria, Dra pro nobis; and so it might possibly have been brought from hence.

At some Distance in the Northamptonshire Side, is a Tenant's House, and on the Buckinghamshire Side, an old Chapel turned into a Dwelling House, which was the Chapel of St. Thomas Becket, given by the Dayrell Family aforespoken of in Lillingston. It is affested to the Land Tax, and all other Parish Rates, with the Lords of Stow's Demesses, as they are Proprietors of this Estate; whose Tenants, in digging about this old Tower, in the Year 1732, they there found (which was shewn me OA. 11, 1733,) an old Grave-stone, like the Lid of a Stone Cossin, in the middle of which was a Cross of Brass Flory infixed, and these Arms engraven, viz. Two Bars, in Chief, three Martlets. Here were Letters round the Verge, enchased in Brass, which being pick'd out, and lying dispersedly, nothing could be made out or conjectured from those loose Letters, who it belonged to; but I suppose it was laid over one of the Priors, probably Prior William Horwood, in whose Time the Choir of this Church was new roofed and leaded about the Year 1380, or Prior John Horwood's Time, who was admitted a Monk of this Convent Anno 1367, and died Prior thereof 1419.

Though

Though I may be excused enlarging farther about this Priory, (as only Part of it, as aforementioned, is situate in this County of Buckingham) yet I cannot omit observing, (because it is what will be rarely found in like Grants of such antient Date, and what I have no where else observed before Edward the First's Reign,) viz. that on the Monks here obtaining, Anno 1230, 14 Hen. III, a Charter for a Fair to be held at their Monastery, it was appointed on a different Day from the Dedication of their Conventual Church, viz. on the Eve, Festival, and Morrow of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross; and not on the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, their tutelar Saint: The Veneration for their Patron Saints being formerly of such Esteem in all Places, that the Neglect of celebrating their Anniversaries was looked upon highly irreligious and criminal b. And so it was not thought safe at the Reformation to lay aside this primitive Custom; but a Provision was made for continuing it, as we are told in Bishop Kennet's Parochial Antiquities, and other Authorities, from which I beg Leave to subjoin the following Extracts:

Anno 1536, 27 Hen. VIII, Injunctions were given, that the Dedication Day of Churches should be celebrated in all Places, the first Sunday in October for ever; so that where such Wakes are kept on the first or second Sunday in Officher, we may prefume, that they are irregularly observed.

But as to those Wakes, that are precedent to Michaelmas, or distant from that time, we may believe that they have continued in their particular Relation to their proper Saint, and been no further removed than to the immediate Sunday following.

For whenever the Sunday Wakes are guided by a foregoing Festival, we may be satisfied, the Church was dedicated to the Saint of that Day. See Kennet's Parochial Antiquities, p. 611.

It was the Opinion of Sir Henry Spelman, that Fairs were first ordained by the Resort of People, for solemnizing some Festival, and especially the Feast of the Church's Dedication, and from thence he thinks it easy to conjecture to what Saint the Church had been recommended, by the Fair Day.

In most of the Towns or Parishes, the old stationary Fairs depend much on the Saint of the Church. Thus the primitive antient Fair in Oxford, was on St. Frideswide's Day; because it was the Dedication Day of the principal or chief Church of that Place, and likewise at Buckingham, for the same Reason, on St. Peter's Day.

I have met with an Order of the Bishop of Lincoln, to celebrate the Dedications of the Churches and Chapels in his Diocese.

A Mandat from the Bishop of Bath and Wells, was issued by Letters through his Diocese, that according to the Custom of the Holy Fathers, Oblations should be made in the Churches on the Day of their Dedication, as on the Festival of our Lord's Nativity.

Anno 1316, Temp. Edw. II. the Bishop of Bath and Wells, dedicated the Church of Burnham in Somersetshire, to the Honour of the Blessed Saint Andrew; and that that Feast of Dedication should be annually celebrated, he granted an Indulgence of 40 Days to all true Penitents, which should resort to that Church, on the Dedication Day.

b See Page 173. in Chelwood.

In the late printed Life of Bishop Peacock of Chichester, Anno 1744, p. 328. is a Reference to a Sermon printed in the Year 1499, preach'd on the Dedication Day of the Church, or Church Holy Day or Wake, by which it farther appears how this Custom was kept up before the Reformation.

MAIDS MORETON.

O called (as some will have it) from its Moorish Situation, that is the Town in the Moors. The Appellation of Maids is, as Tradition goes, from the two Maiden Sisters, of famous Memory, Foundresses of the present Fabrick of the Church. In Doomsday Book it is thus described:

· Terra Walteri Giffard, in Stofield Hundred.

In Moretone tenet Thurstinus de Walterio ii Hidas. Terra est ii Carucatarum, et ibi est una et dimid. et dimidium potest sieri. Ibi ii Villani, et iv Bordarii. Pratum ii Carucatarum. Valet 30 s. quando recepit 10 s. Tempore Regis Edwardi 20 s.

· Hoc Manerium tenuit Ulvaricus, Filius Godini, et vendere potuit.

In eadem Villa tenet isdem Turstinus de Walterio, iv Hidas pro uno Manerio. Terra est iv Carucatarum, in Dominio sunt ii, et aliæ ii possunt sieri. Ibi i Villanus, cum iii Bordariis. Pratum iv Carucatarum, valet 4 l. quando recepit 2 l. Tempore Regis Edwardi 60s.

De hoc Manerio tenuit Alric Filius Godini, ii Hidas pro uno Manerio; et Sinuard Homo Azor, Filius Toti, dimidium Hida tenuit, et dare, et vendere potuit.

Thurstin holds two Hides of Walter Gisfard in Moreton. The Arable is two Carucates, and there is one and an half, and another half can be made. There are two Copyholders, and four Cottagers. Meadow sufficient for two Carucates. It is worth 30 s. when he received 10 s. In King Edward's Time 20 s.

Ulvaric Son of Goding, held this Manor, and could fell it.

In the same Village Thurstin holds of Walter Giffard four Hides for one Manor. The Arable is four Carucates two are in Demesne, and two others can be made. There is one Copyholder, with three Cottagers. Meadow sufficient for four Carucates. It is worth 4 l. when he received 2 l. in King Edward's Time 3 l.

Of this Manor Alric Son of Godin held two Hides for one Manor, and Sinuard, Azor's Tenant, Son of Toti, held half an Hide, and could give it away, or fell it.

Ibi iii Villani, et ii Bordarii, cum i Carucat. et dimidio, et adbuc dimidium potest sieri. Ibi v Servi et Molendinum de 10s. Pratum ii Carucatarum, in totis Valentis, valet et valuit semper 40s.

Hoc Manerium tenuit istemet tempore Regis Edwardi, et vendere potuit. Lewin de Newbam holds five Hides in Moreton, for one Manor. There are two Hides in Demesne, and there is half a Carucate, and another half can be made out. There are three Copyholders, and two Cottagers, with one Carucate, and an half, and another half can be made. There are five Servants, and a Mill of 10s. Value. Meadow sufficient for two Carucates. In the whole it is worth, and was always worth 40s.

This Manor he himself held in King Edward's Time, and could fell it.

Of the Possessions of these two Manors, viz. Walter Giffard, the first Earl of Buckingham, and Lewin de Newham, I come now to speak.

This first Manor of this Place belonging to the Giffards, after the Death of Walter Giffard, the second Earl of Buckingham, Anno 1164, (he dying without Issue Male) passed to his Heirs general; and became the Property of Richard de Clare, Earl of Gloucester, who assumed also the Title of Earl of Buckingbam, but the Issue Male of the Clares likewise failing, this Manor descended to Hugh de Audley, by Marriage of Isabel, Sister and Coheir of Gilbert de Clare; for I find him possessed hereof, Tempore Edw. III, in which Reign it came to Ralph Stafford, by Marriage of Margery, Daughter and Heir of the said Hugh Audley; and he died seized thereof, Anno 1371, 45 Edw. III, and was succeeded by his Son Hugh Stafford, Earl of Stafford, and he on his Death Anno 1403, 4 Hen. IV, by Edmund Stafford, Brother to William Stafford sain in the Battle of Shrewsbury, who was returned to have held a Leet here, Tempore Hen. IV, as was also, in the same Reign, one Hugh Greenham, and that he held a Manor here of the Honour of Glocester, Anno 1408, 9 Hen. IV, to whom, I presume, succeeded William Greenbam. his Son, for he is returned Anno 1422, 1 Hen. VI, to die seized of Moreton Manor , after which I prefume it escheating to the Crown, King Hen. VI, by Letters Patent, dated 17 May 1442, granted it to All Souls College in Oxford; for I find a Conveyance made to the said College of the Manor in Moreton juxta Bucks, called Greenham's Manor, Ex Dimissione Robert Somery, Anno 1442 as aforefaid, which they are the present Possessor, Anno 1735.

The other Manor of Leuvinus de Newbam, seems in Hen. Ist's Reign to have come to the Doylys, for I find in the Monasticon, that Robert Doyly, the Founder of Oseney Abbey, gave to that Convent, Anno 1129, the Church of Stow, with the whole Village of Stow, d and the Chapel of Moreton; and in the Register of Oseney, in the Archives of Christ Church, Oxford, I find a Grant of two Hides, in Moreton, by Robert Doyly, to Oseney Monastery, which was confirmed by Maud the Empress, King Hen. II, and King John, in whose Reign this Manor was possessed by Persons hence denominated; for I meet with William de Moreton, and Reginald, Son to William de Moreton, and William, Son of Reginald, in Hen. IId, K. John, and Hen. IIId's Reign, feized hereof; and in the last King's Time, as may be seen in the Menasticon, Vol. ii. p. 142. we find that Matthew de Stratton, Archdeacon of Buckingbam, (who died Anno 1268, and willed to be buried in Ofeney Abbey,) gave by Charter his whole Court of Moreton, which he had given him by William, Son of Reginald de Moreton. But I will give the Words of the Register of Ofeney, which informs us, that Matthew Stratton, Archdeacon of Buckingham, granted to Oseney, " Totam Curiam suam de Moreton, quam habuit ex concessione Willhelmi Fitz Reginald," which he held of William de Moreton.

And that Robert de Moreton, Son and Heir of William Fitz Reginald, Knight, comfirmed the same.

These Moretons I find mentioned in Deeds Anno 1246, 30 Hen. III, in the Register of Luffield. To which Convent they were Benefactors, by giving a Mark a Year, in Lillingston [Dayrell] to the Monks of Luffield.

After the Diffolution of Ofeney Abbey, Juno 1541, 32 Hen. VIII. (which had, Anno 1291, in Temporalties here 27. o 5. 4d.) I find a Grant of this Manor, to Christ Church College, in Oxford, which that College, Anno 1735, are the present Lords of.

Lessee Tenant to both these Colleges viz. Christ Church and All Souls, was Edward Bate Esq. Son and Heir to the famous Physician Dr. George Bate, who was, as A. Wood tells us, 'born here: He was a very learned Man, and Author of several Books: He died at Hatton Garden, London, April 19, 1669; and was buried at Kingston upon Thames, in Surry, Aged 60, where he had put up a Monument for his Wife.

His Son, viz. Mr. Edward Bate, was possessed of a good Estate here, and elsewhere; and built a handsome Seat, near the Church, in this Parish: He was, for many Years, an excellent active Justice of the Peace, in this County, a good Neighbour, and Friend, and dying Anno 1717, was buried here.

In Edw. IIId's Time, Anno 1369, 8 I find that the Lord Reginald de Grey of Wilton, died possessed of a Manor here, and also that Richard Lord Grey of Wilton, in Hen. VI's Time, died Anno 1442, h possessed of a Manor here, which I conceive, was holden by them, under the Lord Staffords.

And Anno 1477, Richard Fowler, is returned in Edw. IVth's Reign to die possessed of a Manor here.

But the present Chief Lord, of this Parish, Anno 1735, as reputed, is Sir Richard Temple, Baronet, Lord Viscount Cobbam, tho' he has little Profits arising out of it, his Chief, or Quit-rents, being only about 4s. 4d. besides Alienations. His Manor being no other than what is claimed as held of, and under the Honour of Glocester, which also claims and exercises Jurisdiction over divers other Parishes, as is shewn in p. 34. of this History, particularly over Stow, the Mother Town to this of Moreton, which was, as afore observed, originally only a Chapel of Ease to it.

In King James, and King Charles the Ist's Time, the Family of Lamberd, who possessed Fowler's Capital Mansion House at Bucks, held Lands here, which descended by Marriage to the Bagots, and was in their Tenure in King Charles the Second's Reign, which Prince, by Letters Patent, dated July 26, Anno 1665, having railed George Moor, of this Town, to the Dignity of a Baronet, he took his Title from hence: But, notwithstanding this, he soon after sold his Estate here to Dr. George Bate, and, as I am informed, retired into Hertfordshire, and deceasing without Issue Male, the Honour became extinct, in about 20 Years.

When this Parish was differered from Stow, and made distinct from it, I have not been able to discover; but I presume it was as early as Hen. II's Time, and that the Advowson, which never seems to have been appendant to any Manor, was, (on the first Establishment thereof, on making it separate from Slow) vested in the Peovers, who were Lords of several Manors in these Parts, whose chief Seat was at Todington, Co. Bedford; and they continued Patrons, from Hen. II, or Hen. III, till Hen. VI. Reign, when it descended by Marriage, of the Heiress of the Peovers, to the Broughtons, who also resided at Todington, and their Issue Male failing in Hen. VIII's Time, this Advowson came in Marriage with Agnes, or Anne, Daughter and Heir of John Broughton, (who died 1529,) to her Husband William Pawlet, Lord St. John, afterwards Marquis of Winchester: And she, the said Lady Agnes Pawlet, Marchioness of Winchester, sold it July 22, 1600, to Richard Blake, of Buckland, Co. Berks; who, on Ott. 20 the same Year conveyed it to Bartholomew Chamberlain, of Holywell Co. Hunts, D. D. who, on Nov. 3, 1603, fold it to George Bate, A. M. in whose Family it remained, under some Trusts and Mortgages, 'till Matthew Bate, the present Incumbent, conveyed it, Anno 1719, to Thomas Coxed; who dying Anno 1726, and deviling it to Judith his Wife, she fold it, on Dec. 26, 1732, to John Larken, who by Indenture, dated July 9 following, 1733, passed it to Hartley Sandwell, of Radcliff juxta Bucks, Attorney at Law, who is the present Patron Anno 1735.

This Parish is bounded South by Bucks, West by Radcliss and Stow, North by Lekbamsted, and Akeley, and East by Thornborough. Here are 41 Families, and 126 Souls, as it was returned to the Bishop, Anno 1712. It was then affessed to the Land Tax at 80 l. per Annum.

Here is the Interest of 381. given to the Poor Annually.

Ex Evidentis Tituli Patronatus.

The

The Rectory was rated, Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, at 8 Marks, besides a Pension of 17s. to the Prior of Newnton Longueville, (Anno 1534, 25 Hen. VIII.) It is charged for first Fruits, at 18l 2s 11d. and is reputed to be of the Value of 130l. per Annum.

Anno 1528, Robert Garret willed 51. to buy a Cope, and gave Legacies to St. John's Altar, and our Lady's Light in this Church.

The Church, which is dedicated to St. Edmund the King, and Martyr, (whose Festival is Nov. 20,) is a very neat, elegant Structure, delightfully situated, and deserves a Draught. It was built, as before mentioned, by two Maiden Sisters, of the Family of the Peovers, about the Year 1450, 28 Hen. VI. It consists of a Nave, or Body, and Chancel, with a small Vestry on the South Side, and has a neat embattled Tower at the West End, in which were three very tuneable good Bells: on the first this, in old Characters, Sance Edmunde Dra pro Pobis; on the second Sance Maria Dra pro Pobis; the third modern; but these were, Anno 1717, run into five small Bells; the Weight of which five all together, is only thirty-three Hundred and an half, and source Pound.

The Chancel is twenty fix Foot long, and fixteen broad. The Length of the Church is forty one Foot, and Breadth 24 Foot: Length of the Belfry seventeen Foot, and twelve Foot Broad. The whole Fabrick is Leaded, and in the Windows, which are lofty, and uniform, was a good deal of painted Glass, but it is so defaced, that nothing can be made out. Here were some Paintings on the Chancel Walls, but they have been also defaced; an unskillful Dauber has frightfully attempted to draw over again our Saviour, fitting at the Last Supper, &c.

The Roof, the Porches, and Tower Entrance, are arched over, with Stone; and at the North Entrance are these Arms, carved in Wood, A Chevron charged with three Fleurs de Lis, being the Arms of the two pious Ladies the Peovers, who rebuilt the entire Edifice.

In the Middle of the Church is a large antient Marble, on which were their Effigies, in Brass, with an Inscription under them; but it is torn off, both the Effigies, and Inscriptions; but the Arms are in two Escocheons, as aforedescribed, remaining.

This Stone being some Years ago taken up, a large Stone Cossin was discovered, in which Tradition says these two Sisters Bodies were deposited. Over the North, and South Doors, are these Arms, viz. On a Chevron, three Fleurs de Lys, painted against the Wall, and these Words wrote:

"Sisters and Maidens, Daughters of the Lord Peover, the pious, and magnificent Founders of this Church."

But the Painter of the Arms, being ignorant of the Colours, I here exhibit the true Blazon, which is, Argent, on the Chevron Gules, three Fleurs. de Lys Or.

On.

On a black Marble in the Middle of the Church are these Arms; viz. A Chevron Ermine between three Weazels, Impaling a Chevron charged with three Balls between three Rams Heads Caboobed. Underneath this:

- "Here lyeth interred the Body of Mr. John Birtwizzle, and Philippa his "Wife. He departed this Life January the 1st, 1697, Aged 76 Years." She departed this Life May 2, 1696, aged 74 Years."
- "In Memory of these her Relations, this Stone was laid by their Neice Mrs. Elizabeth Hull."

Near it is this Inscription, on a blewish Stone,

- "Under this Stone, in a Vault, lies the Body of Mrs. Elizabeth Major, "Wife of the Reverend Mr. Richard Major, Rector of Fos-

This

238 HISTORY OF MERSHE GIBWEN.

This Earl of Moreton, whose Name was Robert, being Brother by the Mother's Side to William the Conqueror, he made him Earl of Cornwall, Anno 1068, in the 2d Year of his Reign; and gave him no less than 29 Manors in this County of Buckingham, as we are told in Dugdale's Baronage, Vol. I. whereof this of Mersh being one, he bestowed it on the Abbey of Grestein in Normandy, of his Father's Foundation, and so it continued Part of the Demesnes of that Monastery, together with the Advowson of the Church, 'till both were procured, about the Year 1365, by the De la Pole's, in which Family they continued 'till the Year 1441, 'when the Manor being separated from the Advowson. was by William de la Pole, Earl of Suffolk, and Alice his Wife, given to Ewelme Hospital Co. Oxon, (of their Foundation,) by Letters Patent of King Hen. VI. In which Hospital, it remained under certain Demises till 1605, 3 Jac. I, when that King endowing the Professor of Physick in the University of Oxford, with the Mastership of Ewelme Hospital, and annexing it thereto, this Manor thereby became vested in the Possession of that Professor: And he is, by Virtue of the Tenure of that Office, Lord of the Principal Manor of this Place, and so remains Anno 1735, in Conjunction with the rest of the Members of this Hospital, viz. the Reader and thirteen poor Men, who are all united in a Corporate Body, and act accordingly in that Capacity, by granting Leases, &c. as other Possessors of Manors do.

As to the other Manor of Fitz Ausculfs (described also in Doomsday Book,) it feems very foon to have come to Walter Giffard, Earl of Buckingbam, for he held it about Anno 1112, 12 Hen. I, who having in the Year 1162, 8 Hen. IIb, founded an Abbey called Nutley, or Notely, within his Park of Crendon, he gave thereto the Tythes of Mer/he; but he dying Anno 1164, 10 Hen. II, without Iffue, his Lands were divided among his Heirs; and this his Manor of Mersbe came to his next Kinsman, Richard Strongbow, Earl of Strigoul, whose Daughter and Heir Isabell, marrying William Marshall Earl of Pembroke, he in her Right became possessed thereof; and gave, Anno 1190, 1 Ric. I, a very great Fine to the King for Livery of Earl Giffard's Lands; among which is recounted this Manor; which, on the Death of his Successor William Marshall, came to his Brother Richard Marshall; but he feems to have made little Account thereof, for Warin Basset, c a younger Son of Alan Basset, Baron of Wycombe, as a Relation and Heir to the Marsballs, laid Claim to it, and disputed the Right of Patronage with the Monks of Grestein: But they making it appear to the Bishop of Lincoln that they stood seised of this Advowson by the Gift of the Marshalls, his Plea was set aside: But the Issue Male of Marshall failing in this Reign, their Lands became divided among feveral Proprietors, among whom were the Damory's, who claimed Demesnes here Temp. Edw. I. And Anno 1317, 11 Edw. II, Richard Damory, Knight obtained a Grant of FreeWarren at Mershe and also at Bix, Gibwen; which last Manor descended to him from the Heiress of Gibwen, from whom, as I presume, he inherited Lands here; for the Gibwens, were Possessors of considerable Estates in this County, Geffry de Gibwen being (as it feems) in King John's Time, about 1210, Lord of Great Linford, in which Year he gave Lands at Willen to " Snelfhall Priory; and in King John's and the beginning of Hen. IIId's Time, he the faid Geffry Gibbervin occurs one of the King's Justices '. I also find that Roger de Somery, Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, descended from the Heirs of Fitz Ausculf, held Lands here at Mer/he. But the chief and principal Heir of the Fitz Ausculfs seems to have been the Beauchamps; for Anno 1260, 44 Hen. III, there was a Tryal at the Affizes held at the antient County Town of Buckingbam for Lands at Mershes, which were held by William Beauchamp senior by Knights Service. And his Heir Guy Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, Anno 1312, 6 Edw. II, is returned to be seized of the Manor of Mershe; which the Montacutes had also a Title to. For Anno 1315, 8 and 9 Edw. II, the King confirmed to the Abby of Grestein the Donation and Concession which John de Montacute (of the Family of Montacute, who were afterwards Earls of Salisbury) made of the Manor of Mershe, with its Appurtenances, and of the Advowson of the Church of the said Manor; and also the Grant of One Hide h of Land in the faid Village given to that Convent by Baldwin Son to Thomas de Haldebam and Isabell Montacute; after which I find no other Claimants to this Manor.

However after the Diffolution of Foreign Monasteries, their Lands coming to the Crown, I presume their Possessions in this Parish, as well as what belonged here to the Montacutes, being likewise so escheated, remained Parcel of the Royal Property 'till the Reign of King Edw. IV; when that King, by Letters Patent, Anno Reg. 22, 1482, gave this second Manor, then known by the Name of Westbury, or the Bury Manor, to the Company of the Cooks in London, which he had, Anno Regni 12, 1472, incorporated: For so it appeared at a Tryal at Law, Anno 1578, 20 of Elizabeth, at the Affizes holden for this County of Buckingbam at Aylesbury, i wherein the aforesaid Grant is set forth, and the Title of the Conveyance of this Manor by the Master and Warden of the said Company of Cooks; which Company, by Deeds dated Nov. 30, 1530, Anno 31 Hen. VIII, fold their Right and Interest therein to Robert Dormer Esq. who next Year, 1521, suffered a Fine and Recovery thereof, and after 5 Years Possession, Anno 1536, reconveyed all his Title and Interest therein to William Howell, who dying seized thereof Nov. 30, 1557, was succeeded therein by John Howell, his eldest Son and Heir, on whose Death without Issue, Anno 18 Eliz. 1576, the Cooks Company laying Claim to the Premisses were at the aforesaid Tryal at Law, Anno 1578, cast, and a Verdict obtained against them, and the Premisses adjudged to the Purchaser William Howell's Heir, who was one Henry Howell, as may be seen in Plowden's Commentary, wherein the Case is set forth at Length. And in this Family of the Howells this 1 Manor continued for upwards of an Hundred Years; and they held Courts for the same; 'till Edward Howell, by Lease and Release, dated June the 14 and 15, Anno 1639, 15 Car. I, conveyed his Property herein to Richard Francis, 1 whose Descendant Thomas Francis dying 1698, his Widow Anna Maria Francis, by Deed of Lease and Release, dated April 9 and 10, 1701, conveyed it in Fee to John Townsend and his Heirs, and in this Family it still remains, Anno 1735.—And as Lord of this Manor of Westbury, or the Bury Manor, they claim Suit and Service over nine Yard and three Quarters of Land in this Parish, as does Ewelme Hospital, or the Physick Professor of Oxford University, over forty-nine Yard Land and three Quarters. The whole Extent of the Parish being computed to contain fifty-eight Yard Land and an half, or about two thousand eight hundred Acres.

The Advowson of this Church, after having passed from the Convent of Greistein to the De la Pole's, escheating to the Crown Anno 1475, after the Death of Alice de la Pole, Duchess of Suffolk, has belonged to the Royal Patronage ever since, except Temp. Hen. VIII, when Charles Brandon, Duke of Suffolk, held it, as may be seen in the Account of the Institution to the Rectory.

The Parish of Mershe is bounded East by Edgecote, South by Ambrosden, West by Launton, and North by Stratton-Audley; which there last Parishes are in Oxfordshire: it is also bounded by Twyford on the West. Here were returned to be, Anno 1712, 70 Families, and it then paid to the Land Tax 2031. 155. 3 d.

The Rectory was valued, Anno 1534, at 21 l. 9 s. 4 d. $\frac{1}{2}$ in the Kings Books.

Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, it was valued at 24 Marks.

As to Charities in this Parish, I meet with none, except that the Interest of 100 l. was bequeathed by Mrs. Trist, who died Anno 1707, to put out a Child Apprentice.

The Manor House has been for some Generations in the Occupation of the Bushy's, and remains still in their Possession 1734, they held it Tempore Jacobi I, being then Lessee Tenants to Ewelme Hospital. On the Outside of their Farm Yard are some Entrenchments thrown up, as it is said in the Wars begun Anno 1641.

The Church confifts of a Body, South Isle, North Isle, and Chancel, all which are leaded; at the West End is a square embattled Tower with Pinacles.

On the Top of the Tower is a later Erection of Wood lathed and plaistered over to agree with the rest of the Building. This was erected to hold the Bells, which were formerly only three, but are now augmented to Five. The whole Fabrick is in good Repair, and the Chancel has been much ornamented by the present worthy Rector Dr. Robert Clavering, Lord Bishop of Peterbarough. Here is a Clock and a Dial Board on the Tower. The Church is dedicated to the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the Feast is observed the Sunday after Aug. 15.

And in the Church is only this one Epitaph on a Grave-stone in the North lsle,

"Here lyeth the Body of Thomas Francis, who departed this Life the
"21 Day of December, 1698, and in the Year of his Age 51."

Over it his Arms, being Ermine, on a dexter Canton a Welch Harp.

On the North side the Chancel, under an Arch, an antient Grave stone with a Cross on it, seemingly as old as Edw. Ist's Reign, but no Tradition to whom it belonged. I suppose it was placed here when the Church was built, and might be for one of the Rectors.

On a white Marble Copartment fixed to the Chancel are these Arms at top, viz. Argent a Fess Gules charged with three Crescents Or, between two Bends wavy; underneath this Inscription:

- "Here lyeth the Body of the Reverend Mr. John Dod, Bachelour of Divinity, and Rector of this Church. He died the 24th Day of

 - "the best of Men, full of Good Works. He now rests from his

- In a Collection of Inscriptions, in some Churches, made Anno 1680, I find only this one put down, as then in being in this Church:
- "Gulielmus Say hic sepultus est, qui obiit A. D. 1677, et Ætatis suae "37. Resurgam." He was a Relation of the Rector's, Dr. Robert Say; I suppose his Brother.

The Register begins 1576, but I observed nothing memorable init.

MERSHE GIBWEN Rectors, from the Registers of Lincolne.

Robert de Gloster occurs Rector Anno 1225, 9 Hen. III.

Ralph de Ralegh was presented Anno 1230, 14 Hen. III, by the Convent of Grestein. When Warrin Basset and Catharine his Wise setting up a Claim, as being descended from the Marshalls, Earls of Pembroke, n they were overruled, and the Convent's Right confirmed, it being pleaded that William Marshall Earl of Pembroke had given it to Grestein.

Jordan occurs Rector Anno 1241, 25 Hen. III .

Giles de Audenard seems to have quitted this Benefice P Anno 1275, 3 Edw. I, to John de Audenard, 1275, but he took out a second Title from Grestein, Anno 1276, 4 Edw. I.

Robert, Rector of Mershe, died Anno 1307, 1 Edw. II, and was succeeded by

Stephen de Cammul, instituted Id. Julii, Anno 1307, on the Presentation of the Priory of Wilmington in Sussex, who were Conservators of the Rights of the Monastery of Grestein.

William de Bacheler, Canon of Lincoln, succeeded 3 Cal. Nov. Anno 1315, of whom see an Account of Godwin de Prasulibus, in the Life of Burghershe, Bishop of Lincoln. But his Title seems to have been disputed.

Henry de Lond was admitted Cal. Dec. Anno 1328, on the King's Title.

John de Brakely Rector of Turveston, changed this Anno 1331, 5 Edw. III, with Robert Gasteleyn.

William, Rector of Mershe died, Anno 1349, 23 Edw. III, and was

fucceeded by

William de Hanley, instituted 13 Cal. Sept. Anno 1349, on the Presentation of Tideman de Limbergh, Lessee Tenant of Mershe Manor, to Grestein, as seems to me.

Richard Bromleigh was instituted 3 Non. Junii, Anno 1367, 41 Edw. III, on Hanley's Refignation, on the Presentation of Michael de la Pole.

John Warre or Waite, succeeded Jan. 20, Anno 1374, 48 Edw. III, on Bromley's Resignation. He exchanged it for Witheridge Co. Devon. 10 Sept. Anno 1377, with John de Luffewick, and he became presented by the Patron Sir Michael de la Pole, Knight, Anno 1577; 55 Edw. III.

William de Vexford succeeded, being presented 17 Maii, 1396, by Richard de la Pole. He exchanged it for Middleton Chantry cum Wappenham Co. Northampton. with

Robert Derby, 11 Oct. 1399, and so Derby became presented by Sir

Richard de la Pole.

John Wytheryn succeeded, and exchanged it for Weddington in Essex, Anno 1402, with Thomas Sanderson, July 13, Anno 1402. The next I find is Thomas Humphrey. He resigned it Anno 1447, and was succeeded by William Rainold, admitted Mar. 23, Anno 1447, on the Presentation of William de la Pole, Marquis of Suffolk. He died Anno 1499, and was succeeded by Robert Takel, admitted 4 Nov. Anno 1499, on the Presentation of Alice de la Pole, Duchess of Suffolk; as was William Weston admitted June 23, Anno 1471, 11 Edw. IV, (on the Death of Robert Takel) on the Presentation of Alice de la Pole, Duchess of Suffolk.

John Hawksford was presented by the King, on Weston's Resignation, June 8, Anno 1505, 16 Hen. VII.

Brian Carter was presented by Charles Duke of Suffolk, on Hawksford's Death, and admitted May 7, 1526, 17 Hen. VIII. He resigned it Anno 1533, and was succeeded by

Anthony Leason, presented Nov. 28, Anno 1533, by Charles Brandon, Duke of Suffolk.

Thomas Kent was prefented by the King's Title, by the Lord Ruffell, Mar. 6, 1546, 37 Hen. VIII, on the Resignation of Anthony Leason. He died Anno 1562, 4 Eliz. being also Canon of Christ Church, Oxon.

Richard Reeve succeeded him, being presented by Queen Elizabeth, Anno 1562, on Kent's Death. He died Anno 1594, being Canon of Windsor, having resigned this (to his Son, as I suppose he was,) viz.

Samuel Reeve, A. B. who was presented by Queen Elizabeth, April 27, 1583. In his Will, which I have seen, made Anno 1612, he ordered his Body to be buried in the Church of Mershe.

Richard Evans, A. M. succeeded, being presented by the King, June 23, Anno 1612, 14 Jac. I.

Robert Say, S. T. P. Provost of Oriel College, was presented by the King, on the Death of Dr. Richard Evans, Sept. 28, Anno 1661. He died Ost. 24, 1691, and was buried in Oriel College Chapel, and succeeded by John Dod, S. T. B. presented 17 Dec. Anno 1691, by the King and Queen. He died May 24, 1698, 10 Will. III, and was buried here, being the only Rector whose Interrment is entered in the Register.

Thomas Dunster, S. T. P. succeeded Anno 1698. He was also Warden of Wadbam College, and dying on Whitsunday, 17 May, 1719, at London, was obscurely buried in St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-Street, London, and succeeded by Robert Clavering, S. T. P. Canon of Christ Church, Oxford, July 27, 1719, who quitted for it the Deanry or Rectory of Bocking in Essex, (the of more Value) because of its Nearness to Oxford. And he is, Anno 1735, the present worthy Rector, and also Lord Bishop of Peterborough.

PADBURY,

PADBURY,

7 RITTEN antiently Patebury, or Pathbury. The Saxon Letter d being th, quasi Pathbury, or the Borough or Castle lying on the Road, or Pad. It was in the Conqueror's Time surveyed as follows:

Terra Mannon Brito in Lamua Hundred.

Ipse Maigno tenet Pateburie. Pro xx Hidis se defendebat; Terra est xiv Ca- It was taxed at twenty Hides. The rucatarum. quarta potest fieri. Ibi xv Villani, cum are in Demesne, vi Bordariis, babentibus viii Carucatas; can be made. There are fifteen Vilet adbuc iii possunt fieri. Ibi vi Servi, lans or Copyholders, and fix Bordairs et i Molendinum de xv Solidis. Silva c Porcorum. In totis Valenciis valet xii Libras; quando recepit vii Libras. Tempore Regis Edwardi xii Libras.

Maigno himself holds Pateburie: In Dominio sunt iii, et Arable is fourteen Carucates; three and a fourth or Cottagers holding eight Carucates. and still three more may be made. There are fix Servants, and one Mill of xv Shillings Value. Maft for one hundred Hogs. In the whole it is worth 12 l. when he received 7 l. lit yielded in King Edward's Time 12 l.

This Maigno the Britain was a potent Norman, who coming over with William the first, he gave him several Lordships in this County and in Hertfordsbire; those in this County descended in the Time of Hen. I, to his Heir, viz. Manefelin, Baron of Wolverton, who in King Stephen's Time founding a Priory at Bradwell in the extreme Parts of Wolverton Parish, b his Descendants endowed it with the Advowson of the Church of this Place, and other Lands here.

To this Manefelin succeeded Hamon his Son, and to him William, and to him Alan his Brother, whose Son John's Posterity taking their Surname from their Barony of Wolverton, continued possessed of this Manor 'till Edw. Ild's Time, when I find a Licence granted Anno 1313, 6 Edw. II, c to John de Wolverton to enfeoff Padbury and Chalfont St. Giles Manors: after which I presume this Manor was either sold in Edw IIId's Time, or descended by Heiresses into other Families; for I find that Anno 1332, 5 Edw. III, there was a Dispute about it by Roger Huse and Joan his Wife, who had been before Wife to Robert Echingham, and claimed it as her Dower: d But it was given against them: And Anno 1359, 33 Edw. III, 'Theobald Gruffet is returned to have held a 4th Part of the Manor here. And Anno 1361, 35 Edw. III, Hugh de Wake had a Moiety of Padbury Manor, which he purchased of Theobald Gruffet. And Anno 1 Ric. II, 1377, there was a Fine levied of this Manor between Robert Lindesay and others Claimaints, f and William Echingham Deforcient, whereby the Right in this Manor was conveyed to the aforesaid Robert Lindesay. And Anno 1380, & William Molins is faid to die seized of a Manor here. And Anno 1438, 16 Hen. VI Thomas Echingham obtained a Grant of Free Warren at Padhury: h But not long after, viz. Anno 1442, 21 Hen. VI, this Manor being escheated (as I suppose) to the Crown, King Hen. VI, by Letters Patent, dated April 24, granted to the Warden and Fellows of All Souls College in Oxford, the Manor of Padhury, with sour Messuages and other Lands there. And they are accordingly, Anno 1735, viz. the said Warden and Fellows, the present Lords hereof.

In the Patents, Anno 1586, 28 Eliz. Part 14. the Queen granted to John Watson and John Cresset fifty five Acres in Padbury, belonging to Missenden late Monastery. These were in the Rental of Missenden, Anno 1534, valued at 13 s. 4 d. But who the Donors of them to Missenden were, I cannot find in the Register of that Convent: But I suppose they were given by Hamund, Son of Manefelin, Baron of Wolverton, Lord of the Manor of Chalsonte St. Giles, adjacent to Missenden.

Dugdale, in his View of the Troubles in England, tells us i, that in the Beginning of July 1643, Colonel Middleton coming to surprize Sir Charles Lucas in his Quarters at Padbury, near Buckingham, was routed by him.

This Parish is bounded East by Adstock and Great Harwood, North by Thornborough, South by Addington and Steeple Claydon, and West by Hillesten and Buckingham.

The Church here, as may be seen in the Fine Rolls, was, Anno 1202, 3 Jobannis, granted to the Priory of Bradwell, of the Foundation of the Lords of this Manor, which Convent having got it appropriated and made a Vicaridge, Temp. Edw. I, they enjoyed the Rectorial Tythes, which, Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, were valued at eighteen Marks, or twelve Pound, and continued Patrons of the Vicaridge, as they had been before of the Rectory, 'till their Dissolution, Anno 1526, 17 Hen. VIII, when it was for some time with the rest of the Demesses of Bradwell Priory, granted, among the small Monasteries, to Cardinal Wolfey. But Anno 1532, 23 Hen. VIII, it was given to Shene Priory in Surry, 'and so on the total Suppression of Religious Houses it coming to the Crown, the Patronage of this Vicaridge has remained in the Crown ever since; except in the Year 1557 and 1558, when it was, by Queen Mary given to the See of Lincoln; but her Grants were set aside by Queen Elizabeth, Anno 1559.

In a Rental of Bradwell Priory, about 1510, 'tis noted, that befide the Rectory valued at 121. per Annum, that Convent had here other Lands rated at 205. per Annum.

The Rectory of Padbury, late belonging to Shene Monastery, was Anno 1578, ¹ I find, granted to the Earl of Lincoln and Christopher Gough, Reddendo 61. 3s. 6d. \(\frac{3}{4}\). and paying 6s. 8d. Procurations to the Archdeacon of Buckingham, Habendum in Fee, Teste 24 Feb.

The Rectory of Padbury late belonging to Shene, was afterwards, on 7 July, Anno 8 Jac. I, m granted to Anthony Aucher and Sir Thomas Hardress, Reddendo, 6 l. 3s. 6d. 4 I also find that Anno 1627, King Charles the first granted to Henrietta his Queen 6l. 13s. 4d. Rent issuing out of Padhury Rectory.

Rot. Pat. 20 Eliz. | Pat. 8 James L, p. 49.

The Number of Families in this Parish, as returned Anno 1712, is 72. The Assessment to the Land Tax then was 1351. 16s. 10d.

I do not find any Lands given to Charity in this Parish.

The Valor of the Vicaridge, as it was rated Anno 1534, in the King's Books, for first Fruits and Tenths, is 61. 135. 4d. Tho' the clear value being Temp. Reginæ Annæ given in at only 351. it is exempt from the Payment of first Fruits.

Anno 1291, this Vicaridge was not valued, but the Rectory was given at 18 Marks, or 12 l. as aforesaid.

The Church, which is dedicated to the Honour of the Blessed Virgin Mary's Nativity (and has a Wake or Feast kept the Sunday following, Sept. 8.) consists of a Body, two Iles, and Chancel, all which are Leaded; at the West End is an embattled Tower, in which hang six Bells, cast out of sive in the Year 1716, which sive Bells were cast out of sour, about the Year 1680, and being very untuneable were new-run again, and made six. The Church was new Battlemented Anno 1584.

The Church and Chancel is about 70 Foot long, and the Bedy and fide Iles are about 34 Foot in Breadth.

Here is no Monument or Painted Glass, or any thing worth noting in the whole Church, except this Inscription, on a white Marble Compartment, affix'd to the Chancel South Wall, which is as follows:

- "In Spem Resurrectionis ad Vitam æternam, juxta jacent Reliquiæ "Harris Smith, Generosi, Vir Juris Legumque peritus; Justitia cla-
 - " rus, et Operibus Misericordiæ non minus insignis. Prope quoque
 - " jacent Reliquiæ Franciscæ, dilectissimæ ejus Uxoris, Mulier singulis "Virtutis gratiis, decorata, Uxor sidelis, Mater indulgens, Indigis

" 45, Anno Gratiæ 1705."

"Præ Filiali Parentum amore hoc Monumentum Memoriæ sacrum erexit "Richardus Smith, Armiger, 1726."

An handsome Capital House, or Seat, hath been built near the Church by the aforesaid Harris Smith, Father to Richard Smith, Esq. the present. Possessor, Anno 1735, who hath greatly improved it, and made good Ossices, Gardens, and Walks. He was, Anno 1725, High Sherist of this County. He married, in the Year 1718, Penelope, youngest Daughter of Sir John Chester, of Chicheley, in this County, Baronet, by whom he hath a numerous Issue.

The Homestall contains Half an Acre. The Vicaridge House built of Timber

Timber and Thatcht, confisting of three Bays Chambered over and Boarded. A Barn of two Bays Thatcht. One Acre of Meadow in Sternold Mead, and another Acre of Meadow in Brodmere Mead.

But I come now to the Names of the Incumbents, from the Registers of Lincoln.

Peter de Estforbi was presented Anno 1227, by the Prior and Convent of Bradwell to the Church of Padbury.

[N. B. This is the only Institution I have met with of its being presented to as a Rectory. He occurs Rector Anno 1241.]

John de Norton was presented [1274] to the Vicaridge of Paddebiri, by the Prior and Convent of Bradwell, de novo Appropriat. ipsis Religiosis; ordinata vero fuit Vicaria predicta per Dom. Episcopum 8 Junii, 1274, as it is expressed in the Bishop's Register, lately appropriated to the Religious of that Convent.

N. B. The Vicaridge aforesaid was endowed by the Bishop, 8 June, 1274.

John Pyrie died Vicar Anno 1298, and was succeeded by Ralph de Lutterworth, instituted Dec. 3, 1298, on the Death of Pyrie, on the Presentation of the Convent of Bradwell. He resigned Anno 1315, and was succeeded by William de Offyngton, instituted 10 Cal. Oct. 1215.

Adam de Preston was instituted 6 Non. Maii, 1326, on Offyngton's Refignation.

Simon Freeman was instituted 9 Cal. Oct. 1349, on Preston's Resignation. John de Adstock was instituted 3 Id. Aug. 1361, on Simon the last Vicar's Death.

Thomas Haddon exchanged it Anno 1377, for Wishaw Co. Warwick, with John Eton, 2 Cal. Dec. 1377. He exchanged it the same Year for Hulcot near Alesbury, with Thomas Coupe, June 12, 1377.

John Heton, last Vicar, died, and was succeeded by John Prentys, instituted Nov. 17, 1406.

N. B. In Bishop Chedworth's Register, Fol. 41. We meet with the Union of the Vicaridge with the Rectory or Church of Padbury, both which being consolidated about 1455, Bradwell Priory got the Church without Institution to the Vicaridge supplied by Curates, who were, no doubt, Monks of their Convent, which, as I presume, being complained of, they were obliged to present to it again as a Vicaridge; for I find that

Roland Frythbank became instituted Sep. 27, 1506, on the Presentation of Bradwell Priory, to the Vicaridge of Padbury, as was

Richard Allways, A. B. instituted Aug. 10, 1507, on Frythbank's Refignation. He died in 1538, and was succeeded by John Hayward, inst. Nov. 11, 1538, on the Presentation of the Convent of Sheene Co. Surry, on the Death of Richard Allways. He, viz. Hayward began began the Register, Anno 1538, and was buried here Oct. 29, 1559, as appears by the Entry of his Name in the Register; tho' who succeeded him does not occur: for I presume no Vicar was instituted in twelve Years, and that John Read, who became presented by Queen Elizabeth, Oct. 30, 1573, might possibly, before Institution, supply it. He was buried here, as appears by the Register, Nov. 15, 1593. On his Death

Thomas Harris, alias Smith, became instituted Jan. 17, 1593, on Queen Elizabeth's Presentation. He was buried here Aug. 18, 1644. After his Death, as I am informed,

Edward Ummant, A. M. who had been, Anno 1638, elected School-master of the County Town of Bucks, took this Vicaridge, Anno 1644, for which, I suppose, he left his School; for he had a Son named John, born here, Anno 1646, and another named Edward, born here, Anno 1649. Mr. Ummant occurs Vicar Anno 1663, at the Archidiaconal Visitation. His Successor was

Roger Griffith, A. B. who subscribes himself Curate here, Anno 1665. He was the same Year licensed School-master of Bucks, where he died, as I am informed, and was buried without any Memorial.

George Bate, LL.B. was presented by the King, Jan. 29, 1682, on the Death of Roger Griffith. He quitted it for the Rectory of Stoke-Hammond, and was succeeded by William White, A. B. instituted Feb. 21, 1686, on the Cession of George Bate. He quitted it for Steeple Cleydon Vicaridge, Anno 1715, and was succeeded by

Thomas Cheslin, A.B. Vicar of Thornborough, instituted Anno 1715. He died and was buried here April 9, 1729, and succeeded by William Halsted, A.M. instituted Feb. 5, 1729, on the Crown's Presentation, who is the present Vicar, Anno 1735, and also of Thornborough, and School-Master of Bucks.

The Old Register, which begins Anno 1538, and ends Anno 1654, has these Entries, which I noted from it.

PRESTON BISSET.

RESTON, i. e. Villa Presbyteri; as it receives hence its first, so it does its fecond Appellation, from the Owner.

In the Time of the Norman Survey it was given to Odo Bishop of Baieux, of whom Mention has been already sufficiently made. 'Tis thus surveyed in Doom [day Book :

Terra Episcopi Bajocensis, in Rovelai Hundred.

Auscotus de Ros tenet de Episcopo Prestone. Pro xv Hidis se defendebat. Terra est viii Carucatarum, In Dominio sunt iii, et xi Villani; cum vii Bordariis, babentibus v Carucatas. Ibi vi Servi, et i Molendinum de xxxii Denariis. Pratum viii Carucatarum. Silva cc Porcorum. Valet c s. Quando recepit iv Libras. Tempore Regis Edwardi tantundem.

Auscotus de Ros holds Prestone of the Bishop of Baieux. It is rated at fifteen Hides. The Arable is eight Carucates. There are three in Demesne. There are eleven Villans or Copyholders and feven Cottagers: they have five Carucates. There are fix Servants, and one Mill of 32 d. Meadow fufficient for eight Carucates: Mast for two hundred Hogs. It is worth one hundred Shillings; when he received 4 l. In King Edward's Time it was as much.

Hoe Manerium tenuit Wilaf, Homo Leuvini Comitis, et vendere potuit.

Wilaf, Tenant to Earl Leuvin, I held this Manor, and could fell it.

Soon after Bishop Odo's Forseiture of this Manor, Anno 1088, 1 Will. II. it probably came into the Hands of the Biffets, who having great Possessions in Willshire, were in King Stephen's Time Founders of Maiden-Bradley Convent in that County, to which Monastery Ernulfus Bisset was a great Benefactor, and bestowed on it Lands in this Parish of Preston 2, as did also John, Son of John de Preston. And that the Bissets continued possessed of this Manor 'till Edward Ist's Time b, we may judge by the Fines Anno 1290, wherein we are informed, that William Biffet passed away the Manor of Preston, and Lands in Preston and Covele, or Cowley, to Hugh de Broc.

And in the faid King's Reign, viz. Anno 1300; we find that William Touchet obtained a Grant of free Warren in Preston and Covele: But the Lord of this Manor, Temp. Edw. II and III, and that of Covele, (tho' how it descended to him I have not seen) was Giles de Badlesmere, whose Issue Male failing, William Lord Roos, of Hamlake, having married Margery his Sifter, and Co-heir, became in her Right possessed of this Manor of Preston, and fo it continued in his Heirs till the Attainder of Thomas Lord Roos, or Ros, Anno 1467, 7 Edw. IV e, when that King bestowed the same on Richard Fowler, who died seized thereof Nov. 3, Anno 1477 f, and was succeeded by his Brother Thomas Fowler; to whom, Anno 1485, 1 Ric. III s, the King gave a Confirmation of this Manor. But the Scene being changed, and the Lord Roos restored, Anno 1487, by Hen VII, this Manor reverted and belonged to his Descendants, and so came with his Titles and Possessions, by Marriage of Eleanor, Sister and Coheir of Edmund Lord Roos, to the Family of Manners Earl of Rutland, who enjoyed it still about the Year 1630, when, as I learn, they sold their Right to the Caters, and so it came by Marriage of Alice Daughter of John Cater, to Robert Gibbs, who in the Year 1699, 11 Will. III, conveyed this Royalty to Sir Edmund Denton, Bart. elder Brother to Mr. Justice Denton, the present Proprietor, who receives, by Virtue of being Lord hereof, six Pounds per Annum Quit Rent.

How the Advowson came to be severed from the Manor I have not But it appears to have been so very early; viz. before Edw. Ist's Time; for Anno 1262, 46 Hen. III, it was in the Gift of Henry de Belesby, or Greynesty de Beleby , a Lincolnshire Family, from whom, as I presume, it came by Marriage of an Heiress, Temp. Hen. VI, to the Langstons of Caversfield; for they occur Patrons, and presented to the Rectory from the Year 1426, 4 Hen. VI, 'till Queen Elizabeth's Time, when I conceive they fold their Right to the Family of Major i, who had considerable Demesnes at Cowley. For Anno 1602, 44 Elizabeth, Thomas Major is, in an Account given in to the Bishop, returned to be Patron here. Soon after which it appears to be fold to the Woods, of whom, and other their Trustees, it was by Deed of Bargain and Sale, dated Jan. 12 and 13, 1655, conveyed to Edmund Denton, of Hillesden, Esq. (Grandfather to Mr. Justice Denton, the present Patron hereof Anno 1735,) who bought it of Wood's Trustees or Mortgagees, who were Edward Butterfield, Hetbill Wood, Peter Paxton, and Dorotby his Wife, Richard Waddesden, and Dorotby his Wife, for they all joyned together; and having as aforesaid on Jan. 12, 1655 k, assigned and made over their Interest and Right to John Kersy, and Richard Blagrave, in Trust, they accordingly made a Conveyance thereof, the Day following, viz. Jan. 13, 1655, to the aforesaid Edmund Denton, Esq.

In the Fines of Lands levied in the County of Buckingbam, I meet with the Hamlet of Cowley in this Parish, joined with Preston; and so I presume they have always gone as one Manor united together, viz. Preston cum Cowley.

In the Inquisitions it is returned, in Hen. VIIIth's Time, that John Langfon died December 30, 1525, inter alia, seized of Preston Advowson, and 16 Acres there, called Jatrons Mead, and a Messuage and two Closes, and two Acres of Lands held in Soccage of the Earl of Rutland, at 18 d. Rent.

In

In Edw. VIth's Time, I find that William Giffard, a younger Brother of the Giffards of Twyford, refided at Cowley; and had a Daughter named Anne, married to Richard Curzon, of Water Perry Co. Oxon, of whom I presume the Majors bought their Estate here, and so succeeded to the Giffards Demesses at Cowley, Anno 1533, it was returned, that the Abbey of Nutley had Lands in Preston juxta Bukingbam of 18 s. per Annum Value.

The Parish of Presson contains about 1100 Acres, and is bounded South by Twyford, West by Chetwood and Barton, North by Tingwick, East by Bucks and Hillesdon. Here were, Anno 1712, reckoned to be 47 Families, and it was then affessed 1351. 16 s. 10 d. to the Land Tax: There were no Lands here then returned as his given to Charities in this Parish. The Rectory was valued 26 Hen. VIII, 1535, at 11 l. 9 s. 4d. \frac{1}{2}.

In the Taxation, made 1291, 19 Edw. I, it was estimated only at 10

Marks: It is reputed to be worth 140 l. per Annum.

One Close at Cowley, of about eleven Acres, and one Acre more at Cowley.

The Church here, which is dedicated to Sl. John Baptist, (and has a Wake or Feast held the Sunday after June 24) is a small Fabrick, consisting of a Body and two small side Iles, and Chancel, all which are Leaded; at the West End is a mean low Tower, erecting itself a little above the Roof of the Church, in which hang two small Bells, tho' here was also, as I am informed, a third Bell formerly.

Here are no old Inscriptions, or painted Glass, and only these Inscriptions in the Chancel.

On a Grave-stone, the Effigies of a Woman and six Children, on a Plate of Brass, this engraven:

"Here lieth the Body of Anne Major, Wife of Edmund Major, the Younger, Gentleman. She was Daughter to Edward Aylworth, of "Aylworth, in the County of Glocester, Esq. who lived virtuously, and died christianly, the 22 day of Feb. 1615, leaving behind four Sons and two Daughters.

Henry de Pluckele 4 Cal. Nov. Anno 1319, 12 Edw. II. He exchanged

it for Easterkeel Co. Lincoln, with

Edward de Grymesby, instituted 12 Cal. Dec. Anno 1324, on the Presentation of Henry de Greynesby. He resigned Anno 1327, 1 Edw. III, to Robert de Grymesby, and he was instituted 3 Id. April. Anno 1327, I Edw.

III, on the Presentation of Henry de Greynesby.

Henry de Greynesby was instituted Nov. 2 Anno 1349, 23 Edw. III, on the Death.

Death of Robert de Grymesby, on the Presentation of Edmund de Grymesby or Greynesby. He resigned it Anno 1353, 27 Edw. III, and was succeeded

John de Derlington, instituted 17 Cal. Feb. Anno 1353, on the Prefentation of Edmund de Greynesby. He exchanged it for Neiber Teynton,

Henry de Greynesby, and he was a second time instituted 5 Non. Mar. Anno 1355, on the Presentation of Robert, Son and Heir of William Reyner, de Greynesby. He resigned it on taking Silkeston Rectory, and was succeeded: by

Walter de Skirlaw instituted Id. Jan. Anno 1357, 31 Edw. III, on the Presentation of Robert Son and Heir of William de Greynesby. He was afterwards the worthy Bishop of Litchfield, Wells, and Durbam. He quitted this on his being made Archdeacon of the East Riding of Yorkshire, Anno 1361, 25 Edw. III, and was succeeded by

John de Gerney, instituted Anno 1361, 6. Id. Maii, on the Presentation of William Son of Henry de Greynesby.

Henry de Greynesby seems to have taken it a third time Anno 1362, 36 Edw. III, for Thomas de Lowthorp was instituted Id. Julii 1365, on the Presentation of Henry de Greynesby, on the Resignation of Henry last Rector.

John Low was presented April 22, Annot 369, on Lowthorp's Resignation, on the Presentation of Henry Greynesby.

Alan Stynt occurs next. He religned 9t Anno 1403, 4 Hen. IV, and was fucceeded by John Merston, instituted 8: Aug. Juno June on the Presentation of Robert Reyner de Greynesby.

William Toogood was instituted 10 June, Anny 1432, 10 Hen. VI, on the Presentation of John Langston of Caver-field, who I suppose married the Daughter and Heir of Greynesby.

John Winnington was instituted Mar. 21 Anno 1453, on the Death of Willian Toogood, on the Presentation of John Langston.

John de la Row, A. M. was instituted 4 Oct Anno 1462, 2 Edw. IV, on the Resignation of Winnington, on the Presentation of John Langston of Caversfield, Esq.

Richard Fyvian was instituted June 3, Anno 1481, 21 Edw. IV, on de la Row's Death, on John Langston's Presentation.

Richard Underwood was instituted Mar. 20, 1508, 23 Hen. VII, on Fyvian's Death, on the Presentation of John Langston.

Robert White was instituted Dec. 2, Anno 1530, on Underwood's Resignation, on the Presentation of John Herman, Esq.

Edward Marshe was instituted April 20, Anno 1558, not said how vacant, on the Presentation of John Dotyne, Clerk, by reason of this Turn being granted him by John Langston, Esq.

Hugh Harris; LL. B. was instituted Aug. 17, Anno 1558, the same Year, on Marsh's Resignation, on the Presentation of John Langston, Esq. Thomas.

Thomas Kent, LL. B. was instituted a April, Anno 1559, 1 Eliz. on the Presentation of Joan Langston, Widow, and was also Rector of Mark Gibwen and Canon of Christ Church, Oxford, where he resided in that College. and dyed Dec. 26, 1561, was buried in that Cathedral without any Memorial.

Otho Hunt was presented by John Wood of Oxford, Anno 1562, 4 Eliz. on Thomas Kent's Death, by Reason of the Advowson having been granted him by Joan Lang ston, of Caversfield, Widow

Richard Tetlow was presented on Hunt's Resignation, Anno 1564, by John

Stamford. His Successor was

Walkeden Wood, A. M. (who built good Part of the Rectory House) inftituted Aug. 28, Anno 1604, 2 Jac. I, on Tetlow's Death, on the Prefentation of Edmund Major, Gentleman.

Jonathan Wood, A. M. was instituted May 15, 1645, on the Presentation of Elizabeth Wood, Widow, on Walkeden Wood's Death. He occurs Rector Anno 1650, as does Richard Edmonds, Anno 1652.

Robert Townshend, S. T. P. was presented by the King Nov. 19, Anno 1662. per Pravitatem Simonia. However I find

Daniel Whithy, instituted April 15, Anno 1663, on the Presentation of John Kersey, Gent. and he died Anno 1674, and was buried here.

Richard Banks succeeded, being instituted July 28, 1674, on Whithy's Death. He died and was buried here Anno 1679, and succeeded by Robert Townsend, S. T. P. instituted June 16, 1679, on the Presentation of Alexander Denton, Esq. He died Anno 1706, and was buried here, and fucceeded by Stephen Townsend, A. M. instituted Ost. 24, 1706, on the Death of Dr. Townsend, on the Presentation of Sir Edmund Denton, Bart. He died and was buried here, July 8, 1724, and succeeded by Robert Styles, A. M. instituted Nov. 27, 1724, on the Presentation of Alexander Denton, Esq. He is the present worthy Rector 1735.

The Register begins but Anno 1662. I took only these two Notes out of it.

MARRIAGES.

Mr. Stephen Townsend, Clerk, and Margaret Daughter of Dr. Robert Townsend, April 14, 1696.

BURIALS.

Jane, Wife of William Kirby, buried 1663.

RADCLIFF.

RADCLIFF.

Enominated from its Situation on a Cliff, the Soil being of a Red Colour. It is thus described in Dooms Book.

Terra Rogeri de Iveri in Stodfield Hundred.

M. Fulco tenet de Rogerio Radeclive. Pro v Hidis se defendebat. Terra est viii Carucatarum. In Dominio sunt iii, et vi Villani, cum iv Bordariis, babentibus iii Carucatas; et adbuc ii possunt sieri. Ibi iii Servi, et i Molendinum de 5s. Pratum viii Carucatarum. Inter totum valet 100 s. Quando recepit iv Libras. Tempore Regis Edwardi v Libras.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Azor, Toti filius, et vendere potuit.

Foulk holds of Roger de Iveri Radeelive Manor. It was rated at five Hides. The Arable is viii Carucates. There are iii in Demesne. There are six Copyholders and sour Cottagers, having three Carucates, and two more may be made. There are three Servants and a Mill of v Shillings. Meadow for eight Carucates. In the whole it is worth 100s, when he rereived 4 l. In King Edward's Time 5 l.

Azor Son of Toti, held this Manor, and could fell it.

This Roger de Iveri (so named from Iveri, a Town in Normandy) coming over with the Conqueror, obtained from him several Lordships in these Parts, and had together in Conjunction with Robert Doyly the Barony of St. Wallery.

To this Roger, who died Anno 1087, 1 Will. II, succeeded Jeffry his Son, who dying Anno 1112, 12 Hen. I, that King bestowed his Barony of St. Wallery on Guy de St. Wallery, to whom succeeded Reginald his Son, and to him Bernard his Son, whose Son Thomas de St. Wallery dying Anno 1220, 4. Hen. III. without Issue Male, this Manor came to the Family of St. Lis, a younger Branch of St. Lis's, Earls of Huntingdon and Northampton, who, Tempore Hen. III, enjoyed both Manor and Advowson: For I find them then in the Possession of Sir Simon Liz and Sir John Seynt Liz, as I do also in the next Reigns, viz. Edward the First and Second, in the Tenure of Andrew de St. Lis's, who Anno 1313, 8 Edw. II, obtained a Grant of Free Warren in his Manor of Radeclive. He represented the County of Buckingham in Parliament, Anno 1326, 19 Edw. II, Anno 1327, 1 Edw. III, and Anno 1328, 2 Edw. IIId. And in this Family this Advowson and Manor remained in Edw. IIId's, Time, it being, Anno 1340, still in the Possession of the St.

Lis's.

^{*} See an Account of this Family in Dugdale's Baronage, Vol. I. p. 454. and Kennet's Parsochial Antiquities, from whence this Account is chiefly extracted.

*Pat. 8 Edw. II.  Prynn's Brevia Parliament.

Lis's. But in about 25 Years after it was alienated to William de Wickham who being, Anno 1363, 37 Edw. III, made Prebendary of Buckingham, purchased it about the Year 1365, and becoming Bishop of Winchester, and founding, Anno 1379, 2 Ric. II, a College in Oxford, now known by the Name of New College, endowed it among other Estates with this Manor and Advowson; both which have ever since that Foundation (in the Year 1379, as aforesaid) appertained thereto, as they do now at this present Time Anno 1735.

But besides this Manor thus vested in New College, here is a small titular Manor belonging to the Right Honourable Sir Richard Temple, Lord Cobbam, who holds a Court Leet in Chalkmore Field, which he claims under the Honor of Ewelme.

This Parish is bounded West by Tingwick and Water-Stratford, North by Stow and Moreton, East and South East by Buckingham.

It is of no great Extent, the Number of Families both at Radcliff and the Hamlet of Chalkmore (that is the Chalky Moor) were returned to be, Anno 1712, only 29, and of Souls 120. It was then affessed to the Land Tax 921. 185. 9d. the Rectory was, Anno 1534, 25 Hen. VIII, valued for first Fruits at 81. 15. 3d. 'tis reputed worth 901. per Annum. It was valued Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, at 8 Marks. It pays a Pension of about 121. per Annum to New College, which Pension was, as I suppose, laid on the Rectory on the consolidating, annexing, and uniting the Chantry Endowment to the Parsonage or Rectory, and so settled on the College for Personance of some Exercises to be done by certain Scholars on some publick Days.

Here was also antiently paid out of the Rectory a Pension of a Mark a Year to Oseney Abbey, and 5 s. to the Prebendary of Sutton cum Buckingham.

The Register begins Anno 1564. But I met with nothing memorable in it. Though I have been informed by the very learned Mr. Thomas Baker, B.D. late Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge, that the famous Dr. Martin Lister, Doctor in Physick, the great Benefactor to the Museum at Oxford, was born here, for that College Register styles him a Native of Radeliss in Bucking bamshire, and notes, that he was born here about 1638, and bred up at School at Melton Mowbray in Leicestershire, and admitted Fellow of St. John's College Cambridge, Sept. 6, 1660. But Mr. Anthony Wood, in his Athenae Oxon. says, he was a Yorkshire Man born. He was living Anno 1708, being then Fellow of the College of Physicians in London.

Here were, before the Reformation, Altars of St. John the Evangelist, St. Mary, and St. Catherine. Here was, a House and Close of 17 Acres given to charitable Uses; but the House was let fall, and the Lands divided and shared among the Parishioners, as it was returned Anno 1712 to the Bishop of Lincoln.

Regist. Lincoln. Ex Testamentis probat, in Archid. Bucks.

Terrier

Terrier, Anno 1639, Ambrose Sacheverell, Rector.

The Parsonage, consisting of 8 Bays, is built of Stone, whereof five Bays Tyled, three Thatcht, and divided into 14 Rooms, above and below; two Barns, one of Stone of 6 Bays.

The Home-Stall contains an Acre and a Rood, a Yard Land in the common Field of Radcliff and Chalkmore, of 20 Acres, a Close of four Acres called Blackwater's, an Acre of Lot Meadow in Stratford Field.

The Manor House, belonging to New College, is a handsome Seat. It belonged Temp. Car. I, to Sir Thomas Denton, and afterwards Temp. Car. II, to Sir William Smith, Baronet, Member of Parliament for the Town of Buckingham, who inclosed a Park here, the Pales and Bounds of which are still kept up. It was conveyed in King William's Reign by Sir William Smith to Captain John Woodsine, who died 25 Dec. 1693, aged 48. and was buried in Stepney Church-Yard, in London, as was his Son John Woodsine, who died in April 1709; the said Captain's Widow, Mrs. Rebecca Woodsine, after her Husband's Death, put down the Park and sold away the Deer. This Estate is now held, Anno 1735, by Mr. Lee, an eminent Surgeon and Citizen of London, their Son in Law.

The Church, which is dedicated to St. John the Evangelist, is a small Fabrick. It has a Leaded Body or Nave and Tyled Chancel; at the West End is an embattled Tower, in which are three Bells. 'Tis in Length from East to West, including the Chancel and Tower, about 70 Feet, and in Breadth 18 Feet.

Here is the Portrait of our Lady with her Babe in the Chancel East Window in painted Glass; and in a Window of the Church St. Catharine with her Wheel; but no Arms remain in the Windows, or Roof, or any Part of the Church.

There are only these following Inscriptions on Gravestones in the Chancel.

- 1. "Here lieth the Body of Mary, the Daughter of John Norborne of "Woodford, in the County of Essex, Esq; who departed this Life." Nov. 4, 1725, Aged 26."
- 2. "Hic jacet Johannes Norborne, A. M. hujus Ecclesiæ Rector, qui obiit Die Martii 14, Ætatis, 64 Anno Domino 1726."
- 3. "Here lyeth the Body of Sarab, the Wife of John Norberne, Rector of this Church, Daughter of Timothy Lydiat, Vicar of Portsea in the County of Southampton, who departed this Life Nov. 28, 1720. Aged 64."

Anno 1328, 2 Edw. III, I find a Licence granted to Andrew de St. Liz, to erect a Chantry Chapel at Radcliff: But this was rather a Confirmation of a former Grant. For I find that Anno 1276, 4 Edw. I, Elias de Luffenbam was instituted to the Chantry of St. Michael at Radcliff, then void, on the Prefentation of Sir Simon de St. Liz, by the Resignation of Ralph de St. Liz.

K k

He was also Rector of Radcliff, and held both together. His Successor on his Resignation was Robert de Cornwall, instituted Anno 1296, 24 Edw. I, on Andrew de St.

Liz's Presentation. He resigned it next Year, and was succeeded by Robert de Luffenbam, instituted 8 Feb. Anno 1297, 25 Edw. I. He refigned it the same Year, and was succeeded by William de Warwick, instituted 3 Mar. Anno 1297, 25 Edw. I, and he was presented to St. Michael's Chantry Chapel at Radcliff, as it is called in the Presentation. But he held it not long, for it is plain that

Robert de Luffenham came into it again, and died possessed hereof Anno 1310, 3 Edw. II, when

Ralph de St. Liz, Rector of Radcliff Parish, seems to have accepted it, and held it in Union with his Church from Anno 1310, to Anno 1314, when he resigned it to

Roger Skyret of Bucks, who was instituted 2 Id. June, Anno 1314, 7 Edw. II, he died Anno 1325, 18 Edw. II, and was succeeded by a second

Ralph de St. Liz, who was, as I take it, instituted 4 Id. Julii, Anno 1325, on the Death of Roger de Bucks. He held it with the Rectory of this Church of Radcliff, and was succeeded in both by

Thomas de Waldegrave, instituted 11 Cal. Aug. Anno 1349, 23 Edw. III, on the Death of Ralph de St. Liz, on the Presentation of John de Wolverton. After his Death, which happened Anno 1361, this Chantry seems to have had no Institution for four Years; for I find

John de Longtoft was instituted 3 Id. June, Anno 1365, 39 Edw. III, to the Chantry of St. Michael Chapel of Radcliff, on the Death of Thomas de Waldegrave, last Incumbent, on the Presentation of William de Wickham, Lord of the Manor of Radcliff. He, viz. Longtoft, is the last I find ever presented to this Chantry Chapel, which, whether it was founded in Radcliff Church, or at the Village of Chalkmore, does not appear: But it is plain after his Time both the Rectory and Chantry became consolidated; for we meet with no more mention of it in any Registers of Lincoln or other Accounts. But I come now from the Registers of Lincoln to exhibit a List of the Rectors of Radcliff.

Radcliff Rectors.

William occurs Parson of Radcliff, Anno 1220, 4 Hen. III, in old Deeds. Ralph de St. Liz, was admitted Rector of Radcliff, Anno 1271, 55 Hen. HI, on the Presentation of Sir Simon St. Liz, Knight.

Roger Skyret of Bucks, was instituted 2 Id. Jun. Anno 1314, 7 Edw. II, on the Resignation of Ralph de St. Liz, on the Presentation of Andrew de St. Liz.

Ralph de St. Liz, was instituted 4 Id. Julii, Anno 1325, 18 Edw. II, on the Death of Roger de Bucks, on the Presentation of Andrew St. Liz.

Thomas de Waldegrave was instituted 11 Cal. Aug. Anno 1349, 23 Edw. HI, on the Death of Ralph, last Rector, on the Presentation of John de Wolverton.

Walter

Walter Heynes was instituted 15 Cal. Oct. Anno 1361, on the Presentation of Thomas Brembre, on the Death of Thomas last Rector. He occurs Rector Anno 1367, 41 Edw. III.

William Knight, Rector of Radeliff, died Anno 1374, 48 Edw. III, and was succeeded by

William Burghard, instituted 28 Mar. Anno 1374, 48 Edw. III, on the Presentation of William Wickham, Lord of Radcliff, and Bishop of Winchester.

Robert Townsend was instituted April 2, Anno 1376, 50 Edw. III, on the Presentation of the said William Wickham. He exchanged it for High Clere in Hants with

John Simonds of Stratton, July 5, Anno 1377, 51 Edw. III, he exchanged it for Colne Dennis in Co. Gloucest. with John Bertlet, and he became instituted 6 Feb. Anno 1389, 12 Rich. II, on the Presentation of the Wardens, Fellows, and Scholars, of St. Mary Winton College in Oxford, as all his Successors have been. He exchanged it for St. Nicholas Prebend, in St. Mary's College in Shrewshury, with John Morall, 16 March, Anno 1392.

John Hertehall, probably the same as Morall, died Rector here Anno 1401, 2 Hen. IV, and was succeeded by John Fyton, instituted Aug. 15, Anno 1401. He resigned it, and was succeeded by Richard Malford, A. M. presented Dec. 13, Anno 1402. He resigned it, and was succeeded by Richard Colyer, instituted Dec. 13, Anno 1403.

William Molkutt, accepted it Anno 1412, and refigned it the next Year. William Stapulford, LL. B. was instituted 9 Dec. Anno 1413, and changed it for a Chantry in St. Paul's Cathedral London with

Thomas Barker, OS. 16, Anno 1416. He exchanged it for Wennington in Essex with

William Thede, Ost. 19, Anno 1418. He exchanged it for Hugenden in this County with Augerum Timberland, Dec. 2, Anno 1421. He exchanged it for North-Weld in Essex, with

Thomas Peche, Nov. 2, Anno 1422. He died Anno 1447, 25 Hen.VI, and was succeeded by John Pelcot, 16 Mar. Anno 1447, on whose Resignation

William Paket, LL. B. became instituted 5 March, Anno 1449. He died Anno 1496, and was succeeded by John Deere or Deie, A. M. instituted in July, Anno 1496, 11 Hen. VII on Paket's Death. He died Anno 1527, 18 Hen. VIII, and was succeeded by

Robert Seborne, A. M. instituted 12 July, Anno 1527, 18 Hen. VIII; he occurs Rector Anno 1544, 35 Hen. VIII, as does

Robert Jones, Anno 1555 and Anno 1561, as does

K k 2

Robert

Robert Foster, Anno 1562. He died and was buried here Dec. 1, and succeeded by Richard Daniel, A. M. presented 5 Mar. Anno 1602, on the Death of Robert Foster. He was buried here April 5, Anno 1608, and succeeded by

Ambrose Sacheverell, LL.B. instituted May 18, 1608. He died Anno 1646, being also Prebendary of Chichester and Rector of Tadmerton, and was succeeded by

Francis Bayley, A. M. instituted Aug. 16, Anno 1646. His Successor

was

Robert Townsend, presented July 7, Anno 1648. He died Rector here, and of Preston, and was buried at Preston, Oct. 6, Anno 1706.

John Norborn, A. M. succeeded, and was instituted Nov. 22, Anno 1706.

He died Anno 1726, and was buried here, and succeeded by Richard Percival, LL. B. instituted 10 May, Anno 1727. He died and was buried at Adderbury Co. Oxon, and succeeded by Charles Halford, LL. B. the present Rector. Anno 1735, instituted Feb. 17, 1730-1.

SHALSTON,

ALLED in Doemsday Book Celdestone, quasi Coldeast Town, or the Cold East Town; or Ceolestan, which in Saxon may be termed Cottage Town, from Ceole, Gurgustium, a little Cottage. It is thus surveyed in Doomsday Book.

Terra Episcopi Bajocensis, in Stodsfield Hundred.

Ipse Episcopus tenet in Celdestone v Hidas pro uno Manerio; Terra est v Carucatarum. In Dominio sunt ii; et iv Villani, cum i Bordario, babentibus ii Carucatas; et tertia potest sieri. Ibi iii Servi. Silva l Porconum. Valet xxx Solidos; quando recepit xx Solidos. Tempore Regis Edwardi iv Libras.

The Arable is five Carucates. There are two in Demesse, and four Villans or Copyholders, and one Bordair or Cottager. They have two Ploughs, and a third can be made. There are three Servants. Mast for fifty Hogs. It is worth 30s. when he received 20s. In King Edward's Time it was worth 4 l.

Two Thanes or Knights held it for two Manors; Godric held three Hides, and Willaus two Hides; and they could fell their Lands to whom they would.

Azor, Son of Toti, held this Manor, and could fell it.

After the Bishop of Baieux's Forseiture, Anno 1088, sufficiently spoken of (as he held ten Manors in this Division,) I presume his Lands here might come into Robert Doyly, the other Lord's Hands; and so he having acquired both Manors, on his founding Oseney Abbey, Anno 11292, endowed it with the Tenths of his Demessines here, as he had also done with those in his other

However several Demessions here were, as seems to me, in Hen. Ild's Time in Owners Hands, hence furnamed, who occur Benefactors to the Priory of Luffield; but that Convent's greatest Benefactors were the Baynells, whom I find possessed of the Manor here in King John's Reign, about the Year 1202; and are, Tempore Hen. III, returned Anno 1224, to hold a Knight's Fee here of the Honour of Henry de Oyly b.

In the Register of Luffield, I find that William Baynell confirmed the Donation of Land, which Walter Son of Harvey de Shalfton had given to that Convent. And William Son of William Baynell gave a Yard Land at Shalfton. which belonged to Hugh Son of Walter de Shalfton. The Baynells calfo, as Lords here, granted the Monks a Relaxation of all Secular Services, and confirmed several other Donations to Luffield; in which Register it is set forth, That there were in Hen. IIId's Time 4, 21 Yard Land in Shalfton in the Lord and his Tenants Hands: And that besides these twenty one, there were three Yard Lands in the Hands of John Walcot; one Yard Land in John Parkyns's. Hands; one in John Mynns, and that the Prior of Luffield had 7 Yard Land, one of which was called Aldeswell; however in the Rental of Luffield, Anno 1468, not long before the annexing of it to Westminster Abbey, all their Revenues in Shallton, were returned to be only 11. 8 s. 7 d. and the total. Number of Acres that Priory occupied here, were then estimated to be only 1:15 and an half.

Anno 1291, in the Taxation of Spiritualties, I find the Abbey of Oseney received hence two Marks, or 11. 6s. 8d. In which Year the Temporalties. of the Priory of Luffield were 3 l. 2 s. 5 d. besides 6 s. 8 d. in Spiritualties...

But I return now to the further Account of the Lords of Shalston, viz. the Baynells, who having continued Lords of this Town, and Patrons of this Church, 'till after the Year 1300, seem to have ended in the Male Line in Edw. IId's Reign, when this Estate came by the Marriage of Mariana, Daughter and Heir of Baynell, to Laurence Ayete: For I find Anno 1324, 18 Edw. II, a Fine passed of this Manor 8 of Shaldestone by Thomas de Techewick, Guardian of the said Mariana, to Walter de Knyght, who granted it to the said Laurence de Ayete, and Mariana his Wise, and to the Heirs of their Bodies; which Laurence having also about the same Time made a Feossment h of this Manor and Advowson to Richard Damory, Lord of Bucknell Co. Oxon, and Thornborough, obtained a Surrender of the same, and resumed his Grant made to Damory.

To Laurence Ayete succeeded Alan his Son and Heir, as mentioned in Foxcote, who leaving Issue only a Daughter and Heir, named Margery, (not Mariana, as in Dugdale,) she brought both Manors, viz. Foxcote and Shalston, to her Husband's Family, viz. the Purefoys, the present Lords of Shalsten, Anno 1735, who have possessed this Manor above 330 Years, for tweive Generations, as may be feen by the following Account here exhibited i; For which, and many other Informations in this History, I stand indebted to the present Lord hereof, Henry Purefoy, Esq. who has very kindly imparted to me what his Writings furnished of his ancient Family; who have also for several Centuries been Gentlemen of eminent Note in the Counties of Leicester and Warwick, as may be seen in Burton's and Dugdale's Histories of these two Counties, to which I shall refer; and confine my Account here to the Time when they fettled in these Parts, which was about the Year 1410, by Marriage of William Purefoy of Shirford Co. Warwick, with Margery, Daughter and Heir of the aforesaid Alan Ayete, by whom he had Issue Philip Purefoy, who dying Anno 1468, and having joyntured in this Manor Isabel his Wife, Daughter of John Brome, of Badsley Clinton Co. Warwick, she brought it in Marriage, Anno 1472, to her second Husband, John Denton of Blackthorne Co. Oxon, (tho' I find it also Anno 1477, in the Hands of Richard Fowler, as aforementioned in Foxcote.) However John Denton dying seized thereof, Anno 1497, and she surviving him about 40 Years, continued in Possession of it, 'till about the Year 1538, or 1540, when on her Death it reverted to Nicholas Puresoy, Son to John Purefoy, her first Husband Philip Purefoy's younger Brother, who resided here and left a numerous Issue, marrying no less than three Wives, and dying Feb. 18, 1547, was buried here, and succeeded by Edward his eldest Son, by his first Wife, viz. Alice, Daughter of John Denton, of Bastisleigh Co. Berks. This Edward died June 21, 1558, and was buried at Shalfton, and succeeded by William Purefoy his eldest Son, by Anne Daughter of Richard Fettyplace: his Successor was William his Son, who died July 15, 1595, and by Cecily his Wife, Daughter of John Goodwin of Upper Win-

Leicester, and dying Anno 1594, was succeeded by George Purefoy his Son, who married Mary, youngest Daughter and Co-heir of Sir Valentine Knightley of Falwesley or Fawfley Co. Northampton, who dying Anno 1617, he married Jane, Widow of Sir Thomas Glover, as feems to me; who being joyntured here, resided at Shalston and kept Hospitality, as is by Tradition still remembred. died about 1622, and was succeeded by George Purefoy his Son, who removed to Wadley in Faringdon Parish Co. Berks: However he often retired from thence hither, and exercised great Hospitality and Charity at both his Seats, and dying 1659, left a numerous Issue, viz. five Sons, and seven Daughters, by his first Wife, who all lived to Mens and Womens Estates, whereof the eldest, George Purefoy, lived at Wadley, and dyed there Anno 1670, and was buried at Faringdon, as his Father was also; and by Katherine his Wife, Daughter and Co-heir of Sir Henry Willoughby (Widow of Sir James Bellingham,) left Issue Henry Purefoy his Son, made a Baronet Anno 1662; who dying Anno 1686, unmarried, and having his Estate (which lay in Norfolk, Yorksbire, Cheshire, Leicestershire, and Berksbire,) in his Power, of upwards of 4000 l. per Annum, by Will gave it profusely away to his Mother's Relations, from his own Family and Name, and in him the eldest Branch becoming extinct, and his eldest Uncle Henry Purefoy being disinherited, (as I learn) and going into Ireland, and dying there; this Estate at Shalston came to his second Uncle, viz. Knightley Purefoy, (third Son of George Purefoy the fecond, and younger Brother to his Father George Purefoy,) who refided at Shalfton, and died and was buried there Anno 1691, leaving Issue by Mary his Wife, Daughter and Coheir of Captain Henry Sandford, of Bobbin-Court in Kent, two Daughters, viz. Anne, who died unmarried, and Mary, Wife to Anthony Sambach, of Snowshill Co. Gloucester, and an only Son, viz. Henry Purefoy, Esq; who died Anno 1704, and was buried here; and by Elizabeth his Wife, Daughter and Coheir of Leonard Fish, Citizen of London, left Issue an only Son furviving him, viz. Henry Purefoy aforementioned, the present Lord of this Parish, Anno 1735, who is as yet unmarried.

In the old Deeds of this Family I find that Anno 1415, 2 Hen. V, this Manor of Shalfton was vested in Trustees to their use during Alan Ayete's Life, they to pay him an Annuity of twenty Marks a Year by quarterly Payments, the Remainder to go to William Puresoy and his Wise, the said Alan's Daughter and their Heirs.

Anno 1541 I find a Conveyance of Lands here and at Westbury, from John Denton, to Edward Puresoy, Son to Nicholas Puresoy, his Grandson by Nicholas's first Wise. And about three Years after, Anno 1544, the said Nicholas Puresoy conveyed Lands here to Martin Puresoy, his youngest Son.

Anno 1571 this Parish is said to have been inclosed. The Advowson hath been an Appendant to the Manor from the beginning.

The

264 HISTORY OF SHALSTON.

The Parish of Sbalston, which is bounded West by Westbury, North by Bitlesden, East by Stow, and South by Water-Stratsord Co. Bucks, and Finemere Co. Oxon, contains 1274 Acres. The Number of Families is 22, and of Souls 118, as was returned Anno 1712. It was then assessed to the Land Tax 801. 155. 9 d.

The Rectory was valued Anno 1291, at eleven Marks, or at fix Marks, as by another Valuation, with a Portion of two Marks deducted to the Abbey of Ofeney. Anno 1534, it was valued as it now pays First-Fruits at 8 l. 0s. 5d. and is returned to the Bishop to be worth 80 l. per Annum.

The Church, which is dedicated to St. Edward the Confessor, King of England, whose Festival is Ost. 13, (the Sunday after which is a Wake observed here,) is a mean Structure, consisting of a Nave or Body, which is Leaded; and North Ile which was formerly Leaded, but is now Tyled, as is the Chancel; at the West End, supported by the Walls of the Church, is a wooden Turret, Leaded at Top, in which hang two small Bells.

In the Chancel East Window, are the Arms of the Ayete's viz. Party per Pale Or and Gules, in Fess a Crescent.

And also the Arms of Westminster Abbey, Lords of Turweston, viz. Azure, a Cross Flory, between five Martlets, Or.

And also the Arms of Christ Church Priory in London, viz. Azure three Plates in Triangle conjoined to one another in the Center; charged with these symbolical Words, whereof non est is placed in the Center:

PATER NON EST FILIVS; FILIVS NON EST SPIRITVS SANC-TVS; SPIRITVS SANCTVS NON EST PATER: DEVS EST PA-TER; DEVS EST FILIVS; DEVS EST SPIRITVS SANCTVS.

In the North Ile is an antient Arch turned over an Old Gravestone: But no Inscription or Arms, or any Tradition to whom it belonged; but I prefume it was for Laurence Ayet, who probably built this Church, Temp. Edw. II, or III.

In the said North Ile is a small White Marble Compartment with the Arms of Puresoy, viz. Azure 3 Stirrups Or, impaling Fish, viz. Azure a Fess surmounted of a Bend charged with 5 Mullets; and on the Compartment this Inscription:

- "To the Memory of Henry Purefoy, Esq; who departed this Life July 28, the Year of our Lord 1704, and of his Age 40, and lies interred beneath this Place.
- " Elizabeth his forrowful Relict hath caused this Monument to be erected."

Which is all the Inscriptions here Anno 1735, except the following one in the Chancel, on an antique grey Marble, whereon is the Effigies of a Woman, and this Epitaph engraven, on a Plate of Brass, in old Characters:

" Pere liethburied Dame Susan Kyngeston, Mowes, the Clost Daughter of "Richard Fettyplace of East Childry in the County of Berks, Esq; " Deceasing, and late the Myse of John Kyngeston of Childrey in the said County

"County of Berks, Elq; also Decetted. The which Dame Susan " died the XXIII Day of Sep. in the Year of our Lord DCCCCXL.

" On whole Soul and all Christian Souls Ihelu habe Wercy.

N. B. Her Husband died Anno 1514, and was buried at Childrey, after which this Susan professing a single Life, retired and died here at her Nephew's.

Terrier Nov. 1, 1639, Ralph Purefoy, Rector.

The Parsonage, built Part Stone Part Timber and Thatcht, hath a Hall, Parlour, two Butteries, five Chambers boarded, Kitchen and Dairy, and little Room adjoining; a Barn of seven small Bays, a Stable, Cow House, Hogstye, a Garden and two Orchards, and a Close adjoining of an Acre; sour Plotts of Meadow in lieu of the Tythe of the Fallow Mead of the Lord's Land, two in Dry Field, a third in the nether Corn Field, the sourch not to be found; sixteen Ridges of Arable Land, forty Lands, two head Lands, nine Butts, four Yards, and some short Butts called Parson Hill, and sive Leas of Furz and Commons in the Woods of Shalston, Westbury, and Bittlesden without Stint.

L 12 · STEEPLE

STEEPLE CLAYTON, or CLEYDON,

RECEIVES its Appellation from its Soil, viz. Clayey Town, Hill, or Down, and its Distinction from the other Claydons or Claytons, by having a Steeple or Tower; it was given by William the Conqueror to his Niece Judith, whom he made Countess of Huntingdon. But she forfeiting the King's Favour, he took away from her this Manor a, which was surveyed on compiling of Doomsday Book as the King's. It was then the most populous Town in the whole Division, of what is since Edw. II's Time known by the Name of Buckingham Hundred; before which this was, as seems to me, the Capital of one of the three Hundreds, viz. Lamua Hundred, which Hundred Court, (as I take it) was held where there is now the Vestigia of an Incampment, on the South East Side of the Town, not far from the Church. Here were, on compiling Doomsday Book, no less than sifty Copyholders, or Villani. But I come to exhibit the Survey itself.

In Lamua Hundred.

Alricus Coquus tenet de Rege Claindone. Pro xx Hidis se desendebat.
Terra est iv Carucatarum. In Dominio v Hida, et ibi sunt v Carucata, et l'Villani, et iii Bordarii babentes xix Carucatas. Ibi vii Servi. Pratum iv Carucatarum. Silva c Porcorum. In totis Valenciis valet et valuit xvi Libras; quando recepit xi Libras. Et tantundem tempore Regis Edwardi.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Eddiva Regina.

Alric the Cook holds of the King Claydon. It was taxed at twenty Hides. The Arable is four Carucates. Five Hides are in Demeine, and there are five Carucates, and fifty Copyholders, and three Cottagers having nineteen Ploughs. There are feven Servants, and Meadow for four Carucates. Mast for an hundred Hogs. In the whole it is and was worth 16 l. when he received 11 l. and so much in King Edward's Days.

Edith, King Edward's Queen, held this Manor.

In King Hen. I's Reign this Manor being in the Crown, that King gave it to his Concubine Edith Forn, as I find in the Register of Oseney Abbey, Folio 96. now belonging to Christ Church, Oxford, in which is this Account:

- " Memorandum, Quod Henricus Rex primus, Filius Wilhelmi Bastardi, dedit Editham (Filiam) Forn Amasiam suam, Roberto de Olleyo sibi
 - " in Uxorem, et cum ea totam Claydonam in liberum Maritagium: Ad

" Post mortem verò ejusdem Roberti præsata Editha de libero Marita-

"gio suo quamplurimas terras in Claydon et alibi dedit dictis Canonicis." How this Manor came to the Fitz Johns I have not seen; but in Hen. Ill's Reign it was Part of their Demesnes, and so came Anno 4 Edw. I, Anno 1276, on the Death of John Fitz John, to his Son Richard Fitz John; who Anno 9 Edw. I, Anno 1281, had a Dispute with William Abbat of Oseney about Suit of Court in this Manor of Claydon for Lands and Tenements held of Richard Fitz John, but it was amicably decided.

In the faid Register of Oseney I find that Edith, Wife to Robert Doyley, their great Benefactress had given to the Abbey of Oseney two Hides in Claydon, which her Son Henry de Oily confirmed to them, with the Profits of his Watermill at Claydon. As to this Richard Fitz John he died possessed of this Manor zinno 1297, 25 Edw. I, whereupon it was affigned to Robert de Clifford and Idonea his Neice; but upon a new Partition of Lands made very soon after, this Manor of Claydon became the Property of Richard de Burgh, Earl of Ulster, and so came in Marriage, together with the whole Earldom of Uster, with a Daughter or Grand daughter of Richard de Burgh, to Lionel Duke of Clarence; second Son of King Edw. III, who leaving Issue only a Daughter, viz. Philippa, wedded to Edmund Mortimer, Earl of March &, this Manor descended to her Grandson Richard Duke of York, Father to King Edw. IV, and Richard III; and became the Patrimony of the Blood Royal h. and was affigned in Dower to Geeily Duchess of York. As it had been held after Lionel Duke of Clarence's Death, Temp. Rich. II, &c. by the Mortimers, and after the Death of the faid Czcily, which happened Anno 1491, Temp. Hen. VIII, that King granted this Manor to Elizabeth his Queen, Granddaughter to the said Duchess of York, Anno 1491: And it also became afterwards Anno 1508, in the last Year of Hen. VII's Reign k, Part of the Dower of his Son's first Wife, viz. Catharine, Princess of Wales; under whom it was rented on Payment of 22 l. 6s. 8 d. on a Demise made of it to John Giffard; as it was also on another Demise rented by Ralph Giffard at 100%. per Annum: But the Giffards Interest being purchased by the Chaloners, or otherwife reverting to the Crown, was by Letters Patent of King Philip and Queen Mary, dated 16 Oct. Anno 1557, for the Sum of 2100 l. granted in Fee with a Release of the said Rent of 100 l. to Sir Thomas Chaloner, his Heirs and Affigns, for ever, in which Family of the Chaloners it contined Anno 1616; we are told that in that Year there was digged up in this Parish, in Sir Thomas Chaloner's Woods, near the great Pond there, an Earthen Pot, full of the Coins of Alectus and Caraufius, Roman Emperors.

But this Family of Chaloner being attainted Anno 1660, King Charles II, granted this Manor to Richard Lane Esq. 1 whose Interest and Right being purchased by a younger Family of the Chaloners, they again repossessed and held it 'till the Year 1705, when it was sold on June 30, by Mr. William Chaloner, to Sir John Verney of Middle Claydon^m, Bart. and now belongs, Anno 1735, to his Son and Heir the Right Honourable Ralph Verney Lord Viscount Fermanagh, whose illustrious Ancestors have, for upwards of 500 Years, been possessed, whose illustrious Ancestors have, for upwards of 500 Years, been possessed of great Estates in these Parts; and remained seated at the adjacent Parish of Middle Claydon aforesaid, a Mile distant, no less than eleven Generations in a Lineal Descent; the Manor of which they purchased in Henry the VIth's Reign; and built there in Henry the VIIth's Time a spacious Mansion House; which hath at various Times been enlarged and improved to such a Degree, that it may now be deemed one of the most magnificent old Seats in the County.

As to the Advowson, it being given, as before mentioned, to Oseney Abbey, Anno 1112, 12 Hen. I, it was early appropriated to that Convent, and they continued Patrons till the Dissolution, Anno 1541, 32 Hen. VIII, when it was made Part of the Endowment of a Hen. VIIIth's new erected See of Oxford; in which the Rectory and Advowson of the Vicaridge continued 'till the Alienation thereof by Queen Elizabeth; who by Letters Patent, Anno 1590, in the 32d Year of her Reign, granted this Rectory and Advowson of the Vicaridge to Thomas Crompton, Robert Wright, and Gelly Merricke, who fold it to the Chaloners, Lords of the Town, and so it hath been appendant to the Manor ever since, and is now in the Patronage of the above mentioned the Right Honourable the Lord Fermanagh, by Purchase from the Chaloners.

In the Year 1656, here was a School House built in this Town by Sir Thomas Chaloner. Over the Door of which are these Letters: Hanc Scholam Fundavit T. C. Anno 1656; but the Endowment, which was, as I learn, 12 l. per Annum, being sunk and alienated, it is almost come to nothing, and little Care is taken of having any Scholars. Here was a Clock put up, which still remains.

This Parish is of large Extent, and contains about 2600 Acres. It is bounded by Middle Claydon East; by Padbury and Addington North; by Twyford South; and by Hillersden West. The Number of Families, as returned Anno 1712, were about 90, and of Souls about 350, and it was then affessed to the Land Tax 1791. 115. 4d.

The Manor House, which was a roomy Building of Studd and Plaister'd Walls, stood near the Church; but it has been pulled down and built anew with Brick, and made a Farmer's or Tenant's House about the Year 1720.

The Rectory, Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, was valued at 15 Marks by one Valuation; and at 14 by another. Anno 1534, 25 Hen. VIII, the Vicaridge was charged for First-Fruits, at 13 l. 3 s. 9 d. and is given in of the clear yearly Value of 75 l.

HISTORY OF STEEPLE CLAYDON. 271

The Terrier returned Anno 1607, 5 Jac. I, by Adrian Bayley the then Vicar, exhibits that the Glebe confifts of a Yard Land, having a Close of one Acre, and a Rood; nine Acres of Meadow, and twenty fix Acres of Arable, and a Home Stall: And that the Vicaridge House contained two Bays Thatcht, a Barn of two Bays, and a Lean to, a Cow House and Hay Barn.

The Church, which is dedicated to St. Michael (as several Churches situate on Eminences are,) has only a Leaded Body, and Tyled Chancel; and an Embattled Tower at the West End; in which are four modern Bells; to which a Treble has been added of late to make them sive.

Here are no Monuments or Painted Glass remaining whatsoever, or any thing worth noting, nor so much as any one Inscription in the whole Church.

The Vicars Names, as they occur in the Registers of Lincoln, are as follows:

Roger is the first I meet with. He refigned Anno 1260, 44 Hen. III, and was succeeded by

Simon, Anno 1260, 44 Hen. III. After whom

Alan occurs Anno 1289, 17 Edw. I. On whose Resignation

John Carter, instituted April 18, 1471. After whom

John Stapleford Occurs Vicar Anno 1521. He died Anno 1536, and was succeeded by

Oliver

272 HISTORY OF STEEPLE CLAYDON.

Oliver Olinton, instituted 23 Aug. Anno 1536, 27 Hen. VIII, on the Death of John Stapleford. He is the last Vicar that was presented by the Abbey of Oseney, by which Convent's Title all his Predecessors had been presented, or by their Lessee Tenants. He died Anno 1545, and appointed in his Will to be buried in the Chancel here. His Successor was

Henry Maydeman, instituted 8 March, Anno 1545, 36 Hen. VIII, on the Presentation of Robert King, the first Bishop of Oxford. He died Anno 1549, and was fucceeded by

Anthony Carr, A. M. instituted 2 Nov. Anno 1549, 3 Edw. VI, on the Presentation of the Bishop of Oxford. His Successor was Henry Elstonsted, instituted Jan. 23, Anno 1556, on the Presentation of the Bishop of Oxford, on the Death of the last Vicar, not named, tho no doubt it was Anthony Carr. His Successor was Thomas Barker, instituted July 7, Anno 1559, I Eliz. on the Collation of the Bishop of Lincoln, on a Lapse on the Death of the last Vicar not named.

Richard Morehouse succeeded Anno 1565. But I have not his Institution. Theodore Wheton, succeeded Anno 1569, 11 Eliz. on the Death of More-bouse. On whose voiding it

Richard Parre was instituted, April 10, Anno 1575, on the Presentation of Edmund Broket. On his Death one John White set up a Title to the Patronage, but his Claim was set aside. He, viz. Richard Parre, begun the Register. He was buried here, July 20, Anno 1597, and succeeded by Adrian Bayley, A. B. who was presented by William and Henry Fleetwood, Esqs, Nov. 25, 1597. He was buried here 15 May, Anno 1627, and succeeded by

John Aris, collated by the Bishop of Lincoln, on a Lapse, Anno 1627. He died 29 Aug. Anno 1657, and was buried at Middle Claydon, where he was Rector, and succeeded by

Edmund Fleetwood, Anno 1657. He continued Vicar 58 Years, and dying Anno 1716, in Lancashire, among his Relations, where he had lived several Years, was fucceeded by

William White, A. B. Vicar of Padhury, who quitted that Living for this, to which he became prefented by the Right Honourable Sir John Verney, Lord Viscount Fermanagh, Anno 1715. He died and was buried in the Chancel, OB. 13, Anno 1733, and succeeded by George Fraser, the present Vicar, Anno 1735.

The Register begins Anno 1575, 17 Eliz. and has these Entries which I noted.

William Chaloner, LL. B. Anno 1628.

S T O W,

O called from the Saxon Word Scop, which fignifies a Place, as Godftowe, Brightstow, &c. as indeed this may, by way of Eminence, be properly so entitled; for the Situation of it is not to be exceeded; it having all the Ornaments of Nature, to which have been added those of Art, to render the Mansion Seat and Gardens of its Lord one of the Wonders of the Kingdom: As has been elegantly set forth in two incomparable Poems; one on the Description of the said Gardens by Gilbert West, Esq. late Student of Christ Church, Oxford, printed Anno 1732; and the other on the Subject of Taste, by the celebrated Mr. Pope; who hath inscribed it to the Right Honurable the Lord Cobbam, who has thus exquisitely adorned it, insomuch as nothing seems wanting to render its Beauty compleat, in all Respects, except the re-edifying the tall Spire Steeple of Bucks, heretofore one of its principal Views; which would redound to the fingular Honour of this County, and remain a standing Monument of Affection to the Mother Town, and beyond all other Illustrations dignify the antient Family Motto, TEMPLA QUAM DILECTA.

But I come to speak of the Parish in general, which consists of three Vills, viz. Stow, Langport, and Dodford, and shall begin with Stow, which is thus described in Doomsday Book:

Terra Episcopi Bajocensis, in Stodsield Hundred.

Robertus Olgi et Rogerius Iveri tenent de Episcopo Stou. Pro v Hidis se desendebant. Terra est v Carucatarum; in Dominio est una, et adbuc ii possunt fieri. Ibi iii Bordarii, baben- in Demesne, and two more may be tes dimidium Carucata, et una et dimi-

Robert Oilgi or Doyly and Roger Ivery hold Stow of the Bishop of Baieux. It is rated at five Hides. The Arable is four Carucates; one is made out. There are three Cottagers M m holding dium possunt fieri. Pratum vi Carucatarum. Silva c l. Porcorum. Valet 40s. Tempore Regis Edwardi 60 s.

holding half a Carucate; and one half more may be made. There is Meadow sufficient for six Carucates. Mast for an hundred Hogs, It is worth 40 s. and it was valued at 60 s. in King Edward's Time.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Turgisus, Homo Baldwini, et vendere potuit. Turgisus, Tenant to Baldwin, held this Manor, and could sell it.

On this Odo, Bishop of Baieux, being dispossessed of his Lands Anno 1088, this Manor of Stow was obtained by the said Robert Doyly and Roger de Ivery his Feodary Tenants; who seem for the most Part to have divided this Parish between them; Ivery taking Dodford, and Doyly, Stow; who having, Anno 1075, founded a Collegiate Church to the Honour of St. George within his Castle at Oxford, endowed it with his Demesnes here; which, on the Translation of his Foundation to Oseney, Anno 1129, 29 Hen. I, he gave and confirmed to the Canons there (as may be seen in the Monasticon, Vol. II. p. 138.) viz. Ecclesiam de Stowa, cum tota Villa et Capella de Morton, et duabus Hidis de Feodo Santi Georgii, in eadem Villa, cum Boscis et aliis rebus et Libertatibus ad Ecclesiam Santi Georgii pertinentibus.

By this Donation the Convent of Oseney, being possessed of this Manor and Advowson, they got the Rectory very early appropriated to them, and a Vicar ordained, as I judge, about the Year 1180, 26 Hen. II, in whose Reign, as I presume, it was, that Moreton Chapel was dissevered from it, and made, as it now continues, a distinct Rectory, and Parish. But besides what Robert Doyly gave these Canons in this Parish, I find that Anno 10 Hen. III, 1227, Ralph de Langport, John Fitz Maurice, and Ralph Hareng, levied a Fine of Lands here to Richard Abbat of Oseney; and Anno 1242, 25 Hen. III, Richard de Gordino of Dodford granted Lands in Dodford and Stowe to John Leche, Abbat of Oseney.

Also Anno 52 Hen. III, 1268, a Fine was levied between Richard de Apeltre, Abbat of Oseney, and Andrew Moriz, of Lands in Stow and Langport; on Execution of which the Abbat and Convent covenanted, that they would allow the said Andrew Moriz, whom they had received into their Monastery, yearly for his Life, "two Marks of Silver, and allot him a convenient Apartment in their Abbey, et singulis diebus Corrodia duorum Canoni- corum, and find him a Servant and Groom, and two Loaves, called Mayne Michia, unam Bissam, unam Salem, two Flaggons of their best Ale, and one of the second Sort, and a third of the last Degree; and from their Kitchen, the Mess of two Canons; and also provide for his Servant and Groom what was necessary from the Abbat's Hall; and find him yearly fix Load of Wood, six Quarter of Coals, two Load of Straw, sour Load of Hay, Soap, and Cheeses."

^{*} Ex Ligulis, Finium Co. Bucks.

Ex Registro de Oseney in Archivis Ædis Christi Oxon.

In the Register of Oseney, I sind it mentioned, that on these Considerations the said Andrew Moriz granted the Convent his Capital Mansion Court, Gardens, and Woods, and two Yard Land in Languart and Stow: And also that he devoted his Body to be buried in Oseney Convent, which was, no doubt, performed; for in an Account of the Tombs at Oseney after the Dissolution of that Abbey, I find Mention made of the Monument of this Andrew Moriz, and that near him lay buried Stephen de Templar, who gave to Oseney a Mill at Fullwell.

In an Account I have seen of Tenures d, it is returned, that the Abbat of Oseney held Stow in Eleemosynam, or Frank Almoign.

This Monastery therefore being thus endowed, continued Lords here, and Patrons of the Church'till the general Dissolution, when their Abbey, being changed into a Cathedral, by King Hen. VIII, the new Bishop thereof was endowed with this Manor, valued Anno 1534 at 151. 16s. 11d. and with Lands at Langport valued at 31. 15s. 9d. and at Dodford at 11. 8s. making in the Whole 211. 15. 2d. But thro the changeable Humour of that Prince, this Foundation of Ofeney being dissolved, and removed into his College of Christ Church, his Son Edward VI, by Letters Patent dated Sept. 2, Anno 1547, gave thereunto all these Estates at Stow, which accordingly appertained to this second established Bishoprick, 'till such time as Queen Elizabeth, aking into her Hands the Estates of the See of Oxford, in the Vacancy of the Bishoprick, by Letters Patent, dated 27 Jan. Anno 1590, in the 32d Year of her Reign, granted to Thomas Crompton, Robert Wright, and Gelly Merrick, the Manor, Rectory, and Advowson of Stow in Perpetuity, to them and their Heirs: Who very soon after, by Deeds of Lease and Release, dated . . . conveyed the Inheritance and Fee Simple of the Premisses to John Temple Esq. of the very ancient Family of the Temples, of Temple Hall Co. Leicester, descended from the old Earls of Leicester, as may be seen in the Account of them in the fourth Volume of the Peerage of England, published by Mr. Arthur Collins, with two Supplemental Volumes: To which, and other Pedigrees of this Family, I shall refer, and only observe here, that this Family had been, as seems to me, resident in this County in Hen. VIth's Time; and were, as I find, Lessee Tenants to Oseney Abbey before the Dissolution; for Peter Temple, who occurs posses'd of Lands in these Parts Anno 1554, died here 28 May, Anno 1577, long before the Purchase of this Manor, and was buried at Burton Dercet, (which Estate he purchased Anno 1560) as Dugdale tells us, in his History of Warwickshire, and was succeeded by John Temple his Son, who served the Honourable Office of High Sheriff of this County Anno 1596; and dying Anno 1603 was buried here May 11, leaving Issue by Susan his Wise, Daughter and Coheir of Sir Thomas Spencer, of Everton in the County of Northampton, Sir Thomas Temple his Eldest Son and Heir, created a Baronet 25 Nov. Anno 1612, on the first Institution of that Order. He was, Anno 1616, High Sheriff of this County, and Anno 1620, High Sheriff of that of Warwick, and dying about the Year 1625, was, as I judge, buried at Burton Dercet, Co. Warwick. His Wife was that famous Lady Dame Hester Temple, Daughter of Miles Sandys of Latimers Co. Bucks Esq. who, as Fuller tells us, lived to see above Seven hundred of her own Descendants, of which there were no less than nine Daughters all married to Gentlemen of good Fortunes and Families: She was born at Latimers 1569, and dyed 1656. Her second Son was Sir Thomas Temple. feated at Stanton-Barry, who died Anno 1632, and was succeeded by Sir Peter Temple, Father to William Temple of Luffield, who died Anno 1706, and left Issue William Temple of North Crawley Esq. and Peter Temple, who are next in Remainder of the Title of Baronet; and a Daughter named Anne, Wife to Hugh Cafull, Alderman of Buckingham. The eldest Son of Sir Thomas Temple and this Lady Hester Temple, was Sir Peter Temple e, who married to his first Wife Anne, Daughter and Coheir of Sir Arthur Throckmorton, who died and was buried here 23 Jan. Anno 1619, by whom he had an only surviving Daughter, viz. Anne, Wife to Thomas Roper Lord Vifcount Baltinglas: His fecond Wife was Christian, Daughter and Coheir of Sir John Leveson, who died and was buried here at Stow, April 2, Anno 1655, two Years after her Husband Sir Peter Temple, who was, Anno 1635, High Sheriff of this County, and Member of Parliament for the County Town of Bucks, from 1639 to the Time of his Death, which happened Sept. 12, Anno 1652, when he was buried at Stow, where about two Years before his Death he had enclosed a Park on the disparking of Wicken Park Co. Northampton by the Lord Spencer, the Deer of which he bought: His, viz. Sir Peter Temple's Successor, was Sir Richard Temple his only Son and Heir, created, Anno 1660, Knight of the Bath; he rebuilt the Manor House or Fine Seat of the Family at Stow, and endowed the Vicaridge with an Annual Rent-charge of 50 l. per Annum, as may be feen in Bishop Kennet's History of Impropriations, p. 430. He was elected Member of Parliament in all the Parliaments holden in the Reigns of King Charles II, James II, and William III, 'till the Time of his Death, for the ancient and loyal Town of Bucks, of which he had the Honour to be chosen High Steward, and so was continued by the Mayor and Aldermen in the Charter obtained in King Charles Il's Reign. He died and was buried at Stow, May 15, 1697, and succeeded by his Son and Heir, Sir Richard Temple, who, by Letters Patent, dated 19 OA. 1714, Anno 1 George I, was created a Peer of this Realm by the Title of Baron Cobbam, of Cobbam in Kent; and April 7 Anno 1718, made Viscount of the same Place. He also served for the County Town of Buckingham in all King William's Parliaments, after his Father's Death; and in the first and second Parliaments of Queen Anne, was returned Member for the County of Buckingbam; and in the two succeeding Parliaments, viz. Anno 7 and o of that Queen, was again elected Burgess for the Town of Bucks. His Lordship married Anne Daughter and Heir of Edmund Halsey of Southwark, Esq. but having no Issue by her, his Titles and Estate were limited by him to descend to his second Sister, Hester, Wise of Richard Grenville, of Wotton, Esq. and to the Heirs Male of her Body; his three younger Brothers, viz. Purbeck Temple, Henry Temple, and Arthur Temple, all dying unmarried.

Vid. Collins's Baronage, vol. iv.

His

His Lordship has greatly improved his Seat, and made the most elegant Gardens in 'the Kingdom for Beauty and Extent, tho' they are still divested of what was esteemed by his Father the most valuable Prospect, viz. the View of the Steeple of Buckingbam. They contain above 200 Acres, and and are still enlarging.

Going into the Army in his younger Years, he was, Anno 1703, in the first Year of Queen Anne, made a Colonel; and Anno 1706 declared a Brigadier General; and Anno 1708 a Major General; and Anno 1727 Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Buckingham; which Office his Lordship enjoys Anno 1735, being also High Steward of the County Town of Bucks. His Lordship's Mother, Mary, Daughter of Henry Knapp, of Oxfordshire, surviving 'till the Year 1726, had the Felicity to see her Children most honourably settled in the World, viz. her eldest Daughter Mary, being first married to Richard West, Archdeacon of Berks, and Prebendary of Winchester, and after to Sir John Langham Bart. Christian her third Daughter being married to the present Sir Thomas Lyttelton, one of the Lords of the Admiralty (whose second Son is the worthy Charles Lyttelton of the Inner Temple, Esq. a Gentleman that has done true Honour to his Country, in studying the Antiquities thereof, in which he is excellently skilled;) Hester, her second Daughter was Wise to Richard Grenville Esq. as asoresaid; and Penelope, her sourth and youngest Daughter, to Moses Berenger, Citizen of London.

Having thus gone thro' the Account of Stow, I proceed to the other Vills, viz. Langport and Dodford, Members thereof; the first of these, viz. Langport, which takes it Name from the Long or Far Gate, viz. Longa Porta, is thus described in Doomsday Book.

Ranen Tenant to Wulvi Bishop of Dorchester held this Manor and could fell it.

That this first Manor of Langport, belonging to Walter Giffard, became involved in Stow, and passed after his Death, Anno 1164, for the most Part by Donation of several Benefactors to the Abbey of Oseney, I make no doubt; and also that Maignon Briton's Manor here was, with his Manor of Thornborough, given by his Grandson Hamon to the Priory of Luffield, seems no less apparent. What was therefore thus given to Ofeney at Langport being already intimated in the Account of Stow; I shall from Luffield Register in Folio's 118, 119. exhibit the Donors of Lands here at Langport to that Convent; and these were Robert de Langport, who granted to Luffield his Lands in Villa de Langport et extra; which was confirmed by Jordan his Son for eight Marks; whose Son Ralph de Langport also confirmed to the Monks of Luffield five Yard Land at Langport in perpetuam Eleemosynam. This was done about the Year 1202, as appears by its being witneffed by Simon Abbat of Tame, and Adam Abbat of Bittlesden.

Simon Son to Jeffry Martel gave also half a Yard Land at Langport to these Monks; which half Yard Land was demised, about the Year 1291, by the Convent of Luffield to William de Boicote, at the annual Rent of 2 s. 4d. as was the five Yard Lands of the Donation of their Ancestors, viz. Robert and Fordan de Langport leased Anno 1350, 23 Edw. III, to Richard Son of Richard de Langport, on the Payment of an annual Rent of 6 s. 8 d. the Payment of which I find was continued to be made to Luffield by Richard de Langport, Anno 1399, I Hen. IV, one of the last of this Family; whose Demesnes here came soon after, viz. Anno 1416, to the Family of the Dayrels, by Marriage of Eleanor, Daughter and Co-heir of Thomas Langport, to John Dayrell', a younger Son of the House of Lillingston Dayrell; which Family having obtained thereby the Languarts Estate here, have continued in Possession thereof ever since, and resided here at Langport, from about the Year 1574, when Francis the second Son of Paul Dayrell removed hither from Lillingston, and dying Anno 1609, was buried here at Stow, and succeeded by Edmund his eldest Son and Heir, who died 1633, and was buried at Stow; and succeeded by Abel his Son and Heir, Father to Edmund Dayrell, who died 1696, and was buried at Stow; and succeeded by Edmund Dayrell his Eldest Son and Heir; who is now, Anno1735, as has been shewn in Lilling-ston,

fion, seated at Langport, where, and at other Places, he has a good Estate. His House here is situate near the Manor House of the Temple Family.

But I come now to treat of the other Vill belonging to Stow, viz. Dodford, which is described in Doomsday Book as follows:

Terra Rogeri Iveri.

In Dodford tenet Haimundus de Terra est iv Carucatarum. Ibi est una, et tertia adhuc potest sieri. Ibi iv Bordarii et i Servus. Silva cc Porcorum. In totis Valenciis valet 20s. et valuit tempore Regis Edwardi 30 s.

Haimund holds of Roger Iveri two Rogerio ii Hidas pro uno Manerio. Hides in Dodford for one Manor. The Arable is four Carucates. There is one, and three others can be made. There are four Cottagers and one Mast for two hundred Servant. Hogs. In the whole it is worth 20 s. and was worth 30 s. in King Edward's Time.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Leuvinus, Homo Burgeredi, et vendere potuit.

Levin Burgered's Tenant, held this: Manor, and could fell it.

This Place, as I conceive, takes its Name from a Brook on which it stands; and from a Saxon Owner or Possessor named Dodda, or Dudda, whose Name I meet with on a Saxon Coin; tho' it is also a common Name in England, viz. Dod.

As Stow and Langport became for the most Part the Property of religious Houses or Monasteries, so did these Possessions of Ivery here pass in like Manner into the same Hands; their Lands at Dodford' being granted to the Con-For I find that Anno 1205, Thomas de St. Wallery convent of Bittlesden. firmed to the Abbey of Bittlesden all his Lands in Dodsord for the Salvation of his Soul, Edela his Wife, and Avery his Mother's Soul, Annora his Daughter's, and Reginald and Bernard his Brothers Souls.

And it is also returned in a Book of Tenures I have seen, a Quod Abbas de Bitlesden, tenet Mediatatem Villæ de Dodsord in perpetuam Eleemosynam.

I also find that William de Brewse confirmed what was given at Dodford to Bitle sden.

What appertained to Bittlesden Abbey, and also the Demesses belonging to the Convent of Luffield at Langport, coming by Marriage, as before mentioned, to the Temple Family from the Throckmortons and others; and the Lands belonging to Bittlesden Abbey in Dodford having been granted, Anno 34 Eliz. to William Typper and John Davy or Daw (both of which were noted acquirers of Monastical Estates) these have all of them passed to the Temple Family, insomuch that they are entire Owners of all the Estates in this Parish, as I am informed, except what is in the Possession of the Dayrells at Langport, as aforementioned.

In this Parish of Stow was born, Anno 1518, Thomas Bickley, Bi hop of Chichester, of whom see an Account in A. Wood's Athena Oxon, Vol. I. p., 176, 717. in the second Edition, printed Anno 1721. He was Fellow of Magdalen College, and Warden of Merton, to which last College having bequeathed 100 l. the Interest thereof is yearly given to one of the Fellows, to preach a Sermon on May 1, before the University, in Merton College Chapel.

Here is in this Parish a decayed Hamlet, called Boicot, reputed to be in Oxfordshire; tho' dissevered from it; Part of it is included in the spacious Gardens of the Lord Cobbam. This, as seems to me, having been Parcel of the Possessin of Lussield Priory, is reckoned together with Lussield extraparochial. Here was, as I have been informed, a Chapel of St. John Baptist at Boicote, which I find mention of in the Register of Lussield. And in their Rental Temp. Ediv. I; I find Boicote included. In the Vill of Langport is a Ground antiently known by the Name of Stock, or Stosseld, which gave Name to one of the three antient Hundreds of this Division, now known by the Name of Buckingham Hundred.

The Parish of Stow is of considerable Extent, and contains about 2500 Acres. It is bounded West by Bittlesden, Shalston, and Westbury; South by Water Stratsford and Radcliff; East by Moreton and Akeley; North by Lillingston Dayrell, and Silveston, which last Parish is in Co. Northampton.

The Number of Houses is 32, and of Souls 180, as returned 1712 to the Bishop of Lincoln. It was then assessed to the Land Tax 2231. 195. 7d. The Rectory was, Anno 1291, 19 Edward I, returned at sisteen Marks, and the Vicaridge at no more than three Marks. The Vicaridge was, Anno 1534, charged for first Fruits at 111. 145. 7d. It is returned to be now worth (with Sir Richard Temple's Endowment of a Rent Charge of 501.) 801. per Annum.

In a Terrier given in OA. 12, Anno 1607, John Marsh the then Vicar exhibited this Account, viz. that besides the Vicaridge House and an Acre and a Rood, no other Land belonged to it.

The Church here (which is dedicated to the Honour of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Sunday after which Festival, viz. August 15, there is a Feast kept in the Parish) is an uniform Structure, capable of being made one of the greatest Ornaments of the Place. It consists of a Body and two side Iles, which have Battlements on them, and a North Chancel, or Chapel, all which are Leaded, and Chancel which is Tyled. At the West End is an handsome embattled Tower with four Pinnacles; in it is a Clock, and five very tuneable Bells, cast out of sour about the Year 1661, as I am informed: Over the West Door at entring was a Crucifix, but it is defaced. And in a Niche or Arch still remaining between the Church and Chancel hung the Sacring or Saints Bell. It seems to have been built about King Henry the VIth's Time.

I meet with several Persons directing their Interrments here; as George Son of Thomas Sanders, which Thomas Sanders, Anno 1493, left a Legacy to buy a new Bell here: His Widow remarried Thomas Langston, who probably became Lessee Tenant to the Abbey of Oseney, as did the Temples also, as I judge, judge, Tempore Hen. VII. This Thomas Langton was Anno 1521, mentioned in the Will of Richard Halley, Vicar of Stow, who directed the Image of the Holy Trinity, with the Picture of a Priest, to be set up in this Church, and a Brass with his Name under it. This Image was, as I presume, placed in a Niche in the Porch, which still remains, and the Porch being built by him, he was buried there. He also gave two Cloth's to the high Altar, and Legacics to the Trinity, St. Sepulchres, St. John Baptist, and the Rood Lights. Also Anno 1525, Richard Peyrson, willed to be buried in the Middle Ile or Nave of the Church of our Lady at Stow, where the faid George Saunders had also directed his Interment.

In the Nave or Body of the Church, against the North Wall, was painted over the Middle Pillar, St. George, flaying the Dragon, which was renewed Anne 1692, by Gerrard Godfrey, Painter of Stony-Stratford, when the Church was beautified and new painted, the last Time it seems to have had any thing done to it of Ornaments.

In the Middle of the Chancel is, on an ancient Gravestone, the Portraiture of a Woman in Brass, with a Label issuing out of her Mouth, on which these Words, Jesu Mercy, Grace: At her Feet this on a Brass Place:

Die facet Anna Sanders, quae obiit prime die Sept. A. D. DECCELIEIS. Cujus aie propicietur Deus, Amen.

Near the Chancel Door on a Black Marble Gravestone this:

"Willi. Temple Armiger, obiit vicesimo die Augusti, Anno Millesimo "Septingentesimo Sexto, Anno Ætatis ejus Sexagesimo."

Under the South Window lies an antient Grey Marble in Memory of Thomas Langston and his Wife, who was, as I conceive, Widow of Thomas Sanders. The Inscription is defaced in Part, so that there is no Date of their Deaths: But I suppose it was about the Year 1530. What remains of the Epitaph is as follows, round the Verge in Brass:

Drate pro animabus Thome Confortis sue, qui quidem Thomas obiit A. D. MCCCCC.

In the Middle was the Effigies of him and his Wife, but they are torn off, tho' at their Feet there yet remains a Brass Plate with these Verses on it:

> Sis testis Christe quod non jacet hic Lapis ille Corpus ut ornetur, sed Spiritus ut memoretur. Duisquis eris qui transferis, Sta, Perlege, Plora, Sum quod eris, fueramque quod es, pro me precor Dra.

At the Dexter Corner remain the Arms of the Defunct, viz. Langston, being a Chevron between 3 Roses, in Base a Dolphin Hauriant, Impaling on a Chevron 3 Mullets.

In the South Window the Arms of Oseney Abbey, viz. Or, 2 Bends Azure. Nn

Near the Communion Rails the Effigies of a Youth in a Gown, and this Inscription affixt on an ordinary Stone:

"Here lyeth the Body of Peter Temple, the second Son of Thomas Temple, "Esq; and Hester his Wise. The Day of his Birth was the 31st Day of "October, A. D. 1592, and he died the first Day of January in the "same Year."

Against the East Wall is an Atchievement of the Arms of Peniston, with all the Coats of the Family, in Number about 40. But several are obliterated and defaced with Age.

Here are also two Atchievements of the Temple Family, with the Arms as before described, one of them is of the last Bart. who died Anno 1697, Impaling Knapp, viz. his Lady's Arms; and the other of Dame Christian Temple in a Lozenge, which has these Coats. She died Anno 1655.

In the fourth Volume of the Peerage before mentioned is the Epitaph of Peter Temple, Esq; which is there mentioned to be in this Church, but here is no Sign of it remaining; and so as Dugdale places it in his Antiquities of Warwickshire in Burton Dercet Church, I make no doubt but he was interred there, as was his Son John Temple, who died Anno 1603, whose Epitaph as also printed in the Peerage and Dugdale's Warwickshire.

In the Church Yard is still remaining an antient Cross, and an entire Effigies (of an Ecclesiastick seemingly) in Free Stone, but who it belonged to is unknown.

A Vica-

A Vicaridge was here established before the Year 1209, as I judge, for I cannot find any Entries of the Ordination of it in the Registers of Lincoln, it having been so very early appropriated. The Names of the Vicars are as follow.

Vicarii de Stow.

John occurs Vicar about Anno 1270, 54 Hen. III, as does

John Holiday about Anno 1298, 26 Edw. I.

Walter de Evinlode was instituted 3 Id. Dec. Anno 1313, 6 Edw. II, on the Resignation of Holiday, on Oseney Convents Presentation.

Simon de Sautre was presented Anno 1335, 9 Edw. III, by Oseney Abbey.

Adam last Vicar here died Anno 1349, and was succeeded by William Wilby, instituted 1 Aug. Anno 1349. He occurs Vicar Anno 1366, 34 Edw. III.

William Atleworth was instituted 6 June, Anno 1392. He died about the Year 1416, and was succeeded by John Wells, who died Vicar Anno 1419, and was succeeded by Thomas Newman, inftituted 5 April, Anno 1419. He resigned Anno 1425.

Nicholas Pardon quitted it for Wolverton, and was succeeded by John Wotton admitted Jan. 8 Anno 1438, 16 Hen. VI.

William Beaufort resigned Anno 1452, and was succeeded by John Maget, instituted 28 Qt. Anno 1452, 30 Hen. VI. He resigned, and was succeeded by William Bernard, instituted 21 Mar. Anno 1453, 31 Hen. VI.

John Evenlode succeeded, and dying Anno 1458, 36 Hen. VI, was succeeded by William Potman LL. B. instituted Mar. 8, Anno 1458. He resigned it next Year.

John Walshede succeeded 27 Feb. Anno 1459, 37 Hen. VI. .

William Crosley died Vicar Anno 1469, 9 Edw. IV, and was succeeded by John Plonte, admitted 1 March Anno 1469, on Crofley's Death,

Roger Davy died Vicar Anno 1494, and was succeeded by Richard Halley, admitted 15 July, Anno 1494, 9 Hen. VII. In his Will, as before mentioned, dated Anno 1520, 11 Hen. VIII, he appointed to be buried here.

Thomas Marshell succeeded, 3 Oct. Anno 1524, on Halley's Death. He occurs Vicar Anno 1541, 32 Hen. VIII, and is the last presented by Oseney. Monastery. One of both his Names died 1559, Rector of Turweston, who might perhaps be the same Person.

Frances Styche was instituted 27 April, Anno 1559, on John Burton Abhat, of Oseney, having granted away the next Presentation. He willed Anno 1561, to be buried in the Church here.

Thomas

Thomas Whitched succeeded Anno 1561. He was buried here 29 July, Anno 1582, and succeeded by Robert Newton, Anno 1582. He was buried here Mar. 29, Anno 1603,

and fucceeded by

John Marshe, A. B. presented April 19, Anno 1603, by John Temple Esq. He was buried here Aug. 23, Anno 1632, and succeeded by Richard Earle, Anno 1632; but I have not his Institution. He was buried here 26 June, Anno 1635, and succeeded by John Wyat, presented by Sir Peter Temple, Dec. 18, Anno 1635. He occurs Vicar Anno 1642.

Richard Whitelock was presented by the Crown 6 April, Anno 1661, on a Lapse, no Doubt; Wyat having voided it before 1660.

Benjamin Austin, A. M. was presented 15 May, Anno 1663, by Sir Richard-Temple. He died Anno 1670, being also Rector of Braden Co. Northampton, and was succeeded by

Maurice Holden A. M. presented 10 May, Anno 1670, by Sir Richard Temple. He occurs Vicar Anno 1672, and was succeeded the same Year

by

Thomas Heydon, A. M. instituted 16 May, Anno 1672, on Sir Richard Temple's Presentation.

Peter Temple, A. M. was instituted on the Death of the last Incumbent not named, 6 Jan. Anno 1691, on Sir Richard Temple's Presentation. He refigned Anno 1697, and was succeeded by Thomas Harrison, A. M. instituted 4 Aprils, Anno 1697. He died beyond

Sea, being Chaplain in the Army, and was succeeded by Henry Smith, A. M. instituted 22 Feb. Anno 1765, on Harrison's Death, on the Presentation of Sir Richard Temple, He resigned Anno 1710, and was succeeded by

Conway Rand, A. B. instituted 16 Feb. Anno 1710, on the Presentation of Sir Richard Temple. He died March 10, 1733-4, and was buried here, and succeeded by the present Vicar Anno 1735, viz.

Henry Gabell, A. M. instituted Aug. 17, 1734, on the Presentation of Sir Richard Temple Lord Viscount Cobbam.

The Register begins Anno 1568, out of which I took these Entries:

THORN-

THORNBOROUGH,

HAT is the Borough of Thorns, or Town in a thorny Soil. It is thus surveyed in Doomsday Book.

Terra Mannon Brito, in Lamua Hundred.

In Thorneberge tenet Bernerus de uno Manerio. Terra est iv Carucatarum. In Dominio sunt iii, et xxiv Villani cum viii Bordarii, babenti-Molinum de xxs. Pratum iv Carucatarum. In totis Valepciis valet viii l. Quando recepit vil. Edwardi viii l.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Thori, Teignus Regis Edwardi.

Berner holds of Maignon fourteen Maignon xiv Hidas et i Virgatam pro Hides and one Yard Land in Thornberge, for one Manor. The Arable is four Carucates, three are in Demesne; and there are twenty-four Vilbus viii Carucatas. Ibi iii Servi, et i lans or Copyholders and eight Cottagers. They have eight Carucates. There are three Servants and one Mill of twenty Tenpore Regis | Shillings Value; Meadow sufficient for four Carucates. In the whole it is worth 81. when he received 61. in King Edward's Time 8 l.

> Thori, a Knight or Thane of King Edwards held this Manor.

To this Mannon Brito (whose capital Seat and Barony was at Wolverton) succeeded, as already spoken of in Padbury, Mainfelin, the Founder of Brazwell Priory in King Stephen's Time, who gave thereto divers Lands. and the Church of this Place a; but his Son Hammon having an especial Regard to Luffield Priory, procured from Bradwell a Release of their Claim thereto, and both Convents being thereby brought to a good Agreement on Bradwell's having relinquished this Church to Luffield, Hammon Son of this Hammon, styled Baron of Wolverington, as in the Baronage, vol. i. p. 543. ratified his Father's Grant thereof, and of the Tenths of the Demesne of his Lordship here to Luffield; which Convent in those early Times, inter 1160, 6 Hen. II, and 1280, 8 Edw. I, obtained fo much Land here, that I find it returned in an Inquisition taken at the Town of Bucks, Anno 1342, 15° Edw. III, that they had no less than fourteen Yard Lands in Temporals as well as fourteen Yard Lands in Spirituals; which last were the Rectorial Lands or Endowment of the Church here: They had also nine Messuages: However their temporal Revenues arising from hence were but small; for Anno 1477, 17 Edw. IV, about fifteen Years before their Dissolution and Union to Westminster Abbey, I find by a Rental then made, these were so diminished, that the Income of them amounted to no more than 61.1 11. 5d. And Anno 1460, I find they had lett their Parsonage or Rectory to Farm for nineteen Marks, or 121. 135. 4dd.

Monasticon, vol. i. p. 523. E. Regist. Luffield. b Ibid. c Ibid. * Ibid. Here-

Here were also in this Parish several Lands given to the Endowment of St. John Baptist's Hospital in Oxford, sounded about the Year 1210, which being, as I presume, as well as Lussield, reduced to Poverty, King Hen. VI, about the Year 1456, gave the Master and Brethren Leave to convey their Hospital, with all the Estates belonging to it, to "William Wainsteet, Bishop of Winchester; who on the Site of the said Hospital laid the Foundation of his magnificent College (and the Hall adjoining) known by the Name of St. Mary Magdalen College and Hall; which College continues at this Time, viz. Anno 1735, Proprietors of the Lands that this Hospital was endowed with here.

I likewise find in Hen. IIId's Reign, so much Land in this Parish given to Bitlesden Abbey, that Anno 1534, five Years before their Dissolution, their Endowment here amounted to 101. 7 s. 2 d. per Annum. Nor was there much less given to Chantries, sounded in Thornton and Buckingham Churches; so that little remained here but what had been bestowed in Mortmain.

Who the chief Donors were, I shall briefly enumerate, by setting down the principal and greatest Benefactors: And shall begin with Luffield f.

John Son of Alan, Lord of Wolverton, confirmed to the Monks there, all the Lands and Tenements which they had acquired or should acquire in Fee here.

Hamon Son of Hamon, granted them three Yard Land.

John Son of John, Lord of Wolverton, quit claimed, and released all Homages and Services.

Reginald de Fraxino, Son of William de Fraxino, granted them a Yard and an half Land and three Messuages, and nineteen Acres of Land, with other Gifts.

Reginald Son and Heir of William de Moreton, granted them a Yard

William Gruffet, William Franklin's Wife and Daughters, and divers others h, granted them Messuages, Tenements, and small Parcels of Land, too long to enumerate; and John Fitz-Allan, Lord of Wolverton, released all Services for the Lands thus given to Luffield.

In Edw. Ist's Time there being a Controversy about a Chapel erected in this Parish, dedicated to St. Laurence, between the Monks of Luffield and Bitlesden, the Archdeacon of Buckingham, to whom it was referred to, decided it Anno 1290, in Favour of Luffield'.

The Benefactors of Lands here to St. John's Hospital in Oxford, were John Hasteng, who endowed it with three Yard Lands (as seems to me) by the Fines, Anno 29 Hen. III; and William de Moreton, Anno 27 Hen. III, gave Lands thereto; as did Hamon Hasteng Rents here, 32 Hen. III; and Anno 28 Hen. III, Robert Fitz-Allan, gave this Hospital Lands here, and a Mill, which were confirmed in Edw. the Ist's Time, known antiently by the Name of Stockport Mill.

*Tanner's Notitia Monastie. fol. Edit. p. 441. f Ex Registro Luffield. * Ibid. 1bid. Tanner's Notit. Monastic. p. 429. in folio.

The

The Donors of Lands here to Bitlesden, were John de Hasteng, who gave that Convent four Yard Lands, which was confirmed Anno 1245 to them by his Brother Robert de Hasteng 1.

Anno 36 Hen. III, Hugh de Dunster, with the Consent of Alice his Wife, gave two Carucates of Land here; and Basilia, Prioress of Hariold, yielded to Bitlesden a Tenement; and John de Fraxino's Wife gave them one Yard Land; and Robert de Loughton and Christian his Wife granted Lands and Rents to Bitlesden, Anno 32 Hen. !II.

Anno 1472, 13 Edw. IV, Richard Fowler gave to Thomas Blacklowe, Chantry Priest of Thornton, all his Lands, Rents, and Services, which he had in Thornborough, which were lately John Barton, Senior's.

The other Donors of Lands here (besides the aforesaid Fowler) to the two Chantries founded in Thornton and Buckingham Churches were the Chastillons and Bartons, Lords of Thornton.

How these Estates have since passed, I now come to speak, having already accounted for those of the Hospital: I shall begin with Luffield.

After the final Dissolution of Monasteries by King Hen. VIII, King Edw. VI, his Son and Succeffor, by Letters Patent, dated Dec. 8, 1551, granted to Sir Nicholas Throckmorton the faid Priory of Luffield, with all its Appurtenances, in the Counties of Northampton, Buckingham, and elsewhere, and the Members thereof; particularly the Manor of Thornborough and Rectory of Thornborough, and Advowson of the Vicarage, to be holden of the Honour of Grafton, which Sir Nicholas Throckmorton dying, feized thereof, Feb. 12, 1570-1, it descended to Arthur Throckmorton, his eldest Son and Heir, afterwards knighted; who, as I find by an Inquisition taken at his Death, died July 21, 1626, leaving only four Daughters, Co-heiresfes, viz. Mary, Wife to Sir Thomas Wotton; Anne, to Sir Peter Temple; Elizabeth, to Richard, Lord Dacres; and Katherine unmarried; whereby this Manor and Advowson came by Partition of his Estate to Sir Peter Temple, by his Wife the said Anne, second Daughter of Sir Arthur Throckmorton, and so passed again in Marriage with Anne, her only surviving Daughter and Heir, to Thomas Roper, Lord Viscount Baltinglass, of the Kingdom of Ireland; but she dying without Issue by him, about the Year 1696, this Estate, on another Partition of the Throckmorton's Lands, made June 24, 1701, descended to her Nephew, Thomas Lennard, Lord Dacres, Earl of Suffex, who by Indenture of Bargain and Sale, dated July 16, 1707, conveyed this Manor with the Impropriation and Advowson of the Vicarage, to Benjamin Woodnoth the Father, and Benjamin Woodnoth the Son (late High Sheriff of this County) the present worthy Possessor, Anno 1735, in Fee, to the Uses of the latter and his Heirs; who hath made the Mansion-House very commodious, and by his Skill in Agriculture, much improved the Lands of the Parish: And by his Hospitality and excellent Accomplishments rendered himself greatly respected and esteemed in the Neighbourhood.

In the Pleas at Westminster, in Michaelmas Term, Anno 13 Ric. II, it was found and returned by the Jury, that the Vills of Lekbampsted and Forscote ought to repair Part of Totesbrig in Thornborough; and that the Master of St. John's Hospital in Oxford, ought to repair the other Part for his Lands in Thornborough; tho another Jury, Anno 7 Ric. II, had returned that the faid Master was not bound to repair it.

As to the Lands belonging to Bitlesden, these continued in the Crown under feveral Demises and Leases made of them; and were, Anno 15 Car. II. 1663, granted to that King's Queen in Part of her Dower: They were then valued at 111.0s.11d. and, as I prefume, being purchased by Sir Richard Temple, descended to the present Lord Cobbam, his Son and Heir; in whom is also vested the Estate of the Damourys, who had heretosore the temporal Manor, in the Reigns of Edw. I, II, III, of which Family was Robert Damory (to whom the Prior of Luffield allowed the Liberty of having Divine Service in his Chapel here, with a Salvo to the Rights of the Mother Church) and Nicholas Damory, who Anno 6 Edw. II, obtained a Charter for Free-Warren in his Manor here. But Anno 20 Edw. III, I find that Richard Damory suffered a Fine of this Manor and of other Lands in Akeley and Lekbampsted (which Adam de Cottenhall had a Lease of for Life) and passed it away to William Fitz Laurence, of Great Linford, from whose Heirs I presume it was sold to the Bartons Lords of Thornton, Temp. Hen. V; who endowed therewith the Chantries above-mentioned, and so after the Dissolution of Chantries it coming to the Crown, was granted by King Edw. VI. to Edward Chamberlain, of Fulwell in Com. Oxon, 1553; who very foon after conveyed it to Richard Sanders, of Great Kimbell; who Anno 1561, on Sept. 14, fold it to John Temple; who gave it to his third Son Alexander Temple, and so it descended to the Heirs of the Temples; the Right Honourable Sir Richard Temple, Lord Viscount Cobham, being the present Possessor hereof, Anno 1735. But as both Manors had been in Unity of Possession of the Temple Family, so this temporal Manor was at length passed away by them and became merged in the Luffield Priory Manor, and is now reputed to be involved in it.

Tho' the Damory's principal Seat was at Bucknell Com. Oxon, I presume they had also a House in the Pasture Grounds here, West of the Town, wherein stood St. Laurence's Chapel, the Foundation of which was not long fince dug up.

Without those Chantry Closes next to the Bridge leading into Buckingbam Parish, are two remarkable Tumuli, which I judge were raised in the Time when the Romans possessed this Island, on Account of some Battle sought here. The Vulgar have several odd Traditions about their being inhabited by Fairies, &c.

The Advowson being given so early to Luffield Priory, those Monks seem very soon after to have got the Rectory appropriated to them, at least so early as the Year 1220, 4 Hen. III, as I judge by this Entry in Luffield Register, fol. 12, an hundred Years after the aforementioned Date.

Anno 1534, 25 Hen. VIII, the Vicarage was rated at 81. 17s. 1d. tho' it was lately returned to be only of the clear Value or Income of 201. per Annum, in Queen Anne's Time.

Anno 1639, 14 Car. I. This Terrier of the Vicarage was delivered in by Jobn Carey the then Vicar:

The Vicarage House of three Bays, and a Barn of three Bays. A Rood of Ground, five Acres of Arable, one Lot of Meadow, one Acre and one Rood of Grass, and about five Leys of Furz.

The Right of Presentation to the Vicarage, has always been in the Proprietors of the Rectory, and fince the Donation of both to the Throckmortons, Anno 1551, passed, as that has done from the Heirs of Throckmorton, viz. to Temple, Roper, Lennard, and Woodnoth, as before observed.

The Parish Register begins Anno 1598, 40 Eliz. but has nothing memorable in it, except the Entry of the Burial of Thomas Roper, Lord Viscount Baltinglass, April 5, 1666; and the Marriage of Mr. Thomas Herbert, of Woodstock, and Mrs. Elizabeth Berrie, of Haversham, May 23, 1699; and the Burial of Lionel, Son of Benjamin Woodnoth, Esq. Dec. 3, 1714, born in the Month of May in the same Year.

The Parish is bounded East by Whaddon and Great Horwood; South by Adstock and Padbury; West by Bucks and Moreton; and North by Foxcote. Lekhampsted, and Thornton.

It is affested to the Land-Tax 179 l. 11s. 4d. and contains about two thoufand two hundred Acres. Here are eighty-two Families, and about three hundred and fixty-nine Souls, as it was returned, Anno 1712; when I meet with no Estate here given to Charity in this Parish.

The Church (which I take to have been built Temp. Ric. II) is dedicated to the Honour of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and has a Wake or Feast kept the Sunday after August 15; confists of a Body and North Isle, which are leaded, and Chancel which is tiled: At the West-end is an embattled Tower, in which hang four pretty large Bells. Here was a fifth or Treble Bell, but that was about 80 Years ago, taken down and fold to Tingwick, as they informed me; the vacant Frame still remains where it hung; on the first Bell now left, is this Inscription, Aust principio Sancta Maria men, on the third, In multis Annis resonat Campana Johannis; the second and fourth are modern. The

The Chancel has been ceiled and repaired by the worthy Patron Benjamin Woodnoth, Esq, who has put up the following Inscription, on a Free-stone Tablet, affixed to the North-Wall, opposite to the Chancel Door;

"In this Vault lieth interred the Body of Margaret Corrance, Grandaugh"ter by the Mother's Side, of that very wife and excellent Thomas
"Lord Coventry, who died Lord-keeper of the Great Seal of En"gland, after above fifteen Years executing that Trust in the Reign
"of the Blessed Martyr King Charles the First, first Daughter of Sir
"John Hare, of Stow Bardolph, in the County of Norfolk, and Relict of John Corrance, of Rendlesham, in the County of Suffolk, Esq; who "lett Issue by her, John, Elizabeth, and Anne, the Wise of Benjamin
"Woodnoth, of Thornborough. She deceased the 7th Day of February,
"1715, aged eighty Years.

"In the same Vault, lie the Bodies of her said Daughters, Elizabeth, who died unmarried, the 6th Day of June, 1718; and Anne, who died the 20th of February, 1719, leaving Issue, Charles, Edward, Flizabeth and Anne; which is the only Inscription what soever therein."

" Elizabeth, and Anne; which is the only Inscription whatsoever therein."

But in the Church in the North Isle at the West Part of it are these two Inscriptions on Brass-plates on two ancient grey Marbles:

Die jacet Dom. Johes Crowche, qui quondam hie celebravit pro Animabus Johannis Barton, senioris et junisris, qui quidem Johannes obiit 8 Die Maii, A. B. 1473. Littera Dominicali C, cujus Anime propicietur Deus. Amen.

Pic facet William Barton, qui obiit Festo Aranslationis Sancti Benedicti Abbatis, A. D. 1389, et Regni Regis Ric. II. 13, Incipiente quando Dies Dominicalis accivit super Litteram C, Pora vespertina, cujus Anime propicietur Beus. Amen.

In a Window by it, is in painted Glass, these Arms of Barton, viz. Ermine on a Dexter Canton Gules, an Owl Argent.

But I come now to the List of the Vicars, from the Registers of the Church of Lincoln.

Richard is the first I meet with. He occurs Vicar Anno 1237, 21 Hen. III, and Anno 1249, 33 Hen. III.

Ralph de Cheiwode, was Vicar, Anno 1252, 36 Hen. III, and Anno 1258, 42 Hen. III.

Simon de Beycot was presented to the Vicarage, Anno 1258, 42 Hen. III, by the Convent of Luffield.

Richard de Buckingbam succeeded Mar. 3, 1294, 22 Edw. I, on the Death of Simon, last Vicar.

Richard de Newton was instituted 5 Non. Maii, Anno 1313, 6 Edw. II, on the Death of Richard last Vicar.

John de Skelton succeeded 17 Cal. Feb. Anno 1334, 8 Edw. III, on Richard Newton's Death.

Nicholas

Nicholas Druel was instituted 10 Cal. Octob. Anno 1361, 15 Edw Ill, on the Death of John, last Vicar. He occurs, Anno 1380, 3 Ric. II.

Thomas Lillingston succeeded Nicholas Druel, Anno 1380, 3 Ric. II, 13

Cal. Jun. and occurs Vicar, Anno 1401, 2 Hen. IV.

Henry Tame, was instituted Mar. 29, Anno 1435, 13 Hen. VI, but not faid how vacant.

William Wells of Brayles succeeded Jan. 17, Anno 1447, and resigned

Anno 1457.

William Lindesey succeeded Off. 11, 1457, 35 Hen. VI; he died Anno 1501, and was buried in the Chancel, being the last Vicar presented by the Priory of Luffield.

John Skinner succeeded Dec. 16, Anno 1501; he willed, Anno 1524, to be buried in the Chancel, under the Gravestone of his Predecessor.

Robert Mekeley was instituted Mar. 30, Anno 1525, on Skinner's Death, on the Presentation of William Tyler, who had got Luffield late Priory devised to him.

Richard Taylor was instituted 3 December, Anno 1546, on the King's Presentation, Ratione contemptus Roberti Mekeley, non solventis Decimas.

After him.

Thomas Cook occurs Vicar, Anno 1561.

John Richards was presented to this Vicarage, Mar. 14, Anno 1574.

by Adrian Stokes; he died Anno 1590, and was succeeded by Thomas Johnson, A. M. presented on Richard's Death, Sept. 25, 1590, by Arthur Throckmorton, Eiq;

William Jenkins succeeded, Anno 1598; but I have not his Institution. He was buried here Ott. 2, Anno 1629; and succeeded by James Carey, instituted Nov. 24, 1629, on Anne Temple's Presentation. After him I find no more Presentations for near 100 Years; this Living. being of so small Value that the Incumbents held it by Sequestration. Carey occurs Vicar, Anno 1642, as does

Robert Duncombe, Anno 1647 and 1653, in the Parish Register, where he writes himself Vicar, as does,

Nicholas Gawen, Anno 1661, and

Joseph Newell, Anno 1663, this Person continued to serve this Cure, tho' never in Orders, as I have been informed, for near 30 Years, and tho' he took out the Bishop's Title, Nov. 7, Anno 1688, being detected for Want of Orders, was obliged to retire and leave the Cure. He went to Potterspurg, and died there as I was told.

Thomas Cheslyn, A. B. was instituted May 22, Anno 1691, on Newell's being outed; he quitted it for Padbury, where he lived (while Vicar here)

and was fucceeded by

Richard Cardwell, A. B. Anno 1715, but not instituted 'till Jan. 18, Anno 1718, when on Account of the Laple, he took out the Archbishop of Canterbury's Title. He quitted it for Raundes in Northamptonshire. The transfer of the state of the state and was fucceeded by William Halfted, A. M. instituted Feb. 29, Anno 1723, on the Presentation of Benjamin Woodnoth, Esq. who is the present Vicar, Anno, 1735, and also Vicar of Padbury.

ERIVES its Denomination, as well as Thornborough, from Thorns, Briars, or Brambles; Thornton signifying the Town of Thorns or Briars. In Doomsday Book it is thus surveyed:

> Azor, Son of Toti, held this Manor, and could fell it.

To this Roger de Iveri (as spoken of in Redcliff) succeeded Jeffry his Son, who dying Anno 1112, 12 Hen. I, without Issue, the King bestowed his Barony of St. Wallerys, on Guy de St. Wallery; to whom succeeded Reginald, his Son and Heir, and to him Bernard, whose Son Thomas de St. Wallery, dying Anno 1219, 3 Hen. III, Robert de Dreux, having married Annors or Allanora, his fole Daughter and Heir, had Livery of the Lands of her Inheritance in England, which by his Forfeiture were afterwards given to Richard, Earl of Cornwall, the King's Brother; however this Robert Earl of Dreux', as I find in an old Deed without Date at Thornton (among many curious Evidences which I have been very kindly indulged the Perusal of, to my very great Information in these Collections) with the Consent of

^a Parochial Antiq. p. 83. b Dugdale Ear. vol. i. p. 255. c Paroch. Antiq. p. 218. Annora

Annora his Wise granted to Ralph Hareng d (who was Steward of the Barony of St. Wallery) the Donation which he had of Thomas de St. Wallery of the whole Manor of Thornton, with the Advowson of the Church. This was about the Year 1235, 19 Hen. III, as I find by Hareng's Presentation of a Clerk to this Rectory ; but he held it not long, for about the Year 1245, 29 Hen. III, this Manor and Advowson became the Property of Sir James le Savage, Knight, as appears by another old Deed, executed by him of Lands lying without the Park here, in which he is called Lord and Patron of Thornton; I presume by the Gift of Annora; for she solely in her own Person made a Conveyance of this Manor in these Words,

"Sciant, &c. Quod ego Annora Comitissa Drocarie & Domina Sancti "Wallerici concessi - - - Totum Manerium de Thornton cum Pertinentiis, habendum sibi et Heredibus. His Testibus Gocelin de Hubel, Henrico de Sancto Albano f, &c."

In which Deed, though the Name of the Person is desaced, it agrees with Savage's coming into the Possession here, which was about the Year 1245, 29 Hen. III, Annora having it then, as feems to me, in Dowry: And James le Savage levied a Fine of Lands in Thornton, Anno 1250, 33 Hen. Ill 8. However he held it not long for Richard de Chastillon (a younger Brother, as I conceive, of the Chastillons of Lekhampsted) and Royesia his Wise, were possessed of this Manor and Advowson, about the Year 1264, 48 Hen. III, it coming, as I judge, to the faid Richard by Marriage of Roefia, for I find her after her Husband's Death, which happened about the Year 1280, 7 Edw. I, styled. Domina de Thornton, which Roesia, Anno 1303, 31 Edw. I, granted a Mes-fuage here, and also Lands in Lillingston to her Son Malculm Chastillon h, and his Heirs; who after the faid Roesia's Death is called Dominus de Thornton. This Malcolm, or Masculine, as he is also called, was Anno 1318, 6 Edw. II, 1313, elected one of the Knights of this Shire, to serve in Parliament, and dying about Anno 1218, 11 Edw. II, was succeeded by a Son of both his Names i. who was elected Knight of this Shire, Anno 1, 2, 4, et 6 Edw. III, 1327, 1328,1330, and 1332; who dying without Issue (as seems to me) this Estate descended to John Chastillon his Brother and Heir, who for the Souls of Alice and Foan his Wives , and the Soul of Malcolm his Father and Sibill his Mother, gave two Messuages and a Crost, and 100 Acres of Land, to found a Chantry of St. Mary in St. Michael's Church at Thornton. He also reprefented this County in Parliament, Anno 15 Edw. III, 1341, when his Kinfman Richard Chrstillon, Lord of Lekhampsted was the other Knight; and dying Anno 1348, 21 Edw. III, was fucceeded by his Son and Succeffor of both Names (afterwards knighted;) which Sir John Chastillon the fifth of this Family, and Margaret his Wife having mortgaged this Manor, Anno 18 Ric. II, 1395, to John Gifford, of Whaddon and others. They afterwards by Indenture of Bargain and Sale, dated April 1414, 2 Hen. V. for 800 Marks in conveyed in Fee this their Manor of Thornton to John Barton, jun. John 296 HISTORY OF THORNTON.

Barton, jun. John Wolf and Henry Barton, with the Advowson of the Church and Chantry founded in the Church here, with all their Lands, Tenements, Rents, and Services in the Villages of Thornton, Great and Little Lekhampsted. and also all their Woods in the Parishes of Stow and Westbury, with the Parks called Royes, or Royesia's Park; and Makeline's or Malcolm's Park, with all Woods and Underwoods, &c. How long this Sir John Chastillon afterwards survived, I have not seen, but I presume he was very aged, and reduced to great Streights, for his Purchasers gave to him and his Lady, soon after this Sale, a Meadow in Thornton, to enjoy for their Lives n.

As to the Purchaser John Barton, he was Son of John Barton, Recorder of London, and Brother of John Barton, who represented this County in Parliament, Anno 20 Ric. II, 1397, and Anno 2, 5 and 9 Hen. IV, 1401. 1404, 1408, and dying Anno 1431, 9 Hen. VI, was buried in the Church of St. Peter and St. Paul, in the County Town of Bucks, where he founded a Chantry. He was also elected Knight of this Shire, Anno 1 and 2 Hen. V, and by his Brother's Example at Buckingham, he founded a fecond Chantry here in this Church of Thornton; the North Chancel of which he rebuilt, and made a very fine Monument therein for himself and Isabel his Wife, where they both lye buried under an Arch, with their Effigies in Alabaster, most curiously carved, though without any Inscription or Date, fo that the Time of his Death can only be guessed at, which was in the Year 1433, or 1434, 12 Hen. VI, as appears by his Will hereafter given. I/abell his Wife furviving him, the re-married Sir Robert Sbote/brook, and dyed Anno 1457, 35 Hen. VI, as appears by her Will, possessed of this Manor. to which Anno 1443, 21 Hen. VI, one John Langton set up a Title to, and commenced a Suit at Law, claiming it by Descent from the Chastillons, as being descended from a Daughter of that Family and Name, and so entitled to the Inheritance on Account of the Failure of their Issue Male 4; but upon a Reference, it was decided by an Award, and confirmed to the faid Isabel, Barton; whereupon, on the Payment of 254 Marks to the said John Langton, by Deed, dated April 25, Anno 1443, 21 Hen. VI, he released all his Title and Claim to the faid Isabell Barton, William Fowler, Thomas Moor, Thomas Dodde, John Barton, and their Heirs and Assigns; which Thomas Moor together with John Arderne, who was, I suppose, Executor to John Barton, Anno 1444', 22 Hen. VI, made a Grant thereof to Isabel Barton and William Fowler, (to whom this Manor had been affigned in Trust, Anno 1456) and also enseoffed John Crowche and William West in this Manor, and in 600 Acres of Arable Land, 18 of Meadow, 20 of Pasture, 1000 of Wood, lying in Thornton, Great and Little Lekhampsted, and Stow, and Westbury.

Anno 1457, 35 Hen. VI', on Nov. 20, I find that Thomas Conyers, William Fowler, John Watkins, and Thomas More, by another Feoffment, conveyed these Premises to William West and Thomas Norrys. I also find that

Margaret

Margaret, Wife of Sir John Prysot, Knight, Ralph Grey, and John Filiol, delivered this Manor, with all its Appurtenances, viz. the Advowson of the Church and Chantry here, and all the Lands, &c. here, and in Great and Little Lekhampsted, Stow, Westbury, and the Parks' called Roye's and Malkelom's Parks, by Deed, dated May 1, Anno 1462, 2 Edw. IV, to George Nevill, Bishop of Exeter, William Nevill, Earl of Kent, and diversothers; among which are named, Sir Thomas Dymock, Robert Ingelton, and William Ingelton, which Trustees, I prefume, very foon after conveyed the Premises to Robert Ingelton: For Anno 1464, 4 Edw. IV, he subscribes himself Lord of Thornton, in a Deed executed in the Presence of Richard Moore, of Boreton; John Barton, of Lower Winchington; and Joan, Wife of William West, deceased; this bears Date Jan. 1, 1464, 4 Edw, IV, which Robert Ingelton in a Bond to Thomas Billyng, 'Lord Chief Justice, and others, Anno 1467, 7 Edw. IV, made over this Manor on a Proposal of a Marriage of one his Daughters, Jane or Margaret, to John Cheyne, which he the said John Cheyne should choose w, which took Effect with Margaret his youngest Daughter; this Robert Ingelion dying Anno 1472, 12 Edw. IV, was buried in the Middle of the Chancel here, under a most magnificent raised Tomb, whereon is the Portraitures of himself and his three Wives in Brass.

To him succeeded George Ingelton, who Anno, 1487, 2 Hen. VII, styles himself Lord of Thornton x, and dying Anno 1494, 9 Hen. VII, lest Issue by Sibill his Wife, Robert his Son and Heir, who dying Anno 1503, 18 Hen. VII, left an only Daughter, named Jane or Joan, the Wardship of whom? was by King Hen. VII, Anno 1505, committed to his great Favourite Sir Richard Empsony, on whose Attainder, Anno 1509, 1 Hen. VIII, she was committed to George Talbot, Earl of Shrewsbury, who Anno 1514, affigned the Wardship of her to John Bradbury of London, and James Bodley of Walden in Essex, which Bodley, Anno 1519, 10 Hen. VIII, married her to his Kinsman Humpbrey Tyrrill, Son of William Tyrrill of the antient Family of the Tyrrills, of South Ockingdon, in Effex; of which Marriage the faid Humphrey making Proof, had Livery of the Lands of her Inheritance, and dying Anno 1550, 3 Edw. VI, his Wife surviving him, she re-married ² Alexander St. John, Esq; and dying 1557, 4 and 5 Philip and Mary, in the 55th Year of her Age, was buried in the Chancel here, under a raised Tomb. with her Portrait engraven on a Brass Plate thereon, near her Grandfather, Robert Ingelton's Monument: On her Death George Tyrrill, her only Son and Heir succeeded, who is reported to have impaired the Estate of the Family very much, and squandered away several Manors, though as it appears by the Inquisition taken at his Death, he nevertheless lest behind him great Possessions to his Heirs, and with Part of what was fold, purchased the Manor of Lymes-End, alias Little Lekhampsted, and enclosed a Park here, which I find he had Licence granted him to do, Anno 1558, 1 Eliz. the Year after his Mother's Death *, and dying May 10, Anno 1570, was buried here, leaving Issue by Helen or Eleanor his Wife, Daughter of Sir Edward Mon-

As to Sir Edward Tyrrill himself, he having, Anno 1602, as appears by the Date, built a large House in this Manor of Lekhampsted, called by the Name of the Toy, and dying Jan. 26, 1605, was buried here, being at the Time of his Death Member of Parliament for the County Town of Bucks; his Successor in this Manor was his eldest Son of both Names, by his first Lady, viz. Sir Edward Tyrrill, who also married two Wives, viz. Elizabeth, Daughter of Sir William Kingsmill, of Hampshire, who died in Child-bed, and was buried here. Sept. 1, 1621; his second Wise, by whom he had no Issue, was Elizabeth, Daughter of Sir Edward Watson, of Rockingham Castle, in the County of Northampton, Widow of Sir John Needham, of Lichbarrow, in the said

County;

County; she died and was buried here, June 26, 1631. This Sir Edward Tyrrill, being by Letters Patent, dated OB. 31, 1627, created a Baronet f, furrendering the same to barr his eldest Son, Robert Tyrrill, took out a new Patent, Feb. 19, 1638, with Precedence as in the former, Anno 1627, with Remainder to Toby Tyrrill, his fecond Son, which would have created a Dispute had not his Son Robert died in his Life-Time without Issue, whereupon he was at his Death, which happened July 2, 1656, succeeded in his Title and Estate here by Sir Toby Tyrrill, his then eldest Son and Heir. who married to his first Wife, Edith, Daughter to Sir Francis Windebank, Secretary of State; by whom having only a Daughter, named Frances, Wife to Sir John Hewett, of Waresley in the County of Huntingdon, Bart. he took after her Death to his second Wife, Lucy, Daughter to Sir Thomas Barrington, of Barrington-Hall, in Effex, Widow to William Cheyne, who died foon after his Marriage to her) by whom he had Issue his worthy Son and Successor, Sir Thomas Tyrrill, renowned for his great Hospitality and affable Temper, which endeared him to all that knew him; and will render his Memory loved and reverenced by Posterity, insomuch that who foever comes after him, cannot be deferving of an higher and more exalted Character, than to be compared to him.

But to return to Sir Toby. He died at his Son-in-Law's House, at Waresly Off. 1, and was buried here at Thornton, Off. 7, 1671, and succeeded by his aforesaid worthy Son, Sir Thomas Tyrrill, who by Frances his Wife, Daughter of Sir Henry Blount, of Tittenhanger, Co. Hertford, had a numerous Issue, viz. 6 Sons and 4 Daughters, 7 of which lived to Men's and Women's Estates; whereof the Eldest, Sir Harry Tyrrill, who succeeded on his Father's Death, which happened the 10th of Off. 1705, served the honourable Office of High Sheriff of this County in his Father's Life Time; he married Hester, Daughter, of Charles Blount, of Stafford/hire, Esq; and dying Nov. 6, 1708, leaving Issue 3 Sons and 2 Daughters, was succeeded in this Dignity by his eldest Son Sir Thomas Tyrrill, who dying unmarried, Dec. 25, 1718, was succeeded by his next Brother Sir Harry Tyrrill, who also dying unmarried, Nov. 9. 1720, the Title came to Sir Charles, the only surviving Son, who married Anno 1726, at Geneva, Jane Elizabeth, only Daughter of Monsieur John Sellon, of that City, Merchant, by whom he had Issue two Sons, who both died young, and one Daughter, viz. Hester Maria; which Sir Charles is the present Lord of this Place, Anno 1735.

This antient Family still flourishes in the eldest Branch in Essex, and its present Principal, is Sir John Tyrrill, Bart. a Gentleman much esteemed in that County.

This Parish is bounded, West by Thornborough, North by Lekhampsted; East by Bechampton, and South by Whaddon, and also North by Wykins, which last Parish is in Northamptonshire.

It contains about 1200 Acres; here were, as returned, Anno 1712, to the Bishop of Lincoln, only 12 Families, and 50 Souls, near as many of which P p 2 Number Number alone, cohabited in the Manor-House, in the late generous Sie Thomas Tyrrill's Time. It was then affessed to the Land-Tax 1101.6s.4d. The Rectory was rated, Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, at 8 Marks, deducting a Pension of 10s. to the Abbat of Ojeney, given to that Convent by the St. Wallerys. Anno 1534, 25 Hen. VIII, it was charged for first Fruits at 111.16s. 3d. as it now pays, and is of the clear yearly Value of 761.

The Terrier delivered in of it, Anno 1674, 26 Car. Il, by Charles Almond, then Rector, fets forth, that belides the Parsonage House of 3 Bays and a half, and a Barn of two Bays, here only belonged to it an Orchard and Slip of Ground of about an Acre, and a little Parcel of Meadow, of about half an Acre.

The Church here, which is dedicated to the Honour of St. Michael, confifts of a Body, South Ile and Chancel, and North Chancel, all which are leaded. At the West-End is a square embattled Tower, in which hang 3 Bells: On the first of which is this Inscription;

Sint pro Elia Michael Deus atque Maria: Being, as I suppose, given by Elia Tingwick, who died Rector here, Anno 1343.

The fecond is modern; and on the third is this, bum Rola pullata, Pundique Maria bocata.

Here was a North Isle to answer the South one, but it was pulled down about the Year 1620, to the great Disfigurement of the Church, and a Wall run up between the Pillars and Arches.

William Breedon was then Rector, and Sir Edward Tyrrill Patron, who is faid to have demolished it.

In a North Window these Arms,

Gules, a Fess indented, Flory and Counterflory Argent.

At the lower End of the South Isle next the Tower, lay a Free stone Esfigy of a Man, seemingly an Ecclesiastick by the Tonsure of his Head and Fold of the Garment; at his Feet, a Lion: This I take to have been for John de Chastillon, a younger Son of the Patron, and Lord of this Place, who was Rector here from Anno 1347, 22 Edw. III, to 1377, 51 Edw. III. It is now removed into the Chancel.

In the uppermost Window of the said South Isle, lies another like Effigy, of a Priest seemingly; which I take to have been for Elias de Tingwick, Rector here from Anno 1315, 8 Edw. II, to 1347, 21 Edw. III, who gave the first Bell as before-mentioned.

Here are no other other Monuments or Inscriptions in the whole Church; and so I come to the North Chancel or Chantry.

In the East Window is an Angel holding a Shield; thereon these Arms, in Part broken, being of Barton, viz.

Ermine, on a Canton, Gules, an Owl Argent.

In the faid East Window the Portraiture of another Angel at Prayers, on his Fingers this, on a Scroll, Abe Maria Bratia plena, Dominus tecum.

Here were also a Man and Woman, kneeling at Desks; but these are defaced, and at the Bottom of the Window was this Legend, when entire, Drate pro Johanne Barton, juniore, Domino de Thornton, conditore istius Capelle, et pro, Itabella, Arore ejus, quorum Animabus propicietus Deus. Amen.

An Extract of whose Will I shall here give from the Original, in the Archives of Lambeth; it is dated 1443, in Registro Chichely, solio 442, and is as sollows, "Ego Johannes Barton, condo Testamentum meum in hunc modum: Lego Corpus meum ad sepeliendum in Capella Annuntiationis B. M. Virginis, in Eccl. de Thornton. Item volo, quod predicta Capella de novo edificetum bonis et catellis meis. Item lego Fabricie Eccl. predict. 10 Marcas et Cancello 5 Marcas. Item Ordini Fratrum de Aylessbury 40 s. Abbati Bitlessen 40 s. Priori de Lussield 20s. Priori de Snellsball 20 s. Abbati de Notly unam peciam Argenti deaurat."

In the second North Window of this Chapel, or North Chancel, were in painted Glass, the Portraitures of St. Michael slaying the Dragon; and of St. Catherine with her Wheel; and St. Margaret with a Dragon; and St. Mary Magdalen; and also of a Bishop kneeling; and of an Apostle, and the Portrait also of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Glory, with Sancta Maria ero and Persons praying to her, and these Words, Sancta Mirgo Mirginslum ora pro nobis, and Sancta Maria, porta aurea, Exe. 44.

At the Bottom of the Windows was this Legend,

Drate pro bono Statu Wilhelmi Barton, et Emmote Aroris ejus, necnon Johannis Barton, senioris, quondam Recordatoris London. Quorum Animabus propicietur Deus.

N. B. I suppose they were Father and Mother to John Barton, sen.

In this Chapel is a Vault, where lie interred several of the Family of the Tyrrills, viz. no less than 6 Baronets, and some of their Ladies and Children; of above 30 of whose Interments we have an Account of from George Tyrrill's Time, Anno 1570, to 1735; but not the least Memorial for any one of them.

There are against the Wall, two Atchievements with the Tyrrill's Arms and Crest, viz.

Argent two Chevrons Azure, within a Bordure engrailed Gules; Crest, on a Wreath, a Boar's Head erest, Cowpee, holding a Peacock's Fail.

Under an Arch between the Church and Chancel, is a most elegant Monument for the aforesaid John Barton, jun. and Isabel his Wise, the Builders of this Chapel, but no Inscription, Date, or Arms thereon: On the Tomb lie their Effigies in Alabaster, at sull Length; his in Armour, Hen. VI, having been re-married to Sir Robert Shotesbrook.

But I now come to the Monuments in the Chancel; in the East Window whereof are these Arms, viz. Argent a Lion rampant, Gules within a Bordure, Azure, entoire de Bezants: Gules, 3 Lions passant, gardant Or. The first Coat being the Arms of the Earl of Cornwall; and the second of the Crown of England in Edw. I's Time, when I presume this Church was built.

In the Chancel are also two raised Tombs and several Grave-stones; but I shall begin with the Grave-stones.

On the Pavement are the five following, viz.

One with the Effigies of a Man and of a Woman in Brass, underneath them this Inscription, Die facet Will. Clodd, Agneta Aror ejus, et Dominus Wilhelmus Filius eorum, qui quidem Willhellmus Pater Willhelmi, obiit decimo Die Pentis Aprilis, A. D. 1474. Quorum Animabus propicietur Deus: Amen.

On another the Effigies of a Man and Woman in Brass, at their Feet this Inscription, Die jacet Georgius Ingleton, Dominus de Thornton, et Domina Isabella, Mror ejus, vidua, qui quidem Georgius obiit 26 Die Januarii, A. D. 1400.

On another, whereon were the Effigies of a Man and Woman in Brass, and this Inscription, Hit jacet Agnes, Eror Johannis Reynes, Armigeri, Filia Caroli Ingilton, que obiit 18 Die Augusti, 1481; cujus Anime propicietur Deus.

On two Plates of Brass these Arms, viz.

In one, Shield, Ingleton, and Dymock.

On the other, Reynes, viz. Cheque Or and Gules, a Canton Ermine.

On another old Gravestone was this, on a Plate of Brass, Pic jacet Milo Ingilton Generosus, qui obiit decimo Die Pensis Augusti, 1480.

Near it on a modern Grave-stone, this on a Plate of Brass, H. S. E.

In this Church was, as before observed, a Chantry founded by the Chastillons, which was afterwards re-founded by John Barton, jun. The Lands belonging to this Chantry were chiefly at Thornboreugh, where the Chantry Priest had a House: The Priest of Chastillons Foundation was for every Neglect of his daily Duty obliged to pay 1d. to the Poor.

The first Priest appointed by the Founder, was,

Thomas Handes, of Alderton, who refigning this Chantry, Anno 1371, 45 Edw. III, after about 27 Years Possession of it (for I presume the Chantry was founded about 1347, there being Anno 1344, 18 Edw. III, a Licence granted by the Bishop of Lincoln to John Chastillon, as appears in the Lincoln Register, to have an Oratory at his House in Thornton that Year ...)

Robert Diere was instituted to it, Aug. 3, 1371, 45 Edw. III, on Hendes Resignation.

John Crowche is the next 1 find. He is Anno 1450, 28 Hen. VI, styled Capellanus here. He died Anno 1473, and was buried at Thornborough, where his Epitaph is still remaining. On his Death I find

Thomas Blacklawe, Capellanus, presented Anno 1473, to the Chantry of our Blessed Lady, founded by John Barton, jun. and Isabel his Wife, with a Grant of the Lands in Thornborough, bestowed thereon by John Barton, sen.

William Clodd seems to have been the next. He occurs Capellanus here, Anno 1494, 9 Hen. VII, and Anno 1525, 16 Hen. VIII. He put an Inscription for himself, his Father (who died Anno 1474, 14 Edw. IV.) and Mother, over their Grave in the Chancel here.

Richard Stepley occurs Chantry-Priest, about the Year 1529, and also 1535. On the Dissolution of Colleges and Chantries, Anno 1547, 2 Edw. VI, I meet with this Account of the Chantry here, returned by the King's Commissioners.

THORNTON.

The Chantry in Thornton, called Bartons Chantry, worth by the Year elear 191.8s.

The Chantry in Thornton, called Barton's Chantry, maintained by All-

Souls College, clear yearly 51. 8s.

Sir Robert Bartlet Incumbent there, aged 80 Years, and hath paid him yearly by All-Souls College 108 s. the faid Incumbent hath no other Way of Living but by the faid Chantry.

In another Account of Chantries, founded in this Church, I meet with this Return.

Barton Chantry founded by Robert Ingleton², to the Intent to find a Priest for ever; and that the said Priest shall give to six poor Folks continually 6d. the Week for every of them; and to give for the Livery of six poor Children every Year, for each of them 4s. and also the said Priest to teach the Children of the said Town: The said Chantry is sounded within the Parish Church of Thornton, and is observed according to the Foundation before declared, and so is very necessary.

The faid Chantry is of the yearly Value of 211. 115. 6d. whereof paid to the King's Majesty for Rents resolute 135. 4d. and for Tenths 21. 35. 0 d. 5. paid to . . . yearly 35. so remaineth for the accustomable Payments as before-mentioned, viz. for the Priest's Salary, 91. 125. 9d. In Alms to six poor Folks, 71. 165. And to six poor Children 11. 45. In all 181. 125. 6d. The Ornaments of the said Chapel or Chantry be esteemed to be worth as appeareth by the Inventory, 11. 135. 4d. The Jewels of the said Chapel or Chantry, that is to say, a Chalice of Silver gilt, weighing eighteen Ounces, and remaining in the Hands of William Abbat, the Incumbent there.

There is a Mansion House belonging to the said Chantry, which is now in the Hands and Occupation of one Humpbry Tyrrill, and the Chantry Priest nor his Predecessors have had it this sourteen or fifteen Years; which is worth yearly... And there hath been neither Dissolution, Purchase, or obtaining of any Part of the Possessions or Goods of the said Chanty since the 4th Day of February, in the 27th Year of our Sovereign Lord the King's Majesty's Reign, viz. Henry the VIIIth.

Bartons Chantry, founded by John Barton, the Younger, to find a Priest for ever to the Intent to say Mass daily in the Church of Thornton, and also Dirige and Commemorations for the Souls departed of the said John, his Father and Mother, and others.

The faid Chantry is founded in the Parish Church of Thornton aforesaid.

The said Chantry is of the yearly Value of 61. paid to the King's Majesty Tenths 125. so remaineth for the Priest's Salary 51. 85. 1 d. There belonged to the Chantry neither Goods, Chattels, Ornaments, or Jewels.

There was no more Stipend belonging to this Chantry fince the 4th Day of February, in the 27th Year of the King's Reign, nor before it.

But I come now to exhibit, from the Register of Lincoln, a List of the Rectors of Thornton.

THORNTON RECTORES.

Hugh is the first that occurs. I meet with him about the Year 1238, 22 Flen. III, when Sir James le Savage was Patron, and Matthew Stratton Archieacon of Buckingham.

Henry de Leukenor occurs Rector, Anno 1246, 30 Hen. III. He was prefented by Ralph Hareng, about the Year 1244.

Walter de Crombell is the next I meet with. He resigned this Rectory and was succeeded by

Elias de Tingwick, instituted Non. Aug. Anno 1315, 8 Edw. II, on the Prefentation of Roefia de Chastillon.

Robert de Gadlisford was instituted 12 Cal. Junii, Anno 1347, 21 Edw. III, on the Death of Elias de Tingwick, on the Presentation of John de Chastillon, on the Death of Robert, last Rector.

John Chastillon was instituted 15 Cal. Sept. Anno 1349, on the Presentation of John de Chastillon.

Henry Harwedon was instituted 7 Cal. July, Anno 1377, 51 Edw. III, to the Church of St. Michael's Thornton, on the Death of John Chastillon; on the Presentation of John Chastillon.

William Gylet, of Thornborough was instituted on the Death of Henry Harwedon, on June 19, Anno 1394, 17 Ric. II, on the Presentation of Sir John Chastillon.

William Tayls, alias Symond, was instituted July 9, Anno 1423, on Gylot's

Death, on the Presentation of John Barton, Esq.

Thomas Dodde is the next I find. He occurs Rector, Anno 1441, 19. Hen. VI.

Simon Waryn was presented by Sir Robert Shottisbrook, and instituted July 10, Anno 1453, on the Death of Thomas Dodde.

William Ingilton was presented on Waryn's Death, on the Presentation of Robert Ingilton, and instituted July 19, Anno 1463, 3 Edw. IV.

Thomas Brown succeeded, but I have not his Institution. He held it not.

long, for on his Death, Anno 1468, 8 Edw. IV.

John Robyns was instituted May 18, Anno 1468, 8 Edw. IV, on the Presentation of Robert Ingilton.

Thomas Rogers succeeded on Robyns Death, Aug. 14, Anno 1509, 24 Hen. VII, on the King's Presentation, in the Minority of Jane Ingilton.

Robert Heywood was instituted April 29, Anno 1532, on Roger's Resignation, on the Presentation of Humfry Tyrrell and Jane his Wife, Daughter and Heir of Ingylton.

Thomas Rogers was instituted a second Time, on the Resignation of Robert Heywood, Jan. 29, Anno 1546, on the Presentation of Humfry Tyrrell, and Jane his Wise.

Ralph Coly was instituted on the Death of Rogers, on the Presentation of George Tyrrill, Esq. Jane 23, Anno 1557. He resigned it being also Rector of Lekbampsted; and was succeeded by Thomas Ellwood, A.B. instituted Off. 20, Anno 1573, on the Presentation of George Vaux, Esq; George Tyrrill the Patron in his Life-Time, Anno 1570, having given away the next Presentation. He died and was buried here, 5 Sept. Anno 1616, and succeeded by William Bredon, Anno 1616; but I have not his Institution. In the Life of William Lilly, printed Anno 1721, page 31. Sub Anno 1633, we are told that this William Bredon was the most polite Person in this Age for calculating Nativities, and that he had an Hand in composing Sir Christopher Heydon's Judicial Astrology: There are still remaining in the Parish several traditional Stories of his Conjurations and foretelling of Events. He died and was buried here, July 16, 1638, and succeeded by Robert Rudd, A. M. instituted Aug. 1, Anno 1638, on the Death of Bredon, on the Presentation of Sir Edward Tyrrill, Knight and Baronet. He was ejected about the Year 1646, and

Clement Gregory intruded, who styles himself Rector of this Place, Anno. 1651, when it was returned to be of the Value of 401. per Annum. After the Restauration

Charles Almond got a Title to it, and is styled Rector, Anno 1660; but Rudd being alive, tho' living at another Benefice (as I presume at a great Distance) he the said Charles Almond did not become regularly instituted till Dec. 28, 1665, when he was put into Possession on the Presentation of Sir Toby Tyrrill, Baronet, tho' he supplied it from Anno 1660. He died April 28, 1709, and was buried here in the Church-Yard, and succeeded by Thomas Allen, A. M. instituted Sept. 3, Anno 1709, on Almond's Death, on the Presentation of Sir Thomas Tyrrill, Bart. He died July 7, 1710, and was buried here, and succeeded by

Leonard Sedgewick, A. M. presented July 13, Anno 1710, by the aforesaid Patron, Sir Thomas Tyrrill, Bart. and he is Anno 1735, the present Rector, and also Minister of Stony-Stratford.

The Register begins Anno 1562, 4 Eliz: out of it I took these Entries:

The Seat of this antient Family is of great Antiquity, viz. above 500 Years standing. It is a large House, quadrangled round, and has several spacious Rooms in it, and a noble Gallery, the Length of which being being one Side of the House, is no less than 135 Foot. Here is a good Library; and in a Bow Window of the great Parlour, are these Arms in painted Glass, viz. Argent on a Chevron between a Pellets as many Roses of the Field.

TINGWICK,

RITTEN also Tedinwiche, may probably receive its Name from Tede, Gramen, and Vicus, Village, quasi a Town of Pasture. as it appears to have been greatly so at the Norman Invasion. It is thus surveyed in Doom [day-Book :

Terra Episcopi Bajocensis in Rovelai Hundred.

Ilbertus de Lacei tenet de Episcopo Tedinwiche. Pro x Hidis se defen-Terra est viii Carucatarum. In Dominio funt iii, et iii Servi, et i Molendinum de iv Solidis; et de aliis Redditibus Ville xx Solidis. Pratum viii Carucatarum, et Silva xl Porcorum. In totum valet x Libras, quando Tempore Regis recepit vi Libras. Edwardi x Libras.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Adnodus. Teignus Regis Edwardi, et vendere King Edward's held this Manor, and potuit.

Ilbertus de Lacei holds of the Bishop of Baieux Tedinwiche. It was taxed at ten Hides. The Arable is eight Carucates, three are in Demesne; and there are three Servants and one Mill of four Shillings Value; and of others Rents of the Village twenty Shillings. Meadow for eight Carucates, and Mast for forty Hogs. In the whole it is worth 10%, when he received 61. In King Edward's Time 101.

Adnotb, a Thane [or Knight] of could fell it.

How this Bishop of Baieux, whose Name was Odo, lost this, and his several other Manors, and died dispossessed of them in Exile, Anno 1096. 9 Will. II, has been frequently mentioned; as he occurs also Lord of the adjoining Parish of Finemere in Com. Oxon (as may be seen in Kennet's Parochial Antiquities, page 67.) I presume both l'arishes might afterwards come into the same Owners Hands of the Name of Finemere, and so continued till King Jobn's Time; in the eleventh Year of whose Reign, Anno 1210, we are informed in Madox's History of the Exchequer, page 147. That Sir Gilbert Finemere, Knt. came into the Exchequer, and before the Barons quitclaimed to the Abbey de Monte Rothomago, in Normandy, all his Right in the Manor of Tingwick; which he afterwards ratified, by passing a Fine thereof to Ralph, the Abbat of St. Catherine de Monte Rothomagi and his Succeffors (as I find in the Tower Archives, Anno 8 Hen. III, 12252) which Convent being thus established in this Manor, obtained on Dec. 12, 1246, a Grant of a weekly Market here on Tuesdays. And these Religious continued possessed thereof till the Reign of King Edw. III, when that King taking the Temporalties of foreign Monasteries into his Hands, occasioned those Monks to procure Leave from the King to alienate their Manor of Hermandsworth, Co. Middlesex, and also this of Tingwick; to both which Manors William Wickbam, Bishop of Winchester, becoming the Purchaser, he fettled that of Hermandsworth on the College of Winchester, of his Foundation there'; and it remained Part of their Endowment till it was taken away from them by King Hen. VIIId, on a forced Exchange of Lands. And as to this other Manor of Tingwick, it having been as aforefaid thus purchased by the faid Bishop, he bestowed it on the other College of his Foundation in Oxford, called New-College. And so the Warden and Fellows of that Society have been ever fince Patrons of this Church of Tingwick, and Lords of the Manor, and so remain at this present, Anno 1735.

This Parish of Tingwick contains about 2000 Acres: It is bounded West by Finemere Co. Oxon; North by Water-Stratford and Stow; East by Radcliff and Bucks; and South by Preston, Chetwode, and Barton.

The Number of Families was returned to be 107, and of Souls about 430, being, next to the Town of Buckingham, the most populous Parish in the whole Division or Hundred. It was then, viz. 1712, assessed to the Land-Tax 135 l. 16 s. 10 d.

The Rectory was valued, Anno 1291, at 11 Marks; and Anno 1534 (as it now stands charged for first Fruits) at 121. 16s. 3d. It is reputed worth 150l. per Annum.

The Terrier as delivered of the Endowment of the Parsonage, Sept. 22, 1607, by Erasmus Williams, the then Rector, is as follows.

The Home-stall, containing 126 Rodds. An Orchard of 42 Rodds. Two Gardens, part walled, paled and hedged, of 20 Rodds.

The Parsonage House of 15 Bays, 10 tyled, and 5 thatcht.

A Barn thatcht of 6 large Bays and a Stable of 2 Bays.

A Meadow called Northam of 1 Acre 5 Rodds.

A triangular Meadow of 7 Rodds.

A Meadow called Bull-Hook, charged with keeping a Bull, of 54 Rodds.

Four Tenements or Cottages in the middle of the Town belong to the Rector, containing 100 Rodds.

Here is a good arch'd Gate-House, leading into the Rectory House, built, as supposed, by Bishop William Wickbam, the Donor of it to New College; who is said to have designed it as a retiring Place to his Students in Times of Pestilence and Sickness in his College.

Here is a Charity of 51. per Annum distributed to the Poor; it arises from the Rents of a Close in Barton, purchased about the Year 1687, by Monies given by Mr. Charles Longland, of about 1301. for that Purpose.

King Hen. III, Anno 1246, in the 31st Year of his Reign, as aforesaid, granted to Theobald de Engleshevill, who held this Manor for his Life of the Monks of Roan, a weekly Market on the Tuesday, by the following Charter:

- "Rex Archiepiscopis, &c. Salutem. Sciatis quod concessimus pro Nobis et Heredibus nostris Theobaldo de Engleshevill, quod in Manerio de
- "Tingwick habeat quoddam Mercatum singulis Septimanis per Diem Martis, nisi Mercatum illud sit ad nocumentum vicinorum Merca-
- torum, &c. Teste R. de Clare, Com. Glocest. et Hertf. Dat. apud
- " Manerium nostrum de Claundon, 10 Die Decembris:"

The Church here, which is dedicated to St. Mary Magdalen, has a Nave or Body, and North Ile, which are leaded, and Chancel which is tyled; at the West End is an embattled Tower, in which hang 5 modern Bells.

The Chancel, Tower, and Part of the South-side of the Nave, are of good Workmanship, and seem to have been of William Wickham's the Patron's building in Ric. Ild's Time. Here is also a Clock.

There is in the Church only this on a Grave-stone,

"Here lyeth the Body of William Perkins. He was a loving Father, true to the Church, and a Friend to his Country. He was buried March 11, 1712; aged 67 Years."

But here was formerly in a South Window, the Portraiture of a Priest kneeling, and under him this written, Johes Coke; and over him St Catherine with her Wheel; and in a Label from the Priest's Mouth, Santia Katherina; but this is broke.

On

On a Brass affixed to the East Wall of the Chancel, is the Portraiture of a Man in a Gown in a praying Posture, betwixt two Pillars; at the Bottom of one of them this inscribed, I bave made thee an Iron Pillar, Jer. i. 18. Afterwards this, I will endeavour to that which is before. Upon the Top of the Pillar is a Globe, upon the Globe, Oh my Hope, Oh my Fortress, Psalm xci. Over this is the Holy Ghost, represented by a Dove, round it, Ye are now Light in the Lord. Over this the Sun and a Rainbow, by the Sun, By the Day the Sun is come, by the Moon the Night is past; under the Rainbow, Our Conversation is in Heaven. Under this an Angel blowing a Trumpet; upon a Label from the Trumpet, Arise ye Dead and come to Judgment. Upon the Top of the other Pillar is an Owl, over it, But ye were in Darkness, Ephel. v. Upon the Top of this Pillar hang on one Side, Astronomical and Musical Instruments, Painting Utensils, Geometrical Instruments, and the nine Muses, with the Alphabet on the other Side; several Books, on one of them Ptolemy, on another Livy, on others Pliny, Virgil, Aristotle, and Cicero. At the Bottom of this Pillar is Lot's Wife; over her, Remember Lot's Wife. Under the Man, towards the first Pillar, In plain Obedience of the Spirit. Towards the second Pillar, Not in the enticing Speech of Man's Wisdom, 1 Cor. ii. and iv. Under all these Verses,

- " This doth Aerasmus Williams represent,
- "Whom living all did love, dead, all lament;
- " His humane Arts behind his Back attend
- "Whereon spare Hours, he wisely chose to spend;
- " And from Corintbian Columns deckt with Arts,
- " Now to the Temple's Pillar he converts.
- " Under the Rainbow Arch of Promise, where
- " Of hoped Blis, no Deluge he needs fear.
- "He of this Church did a firm Pillar live,
- " T' whom dead his Wife doth thefe Pillars give.
- " Continued by his Scholar and his Friend,
- "Who wish'd their Loves and Lives had had one End:
- " Aerasmus More's Encomium set forth;
- " We want a More to praise Aerasmus' Worth."
- " Of the Line of Sir John Williams, of Dorsetsbire; and by the Mother of the House of Sir William Barowe, of Hampsbire. He died March 30,

But

But I come now to the List of the Rectors which I shall exhibit from the Registers of Lincoln.

TINGWICK RECTORES.

Geffry de Castro Rothomago is the first I meet with in the Registers of Lincoln. He resigned it, A.D. 1276, and was succeeded by William Eton 11 Cal. Sept. 1276, on the Presentation of the Monastery of St. Catherine de Monte Rothomagi.

Robert is the next, on whose Death, Anno 1303,

William Reloud alias Iburnat was instituted 2 Id. June, 1303, on the Presentation of the Prior of Hermandsworth, in Middlesex, who was the Procurator of Roan Convent.

Walter de Bray succeeded on the Resignation of William Iburnat, on the said Title, and was instituted 6 Non. Julii, 1314, as was John de Walliford on the said Title 3 Id. Nov. 1318, on Bray's Re-

Robert de Walton was instituted 6 Id. April, 1361, on the Death of John Walliford, on the Presentation of the Prior of Hermandsworth.

Hugh de Derham was instituted 7 Cal. Dec. 1375, on the Death of Robert de Walton, on King Edw. IIId's Presentation on Account of his having taken the Temporalties of foreign Monasteries into his Hands.

John Greene, A. M. was instituted, May 23, 1415, on the Death of Hugh Derham, on the Presentation of the Warden, Fellows, and Scholars of St. Mary Winton College in Oxford.

Robert Tomlyn succeeded A.D. 1420, as did

Nicholas Ofelbury, A. M. 1440. He died Anno 1453, being also Warden of New-College, and was buried in that College Chapel, and succeeded by Thomas Chalk, instituted July 16, 1453, on whose Death

Thomas Dale, A. M. became instituted Sept. 8, 1473, as was Edward Rope, A. M. March 19, 1501, on the Death of Thomas Dale.

Thomas Makytt or Makyll, LL. B. succeeded 1509.

Alexander Belsyre, A. M. was instituted April 30, 1540, on Makytt's Refignation; he was also Canon of Christ Church Oxford, and made, Anno 1555, the first President of St. John's College, Oxon, but deprived of his Preserments by Queen Elizabeth. After him I meet with William Adde, who in his Will, dated 1557, styles himself Parson of Tingwick; and orders his Body to be buried in Tingwick Chancel. I also meet with.

William Dalby, A. M. called 1559, Parson of Tingwick, but it is plain that

John

John Longland, A.B. made by his Kinsman, Bishop Longland, Archdeacon of Buckingham, 1544, became instituted 1559; but being made also Rector of Great-Linford, he seems to have taken out a second Institution 1576. He died and was buried here Nov. 7, 1589, and succeeded by Aerasmus Williams, B. D. 1589. He died March 30, 1608, and was buried here, and succeeded by John Urrey, A. M. instituted May 18, 1608, on Aerasmus Williams's Death. He quitted it in the great Rebellion.

John Good, S. T.B. took it 1645, to whom succeeded

John Beesley, A. M. 1647, who was forced to leave it 1650, when

Stephen Sedgwick intruded, and calls himself Rector, as does,

John Johnson, 1657, but they were obliged to give Way to the a-foresaid

John Beefley, who became repossessed 1660. He died and was buried here, Feb. 27, 1668.

Thomas Edmonds, A. M. was instituted May 5, 1669, on the Death of Beefley. He died the same Year, and was succeeded by

Stephen Penton, A. M. instituted March 9, 1669. This worthy and learned Man, who was Prebendary of Rippon, and Rector of Wath, Co. York, died Ost. 18, 1706, aged 67, and was buried at Wath. He refigned this in Exchange for the Principalship of Edinond Hall, in Oxford, to which he was a very great Benefactor; he was succeeded here by Lancelot Bland, A. M. instituted June 26, 1676, on Penton's Refignation. He died and was buried here April 17, 1690, and succeeded by

Thomas Oldys, LL. B. instituted 1690. He died and was buried here

July 13, 1720, and succeeded by.

Francis Edmonds, A. M. the present worthy Rector, 1735, instituted Dec. 24, 1720; who has greatly adorned the Chancel, and made an hand-some cov'd Cieling, and laid out considerably on the Parsonage-House, and other Buildings here, and is daily doing several Acts of Charity in the Parish.

TUR-

URWESTON,

HAT is the West Tower Town: It was surveyed in Doomsday-Book as follows:

In Stodefield Hundred.

Willhelmus de Felgeres tenet Tur-Terra est viii Carucatarum. Præter bas v Hidas. In Dominio sunt iii Carucatæ Terræ, et ibi una Carucata et de 7s. 6d. Pratum viii Carucatarum. In totis Valenciis valet et valuit iv Tempore Regis Edwardi . . . tenuit et vendere potuit.

William de Felgeres holds Turweston. Pro v Hidis se desendebat. It was taxed at five Hides. The Arable is eight Carucates, besides these five Hides. There are three Carucates in Demesne, and there is one adbue ii possunt fieri. Et vi Villani Carucate and two more can be made. cum iv Bordariis, babent ibi v Caru- There are fix Copyholders, and four catas. Ibi iv Servi, et i Molendinum Cottagers. They have five Carucates. There are four Servants, and a Mill of 7 s. 6 d. Value, and Meadow for eight Carucates. In the whole it is worth 41. In King Edward's Time held it, and could fell it.

This Family of the Felgeres were of Norman Extraction, and great Benefactors of Lands to feveral religious Houses in Normandy. However they retained confiderable Possessions in England till the Reign of Hen. II. when Ralph de Felgeres rebelling against that King, and aiding his Sons against him, had his Lands taken away. In Carte's History of England we meet with this Account of the Felgeres's Family, which I shall here give in that elaborate Author's Words:

"King Richard the First continued all in their Posts that had been faith. " ful to their late Master, discarding those who deserting his Father's Service " had adhered to him in his Rebellion, whether Ecclefiasticks or Lay-men, he "turned them out of his Court, and hated for ever after, not thinking them " likely to be more faithful to himself than they had been to his Father: " And when Guy Delaval the younger, Ralph de Felgeres, and Judwael de " Magore demanded to be restored to their Castles (which had been seized " by Henry) in Recompence for their Services to him in his last Revolt, he did indeed put them in Possession thereof, according to his Convention "with them, but turned them out again the next Day; faying, that fuch as " deferted their Lords and affilted others against them, deserved only to be " rewarded in this Manner."

And that this Estate was thus taken away seems plain, for Anno 1219 I meet with this Return of it, viz. 2 Hen. III, " Quod Humfridus de Stovill tenet totam Villatam de Turweston de la Zouche;" and I also find in this King's Time, Anno 1273, that Emma, Mother to William Baynel, of Shalfton. was flyled Domina de Turweston b. But in the next Reign, viz. Tempore Edw. I. it being escheated to the Crown, was, with other Manors, viz. Bridbreck in Ellex, and Westerham and Elmebridge in Kent, Knowle and Graftons- Ardern, and other Lands in Warwicksbire, given by King Edw. I. by Charter dated Oct, 25, 1291°, Anno Regni 20, to Westminster-Abbey, in which Donation the King grants to that Convent Totum Manerium de Turweston cum pertinentiis, una cum Advocatione Ecclesia, upon Condition that the Abbot, the Prior, and Convent of that House, or the Prior and Convent (if the Abbot should be out of the Way d) upon the Eve of St. Andrew the Apostle, on which Day the said Queen's Anniversary had used to be kept, " being solemnly revested in the Quire of that Monastery, should " fing a Placebo and Dirige, with nine Lessons, and Wax Candles weighing 12lb, a Piece, being then burning about her Tomb, and every Year have " new ones made for that Purpose. And furthermore that those Wax- Candles " should be lighted at the Placebo and Dirige, on the Eve of the same Anniever lary, and burn on the Day thereof, till high Mass was ended; and " that all the Bells both great and small then ringing, they should sing so-" lemnly for her Soul's Health. And moreover that on the Day of her faid "Anniversary, the Abbot himself in Case he was present, or the Prior in " his stead, if he could not procure a more eminent Prelate, should fing " Mass at the high Altar, the Candles then burning and Bells ringing, " and every fingle Monk of that Abbey should say a private Mass; the in-" ferior Monks their whole Pfalter, and the Friars Converts of that House "the Lord's Prayer, Creed, and Aves as many as the Abbot and Convent " should appoint, for her Soul and the Souls of all the Faithful deceased. 44 And that likewife the faid Prior and Convent, and their Successors, on 44 the same Day do distribute unto every poor Body repairing to that Mona-44 ftry One Penny Sterling, or Money to that Value, staying till Three of " the Clock, expecting their Coming before they should begin their Dole, which should be unto sevenscore poor People. And that of the waxen Taer pers as before specified, thirty to remain all the Year long about the said " Queen's Tomb till the renewing of them on the Day of her Anniver fary; all 46 which to be lighted upon the great festival Days, and upon the coming of 44 any Noblemen thither, and as often else as they should see fit. And moreover, that the faid Abbot, Prior, and Convent, and their Successors, should if find two waxen Lights, each of them weighing 2lb. of Wax, to burn constinually at the Tomb of the faid Queen. All which being performed, the Suruplusage of the said Revenue issuing out of these Lands, to remain for their 44 Pittances, to be provided according as themselves should best like. And for the more strict Observance hereof, every Abbot successively, before the Restitution of his Temporalties, to make a solemn Oath for Observance 66 of the Premises. And that every Year, upon St. Andrew's Eve, the said 46 King's Charter should be publickly read in the Chapter-House in the Presence of the whole Convent:" which Charter bears Date at Berwick upon Twede, Oct. 25, 20 Edw. I, 1291, as aforesaid.

Whereby this Manor being thus antiently bestowed on the Church of Westminster, has continued Part of the Possessions and Endowment thereof in all its Changes and Alterations whatsoever ever since; and so both Manor and Advowson now remain at this Day, Anno 1735, Part of the Revenues of the Collegiate Church of Westminster.

This Parish is bounded West by Brackley; North by Whitsield, Co. Northampton; and Bitlesden; East by Westbury Co. Buckingham; South by Imley, Co. Northampton; and contains about 1000 Acres. It is affessed to the Land-Tax 811. 65. 8 d. and the Number of Families is about 34, and Souls 190, as was computed, Anno 1712.

The Register begins but Anno 1695, the old one being destroyed; it was, as I am told, borrowed about a Law Suit, and torn to Pieces; it was in Paper.

The Rectory was valued Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, at 12 Marks, when the Abbot of Egnesham had a Pension out of it of 4s. The Abbot of Bistlessden had in Temporalties here 1l. 2s. In 1534, 25 Hen. VIII, it was charged for first Fruits at 12l. 6s. 3d. and is reputed to be of the Value of 120l. per Annum.

Here is built a good Manor-House near the Church, by the Family of the Heynes, who were Lessee-Tenants in Queen Elizabeth's Time to the Church of Westminster. This being rented by the Lord Viscount Hillsborough, occasioned the Author of the Irish Compendium to insert it as his Lordship's Family Seat, Anno 1722.

The Church here, which is dedicated to the Honour of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (and has a Feast kept the Sunday after August 15) consists of a Body and South Ile, which are leaded; and North Ile and Chancel, which are tyled. At the West End is a mean low Tower, covered with a sloping leaded Roof, in which hang two little Bells, cast Anno 1626. Length of the Church and Chancel about 70 Feet. Breadth of the Body and Side Iles 38 Feet. Here is no painted Glass except some Remains of a Crucifix in the East Window of the Chancel.

There are these Monuments in it, viz. On the North Side of the Chancel under an Arch was the Effigies of a Man, and near it lies an antient Grave-stone, thereon was the Portrait of a Priest, and an Inscription, which are torn off, 1 presume; it was for John Yate, who died Rector here, Anno 1497, 12 Hen. VII.

322 HISTORY OF TURWESTON.

In the middle of the Church is another antient Gravestone, whereon was the Portrait of a Man in Brass, between his two Wives; and under them on a Brass Plate this, Drate pro Animabus Thome Grene, Johanne, et Margarete, Argum ejus. Quorum Animabus propicietur Deus. Amen.

No Date, but I suppose they lived Tempore, Hen. VI.

On other Graveltones lying near it,

" Mrs. Mary Harris was buried Aug. 1, 1703."

" Mr. George Harris was buried Sept. 1, 1708."

In the South Ile is a Monument infixed in the Wall, thereon a Man and Woman kneeling at a Desk, at the Top these Arms, viz.

Or, a Chevron between 3 Darts sable, on a Chief Crenelle of the second, 3 Stars of the first, on the Chevron a Crescent.

Under these Arms this Inscription,

- " Simon Heynes, Esq; departed this Life, the 19th Day of April, 1628."
 - "Birth, Breeding, Fortune, nor the Length of Days,

T wa-

TURWESTON RECTORS, ex Registris Lincoln.

David, Archdeacon of Buckingham, Tempore Hen. II, (made by that King High Sheriff of Buckingham and Bedfordshire, Anno 1170, 16 Hen. II,) was Rector here, and he then set forth, that his Church of Turweston had no Share in two Parts of the Tythes; I suppose the Rest being given to Fenger Monastery, in Normandy, by the Patrons the Fulgeris. This is remarked in Dr. Hutton, Rector of Aynho's Collections; Witness to this Attestation was William, Prior of Lussield, who occurs Prior between the Years 1151, 16 Stephen, and 1175, 21 Hen. II.

Ralph de St. German was instituted Rector here, Anno 1243, 27 Hen. III.

on the Presentation of Sir Humfry Stovil, Knight.

Humfry de Stovill, Sub-deacon was instituted 17 Cal. Julii, Anno 1271, 55 Hen. III, on the Presentation of the Lady Emma de Turweston, on the Death of Ralph last Rector.

All the the following Rectors were presented by the Church of Westminster, or their Lessee-Tenants. The sirst of these was

Robert Gastelyn, presented Anno 1307, 35 Edw. I, by Westminster Convent. He occurs Anno 1320, 13 Edw I.

John de Brakeley was instituted 3 Id. or Cal. Aug. Anno 1331, 5 Edw. III, on the Presentation of Thomas, Prior of Westminster. He exchanged it for Mersh, with Robert de Warringdon, Id. March, Anno 1335, 9 Edw. III.

William de Weston was instituted, 2 Non. Julii, Anno 1349, on the Death of the last Rector not named.

John Style exchanged it for Adflock Rectory with

William de Northburgh Oct. 8, Anno 1735, 49 Edw. III.

William Gregby exchanged it for Leighton Bosard Vicaridge, with

Thomas de Foxton, Oct. 27, 1379. He exchanged it for Church Lawford, Co. Warwick, with William Swafield, July 27, Anno 1386. He exchanged it for Marston-Laurence, Co. Northampton, with John Aleyn, 25 Feb. Anno 1393. He exchanged it the next Year with

Thomas Hervey, Dec. 4, Anno 1394, 17 Ric. II, after him occurs

Thomas Pitchley, who died Rector here, Anno 1405, 6 Hen. IV, and was succeeded by John Barner instituted Oct. 12, Anno 1405, 6 Hen. IV; the next I meet with is

Robert Locker; on whose Resignation, Anno 1453, 31 Hen. VI,

William Beaufort became instituted Sept. 18, Anno 1453. The next was William Crosby, on whose Death, Anno 1469,

John Cottisford became instituted March 1, Anno 1469, 9 Edw. IV. He tesigned Anno 1474, and was succeeded by

Thomas

Thomas Smith, instituted Dec. 20, 1474, 14 Edw. IV. He resigned it

Anno 1475, and was succeeded by John Yate, instituted O. 15, 1475. He died Anno 1497, 12 Hen. VII, and was buried here in the Chancel; though his Epitaph on a Brass-Plate is reeved off the Stone.

John Harris succeeded June 22, Anno 1492. On Yates's Death.

Thomas Hull succeeded Nov. 8, Anno 1502, 17 Hen. VII, on Harris's Resignation.

Thomas Marshall, A. M. Archdeacon of Lincoln, succeeded 30 April, 1529, on Hall's Resignation; and is the last presented by the Convent of Westminster, in their own Names. He died 1559, being also Rector of Bugbrook Co. Northampton; where he willed to be buried, and bequeathed 40 Marks to Robert Isles his Curate at Turweston.

John Whiteney or Witney, succeeded June 7, Anno 1560, on the Death of Marshall, on the Presentation of Joan Meye, Lessee to Westminster Abbey; her Husband, as seems to me, had been a Prebendary of Westminster.

John Paddy, A. B. was presented Sept. 3, Anno 1567, by Thomas Yale, LL. B. and Joan his Wife; I presume Joan Mey, whom he had married.

Hugh Yarwood was instituted Mar. 3, Anno 1603, on the Presentation of Simon Heynes, Gent. whose Father was a Prebendary of Westminster. On the Death of John Paddy

William Wrigglesworth was instituted Mar. 12, Anno 1610, on the Presentation of Simon Heynes, Lessee-Tenant to Westminster.

Thomas Philpet succeeded Anno 1632, on the Presentation of Amias Heynes. But Anno 1648, one

Josias Bunn intruded, and calls himself Rector, Anno 1651; however

Thomas Philpot, D. D. became restored Anno 1660, and died Rector here and of Akeley, and was buried at Akeley, Anno 1671. While he was Rector here he printed a Sermon, which is thus entitled, Adieu to the Duke of Gloucester, preached in a poor Parish Church of Turweston, near Buckingham, 1660; by Thomas Philpot, Rector of Turweston, D. D.

Edmund Major, A. M. succeeded, being presented July 1, Anno 1671.

He died and was buried at Preston; and succeeded by Charles James, S. T. P. Prebendary of Westminster, instituted Nov. 17, Anno 1685, on Major's Death. He died May 15, 1695, and was buried at Bath Abbey, and succeeded by James Sartree, instituted June 24, 1696. He died in Sept. Anno 1713, and was buried in Westminster-Abbey, where he was Prebendary, and succeeded by

Laurence Broderick, S. T. P. Prebendary also of Westminster, instituted Jan. 21. Anno 1713, who is the present Rector, Anno 1735.

T W Y F O R D,

I N Latin duplex Vadum, or the Place where are two Fords: It is thus furveyed in Doomsday-Book:

Terra Radulfi de Felgeres, in Lamua Hundred.

Radulfus de Felgeres tenet Tueverde pro xviii Hidas. Terra est xvii Carucatarum. In Dominio sunt vi Hidæ et ibi sunt iii Carucatæ, et adhuc ii possunt sieri. Ibi ix Servi. Pratum iii Carucatarum. Silva c Porcorum. In totis Valentiis valet 10 l. quando recepit 8 l. Tempore Regis Edwardi 121.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Goda Comitissa, et ibi quidam Homo Heraldi Comitis babuit iii Hidas, pro i Manerio, et vendere potuit.

Ralf de Felgeres holds Twyford for xvii Hides. The Arable is xviii Carucates, vi are in Demesne, and there are iii Carucates and two more can be made out. There are nine Servants. Meadow for three Carucates. Mast for an hundred Hogs. In the whole it is worth 10 l. when he received 8 l. In King Edward's Time 12 l.

Goda the Countess held this Manor, and Earl Harold's Tenant had three Hides, which he held for one Manor, and could sell it.

This Family of Felgeres, as spoken of in Turweston, being Normans, and coming over with William the Conqueror, notwithstanding they acquired several Possessinian these Parts, I presume they did not keep them long: They seem to have been succeeded Anno 1160, 6 Hen. II, in some of their Possessinians, by Walter Gissard, Earl of Buckingham; and so probably this Manor, came as that of Marsh had done to Marshall Earl of Pembroke, as Heir to Walter Gissard. In some old Charters sans Date, I find that Margery or Margaret Countess of Pembroke held this Manor; and that Walter Marshall had it given him by the King, I suppose Hen. II, on the Forseiture of Ralph de Felgeres, Heir to the aforesaid Ralph.

But in Henry the IIId's Reign, Anno Regni 31, 1246, Ralph Fitz-Nicholas' is returned to hold Twyford with two Knights Fees. This Ralph obtained Anno 1251, 35 Hen. III, a Grant of a Fair at his Manor of Twyford.

A younger Son of this Ralph Fitz-Nicholas, as we are told in Dugdale's Baronage, vol. ii. p. 8. was Ralph Pipard, Steward of the Hawks to Hen. III, who having married the Heir of Robert Fitz-Williams, received Summons to Parliament, and dying Anno 1309, or 1310, was succeeded by Ex Cart Antiq. Temp. Hen. II. CTesta de Nevill. Clauf. 33 and 35 Hen. III.

John

John his Son and Heir, who died Anno 1322, 15 Edw. II; but as he received no Summons to Parliament, our Author takes no further Notice of him.

From the Pipards this Estate passed in Marriage with their Daughter and Heir to the Botelers, Earls of Ormond, who enjoyed this Manor in Edw. III, Ric. II, and Hen. IVth's Time: And of this Family (as it appears) it was that the Giffard's held it, even in Edw. IIId's Reign, and so being seated here antiently, Sir John Giffard, Knight, about the Year 1340, 14 Edw. III, (as I find it in the Registers of Lincoln) obtained Licence from the Bishop to have an Oratory at his Manor of Twyford, as it is there called.

However it is certain that notwithstanding Giffard is so entitled, that the Botelers were Lords here, for about Anno 1383, 6 Ric. II., John Boteler, Earl of Ormond, died possessed of Twysord Manor, as did James Butler, Anno 1406, 7 Hen. IV, tho' the Giffords nevertheless had great Demesses here, for Anno 1350, 24 Edw. III, Sir John Giffard, of Twysord, Knight, passed a Fine of Lands in Chanendon, in this Parish to John Fitz John le Franklyn or Freeman's, and Anno 1395, 18 Ric. II, Sir Thomas Gifford and Sibill his Wise, resided at Twysord, as did Thomas Gifford, Tempore Hen. VI, and Edw. IV.

Anno 1512, 3 Hen. VIII, by an Inquisition taken at the Town of Bucks it was returned that Thomas Giffard died O. 20, that Year, seized of Twyford Manor, and 2) Messuages there, and that by Joan his Wise, Daughter of John Langston, Esq, he lest Issue Thomas , his Son and Heir, aged 30 Years; which Thomas Giffard departing this Life Nov 25, 1550, 4 Edw. VI, without Issue Male surviving, this Manor came by Marriage of Ursula his Daughter and Heir to Thomas Wenman, Esq; who died seized hereof July 22, 1577, 19 Eliz. leaving Issue Richard his Son and Heir, aged 40, in whose Descendants it now remains; and the Right Honourable Philip, Lord Viscount Wenman, of Tuam, in the Kingdom of Ireland, is the present Lord hereof, Anno 1735.

But as a genealogical Account of this honourable Family has been communicated to me fince the drawing up of the History of this Parish, I shall (as it is supplemental to what my own Collections furnished) insert it.

"This antient Family of Wenman (written Wayneman and Weynman hath been of long Continuance in the Counties of Oxford and Berks; though we have not sufficient Light to lead us back to its Original. The first of this Name we find mentioned (so as to enable us to continue the Genealogy with Accuracy) was Henry Wenman, Esq.; of Blewbury, in the County of Berks; who in the Reign of King Edw. IV, 1482, married Emmota, Daughter and Heir of Simkin Harvey, Esq.; of Herefordshire, (who after the Death of her first Husband the said Henry Wenman, married Thomas Fermor, of Whitney, in the County of Oxford, Esq.) and had Issue two Sons and three Daughters, viz. Richard, John, Alice, Ann, and Elizabeth.

Richard

Richard Wenman, Esq; the eldest Son, who dwelt at Whitney, and was Merchant of the Staple at Calais, married Anne, Daughter of John Bulb, Esq; of Northleach, in the County of Gloucester, by whom he had 2 Sons and 3 Daughters, viz. Thomas and William; which William died Angust 30, 1521, and was buried at Whitney; the Daughters were Alice, Joan, and Mary.

Upon the Death of Richard the Father, which happened Anno 1533, Thomas Wenman, Esq; his eldest Son, succeeded to the Estate: He was afterwards knighted by Queen Elizabeth, and was chosen Member of Parliament for the Town of Northampton, 1 Edw. VI, 1547; and for the County of Oxford, Anno 1555, the 2d and 3d of Philip and Mary; and Anno 1571, 13 Eliz. for the Town of Buckingham. He married Ursula, Daughter and sole Heir of Thomas Gisford, of Twyford, in the County of Buckingham, Esq; who was descended in a right Line from Walter Gisford, called also Walter de Beosse, who was created Earl of Buckingham and Pembroke, and was Son of Osbert Bulbeck Gisford, (who come over with William the Conqueror) by Avelin his Wise, Sister of Gunnara, Duchess of Normandy, who had also a Daughter named Roessa, Wise of Richard, Son of Gilbert, Lord Clare, from whom the Earls of Gloucester and Hertford descended; and to whom the King of England by the Line of Mortimer was Heir.

By the Death of her Brethren the Manors of Twvford, Pounden, and Chanenden, descended to this Ursula, the Wise of Sir Thomas Wenman, who was buried at Twyford 1558; by whom he had Issue five Sons and four Daughters, viz. Richard, his Successor; Henry, who died without Issue; William. who represented the County of Oxford 39 Eliz, 1597 (and left Issue Richard. Francis, Gyles, Margaret, Mary, Elizabeth, and Helen) Thomas his fourth Son was by King Charles the First made a Captain in the Army; and Anno 1628, Governor of the New Fort, erected at Cork; and Anno 1620 Provost-Marshall of the Province of Munster, in Ireland. He died Anno 1627, aged 86, having made his Will Sept. 3, 1656, in which he constituted Margaret. Lady Aungier his Wife, sole Executrix. He lest Issue Thomas, John, Richard, Mary, Martha, and Margaret: Gifford, the fifth Son of Sir Thomas Wenman, died young, of his Daughters, Elizabeth died unmarried, Anne was Wife to Thomas Fitzberbert, of Gatesbury, Co. Hertford, Esq; Mary was first Wife to John Goddard, of Castle-Eaton, in the County of Wilts, Esq, and afterwards to Thomas Purefoy of Shalfton, in the County of Bucks, Esq. and Jane was first married to James Cressie, Esq; and secondly to Thomas Tafburgh, Esq;

Sir Richard, eldest Son and Heir to Sir Thomas, who was Sheriff of Oxfordshire, 1562, married Isabel, Daughter and Coheir of John Lord Williams of Thame; who was second Son of Sir John Williams, of Burfield, in Berkshire. This Lord Williams enjoying several Preferments in the Reigns of King Henry VIII, Queen Mary, and Queen Elizabeth, acquired considerable Estates, and was April 5, 1554, created Lord Williams, of Thame. He married Elizabeth, Daughter and Coheir of Thomas Bedlow, Esq. Widow to Andrew Edmonds, of Temple-Cressing, in Essex, Esq. and dying Ost. 19, 1559, was buried with his Wise, at Thame; where he had founded a Free-School

School and Alms-house. His Issue were two Daughters, viz. Isabel Lady Wenman; and Margaret, Wife to Henry Norreys, created Lord Norreys. Anno 1572, whose Grandson by her was created Viscount Thame, and Earl of Berkshire: But he leaving an only Daughter, viz. Elizabeth, Wife to Set Edward Wray, Esq; Son to Sir William Wray, of Glentworth, in the County of Lincoln, Bart. and they having also Issue an only Daughter, named Bridget. she became second Wife to Montague Bertie, Earl of Lindsey; and was Mother to James Lord Norreys, of Rycot, who was in her Right created a Peer, and made Earl of Abingdon; and in the Division of the Estate, Thame Park. with the Manors thereto belonging, devolved to Lady Wenman, and hath continued the chief Seat of this noble Family. By Lady Isabel Sir Richard had Issue Sir Thomas, his Successor; Henry, who died young; Francis, who married . . . Daughter of Henry Goodyer, Esq; of Baggington, in Warwick-(bire; he had also 2 Daughters, viz. Margaret and Frances, who died unmarried. Jir Richard died March 9, 1572, and was buried at Twyford; on his Death Sir Thomas his eldest Son and Heir succeeded, who by Jane his Wife, Daughter of William West, Lord Delaware, had Issue three Sons and one Daughter, viz. Richard, Ferdinand, Thomas, and Elizabeth.

Sir Richard his eldest Son, who succeeded his Father at Thame Park, was honoured with Knighthood 38 Eliz. 1596, for his gallant Behaviour at the taking of Cadiz, in Spain. He was High-Sheriff of Oxfordshire, Anno - 1627, and by Letters Patent, dated at Canbury, July 30, 1628, Anno 3 Car. I, was created Baron Wenman, of Kilmayntam, and Viscount Wenman, of Tuam, with the annual Creation Fee of 137. 65. 8d. payable out of the Cuftoms of the Port of Dublin. His Lordship married Agnes, Daughter of Sir George Fermour, of Easton-Neston, in the Country of Northampton, Ancestor to the Earl of Pomfret; who died and was buried at Twyford July 4, 1617, by whom he had Iffue four Sons and Your Daughters, viz. Thomas, afterwards Lord Wenman, Edward, who died un-married, Philip, who on the Deaths of his Brother and Richard his Brother's Son, became Lord Wenman, and Charles, who died unmarried. His Daughters were Penelope, Wife to Sir John Dinham, of Borstall; Jane, to Arthur Goodwin, Esq. Mother to Philip Lord Wharton; Dorothy, who died young; and Mary, married to Martin Lister, Esq. His Lordship concluding he had a Right to the Barony of Thame, by the Marriage of his Grandfather with Isabel, the eldest Daughter of Lord Williams, as beforementioned, preferred a Petition for it to King James the First, 1603, but as it was not at that Time determined, the Title still lies dormant. His Lordship was chosen Member of Parliament'. for the

His Lordship's second Brother Ferdinand married Frances, Daughter of William Risley, of Chetwood, Esq; and his third Brother Sir Thomas Wenman was Member of Parliament for Brackley in the Years 1620, 1623, 1625, and 1640.

County of Oxford, 18 Jac. I, 1620, and 1 Car. I, 1625. He died in the 67th Year of his Age, Anno 1640, and was buried at Twyford.

His only Sifter Elizabeth, was Wife to Sir Walter Tredway, of Beaconsfield, in the County of Buckingham. On his Death, Anno 1640, as aforefaid, faid. Thomas the second Lord Wenman succeeded: He became one of the Adventurers in Ireland when that Kingdom was reduced by the English. and subscribing the Sum of 600l. had an Allotment of 617 Acres 1 Rodd and 15 Perches Plantation Measure, amounting to 1000 Acres Statute Measure. in the Barony of Garry Castle and King's County. He represented the County of Oxford in the second Parliament of the First Year of King Charles the First. and was Member for Brackley in that King's third Year; and also fat in Parliament from 1640 to 1653 for Oxford/hire, and again 1660. And as his Lovalty inclined him to espouse the King's Cause in the Civil Wars, begun 1641; his Lordship took into his House and Family that very great and learned Man Dr. Seth Ward after he had been expelled Sidney College in Cambridge. for his orthodox Principles; who was at the Restauration made the worthy Bishop of Exeter and Salisbury. His Lordship was appointed by the Parliament one of the Commissioners to carry the Propositions for Peace to the King at Oxford, Anno 1644; and was also appointed again so at the Treaty of Uxbridge the same Year; and for the Treaty at Newport, in the Isle of Wight, 1648; and was one of the 41 Members, who were for giving their Votes that the Concessions of his Majesty to the Propositions upon the Treaty of Newbort were sufficient Grounds for the House to proceed upon, to the Settlement of the Peace of the Kingdom, was seized by the Army, and committed to close Imprisonment. He married Margaret, Daughter and Coheir of Edmund Hampden, Esq; of Hartwell, in the County of Buckingham; who died in the 50th Year of her Age, and was buried at Twyford, May 1, 1658. His Lordship died 7an. 25, 1664, aged 68, and was buried at Twyford; as was his only Son Richard, who married Barbara, Daughter of Sir Edward Villers, Bart. Sifter to William the first Lord Grandison, but died Anno 1646, without Issue. His Lordship's Daughters were, Frances, Wife to Richard Samwell, Esq. Margaret and Agnes who died young; Penelope, Wife to Sir Thomas Cave. of Stanford, in Northamptonshire, Bart. Elizabeth, Wife to Sir Grevill Verney: and Mary, Wife to Sir Francis Wenman, of whom more hereafter.

On Failure of this fecond Lord Wenman, viz. Lord Thomas's Issue Male, the Title descended to Philip, his only surviving Brother, who married ... Daughter of ... and had Issue by her an only Daughter, viz. Mary, Wise to William Crosts, of Saxham, Co. Suffolk, Esq. who dying without Issue, in the 29th Year of her Age, was buried at Twyford, OB. 29, 1680: As to Lord Philip he died April 27, 1686, aged 76, and was buried at Twyford: Having on the Death of his Brother and Nephew procured from Car. II, in Jan. 1683, a new Entail of the Honour to his next Heir Male in Reversion, with the same Precedency that he himself held it. The Title, as so limited, came thereby to

Sir Richard Wenman, the fourth Viscount, Son to Sir Francis Wenman, of Caswell, Bart. by Mary his Wife, youngest Daughter of Thomas Lord Viscount Wenman; which Sir Francis was Grandson of Francis Wenman, of Caswell, Esq; who was Brother to Sir Thomas Wenman, and Uncle to Thomas the first Lord Viscount Wenman, and Son of Sir Francis Wenman, who represented the County of Oxford in Parliament in the 15th and 16 Years of King Charles I, viz. 1640, 1641, in which last Year he died, June 26, 1641; and was buried at Whitney with his Ancestors, aged 40. He married Anne, Daughter to Sir Samuel Sandys, of Ombersley, in the County of Worcester, and had Issue by her Samuel, his eldest Son (who, as may be seen in Lord Clarendon's History, was slain near Plymouth, Anno 1645) Francis, his second Son, who died June 3, 1665; and a Daughter named Anne, Wise to Sir John Fettiplace, of Childrey, in the County of Berks, created a Baronet March 30, 1661.

As to Sir Francis himself, Father to Richard, the fourth Viscount, who on his Father's Death, Anno 1641, succeeded to the Estate, he sat in Parliament Anno 1660, with his Father-in-Law, for Oxfordshire, and was on Nov. 29, 1662, created a Baronet; and having on July 4, Anno 1651, married the aforesaid Lady, viz. Mary, youngest Daughter of Thomas, the 2d Lord Wenman, (by which Match the two Families of Thame Park and Caswell became united;) had Issue by her a Daughter, named Elizabeth, who died unmarried 1680; and sour Sons, viz. Richard, his Successor; Thomas and Francis, who died young; and Ferdinando, who died April 5, 1671, and was buried at Twysord. His sirst Wife the aforesaid Lady Mary departing this Life, Nov. 13, 1657, was buried under a Marble Monument at Whitney, in a Chapel, called Wenman's Chapel; where were two or three old Grave-stones with Brasses on them for Persons interred here of this Name and Family, in Hen. VIIIth's Time.

On her Death Sir Francis married to his fecond Wife, Elizabeth, Daughter of Edward Fettiplace, of Swinbrook, Esq; who died 1679, by whom he had two Sons, viz. Lorenzo and Philip, who died unmarried; and two Daughters, viz. Dozeliza, Wife of Richard Smith, Esq; and Mary, Wife of Gabriel Roberts, Esq. But I come now to speak of his eldest Son and Successor, viz.

Sir Richard, who Anno 1686, succeeded to the Title of Lord Visc. Wenman, as he had done to that of Baronet on the Death of his Father, who died Sept. 1, 1680. He was chosen Member of Parliament for Brackley 1681, 1685, and 1688. He married Catherine, eldest Daughter and Coheir to Sir Thomas Chamberlayne, of Wickbam and Northbrook, in the County of Oxford, Buronet, which Sir Thomas was Grandson to Sir Thomas Chamberlayne, who was an Ambassador in the Reigns of Hen. VIII, Edw. VI, Q. Mary, and Eliz. and descended from the antient Counts of Tankerville, in Normandy, who came into England with the Conqueror, and assumed the Name of Chamberlayne from bearing that Office to King Stephen. This Lord Richard Wenman, who was born Anno 1657, died March 1, 1689, and was buried at Whitney: His Lady died aged 85, Feb. 9, 1741. On his Death

Sir Richard, the fifth Viscount succeeded: He married Susannah, Daughter of Seymour Wroughton, Grandson of Sir Giles Wroughton, of Wroughton, Co. Wilts: Lord Richard was born July 29, 1687, and died at Thame Park, Nov. 27, 1729, and was buried at Whitney; and succeeded by Sir Philip the present Viscount, 1735, born Anno 1719, now living at Thame Park. He left Issue also a second Son, named Richard.

This Parish is, next to Buckingham, reputed to be of the largest Extent of any in the Hundred: It is supposed to contain above 3000 Acres; and it has in it besides Twyford, 2 Vills called Chanenden and Pounden; the Name of Chanenden signifying Canons Wood, I take to have been so given it from its belonging to the Canons or Monks of Fenger; and Pounden to signify the Pond or Pound, or Inclosure, or Pond in the Wood.

Here are in this Parish about 95 Houses, and 400 Souls. It was Anno 1712, assessed to the Land-Tax 307 l. 8s. 11d. being the highest Assessed ment of any Parish in this Division, except Buckingham. I find no Account returned to the Bishop of Lincoln of any Lands given to Charities in this Parish.

The Advowson being given by the Felgeres, as seems to me, to the Abbat and Monks of Fenger, in Normandy, they remained Patrons till Hen. IIId's Time, when that Monastery, to obtain the Protection of the Bishops of Lincoln, gave it to that See; and the Bishops of Lincoln continued Patrons hereof till the Year 1475, 15 Edw. IV, when Bishop Rotheram the Co-Founder of Lincoln College, in Oxford, got it annexed to the Rectorship of that Society, as I find by Letters Patent, 15 Edw. IV. p. 1, as follows,

"Rex dedit Licentiam Thomæ Episcopo Lincoln. Cancellario Angliæ Quod ipse Ecclesiam parochialem Beate Marie de Twysord, in Com. Bucks; sue Collationis, et Diocesis, cum suis Juribus et Pertinentiis quibuscunque dilectis nobis Rectori, sive Custodi Collegii Beate Marie et omnium Sanstorum Lincoln. In Oxonia, et ejus Loci Scholaribus, sive Sociis et Successoribus suis, appropiare universe et incorporare possit: Habendum imperpetuum dum tamen Ecclesia illa de sufficienti Vicario dotatur, et quedam competens Pecuniæ summa inter Pauperes Parochianos ibidem annuatim distribuatur, et hoc absque Fine seu Feudo, ad opus nostrorum pro magno Sigillo capiendo seu solvendo. Dat. Maii 14, Anno 15 Edw. IV 2."

By Virtue of this Grant not only the Rectorial but Vicarial Tythes have been incorporated and confolidated into the Rectorship of Lincoln College; and so whosoever is Rector of Lincoln College, is without Institution or Induction de Jure, Rector here; and the Rector finds an officiating Minister to do divine Service here, at a Stipend of 401. or 501. per Annum. And he is as I hear customarily obligated to preach himself an annual Sermon, which is accordingly performed on some Sunday in Lent: The Rectory was Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, valued at 25 Marks.

I have not met with any Chapel of Ease erected in this large Parish in the Registers of Lincoln, tho there being a Wake or Feast observed at Chanenden the Sunday before All-Saints-Day, it should seem as if a Chapel had Been antiently there. Here were, Anno 1541, 32 Hen. VIII, Altars of St. Catherine and St. Thomas, and Lights before the Images of our Lady and St. Anthony in this Church.

The Manor-House, as I have been informed, was a large Building, and it stood near the Church; but going to Decay the Wenman Family took up their Habitation at a Place called the Lodge, from its being situated, no Doubt, in the Park. But as that is now converted into Tenants Houses, they have not resided here these last 50 or 60 Years, but live for the most Part at their Seats in Oxfordshire, now known by the Names of Thame Park and Caswell, near Whitney.

I meet with this Return of this Parish to the Bishop in his triennial Visitation of his Diocese, (but no Terrier) viz.

"That Lincoln College pays a Curate, and that the whole Tythes Rectorial and Vicarial, are fettled on that College."

This Parish is bounded West by Stratton-Audley, in Co. Oxon; East by Steeple and Middle-Cleydon; South by Edgeote and Mershe Gibwen; and North by Presson and Godington; which last Parish is in Co. Oxon.

The Church here, which is dedicated to the Honour of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (and has a Wake or Feast kept in the Parish the Sunday after August 15) consists of a Body, two Side Iles and Chancel, all which are leaded. At the West End is a broad embattled Tower, in which hang 5 modern Bells.

I meet with no painted Glass or Arms, but here are several Inscriptions, which I shall give in their Order, and begin with the Chancel.

On a Gravestone,

" Here lieth the Body of Margaret, Wife to Thomas Evans, M. A. and "Minister of this Parish, the only Child and Heir of Sir Thomas" Smith, Citizen of Oxford; buried Ott. 24, 1687, aged 38."

On another Gravestone,

Here resteth the Body of Elizabeth, late the dear and loving Wise of John Brooke, Daughter of Mr. William Bale, deceased; who departed at Twyford Lodge to eternal Joy, on the 17th Day of Nov. A. D. 1661.

On another Gravestone,

Here lieth the Body of Thomas Berry, late Minister of God's Word in this Church, who departed this Life the 20th Day of Off. Anno.

334 HISTORY OF TWYFORD.

" 1675, in the 67th Year of his Age; and Elizabeth his Wife; who departed this Life Jan. 12, 1677."

On a Marble near the Communion Table,

"Here lieth the Body of Abigail, late Wife of Moses Baxter, Gent. One of the Daughters of Robert Busby, Son to Abigail Busby, late of Marsh-Gibbon, Widow, deceased. She died the 21st of Off. 1700, in the 37th Year of her Age."

On an antient Gravestone the Demi Effigies of a Priest with his Hands joined, in a praying Posture, underneath this, on a Plate of Brass,

"Hic jacet Dominus Johannes Everdon, quondam Mector iffius Ecclesifiae, qui obiit 4 Die Septembris, A.D. M.CCCC.XIX. Cujus "Anime propicietur Deus. Amen.

Against the Wall, over the Chancel Door, are painted these Arms, viz.

Barry of 6 Argent and sable, and by it T. M. being the Arms of Thomas Marshall, Rector of Lincoln College.

Also these Arms of Fleming and Rotheram, Founders of Lincoln College, both of them Bishops of Lincoln.

1 Barry of 6 Argent and Azure, on a Chief, Gules, a Mullet fable, being the Arms of Bishop Fleming.

TWYFORD RECTORES.

The Rectors of this Parish while it was presentative, and the Curates since, both the Rectory and Vicarage, were annexed to Lincoln College, are as sollow, as well as I can collect them from the Registers of Lincoln, &c. The first of them I meet with is

Ralph, Dean of Stafford, who in the Patents, Anno 8 King John 1207, is said to have resigned a Moiety of this Church, and that he was succeeded by

Thomas de Twyford who received Letters for Institution, directed to the Archdeacon of Bucks, 1207.

Richard de Wifry was presented Anno 1224, 8 Hen. III, to the Church of Twyford, by the Convent of Fenger, Salva Pensione 6 Marc. distis Abbat et Convent.

Simon de Estlond was presented by Fenger Monastery, Anno 1235, 16

Hen. III.

John de Stok was collated by the Bishop of Lincoln, Anno 1241, 26

Hen. IH.

William de Gare resigned this Rectory, Anno 1265, 49 Hen. III, and was succeeded by Ralph de Feningham, collated by the Bishop of Lincoln, Id. Dec. Anno 1265. The next was William Seggevill, who occurs Persona de Twyford, in Prynn's Collectanea, tom iii. p. 559. Anno 1294.

Nicholas de Appeltree succeeded, on whose quitting it for Bernack Rec-

John de Sutton became instituted 12 Cal. October, Anno 1299, on the Bishop's Collation. He resigned it Anno 1319, and was succeeded by Thomas Burdon, collated 8 Cal. Aug. Anno 1319, 12 Edw. II, on an Exchange with Sutton for Worsop, Co. Notting bam. After him

John Magard occurs Anno 1344.

John Worfop was instituted 11 Cal. Jun. Anno 1355. He exchanged it for Loughborough, Co. Leicester, with

William Antony, 15 Cal. Nov. Anno 1358, 32 Edw. III. His Successor

Richard de Bonham, on whose Resignation, Anno 1391, 14 Ric. II, Richard Cloop became collated and instituted, March 4, Anno 1391. He exchanged it for Alderton in Suffolk, with John Everdon, instituted Nov. 8, 1399. He died Anno 1419, 7 Hen. V, and was buried in this Church, and succeeded by Thomas Brown or Browne, Anno 1419, (who was afterwards Bishop of Rochester and Norwich.) He exchanged it for the Mastership of Maidstone Hospital in Kent, with

Thomas Aftol, Sept. 9, Anno 1423. His Successor was

Jobn

John Permonter, who seems to have come into it about Anno 1427, 5 Hen. VI; on whose Resignation, Anno 1432, he taking other Benefices, particularly the Rectory of Stow, Co. Northampton,

William Moncaux, or Moneux became instituted Feb. 18, Anno 1422;

when he voided it I find not; neither the Institution of John Marshall the last Rector as appears to me; on whose voiding it, Anno 1475, 15 Edw. IV. it became annexed and consolidated to Lincoln College as aforesaid: This John Marshall was made Prebendary of Ayleshury July 2, Anno 1467, 7 Edw. IV, and Bishop of Landaff, Anno 1477, and dying Anno 1495, 10 Hen. VII, was buried in Landaff Cathedral, to which he had been a great Benefactor. In his last Will and Testament he gave a Legacy to buy a Vestment to this Church, and also to his prebendal Church of Aylesbury.

After him I find no more Names of Incumbents, nor even so much as the Curates Names, who officiated here in the Registers of Lincoln, so that I cannot give any Series or Succession of them till after King James the first's Reign, for I meet with only two of these before that Time, viz.

Thomas Paske, who occurs Curate Anno 1539, 30 Hen. VIII, as does

John Pollye 1561; and then I meet with, next to him,

Edward Wallis, A. B. who is styled Minister here, Anno 1605, 3 Jac. I, after him

John Wakelyng subscribes himself Curate of Twyford, Anno 1609, 7 Jac. I, and Anno 1617, as does

Thomas Pool, Anno 1627. He died and was buried here, Oct. 4, 1654, and succeeded by:

Thomas Berry, Curate of Steeple Cleydon, who took this after Pool's Death.

He died and was buried here, Od. 22, 1675, and succeeded by Thomas Evans, A.M. Anno 1676. He died and was buried here Nov. 3, 1708, and succeeded by Richard Adams, B. D. Anno 1708, on whose quitting it, Anno 1721, Knightley Adams, B. D. the present Minister, Anno 1735, succeeded.

The Parish Register begins Anno 1561, a Eliz. out of it I extracted these Entries,

WATER-STRATFORD,

ALLED also West-Stratford, on Account of its lying West from I from the Capital Town of Bucks; has its Name from its Situation, viz. Aquosum vadum ad Stratum, the Watry Street-Ford: In Doomsday-Book it is thus surveyed:

Terra Roberti de Oigli, in Stofield Hundred.

M. Stradford tenet Turstinus de Roberto. Pro viii Hidis se desendebat. Terra est viii Carucatarum. In Dominio sunt iii. Et x Villani cum v Bordariis, habentibus v Carucatas. Ibi iii Servi et i Molinum de 8 s. Pratum vi Carucatarum. Valet 71. quando recepit cs. Tempore Regis Mill, of 8 s. Value. Meadow fuffi-Edwardi 7 l.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Azor, Filius Toti, et vendere potuit.

Turstin holds of Robert D'Oyly Stratford Manor. It was rated at eight Hides. The Arable is eight Plough Lands, three are in Demesne. There are ten Copyholders, with five Cottagers, having five Carucates. There are three Servants and one cient for fix Ploughs. It is worth 7 l. when he received 100 s. in King Edward's Time 7 l.

Azor, Son of Toti held this Manor and could fell it.

In the Monasticon, vol. ii. p. 138. though it is mentioned that this Robert de Oyly, who founded Oseney Abbey, Anno 1129, 29 Hen. I, and gave Lands in this Parish to it, yet I do not find that he gave that Convent any Right in the Church here; for this was by William, Son of William de Stratford, bestowed on the Priory of Luffield2, and that Convent continued Patrons thereof till Hen. VIIth's Time, when Luffield became annexed to Westminfter-Abbey. The Manor and Advowson having been very early dissevered, which is what I rarely meet with.

But I come to treat particularly of them both, and so shall begin with the Manor.

On the Family of the D'Oyly's, the Founders of Oseney, becoming extinct in the elder Branch, in the beginning of the Reign of King Hen. III (if not fooner) I find this Manor was in the Possession of a Family hence denominated; who notwithstanding they had in this Reign given the Advowfon of the Church here to Luffield Priory, remained still possessed of the temporal Demesnes or Manor, which descended as follows,

In a Deed without Date (made, as I presume, Anno 1230, 14 Hen. III) the Convent of Oseney granted to William de Stratsord and his Heirs, a Yard Land, on Payment of a Rent of 4 s. to their Monastery.

· * Vide Registr. Lussield, and the Monasticon, vol. i. p. 522: See also Steven's Monasticon, vol. ii. in the Appendix. Anno Anno 1334, a Fine passed between John, Son of William de Stratford, and Isabel his Wise, Demandants; and Nicholas, Persona de Chetwood, Deforciant, of West-Stratford Manor, and the Advowson of a Chantry at St. Mary's Altar, in West-Stratford Church, the Right of Nicholas, which he granted to John and Isabel, and the Heirs of their Bodies.

Anno 1342, 16 Edw. III, Nicholas, Son of John de Stratford, was in Posfession of this Manor; and Anno 1359, 33 Edw. III, John Giffard, of Twyford, Knt. granted all his Lands and Tenements in Stratford, of the Feossiment of Richard, Brother and Heir to William de Stratford to William Appeltree and Richard Mallet, in Trust; which said Trustees, viz. Appeltree and Mallet, the next Year re-infeossed the Premises back again to the said John Giffard, with Remainder to Thomas Giffard, which was consisted Anno 1382, 6 Ric. II.

The next Account which I find of this Manor, is, that Robert Giffard died seized thereof Anno 10 Hen. IV, 1409, as in the Escheats.

Anno 1432, 12 Hen. VI, John Barton, Lord of Thornton, granted among other Lands to Thomas Moor and Thomas Dodd, Clerk, and John Ardern, the Manor of West-Stratford; which Thomas Moor and John Ardern, Anno 1452, 30 Hen. VI, granted it to William Fowler and his Heirs, and so it coming to Richard Fowler, who died Anno 1477, 17 Edw. IV, he enfeossed therein John Langston and Thomas Fowler; and so it coming Anno 1513 into the Possession of Richard Fowler, Heir to Thomas Fowler, who was Heir to Richard, and descending to John Fowler, Son to Thomas, he granted this Manor, Anno 1542, 33 Hen. VIII, to Christopher Westcot, which said Christopher released his Claim herein to Sir Edward North and his Heirs, who forthwith conveyed it to William Humberston, reserving 111. Rent to himselfs, and the old Payment of 4s. per Annum to Oseney Abbey, which was now made a Cathedral.

Anno 1550, 4 Edw. VI, Humberston granted his Interest to John Freyne h, who Anno 1552, 6 Edw. VI, released all his Title to John Frankys, Mary his Wife, and their Heirs. But notwithstanding this Gabriel Fowler (Son of Edward Fowler, Brother and Heir to Richard Fowler, Son and Heir of Richard Fowler) setting up a Claim Anno 1575, 17 Eliz. Anthony Frankys, Son and Heir of John Frankys, who had Anno 1552, 7 Edw. VI, made a Purchase of it; he the said Anthony Frankys obtained from the said Gabriel Fowler, a Lease and Release of all his Interest and Right by Deed, dated Feb. 7, 1575, in the above-mentioned Year, viz. 1575; which Anthony Frankys dying Anno 1615, was buried here, and succeeded by his Son Anthony Frankys, who enclosed the Estate (and gave it up to his Son-in-Law Thomas Egerly, as seems to me) on whose Death, which happened Anno 1659, 11 Car. II, it descended to his Grandson, Thomas Egerly, born here Anno 1654, 6 Car. II, who Anno 1678, executed the Honourable Office of High Sheriff of this County when the Assizes and Election of Members of Parliament were held, as I am informed, on the Scite of the Castle of Bucks; but about the Timeof his Mother's Death, which happened Anno 1703, he fold this Manor to Thomas Cooks Winford, Esq; afterwards made a Baroner, who gave it to his Nephew and Heir Thomas Geers Winford, Esq; the present Possesson, Anno 1735, and Member of Parliament for the City of Hereford.

This Parish is bounded West by Finemere, in Oxfordsbire, and Westbury; North by Shalston and Stow; South by Tingwick; and East by Radcliff.

The Advowson after the Dissolution of Monasteries, Anno 1541, 32 Hen. VIII, coming to the Crown, was Anno 1551, 5 Edw. VI, granted to Nicholas Throckmorton, and so came by Anne, Daughter and Heir of Sir Arthur Throckmorton, in Marriage with her to Sir Peter Temple; who had by her a Daughter and Heir, named Anne, Wise to Sir Thomas Roper, Viscount Baltinglass, in Ireland; on whose Death, Anno 1694, it reverted again to the Temple Family; and is now Anno 1735, vested in the Right Honourable Sir Richard Temple, Bart. Lord Viscount Cobham, who is Patron of this Church.

By a particular of this Parish, taken about the Year 1712, I find it was returned to contain 1000 Acres, and that it was worth near 600 l. per Annum, and was affessed to the Land-Tax 92l. 15s. 9d. Here were then 24 Families, and 105 Souls, but no Lands given to any Charity.

The Rectory was Anno 1291, 19 Edw. I, rated at 5 Marks, when the Abbot of Oseney had a Pension of 20s. issuing of it. Anno 1535, 26 Hen. VIII, it was valued for first Fruits at 7 l. 0 s. 5 d. 'Tis worth about 80 l a Year.

In the Years 1693 and 1694, this Place was much resorted unto on Account, its Rector of Mr. John Mason, who taught publickly that he had seen Christ, and that he had at this Place begun his personal Reign on Earth; which enthusiastical Predictions occasioned great Resort hither from many Parts of the Neighbourhood, insomuch that all the Barns and Houses hereabouts were filled with his Followers, many of whom were so insatuated that they sold their Estates, being persuaded that this World was at an End; and so took up their Abodes and dwelt here some Years after his Death.

He having given it out that he should rise again in three Days, his Adherents were so possessed with the Belief thereof, that his Successor in the Rectory, Mr. Rushworth informed me that he was obliged to open his Grave, expose his Corpse, and thereby convince the People of the Madness of his Tenets.

There were, as I have seen, some Pamphlets wrote to explode his Doctrine, particularly one by the Reverend Mr. Henry Maurice, Rector of Tyringham, which is entitled, An impartial Account of Mr. John Mason, of Water-Stratford, and bis Sentiments, London, 1695; in nine Sheets and a half

Mr. Mason himself published a Raphsody of Hymns, which is half, in 4to.

in my Hands.

But as I have (while I am printing this History) been favoured with a more particular Account thereof, I shall here insert it, as it was transmitted me, in a Letter from a Gentleman and Lady, seated at the next Parish, having their Permission so to do.

Their Account of Mr. Mason is as follows.

"He (viz. Mr. Mason) being a popular Preacher, the common People. especially the Women, came far and near to be his Auditors; and as he came out of the Church, the People used to kneel down and beg his Bleffing, and he laid his Hands on them and bleffed them, as our Bishops now do. It is thought this was the first Occasion of his spiritual Pride, which afterwards led him into Extasses and pretended Revelations.

He told his Congregation, (which was composed of whole Families, some of whom fold their Estates and Lands, and brought their Substance to Water-Stratford, where they brew'd, bak'd, roasted, and boyl'd in a notable Manner) That our Lord Christ would appear at Water-Stratford, and come and judge the World on Whitsunday following.

They went out most Evenings into the Fields and sung their Hymns; my Grandfather and Mother went out to see them; the first Object they met with was a Countryman, who lay on his Face, in Water-Stratford Churchyard, who was quite tired with finging; and when turned on his Back was speechless but came to himself: Then they went into the Parsonage-House, and there was a Congregation walking round the Hall in a Ring, making a prodigious Noise, and all of them crying out Glory, Glory, Glory, and all in a Sweat and looking as if they were mad. My Mother told them she thought their's was an odd Way of serving God, and wish'd they were not mad. At which they all stood still with their Mouths open, and stared fiercely on her, but said nothing, and she verily believes if my Grandfather and another Gentleman had not been with her with their Swords by their Sides, they would have served her as they did Mrs. Lifle, of Imley. whose Head Cloaths they pulled off, and cried, Avoid Satan. Then my Mother faid, poor deluded People, I am forry for you: I wish I could speak with Mr. Mason; then one of their Women went up Stairs, and brought down Word that Mr. Mason was not to be seen or spoke with.

Some Time after came the then Duke of Richmond, and a great many more noble Persons, who tho' denied Access to him, forced their Way up to him, and talked to him a good deal. And amongst other Things he told them he had seen our Lord Christ in the Room where they were then, with his fleshly Eyes and spoke to him with his fleshly Tongue; and that our Lord Christ told him, be would come and appear in the Air over Water-Stratford.

and judge the World on Whitfunday following.

After this he looked out of his Chamber Window and faid the fame Things to the Multitude that stood underneath.

After this he was struck speechless, which was occasioned (as is supposed) by over talking himself; on which Dr. Paxton (a very eminent Physician) was fent for from Buckingbam, who came from visiting Mr. Mason to our House, and told my Father and Mother that Mr. Mason's Ail was a Squinancy, and that he would not recover, and he accordingly died of it.

He told his Auditory when he was alive, that he should rise the third Day after his Decease, and with his Body ascend into Heaven.

He was buried before the third Day, and several of his People averring that they had seen him and spoke to him after his Resurrection, on a Piece of Ground or Close behind the Parsonage-House, which they called Holy. Ground; his Successor, the Reverend Mr. Rushworth, thought proper to take his Body up, and had the Cossin opened, and shewed them the Corps. But this did not satisfy them, still they would meet on Holy-Ground, as they called it, and did so for sundry Years; and when Mr. Rushworth discharged them from coming there, they assembled in an House at Water-Stratford.

In the Year 1710 (fixteen Years after his Death) on a Sunday, my Mother and a neighbouring Lady went and faw them there, and they fung the same Hymns and made the same Noise, and went round in a Ring as they used to do.

There are none of them that now assemble on this Holy-Ground, as the Sect seems to be quite extinct for these last twelve Years. I need not tell you, that our Lord Christ did not appear as Mr. Mason said he would. I think the chief Thing this new Sect or Religion produced, was, That several Women had their Bellies raised, it being one of their fundamental Articles to have all Things in common amongst them.

In the History of England I meet with these Books printed about this Affair,

1. The Tryal and Condemnation of the two false Witnesses unto the late Midnight Cry, published by Mr. Mason, the Author of the present great Assembly in Buckinghamshire, who are met together under a deluding Expectation of Christ's coming to Judgment, on Whitsunday approaching. Licensed May 14, 1694. London, printed for R. Baldwin, 4to.

2. A Letter from a Gentleman near Water-Stratford in Buckinghamshire, to his Brother, Mr. Thomas Pickfatt, &c. of the Doctrine and Manner of Behaviour of Mr. Mason, Minister of Water-Stratford, with the Hymns they usu-

3. An Account of several remarkable Passages in the Life and Death of Mr. John Mason, late Minister of Water Stratford, as they were put in a Letter by his Sister-in-Law, &c. dated May 28, 1694, 4to, Linaan.

The Church here, dedicated to St. Giles, confifts of a Body, which is leaded; and a Chancel which is also leaded: At the West-Find is a low Tower, with a rifing tyled Roof, in which hang three modern Bells.

Over the Chancel Door is the Effigies of an Horse, in rude Frett-work; and over the Porch Door on the South-side, is a Man carved with two Angels ministring to him, but it is defaced.

WATER-STRATFORD RECTORES.

Ralph was Rector Anno 1240, 24 Hen. III, as was, as I find in old Deeds. Nicholas, Anno 1244. The first Rector in the Lincoln Register is Michael de Bukeby. He exchanged it for a Moyety of Bechampton Rectory. with

John

John de Dodington, 3 Id. April, 1340.

John Levitt died Rector, and was succeeded by John Legatt, of Towcester, 3 Id. Oct. 1561.

Edmund de Aylesbury was presented to the Church of St. Gyles, in Water-

Stratford on Legatt's Relignation, Off. 30, 1369.

Geffry, surnamed in the Kirne, was instituted to the Church of St. Giles in Water Stratford, on June 17, 1381. He died and was succeeded by Thomas Seman, instituted April 12, 1399. He exchanged it for Alkering-ton Co. Oxon, with

Edmund Barnesly, alias Pett or Potte, Feb. 20, 1401. He exchanged it for Tickencote, Co. Rutland, with Adam Golafere, March 20, 1403. He exchanged it for Sulby, Co. Northampton, with

William Brunne, Jan. 8, 1403. He exchanged it for Chickfand, Co. Bedford, with Richard Raxon, July 2, 1404. He exchanged it for Basilden Vicarage, Co. Berks, with

John Wellcombe, Ost. 14, 1411. He exchanged it for Sutterby, Co. Lincoln, with Geffry Davenport, May 12, 1412.

John Robyns refigned it Anno 1440, and was succeeded by Henry Tame, instituted Feb. 15, 1440.

John Bechampton resigned it Anno 1449, and was succeeded by John Combe, May 28, 1449. He refigned it, and was succeeded by Robert Smith, instituted Dec. 5, 1450. He resigned it Anno 1455.

John Boddenbam, A. B. succeeded Jan. 25, 1455. He resigned it Anno 1459, and was succeeded by Richard Sedgesworth, instituted May 18, 1559. He resigned it and was

fucceeded by

John Colyns, instituted Sept. 16, 1464. He resigned it Anno 1465, and was succeeded by

John Jecok, instituted May 17, 1465. He resigned it Anno 1480, and was fucceeded by John Nutheam, instituted Off. 15, 1480.

Thomas Ashton succeeded and resigned it Anno 1489, and was succeeded by John Arrowsmith, Anno 1489. He died Anno 1506, and was succeeded by John Cull, instituted May 13, 1506, on the Presentation of the Abbat and Convent of Westminster, who succeeded to the Rights of the Priory of Luf-field, which had presented till Hen. VIIth's Time.

John Smith succeeded, being presented on the last Rector's Death, by William Tyler, Lessee-Tenant to Westminster-Abbey, May 23, 1528. He occurs Rector here, Anno 1546, and I suppose held it till Anno 1560, when William Birdesley or Baddisley was instituted Nov. 5, 1560, on the Queen's Title. He seems to have been presented a second Time, Anno 1565. He was, Anno 1561, returned as reliding at Westbury, where he was also Vicar.

348 HISTORY OF WATER-STRATFORD.

Richard Major was presented on the Death of the last Incumbent not named, and instituted Jan. 5, 1592, on the Presentation of Dr. Edward Buckley, Prebendary of Westminster, (which Church, it seems to me, on Account of their having been Possessor of Lussield Priory, set up a Title.) He was buried here Off. 5, 1616, and succeeded by

Robert Sibthorp, D. D. the King's Chaplain, presented by Sir Arthur Throckmorton, Anno 1616. He was a noted Divine, and an eminent Preacher, as may be seen in A. Wood, &c. He resigned it Anno 1627, and dying Anno 1662, was buried at Burton-Latimers, Co., Northampton, April 25, without any Memorial. He was succeeded in this Rectory by Samuel Marshall, presented Anno 1627, by the Lady Throckmorton. He resigned it Anno 1642, being made Vicar of North Dodford, Co. Northampton, where he died and was buried 1679. His Successor here

was

Walter Taylor, A. M. instituted April 7, Anno 1642, on the Cession of Marshall, on the Presentation of Sir Peter Temple, Knight and Baronet.

William Joanes or Jones succeeded Anno 1651. He died Anno 1661, and was succeeded by

John Price, instituted May 2, 1661, on Jones's Death, on the Presentation of Anne, Wise of Thomas Viscount Baltinglass. He was also Vicar of Westbury, which last he resigned, Anno 1669. He died and was buried here

August 22, 1674, and succeeded by

John Mason, A. M., Vicar of Stanton-Barry, instituted Jan. 28, Anno 1674, on the Presentation of Anne Viscountes Baltinglass; of whom I have spoken already, and of his enthusiastical Doctrines and Seduction of the People in the Neighbourhood. He was buried here May 22, 1694, and succeeded by Isaac Rushworth, A.M. instituted Dee. 19, 1694, on the Presentation of the Lady Anne Viscountes Baltinglass. He died and was buried here Aug.

21, 1720, and fucceeded by

Benjamin Hart or Heart, A. M. instituted Sept. 12, 1720. He was buried here Nov. 26, 1732, and succeeded by pleafin

Thomas Green, A. M. the present Vicar, Anno 1735, inducted March 12, 1732-3, on the Presentation of Sir Richard Temple, Bart. Lord Viscount Cobham. He is also Vicar of Burton-Dercet, Co. Warwick.

WEST.

WESTBURY,

HAT is Municipium Occidentale, or the West-borough or Fortress: It is thus described in Doomsday-Book:

Terra Episcopi Bajocensis, in Stodsield Hundred.

In Westbury tenet Rogerius de Episcopo ii Hidas et Dimidium, pro uno Manerio. Terra est vii Carucatarum. In Dominio sunt ii, et iv Villani, cum iii Bordariis, babentibus v Carucatas. Ibi unus Servus. Pratum v Carucatarum. Silva cl Porcorum. Valet 3 l. Quando recepit 1s. Tempore Regis Edwardi iii l.

Hoc Manerium tenuit Alnoldus Cilt, Teignus Regis Edwardi.

Roger holds of the Bishop of Baieux two Hides and a half in West-bury for one Manor. The Arable is seven Carucates, two are in Demesne, and there are four Copyholders or Villans and three Cottagers or Borders. There is one Servant. five Carucates of Meadow. Mast for an hundred and fifty Hogs. It is worth 3 l. when he received 50 s. In King Edward's Time 3 l.

Alnold Cilt, a Thane of King Ed-ward's, held this Manor.

The Bishop of Baieux as before-mentioned being outed, Anno 1088, I make no Question but that his Tenant, who was Roger de Ivery, Lord of Radelisse and Thornton, came into his Possessinant who being Sharer with his great Friend Robert de Oily in his Fortunes, his Descendants for that Reason joined with him and his Family in their religious Foundations.

The Successor to this Roger was, as is already shewn in Radcliffe, Geffry, his Son; who dying Anno 1112, 12 Hen. I, that King gave his Barony of St. Wallery, to Guy de St. Wallery; to whom succeeded Reginald, Bernard, and Thomas de St. Wallery, which last dying without Issue Male, Anno 1220, 4 Hen. III, I find this Manor of Westbury came into the Possession of Ralph de Hareng, who being Lord hereof, as may be seen in the Register of Oseney, consistend to that Monastery duas Partes Dominica de Westbury de dono Doyleorum et Rogeri de Ivery et Episcopi et Capituli Lincoln. This Ralph de Hareng was Steward of the Barony of St. Wallery, under the aforesaid Thomas de St. Wallery, Anno 1202.

In the Beginning of Hen. III'ds Reign, about the Year 1225, he is called Lord of Westbury, and returned to hold Villatam de Westbury de Comite Marshall de Honore Giffard; and being a great Benefactor to Monasteries, he gave to Catesby Priory in the County of Northampton, the Assart of the Park and Wood at Westbury, which lay there between the Lands of the Abbats of Oseney and Bitlesden, which Donations with other Gifts to Catesby, were confirmed by Charter of Hen. III, Anno 1271.

The Rents that this Monastery of Catesby had here, were Anno 1291 returned to be 2 l. 13 s. 4 d. and that he, viz. Ralph Hareng, was the Donor of the Church here to the Monastery of Ellenstow, Co. Bedford, I make no Doubt; and that that Convent having Possession thereof, soon got it appropriated (about the Year 1222) to their House, and procured a perpetual Vicar to be ordained.

The Profits of the Rectory reserved to them were returned to be 61. 125. Ad.

This Ralph deHareng was also a Benefactor of Lands here to the neighbouring Priory of Luffields, viz. of two Acres of Wood; and here were likewise other Donors of Lands to Luffield, viz. Walter de Westbury, Sir James le Savage, Knight, Hugh, Filius Walteri Bustard, William de Covele, &c. tho' all their Donations here were Anno 1468, 8 Edw. IV, as in the Rental of Luffield, (about twenty Years before its annexing to Westminster-Abbey) returned to be only 6s. 8d. Value; as were the Bitlesden Rents here, Anno 1534, 25 Hen. VIII, a little before the Dissolution returned to be 1l. 10s. The Donor of these Lands to Bitlesden, was Hugh de Chastillon, Lord of Lekbampsted, Anno 1266, 5 Hen. III, since whose Reign I find no more Alienations of Lands here to Religious Houses; and really in this Parish there seems to have been so much bestowed, that little remained to the Temporal Lords, whom I now return to give some Account of.

These were, besides Ralph de Hareng (who I find was either himself living, Anno 1294, 33 Hen. III, or a Son of both his Names) the Family of the Stranges; for I find about the Year 1310, 3 Edw. II, Eubulo L'Estrange seized of this Manor h, of which he died possessed Anno 1332, 6 Edw. III. And that Anno 1374, 49 Edw. III, Roger L'Estrange; Baron of Knockyn, Lord of Burcester, granted and confirmed to his Son, John L'Estrange and Maud his Wise, this Manor of Westbury, babendum to them and their Heirs.

Tempore Ric. II, Alan L'Estrange was Lord here, and made a long Entail of this Manor on his Family, as appears in the Fines, Anno 1396, 19 Ric. II, though I find it in the next Reign, viz. Hen. IV, in the Hands of the Shelleys, for the King bestowed the Manor of Westbury, of the Value of twenty Marks a Year, forseited by the Treason of Sir Thomas Shelly, on John Cope. However it reverted back again to Alan L'Estrange, and he died seized thereof, Anno 1416, 3 Hen. V. And in his Family (as may be seen in Dugdale's Warwickshire) the Estates continued till they passed in Marriage by the Heires of L'Estrange to the Mordants, among which was this Manor in par-

cular, being the Property of Sir L'Estrange Mordant; he sold it about 1613, the eleventh Year of King James the first, to Laurence Washington, Esq; who dying possessed thereof, Anno 1519, his Son and Successor conveyed it Anno 1639, to Sir Thomas Lyttelton, after whose Death his Son and Successor Sir Henry Lyttelton, in Conjunction with his Mother the Lady Katherine Lyttelton (who had also about 1642 purchased the ecclesiastical Manor of John Wellesvorne's Heirs) conveyed all their Right and Property herein to Roger Price, by Deed, dated May 21, 1650. And in his Family, Anno 1735, it still remains, the present Possessor hereof being Campbell Price, Esq; his Great-Grandson.

But besides this Manor, I find the Rectory also so styled, and that it has passed as such in Conveyances: This was, with other Estates, granted by Letters Patent of Hen. VIII, Anno Regni 33, 1542, after the Dissolution of Ellenstow Monastery to John Wellesborne, in Exchange for the Manors of Mixbury and Fullwell; from whose Family (which occurs possessed of it in King James the first's Time) it passed in Marriage by Philippa, Daughter and Heir of John Wellesborne, to . . . Sill, who presented to this Church, Anno 1642; though soon after I find this Estate also in the Possession of Six Thomas Lyttelton, Bart. viz. Anno 1643, who suffered much for his Loyalty, by being plundered by the Rebels in that Year, at his Seat in this Place.

After his Death, which happened in 1649, his Lady the aforesaid Dame Katherine and eldest Son and Heir, Sir H. Lyttelton, who succeeded him in his Title, conveyed their Right and Interest in the Rectory, Manor, and Advowson of Westbury, at the same Time as they had done in the Temporal Manor, by Deed dated May 21, 1650, to Roger Price the Elder, a Linen-Draper, in London, who settled here very soon after, and had Issue Roger Price his Son and Heir, born here Anno 1653, who was elected Member of Parliament for the Town of Bucks, Anno 1702, and dying Anno 1705, was succeeded by his eldest Son John Price, Esq; Gentleman Commoner of St. John's College, Oxon, who to the great Regret of all that knew him, dying in about a Year after his Father, was succeeded by his next Brother Thomas Price, Esq; on whose Death it descended, Anno 1733, to his eldest Son and Heir Campbell Price, Esq; the present Possessor.

The Family of Price have a good Seat here adjoining to the Church, which was before the Seat of the Lytteltons, and formerly the Rectorial House, and belonged to Ellenstow Monastery before 1540.

But besides these Demesses of the Family of Price, I find the Right Hon. Sir Richard Temple, Bart. Lord Viscount Cobham, seized of a Manor which he claims here, as he does over Radcliffe and other Manors, as Members antiently of the Honour of Walling ford; and since of the Honour of Ewelme, by Virtue of which he hath holden Courts: These Royalties, I presume, descended to him by Purchase, made by his Ancestors, in King James the sirst's Time.

Ex Informatione. Ex Evidentiis.

The

The Advowson of the Vicarage since the Dissolution of Ellenstow Monastery, being granted as aforesaid to Wellesbarne, was presented to by that Family, Anno 1579; and Anno 1593 in the Minority of the Heir of Wellefborne, by Anthony Greenway, Efq; whose Sister John Wellesborne had married, and so left him, as seems to me, in Trust for his Son John Wellesborne, who is returned to be Patron, Anno 1605.

Anno 1626 Wellesborne Sill was (as I conclude) Heir by his Mother to the Patronage of this Advowson, which he died seized of, as I find by an Inquisition taken at Oxford, which sets forth that Wellesborne Sill died March 4. 1634, Intestate, seized inter alia of Westbury Rectory and Advowson, and 2 Meffuages there, and that he left a Son, named Wellesborne Sill, aged 15 Years, 8 Months, and 20 Days; and so it being sold to Sir Thomas Lyttelton, Anno 1642, by the Family of Sill, and conveyed Anno 1650, by that Family to the Prices. They generously built the Vicarage House, Anno 1661, and augmented the Vicarage with the great Tythes, so that it is now worth above 60 l. per Annum.

Anno 1291, the Vicarage was estimated at only 3 Marks or 40s. Anno 1534, it was valued at 91. 17 s. 1 d. as it now stands charged for first Fruits.

This Parish was, Anno 1712, affested to the Land-Tax 1081. 15 s. 3d. The Number of Families were, as then returned to the Bishop of Lincoln, 40; and of Souls about 130.

This Parish is bounded North by Bitlesden and Turweston; West by Mixbury and Finemere, Co. Oxon; South by Water-Stratford; and East by Shalfron. It contains about 1400 Acres.

The Church, which is dedicated to St. Augustine the Monk, Archbishop of Canterbury, confifts of a Body and North Ile, which are leaded; and South Ile and Chancel, which are tyled. At the West-End is a small narrow Tower, with a floped leaded Roof, in which hang three little Bells, and a Saints Bell.

Here are no Inscriptions whatsoever or any thing memorable, except some Painting on the Minister's Desk of St. George, &c. and these Arms, Nebule, in Chief a Lion rampant, and 2 Roses quarterly.

The Inside of the Church, Chancel, and side Iles are plaistered over to the Beams of the Roof, and ceiled.

Here are some Lands in the Fields of 11. 125. Value, and a Mark paid from Bitlesden Parish, which are given to the Repairs of the Church.

In an old Will I find that Anno 1458, Alice, Wife of John Terry, appointed to be buried in the Church of St. Augustine, in Westbury, and gave some filver Spoons to her Son, living at Buckingbam.

In other old Wills I find mention of the Rood Light, St. Augustine's, St.

Nicholas's, and St. Christopher's Lights in this Church.

WESTBURY VICARII.

But I come to the Account of the Vicars, taken out of the Registers of Lincoln.

Robertus Capellanus de Elnestow presentatur Anno 1225, 9 Hen. III, per Abatissam et Conventum de Elnestow, ad perpetuam Vicariam de Westbiry Ordinatam per Rev. Dominum Episcopum Austoritate Concilii.

Alexander last Vicar died, and was succeeded by Hugh de Ekeney, instituted 8 Cal. Oct. Anno 1272, 56 Hen. III.

William de Hornesend was succeeded by John Northampton instituted March 4, Anno 1294, on William the last Vicar's Death.

John Stormsworth resigned it Anno 1329, and was succeeded by Richard Pageyn instituted 7 Cal. Dec. Anno 1329.

Thomas Malesore succeeded on the Death of Richard last Vicar, and was instituted 3 Non. Sept. Anno 1361. He exchanged it for Akeley with

Robert Pye, de Bucks, Feb, 10, Anno 1370. His Successor was William Huberd, who exchanged it for West Peckbam, in Kent, with

William Alleyn, Sept. 2, Anno 1372, but he took it again, for I find

John Barkere instituted Dec. 13, Anno 1375, on William Huberd's Death. He exchanged it for St. Thomas the Martyr's Vicarage, in Portsmouth, with

Thomas Andrew alias Hoobate, Dec. 8, Anno 1380. He is called Vicarius Santii Augustini de Westbury. He exchanged it for Adwell, with Nicholas Jowell, alias Basford, Nov. 30, Anno 1381. He died Anno 1381, and was succeeded by

Simon

Simon de Scoter, instituted Dec. 29, Anno 1388. He exchanged it for St. Gregory's Church in Northampton, with John Twenge, June 24, Anno 1394. He exchanged it for Cotes, with

Edmund Polle, Sept. 30, the same Year 1394. He exchanged it for Westcot-Barton, Co. Oxon, with Thomas Timberland, Sept. 20, Anno 1397. He exchanged for Fulbrook.

Co. Warwick, with

John Greene, Sept. 7, Anno 1398. He exchanged it for Fridlesham, Co.

Berks, with

Adam Romney, Dec. 16, Anno 1406. The next I find is John Wylyton. He exchanged it for Godington, Co. Oxon, with

Henry Emmot, June 10, Anno 1441. His Successor was

Thomas Laurence, instituted Sept. 22, Anno 1443.

John Colyns refigned it Anno 1447, and was succeeded by William Atewell, instituted June 6, Anno 1447.

William Difney died Vicar, Anno 1475, and was succeeded by John Panell, instituted March 7, Anno 1473. He resigned it Anno 1478, and was fucceeded by Roger Austin, instituted Nov. 15, Anno 1478. He resigned it Anno 1484,

and was fucceeded by

David Knapton, instituted Nov. 4, Anno 1484. The next that occurs is John Baudyn, on whose Death, Anno 1503, William Challenner, or Chaundler was instituted, Nov. 5, Anno 1503, as Oliver Greyson, instituted Sept. 24, Anno 1510, on Chaundler's Death. John Smith succeeded on Greyson's Resignation, Jan. 12, 1517.

John Crise, A.M. was instituted in Jan. Anno 1520, on Smith's Resignation

John Man was instituted Aug. 28, Anno 1533, on Crise's Resignation.

William Baddisley was instituted July 3, Anno 1539, on Man's Resignation; and he is the last presented by the Convent of Ellenstow, which presented all the preceding Vicars.

As to Baddisley, he occurs Vicar here, and also Rector of Water-Stratford, Anno 1565. He resided here in the Year 1561, but I suppose quitted it in the Year 1575, when, as I find

Ralph Turner was presented on the Queen's Title, OEt. 23, Anno 1575, I presume on Baddisley's Disqualification to hold both Benefices.

Richard Major was presented by John Wellisborn the Patron, on Turner's Resignation, and instituted Aug. 7, Anno 1579. He quitted it for Water-

Stratford, and was succeeded by Richard Crokett, A. B. instituted June 2, Anno 1593, on Major's Refignation. He was presented by Anthony Greenway, Esq, who had married a Daughter of John Wellisborne. He occurs Vicar Anno 1614, as does his Successor the next Year, who was

Thomas

Thomas Daunce, but I have not his Institution. He continued Vicar from the Year 1615 to 1641; when in his Will, dated Mar. 11, that Year, he appointed to be buried in the Chancel here.

Richard Baldwin, A. B. succeeded, being instituted Aug. 5, Anno 1642, on the Presentation of Philippa Sill, Widow, on the Death of Thomas Daunce.

John Pilkington succeeded Anno 1646. He occurs Vicar 1649; and as I presume, quitted it for Swanburne Vicarage.

John Maddocks was instituted June 22, Anno 1661, on the Resignation of Pilkington, on the Presentation of Roger Price, Esq;

John Price, A. M. was instituted Oct. 2, Anno 1667, on the Death of John Maddocks. He resigned it being also Rector of Water-Stratford, Anno 1670, and was succeeded by Thomas Thistlethwayte, A. B. instituted Jan. 26, Anno 1670, on the Presentation of Roger Price, Esq. He died Anno 1691, and was buried here

June 23, 1691, and succeeded by William Price, A. M. instituted Nov. 20, 1691. He resigned it being made Rector of Whitfield, and was succeeded by Nathaniel Markwick, A.M. July 14, Anno 1692, on the Presentation of Roger Price, Esq. He resigned it Anno 1694, and was succeeded by Isaiab Knibbe, A. M. instituted June 4, Anno 1094, on the Presentation of Roger Price, Esq. He died and was buried here Dec. 11, 1714, and succeeded by

Nathaniel Claridge, A B. instituted May 6, Anno 1715, on the Presentation of Thomas Price, Esq. He died in the Year 1733, at Tadcaster, Co. York, on his Return from Scarborough, and was there buried; and succeeded by the present Vicar, 1735, viz.

John Ellis, A. B. inducted Oct. 20, 1733, on the Presentation of Camp.

APPENDIX.

In Order to render the foregoing History of the Town and Hundred of BUCKINGHAM more compleat, I shall here subjoin, by Way of Appendix, some antient Deeds therein referred to; together with such Additions and Corrections as I have been favoured with since these Sheets went to the Press: And as I have in every Parish exhibited a Transcript of Doomsday-Book, it may not be improper to give an Explanation of certain Terms which are made Use of in that most antient and authentick Record. The Chief of which are these which follow.

SOME hold an Dive to contain 4 yard Land, and some an 100, or 120 Acres; some account it to be all one with a Carucate or Plough Land:
But Sir Edward Coke in his Institut. 1st. fol. 69, says, as a Plough can till more in one County than in another, according as the Soil is light or stiff, a Plough Land, Part Land, &c. contains no certain Number of Acres.

By Statute 7th and 8th Will. III, Cap. 29, a Plough-Land is reckoned 50 l. per Annum, to all Purposes within any Statutes concerning High-Ways.

Tirgata, or Yard-Land, whereof 4 made an Hide, was in different Counties 15, 20, 30, or 40 Acres, as it is said in Jacob's Law Distionary.

From the Terms Dive, Carutate, Bovate, &c. so often occurring in Boomson; Book, it appears that the primitive Husbandry here confisted chiefly in Tillage or Arable Culture; and to this our Ancestors were very rationally determined from experiencing that no Production of the vegetable Kingdom contributed to the Support of animal Life equal to Corn and the Legumens. A farther Inducement to this Sort of Husbandry was its Usefulness to the Publick as well as to Individuals, in that it provided more Hands, prevented Idleness, augmented Tythes, multiplied the People, and raised an hardy Race of Men, patient of Cold and Heat, and thereby fit for the Desence of their Country.

Among

Among the Romans some of the Senators disclained not to put their Hands to the Plough. Our own Laws in Favour of Tillage are so old, that we cannot trace their Original. The great Selden in his Janus Anglorum, setches it from Donwallo Malmutius and his Son Relinus, who are said to have lived 500 Years before the Birth of our Saviour; and says that he ordained that Ploughs, Temples, and Ways, should have the Privilege of Sanctuary: And he the said Relinus, lest the Land should wax empty, constituted how many Ploughs each County should have; and forbad that Beasts that served the Plough should be distrained. And even at this Day the Averia: Carucae Plough Beasts remain privileged above any other Cattle, as our present, as well as antient Laws give Arable Lands the Pre-eminence and Precedency to Meadows, Pastures, and all other Lands.

The Distribution of England by Hides of Lands is very antient, mention being made thereof in the Laws of Ina, a West Saxon King, about the Year 690, Cap. 14. And we find the same Stile and Way of Reckoning throughout this grand Roll of the Kingdom called Doomfoay Book; fo that the Admeasurement, Estimations, and Valuations of Estates, seem to have been at first derived from the Plough; and these Measures to have been so regarded as to be a Standard for antient Surveys, and even a Rule for Taxations; for though the Knights: Fees brought in with them Wards and Marriages, yet they were made up of 5 or 6 Carucates or 19ioes a Piece: And the respective Tenants paid for so many Plough Lands or Carucates as were at first computed, so that the Plough upheld all, till that stupendous Act which swept away Monasteries, whose Lands, and Tythes, being made the Possession of private Men, encouraged them to augment their Revenues by inclosing and converting Arable into Pasture, which as it diminishes the yearly Fruits, so it doth the People; for we may observe a Lordship in Tillage affords double the yearly Fruits it can in Pasture; for in Pasture little Charges goes out of it, whereas in Tillage Abundance of People must be maintained. This Practice, viz. of enclosing, caused the Decay of Tillage, and consequently depopulating of Places, which occafioned fo many Statutes to be made in Queen Elizabeth's Time, &c. for maintaining Husbandry and Tillage, as the Title of one of them sets forth.

memeasne or Demain, or Dominicum hath diverse Significations; but the most common one is to fignify the Lord's chief Seat or Mansion, with the Lands belonging to it, which the Lord kept and reserved for his own Use, in Opposition to such Lands as were held by Services.

millant generally fignifies Copyholders, who were free against all Men but their Lords. This Word is also taken in another Acceptation, for several millant were free by Tenure, and might dispose of their Lands, with their Lord's Leave, though they were not absolved from doing customary Services yearly, as ploughing their Lord's Lands, doing his Carriages, &c.

Burgenses, by this Word is meant only Inhabitants in Cities or Boroughs, and under this Title are described the principal Persons of a Town;

whereas by the Word

Bordarii are implied only Cottagers or Boors, who held a little House of Husbandry, with some Land bigger than a Cottage, on Condition they should supply their Lord with some small Provision for his Bord or Entertainment.

Scrui were prædial Servants, who performed fuch Service and Works as their Lords required, and had nothing but what they gained or acquired by the Good-Will of their Lords, who fed and kept them.

As to the Word Teignus, which is so often mentioned in Doomson Book, there were several Sorts of them, especially these 3 Ranks, viz. the king's Thane, who was equal to a Peer, or parliamentary Baron; the middle Thane, who bore Proportion to our greater Gentry; as the lesser Thane did to our smaller Gentry, or best Sort of Yeomen, whereof the Saxons had 3 Sorts, viz, noble, free, and service.

And as to unight's frees, so frequently occurring in this History, it denotes so much Inheritance as is sufficient to maintain a Knight with convenient Revenues, which in Henry the IIId's Time was 151. per Annum; but Sir Thomas Smith rateth it at 401. A unight's free contained 12 plough Land or 600 Acres of Land.

The most common Customs of every Manor were by the Saxons called soc or sacc; the first imports a Power or Liberty to administer Justice, as also the Circuit or Extent where such Power is exercised; the other implies a Privilege to hear Causes, and levy Amercements: And in Grants soc and sacc, always accompany each other.

Free Soccage is whereby a Parcel of Land is held by providing of Corn or other Provision for the Lord's Use, as Military or unight's Service is finding Arms or Men.

Of these Men called Sormen there ought to be some in every Court Baron, or Lords-Court now a Barons Court was called originally from the King's having a Court of the Thanes or Barons of his Manor, which was held antiently once in 3 Weeks, where the Barons, Thanes, Sormen and Banights attended, and where was exercised all Manner of Law requisite for the King's Tenants; though some have thought that the Name of the Court Baron is derived from a Baron's being always Lord of the Manor where it is held, and that the Style is Curia Baronis, and not Baronum.

Now as Tenements were occupied by People bred and born in the Village, they were called Hillani, and fince Pativi and Servi or Bondmen, being fuch as our Pushandmen, Peomen, or Farmers, are now. And the Cottages were held by what the Saxons called Bordarii, that is, Persons who like our Cottagers, held little or no Land; or they might be called Bordarii because they had their Meat where they worked: However these Bordarii were in every Respect, except their Lives, at the Will of their several Lords, who being weary of maintaining such numerous lazy Families, as divers of them grew to be, became in Process of Time, willing to manumit or make them free, or suffer them to hold their Lands under such Rents and Services as the Lords thought sit to impose, which being entered in their Court-Rolls, they made afterwards little Use of their Authority over them.

As to the Words Arfas and Pensatas which occur in some Parishes in this County in the Survey of them in Doomsoay Book, they may be thus accounted for.

Artura denoted the Trial of Money by Fire after it was coined, and thereby was meant lawful and approved Money; whose Alloy was tried by Fire.

The antient Way of paying Money into the Exchequer was either Pondere or Pumero, by Weight or Tale; hence at Pensam signifies such Payment by Weight wherein the Payer was obliged to make the Pound Sterling to be full 12 Ounces Troy; and this is opposed to the Payment of the Pound de numero, which imports 20 Ounces by the Tale.

We also meet with the Term at Scalant, which was used, when to save the Trouble of weighing, Six-pence was super-added to the Pound to Rumero, as a Medium for desective Weight. Thus the Sheriff is to pay practer quantitet Rumeratam Libram ser Denarios, by the Statute of William the First.

To this Explanation of Terms used in Doomsday-Book, I with great Pleafure add some ingenious Observations and Conjectures relative to this Subject, lately communicated to me by a learned Friend, to whose Perusal and Correction the last foregoing Pages were transmitted; many of them are entirely new; and when rightly considered, do restect much Light upon this obscure Subject.

"I am not at all satisfied that an Hibe, a Carucate, a Bobate, or a Part " Land, contained any certain determinate Number of Acres or Measure: The Meaning of the Words themselves are now so little known, and " antient Authors who have pretended to ascertain the Measure of each, have differed so very widely from one another, that 'tis almost impossible even to conjecture any thing to clear up this Matter. A Dibe and a Carucate (and sometimes a Bobate) have been generally taken to signify the same Thing, or Measure at least; but why I dont understand. I suppose it is certain that Dive is of Saxon, and Carucate of Norman Original; both Terms are used very frequently in Doomsday, in the Survey of the same Manor; and in many Instances it appears that they must have been meant in different Senses; and in those Instances where it does not appear fo, it feems strange that the Conqueror should call that a Carucate in the middle of his Survey, which he calls a Dive in the Beginning of the Survey of the same Manor. The Meaning of the ZzWord

"Word Carutate seems to be best known of any of the three, and to sig"nify so much Arable Land as as would employ a Plough a Year in tilling it. And in this Sense the Measure of such a Portion of Land must be "very uncertain, and different in different Places, according to the Na"ture of the Soil, the Difference of Husbandry, and other Circumstances.
"So when in the Survey of a Manor in Doomsday-Book, we read that there is Terra iii Carucatarum, I understand by it that three Ploughs were kept there, or were necessary to till the Arable Land of that Manor, and not that any certain Number of Acres or other Measures is meant by iii Carucates.

"How a Bonate differed from a Carucate I know not, but I think it was " not the same, or at least it was not always so. In Spelman's Gloss, an "Account is cited from an ancient MS. that viii Bobats made a Carneate. " and viii Acres a Bobate; if so, a Carucate must contain lxiv Acres of 46 Arable; but I think otherwise, for the Reasons abovementioned, and that " a Carucate had no fixed Measure; and what still confirms me more in "this Opinion is the vast Variety of Measure, and the great Difference of " Oyantity which we know to be in different pard Lands at this Day, and that not only in different Manors, but in one and the same Manor, when it is not unusual for some Darb Lands to consist of xx, and others of " xxx Acres of Land; and yet Authors have endeavoured to fix the Mea-" fure of a Dard-Land as much as of a Hide, a Carucate, &c. and have differed as much, or indeed more, in their Opinions concerning the 46 Quantity of Land contained in a Bard Land, which, I apprehend ne-" ver did contain any certain Quantity, but that Barb Lands also were 44 always of uncertain and different Measures, from the very begin-

Writers have not indeed been so liberal of their Opinions concerning the Meaning of the Term Pard Land, as they have concerning the Meafure of it; wherefore as I have not any eminent Authority to combat, I will venture to submit a Conjecture of my own, concerning the Meaning of the Word Pard Land, viz. that it is Terra quae tenetur per Mirst gam, as most of the Copyhold Land in the Kingdom now is; and Copyhold Ennentes per Hirgam; and the Latin Word Mirgata Terrae, which is badly translated Pard Land, does not fignify so (for Pard Land is in Latin Hirga Terrae) but it fignifies quod tenetur per Mirgam, that Land which is held by the Pard, Rod, or Mirge.

How Copyholo Land throughout the Kingdom came at first to be so generally held by the Kod as it is, I do not pretend to guess, unless the Rod was some Badge, or Emblem of Bondage or Slavery: But I have no Doubt but that those we now call Copyhologra, were originally Millains, for the very Nature of their Tenure, and the Form of the Grants to them, which is continued to this Day, imply it. The Grant to a

" Copyholder for Life, being to hold for his Life by the Rod, at the Will " of the Lord, according to the Cuffort of the Manor. And the Grant " to a Copyholder of Inheritance is, to holo to him and his Heirs by the Rod, at the Will of the Lord, &c. than which Grants nothing can be " more absurd, unless you suppose the Grantees to be Willains; for what " Sort of Property can a Man have for bis Life or to him and his Beirs, " who holds it at the Will of his Lord? Certainly none at all, for his " Life, or to his Heirs, it being held merely at his Lord's Will; but " supposing the original Grantees to be Willains, such Grants' are proper es enough, because Willains were incapable of any Property in Land but " at their Lord's Will; for, if a Stranger granted Land to a Willain his " Lord might seize it: And if the Lord himself granted his Willain any " greater Interest in Land than at Will, the Willain thereby became in-" franchised: Wherefore in Order to keep Willains in their State of Wil-" lenage, and to preserve their Lord's Power over them; and yet to give " those that deserved well the Appearance of some Sort of Property in "Land, this Sort of contradictory Grant and Tenure was invented. But 46 the Grantees were for many Ages mere Tenants at Will, and turned out 46 arbitrarily by their Lords without any Reafon, and had no Sort of Be-" nefit by the Words for Life, or to them and their heirs, but of holding " the Estate in those Manors if the Lord pleased; whereas Time and Cu-" from have now so much turned the Tables, as to intitle them to " the beneficial Part of the Grant for Life and in free, and to render " the Words at the Mill of the Lord useless. If therefore all Pard-Lands " were originally held by the Rob, and therefore Coppholos, or of the " Nature of the present Coppholos, and that they were, I have met with " Abundance of Instances; and if they were originally granted by Lords " to their Willains in the Manner I have above supposed. The Term " Dard Land could never signify any Measure or Quantity of Land; but " on the contrary, rather fignified a Portion of Land of uncertain Quantity " and Measure, such and so much as a Lord pleased to grant to his willain, " to hold at his Lord's Will.

"Bordarii Mr. Spelman observes to be a Norman Word, and that in Doomsay (when it occurs there) it is always placed after Hillani; and probably from thence it may be inferred that they were inferior to the Hillains in Rank; the Difference between them at first might be that the Hillains who held it at the Will of the Lord, after Payment of the Rents, and doing the Services reserved, enjoyed their Estates to their own Use, as long as they were permitted to enjoy them; whereas the Hordarit were occupied in raising Provision for the Lord's Table upon his Demains, without having any thing to their own Use. The Estates the Hillains had were also originally Parcel of the Lord's Demain; all Copybold Cstates, even at this Day, are in Law, Part of the Demains of the Manor where they lie. The Pativi were those who were born Hillains; Bondi those who made themselves so by Compact. All Z z 2 these different Sorts were frequently called by the general Name of Utile lains, and are by the Law divided into two Sorts, viz. Utiliains regard-ant, and Millains in gross; of these, Millains regardant were such as always belonged to and pass'd along with some Manor. But the Millains in gross belonged to the Person of their Lord.

"That the Borbarti were employed in raising Provision for their Lord's
"Table, seems to be implied by the Name; and if we consider that at "the Time of making Doomsday-Book, the Generality of Rents were reserved in Victuals, and not in Money; this will somewhat strengthen the Conjecture that the Business of the Borbarti was probably to take "Care of Provision for their Lord's Table.

The pativi, Bondi, and Servi, who feem to be three Ranks of Miles inferior to the Millani and Bordarii, were probably employed in inferior Offices, such as cutting and carrying the Lord's Fewel.

P. 172, l. 5, f. 90, r. 60.

P. 173, The Award made for uniting the Parish Church to the Priory Church, and making the Priory Church the Parochial Church, is as follows. And after that is the Appropriation of the Parish of Chetwood, from the Registers of Lincoln.

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN: Whereas I John, Bishop of Lincoln, appointed Arbiter and Judge between the religious Men, Peter Caversham, Abbat of the Monastery of our blessed Lady and St. John Baptist, of Notley, of St. Augustine's Order, within our Diocese of Lincoln, and the Convent of the same Place, Proprietors of the Parish Church of old Time Conventual of Chetwood, together with the Chapel of St. Martin, depending on the same Church, of the one Party, and William Newenbam, Esq. Fulk Wodebill, and Anne his Wife, and John Wodebill, of the other Party, indifferently chosen and elected, to judge and appoint indifferently between the faid Parties, of and for the Celebration of the divine Sacraments and Sacramentals; and of the ministring, receiving, and taking up of other ecclefiaftical Rights in the faid Parish Church and Chapel; and also for the coming of the Parishioners thither in the same Church and Chapel for the hearing of their divine Service, and for receiving of holy Sacraments, and for making of their Oblations of Offerings there, have of late fet forth in writing our Decree, Ordinance, and Judgment, of and for the Premises, and for all other Matters, more fully contained within the same Decree or Judgment; the Tenure whereof followeth, and is thus,

To all Christian People to whom this present Writing indented shall come, John, Bishop of Lincoln, and Keeper of the King's privy Seal, sendeth greeting, in our Lord God everlasting; whereas Peter Caversham, Abbat of the Monastery of our Lady, and St. John Baptist, of Notley, on the one Party, and William Newenbam and Fulk Wodehill, on the other Party, were bounden each to the other in the Sum of 200 Marks by their several Obligations, that the said Abbat and Convent of Notley aforesaid, and the said William Newenbam, Fulk Wodehill, and Anne, Wife of the same Fulk, and one John Wodehill, on that other Party, should keep, hold, and obey the Arbitrement, Ordinance, and Judgment of the said Bishop, Arbitrator between the said Parties, indifferently chosen, as well of and upon the Right, Title, Possession, and Interest of all such divine Service, as the said William, John Wodebill, Fulk, and Anne, or any of them. claim to be found, done, or caused to be done, by the said Abbat, his Predecessors or Successors in any Place, and of the Title of Distress claim'd in any Lands or Tenements of the faid Abbot, for the non-doing of the faid Service, or any Parcel of them, as of the Right, Title, and Possession of all the Lands, Tenements, and Advowsons, being in Variance between the faid Parties in Chitwood, in the County of Bucks; and also and upon all Manner of Actions, Demands, and Causes of Actions, special and temporal between the faid Parties had, moved, or depending: And we the faid Bishop, taking upon us the Labour and Charge of such Arbitrament, at the special Request and Desire of both Parties, for the Rest. Tranquillity, and Ease of them, their Servants, and Tenants, Parishioners of Chitwood, the Titles, Claims, and Interest of either Parties, of and upon the Premises by us heard, examined, and understood; award, or-dain, and deem, in Manner and Form following.

thop,

First, That the Church, late Conventual of the Priory of Chitwood, shall be and abide for evermore, the Parish Church for Administration of all Sacraments and Sacramentals, and other divine Service pertaining to the Parishioners of Chitwood, to be had and ministred according to the Form, Tenor, and Effect of a Decree of Union by John Chadworth, our Predecessor thereof, late made; and that the old Church of St. Martin, in Chitwood. aforesaid, shall be reputed and taken a Chapel, depending of the said fometime Conventual now Parish Church newly reared, as long as the said Chapel, at the Costs and Charges of the Parishioners aforesaid, shall be repaired and sustained in Ornaments, and other Dues requisite to a Chapel; and that the faid Parishioners and Inhabitants now being, and their Successfors, shall take and repute the faid Church, late Conventual and now Parish Church, for their Parish Church, and none other for Sacraments and Sacramentals, to be perceived, and divine Service at convenient Times, there to be heard; and also that the said Parishioners and Inhabitants, and their Successors, shall pay all their Tythes and Oblations, which of old Time they ought or were accustomed yearly to yield to the faid Priory, or to their immediate Curate of Chitwood, to the Parish Church, late Conventual, and now Parochial. And also the faid Abbot and his Successors shall not be charged in Administration of Sacraments nor Sacramentals, nor doing of divine Service, or other Rights parochially in the faid Chapel of St. Martin, except such as be underwritten; that is to say, that the said Abbat and his Successors shall provide, that in the festival Days following of the Year, that is, to wit, in the Fealt of the Nativity of our Lord, the Feast of Epiphany, called Twelfth Day, Purification of our Lady, Easter-Day, Ascension of our Lord, Whit/unday, Trinity-Sunday, Corpus Christi Day, Relicke-Sunday, the Assumption of our Lady, Nativity of our Lady, Allballowen-Day, the Dedication of the Chapel, and the Feast of St. Martin in the Winter, in whose Honour the said Chapel is dedicate. divine Service, that is to fay, Matins and Mass in the said Chapel shall be done at the Cost and Charge of the said Abbat and his Successors for evermore; provided always, that the faid Parochians shall come to Procession and high Mass upon their Offering-Days at Seasons in the said Parish of Chitwood, of old time accustomed, and do their Oblations in the said now Parish Church of Chitwood, after the Mass said in the said Chapel. Also that the Feast of Dedication as well of the said Chapel as of the faid Parish Church, shall be kept and served with divine Service yearly upon one Day; that is to fay, the same Day of May that the Dedication of the faid Chapel, sometime Parish Church, was wont to be solemnized in; also the said Abbat and Convent of the House of Notley, by their Indenture under their common Seal, shall make a sufficient and fure Grant in the Law, to the faid John Wodebill and his Heirs for That the Abbat and his Successors shall cause every Day by the Year. (Christmas Day, Easter-Day, and two Days next before Easter-Day and Ascension-Day only excepted) one of the Canons of Notley, to make and fav a special Commemoration in the Mass of Requiem, or other Mass, for the Souls of the Ancestors and Heirs of John Chitwood, Knt. in the Name and Place of the Chanon, which the said John Wodebill claimeth to have, within the Priory of Chitwood, by an old Deed which we have seen. And that the said William Newenbam and Fulk shall deliver. or cause to be delivered and restored, to the said Abbat and Convent the said Deed, whereby the faid Fulk Wodebill claimeth to have the faid Chanon found finging in the faid Priory of Chitwood; this to be done of either Party at this faid Feast of Easter next to come. Also it shall be lawful to the faid Abbat and his Successors, to remove the Font baptismal from the Chapel of St. Martyn to the said Parish Church; and that the Chancel of the faid Chapel be taken down, as well Timber, Stone, Walls, Lead, Seats, within the faid Chapel Chancel, as other things to the same belonging, and them to carry away to the said Parish Church for the Reparation of the same; provided always, that as much of the Stone and Stuff of the faid Chancel be left there as shall fuffice to close the East-End of the same Chancel, betwixt the two Altars in the same Chapel now being, and that neither the said Abbat nor his Successors, Fulk Wodebill, his Heirs, neither the Parochians of Chitwood, at any Time hereafter, shall cast down Trees growing in the Cemetry of the said Chapel, but shall suffer the said Trees now there growing, and that hereafter shall grow, to remain and stand still to defend Winds and Tempests. And that it shall be lawful to the said Abbat and Convent to take them as their own; and that the faid Fulk and his Heirs shall have the Profit of the Grass of the Cemetry of the said Chapel, whereby he and his faid Heirs shall discharge the said Abbat and his Successors of the Reparation of the Clausure of the same Cemetry, and every Part thereof. And also that the said Fulk Wodebill, his Heirs and Assigns and Parochians of the said Town of Chitwood, shall have Ways by us or our Deputies to Вьь be affigned, over and thro' the Closures and Pastures of the said Abbat and Convent to go to the said Parish Church, and from thence when and as often as they shall liken and please; and that the said Fulk and Parishioners shall make or cause to be made, all such Yate and Yates at the Entre and Out-Gate of the said Closes and Pastures, as by us or our said Deputy shall be thought necessary; and the said Yate and Yates, so made, to be kept and sustained at the Costs and Charges of the said Parochians for ever; reserving to us and our Successors, Bishops of Lincoln, the Assignation and Limitation of the said Ways, so as they shall always endure unto any Time between this Day and Michaelmas next to come; and also Power to declare any Ambiguity or Doubt which might happen in any of the Premises at any Time to come hereafter.

Finally, we deem and award, that either of the said Parties keeping the Premises, by them and their Heirs, in Manner and Form afore expressed, be quit and discharged against other, of and for all Manner of Trespasses and Offences, done by any of them to others, before the Feast of St. Michael last past. In Witness whereof, as well we the said Arbitrators to either Part of this Indenture, as the said Abbat and his Convent, and William Newenbam, for him and all other of his Party before rehearsed, to the same interchangeably have set our Seals. Given the 29th Day of November, in the twentieth Year of the Reign of King Edward the Fourth.

But afterwards the said Parties appearing sufficiently before us, and accepting our Arbitration and Ordinance in the Premises, have humbly and instantly required and prayed us, that we would vouchfafe to confirm and strengthen for ever, with our ordinary Authority, our faid Arbitrament and Decree, with every Branch and Article contained in the same Article: Wherefore, I the faid Bishop, wishing for my Part Tranquillity, Concord, and Rest, as well of the faid Parties as of the Inhabitants and Parishioners of the Church of Chitwood; Edmund Flower, John Bele, Henry Herring, Robert Warre, William Collys, Simon Coleburst, William Wellby, John Chandeler, and William Wykks, Inhabitants of the said Town of Chitwood and Parishioners there, appearing before us, in the Parish Church of Chitwood, have then and there accepted, allowed, and ratified, with one full Affent and Consent, for them, their Heirs and Successors, all and singular Matters decreed and ordained by us as is aforesaid in the said Arbitrament: And we for our Part do confirm and allow with our ordinary pontifical Authority, all and fingular Decrees and Ordinances contained in the faid Arbitrament, strictly commanding and charging, that all and fingular Articles in the said Arbitrament contained and specified, be for ever inviolably observed and kept of the said Parties and their Successors; and also of the Parishioners of the Church of Chitwood, for the Time being. Furthermore, to the End that all Matter of Question or Doubt that may arise be-. tween the faid Abbat and Convent of Notley, and their Successors, and the Parishioners of Chitwood, may utterly be avoided by their own Will and Consent, of and for the repairing of the said Parish Church and Ornaments

Ornaments thereof, we will and ordain, and by our Authority do determine, that the Abbat and Convent of the Monastery of Notley, take upon them and acknowlege all and all Manner of Reparations of Navis Eccle. clesiae, the Parish Church conventual of Chitwood aforesaid, and the Steeple thereof, and of all Books and Vestments and other Ornaments, whatsoever they be, at their own proper Costs and Charges for ever, so that the Parishioners of Chitwood for the Time being be quitted for ever for repairing or building of the faid Church or Steeple, or from repairing or fultaining, and from buying of any Books, Vestments, or other Ornaments whatfoever they be; moreover, we intending to finish our said Arbitraments, within the Time appointed and limited to us for the same, do ordain, assign and determine that the Inhabitants of the Lord's House, or Manor of Chitwood aforesaid, and the Parishioners of the same for the Time being, may have free going through a great Close of the same Manor to the Parith Church, for the hearing of their divine Service; and also to have free ingress and regress through a certain Close of the said Abbat and Convent of Notley, called Churchbrigg, and to have the same Path-Way, by the which the Dwellers in the faid Manor, were wont of old Custom to come from the said Manor unto the Priory of Chitwood. Also that the Parishioners may have likewise coming and going through the fame Close, called Church-Breake, to the South-End of the same Close butting upon West-Green; and also to have their coming and going to the Church through another Close of the faid Abbat and Convent of Notley. called Town-Breche, upon the North Part of the same Close, butting upon West-Green, so that the Inhabitants of Chitwood may make on the East-Part of the same Close, one only Way through the same Close. In Witness whereof we have put our Seals to these Presents the 12th Day of March, Anno Domini 1480, and in the third Year of our Consecration.
